On the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue, between 9th and 10th streets.
THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, he has commenced the boot and shoe business in all its various branches on the south side of the avenue, opposite Wm. Marshall's auction store. My stock is all fresh new goods, just purchased at the north, and will be sold for a small advance on the cost price for cash, and cash only; for, in commencing business again, I intend to sell for cash, and not, as is too often the case, sell freely on credit, lose large sums of money, and then require cash or punctual customers to make up, in part at least, the losses sustained by the credit system. I have had at least six years' experience to convince me that the credit business, as conducted in this place, is neither just to the buyer nor seller—therefore my determination to do a cash business. I am determined to sell for exceedingly small profits, and sell quick, knowing that a nimble squire is better than a slow shilling. I respectfully ask of my friends and the public generally a share of their patronage.
