

McCORMICK'S PLATFORM.

ARIZONA CITY, OCT. 22, 1870.

EDITOR CITIZEN:—At an adjourned county meeting held here last evening by all parties irrespective of political opinion, the following ticket was made up:

For candidate to council, Dr. W. H. Phillips.

For candidate to assembly, Charles Brinley and M. J. Dobbins.

For sheriff, James T. Dana.

For recorder, James Spann.

For Surveyor, Joseph Todd.

For constables, Frank Townsend and Charles Fox.

One vacancy in the assembly to be filled by a committee.

General Stoneman and staff are expected down on the steamer Cocopah to-morrow.

Don Aljandro Da Guerre's train arrived from Tucson to-day.

Charles Matthews, a teamster, was shot in a drunken affray a few nights ago, and has since died from the effects of his wound.

The political sentiment here appears to be almost unanimous in favor of McCormick for re-election. YUKI.

For the protection of journalists and others against the impostor Dooner, we mail this number of our paper to every journal in the States and Territories lying west of the Rocky Mountains, and many to the eastward.

WHAT McCORMICK HAS DONE FOR ARIZONA, IN AND OUT OF CONGRESS.

He has promptly and quite successfully attended to the personal commands of his constituents throughout the entire Territory, without respect to party or section.

He in like manner kept his constituents constantly supplied with public documents.

He obtained by law the establishment of twelve new postal routes, and secured service on several.

He secured several new post offices, three postal order offices, and a U. S. Depository, objects which were only obtained after great and persistent labor.

He secured an advance of from $2,500 to $3,000 on the judges' salaries—a very just act.

He obtained the passage of an Act confirming the apportionment, and legalizing any defects that were supposed to exist in the Territorial Statutes, and thereby saved the Territory from legal anarchy and financial ruin.

He procured the passage of an Act enlarging the jurisdiction of justices of the peace from $100 to $300, thereby speedily and cheaply bringing justice to the door of every person in Arizona.

He has constantly protested against the extension of the Pima and Maricopa reservation, and so far with success.

He has induced government to divert transportation of government freight from the Guaymas and Sonora to the Yuma and Gila route, thereby largely increasing the business of Arizona, especially that of farmers, teamsters, merchants, and station keepers.

He has secured the establishment of a separate surveying district in Arizona, the doubling of the appropriation for surveys, and the appointment of Surveyor General, Receiver and Register.

He obtained from congress $2,500 to increase our Territorial library.

He largely contributed, by constant and continued effort, to the creation of the Military Department of Arizona.

By his determined persistence, he secured a $5,000 appropriation for geological surveys in Arizona, and the sending of an experienced geologist, Prof. A. Eilers, to report upon our mineral wealth, a report that will be of incalculable benefit to the Territory.

Besides taking part in many debates, he has delivered three able and elaborate speeches in behalf of protection to our settlers, and for public land and mineral surveys, and in each he set forth the great natural merits of the Territory, and at his own expense, scattered them far and wide throughout the nation.

Through the medium of public journals and pamphlets, he has done more than any man in Arizona to disabuse the public mind regarding the too prevalent belief that Arizona is a desert waste in the main.

He has expended all his time and money since 1863, to advance the interests of, and improve Arizona, and is one of the largest tax payers in it.

For over seven years, he has devoted his time, money, great ability and energy for Arizona, and therefore scores upon scores of his beneficial acts must be unnoticed for the want of space.

Every one of the five Legislatures which has assembled in Arizona, has endorsed him in the highest and most thorough manner, and never has he been charged by any respectable man or body of men, with having debased himself as an officer or man by any official deed. Not any public man ever made a fairer or more upright record than McCormick. His future one will be as good as his past.

CAREFULLY read the many testimonials of Hon. R. C. McCormick in this number of the CITIZEN.

McCormick North of the Gila.

PRESCOTT, OCT. 22, 1870.

ED. CITIZEN:—At McDowell and Phenix, Gov. McCormick was cordially received. At the former place, he was the guest of Col. Sanford, who says he never thought of opposing him in any way, and prefers his election to that of any one else. At Phenix, the former spoke to a large audience, and was heard with much attention. He met many old friends, and made new ones. A number of staunch Democrats pledged their support, and Jack Swilling gave it as his opinion that he would carry the precinct.

