FOR THE GAZETTE. "ENDORSED" "EVERY EVENING."

Mr. Editor.—The editor of Every Evening seems to think that our meeting on Thursday night was an endorsement of his paper and of the editor, to our worthy president, Mr. Carpenter, I want to give the exact manner in which the meeting, "endorsed" Every Evening, as I looked in vain for it in the report of the meeting.

Again, when the committee to petition the City Council was appointed, some one in the audience assigned G. E. Cameron, junior proprietor of Every Evening, a position upon said committee which he accepted.

Mr. Editor, while the workmen of this city are opposed to the "City King," they are equally opposed to supporting the "Every Evening" reforming.