At Wickenburg, the McCormick men are plenty and very lively. Nearly every merchant is on his side, and his meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic yet held. At the Vulture mine, the feeling is strongly for McCormick, and he will get a large majority of the votes. This is conceded by men of all parties.

The Governor was met near Prescott by a number of the leading citizens of the town, many of whom opposed him in 1868. His reception was most hearty, and he was escorted to his old house where rooms were waiting, and he was soon called upon by many citizens of all parties.

The feeling here for McCormick is much better than had been reported. Scores of those who were against him in the last campaign, are now earnestly for him, while of his old guard he seems to have lost not a member. A great many of the strictest Democrats say they will not, in any way, recognize the convention which put forward Brady, nor will they vote for any man so ignorant of this part of Arizona. They think that McCormick has done his whole duty at Washington, and that nothing can be gained for the Territory by making a change in the representative at this time.

It is conceded that McCormick has a fair show to carry the county, and the news from the Colorado river is all that his friends could ask. If Pima county does her duty, he will be elected by a larger majority than he had in 1868. J. O.

The Miner's Misrepresentation.

Present A. T. Oct. 22nd. 1870.

Friend Watson:—

Under the head of "From Phenix Florence, crops, politics, etc.," the Arizona Miner places me in what I conceive to be a false position, which I hope you will correct through your Journal.

I never told the Miner that a similar feeling existed among the people of Florence and indeed among all the people of the Gila; on the contrary, I found the people nearly unanimously in favor of the Hon. R. C. McCormick. Neither did he obtain the information of me that McCormick was to blame for the extension of the Reservation on the Gila. His mind must have been muddled and he must have got that from D. G. Thompson, who by the way, is bitterly opposed to McCormick—who I honestly believe, from present indications, will carry this county. Yours, &c., D. HENDERSON.

CONTEMPTIBLE DOONER.—The San Diego Union says of him:

"The man who has hitherto been unable to find terms strong enough to sound the Governor's praises, is now the abject tool of Sylvester Mowry & Co. And he glories in his shame. A more contemptible position has never been occupied by a journalist than that of the editor of the Arizonian."

Says the Bulletin of the same city: "Dooner, the stupid editor of the Arizonian, who for the credit of all Southern Arizona, should long since have been deposed, was among those who volunteered to support the Governor, and even so late as the day of his arrival in Tucson, was among the first to welcome him and congratulate him on his career at Washington. He has turned against the Governor because he could not command the modest sum of $3,000 black mail. Sensible Governor, not to listen for an instant to such a proposition. $300 we venture to say would be a high price for Dooner with all of Mowry's old type and dirty linen thrown in.

BRADY'S denials of being in sympathy with Mowry are all bosh. Mowry never aids a man who don't aid Mowry, and stand in with him in the execution of his schemes.

THE DELEGATESHIP

[From the San Diego Bulletin, Oct. 23.]

"The Arizonan of October 8th has the following:

"The San Diego BULLETIN of the 24th has been received. The editor, Mr. Trauman, an honest, sensible man of Democratic proclivities we are pleased to observe take no more stock in our tricky delegate, the Hon. Mr. McCormick."

"Of course the Arizonan having forfeited all respect to decency and degraded journalism to an extent never before excelled would not hesitate to utter falsehoods in order to create temporary impressions. The BULLETIN stands for McCormick as it has always done. There is not a paper published throughout the Southern part of California, but advocates the re-election of McCormick. Party consideration is entirely disregarded in this matter. If McCormick's political views are in accordance with the present administration so much the better for his constituents. But the Governor has constantly abstained from meddling with party measures. His only duty is to advance the interest of his young territory, and he is the best delegate Arizona has had or ever will have to aid her in congress. Hence nothing but downright stubbornness or an entire absence of appreciation of what is best calculated to advance the progress of the Territory will assure the defeat of Governor McCormick."

If it be a fact, as publicly stated, that Brady says the government assets have been distributed to the wealthy to the exclusion of the poor, and to McCormick's friends instead of his opponents, we are authorized by Adjutant General Phelps to pronounce the statement false, and that the utterer knew it to be so.

Our space forbids even extracts from the many matter-of-fact letters received this morning from Yucapai county. But all is safe and well without.

SECRETARY COX, of the Interior Department, has resigned, and the President has accepted his resignation. At latest advices, his successor was not named.

McCormick will get two votes to Brady's one in Pima county.

MAJOR DUFFIELD will be mentioned in Dooner's letter.
