THE CITIZEN.

SATURDAY, - - OCTOBER 31, 1874.

LOCAL MATTERS.

E. N. FISH & Co. received a lot of new goods on Wednesday.

JOHN H. ARCHIBALD and Zeekendorf Bros. received some goods by trains this week.

TULLY, OCHOA & Co.'s store was reinforced on Wednesday by a lot of fresh groceries and other staple goods.

DISTRICT COURT, Chief Justice Dunne presiding, will be in session to-day. It is expected that some citizens will be made.

ROUNTREE & LUBBERT of Guaymas, have an advertisement in to-day's CITIZEN, which is of interest to business men here-aways.

GOV. SAFFORD is just in receipt of eight quarts of blue grass seed from the Department of Agriculture. It is for free distribution.

CAPT. J. M. HAMILTON and company of Fifth Cavalry, left Camp Lowell on Wednesday for San Carlos, and Capt. E. Adam and his company will come to Lowell on being relieved by Capt. Hamilton.

THE train of C. W. C. Rowell loaded with government and citizen freight; that of Jenks with government freight and that of Amablsen with citizen freight, all arrived here on Wednesday.

JOSEPH PIERSON left for Sonora on Monday. While here he bought the very fine 10-mule team, wagons, harness and all, of Charles Schibel. He thinks in the long run it is better to own teams to do his freighting than to hire them.

DAVID DAVIS is out for constable of Tucson precinct. He is a quiet man with whom we have but slight acquaintance, but his friends are active in his behalf and they claim that he is capable for the place.

THEO. WELISCH received a large lot of ladies' winter dress goods on Wednesday, and in fact all kinds needed for females of all ages. He makes a specialty of these kinds of goods.

J. A. MOORE, superintendent of the stage line westward, came in by stage yesterday. He informs us that the time of leaving Tucson hereafter will be 10 a. m., instead of 2 p. m., unless in cases when the eastern mail is not here at that hour. The mail that heretofore arrived in Tucson Tuesdays will come on Wednesdays. No other changes will be made.

PEOPLE should look well to their household goods nowadays. The nights are getting cool and blankets are much needed by men who are too lazy to earn means to buy them, and prefer to steal them than to sleep cold. On Thursday night, the room of Mr. Yerkes and room-mate, in Welisch's building, was robbed of nearly all clothing and blanket—leaving but a few articles.

THE Probate court of Pima county did a little business this week. The hearing of a petition for the sale of real estate in the case of the estate of Michael Layden, was set for November 23. In the matter of the McFarland estate, the hearing of a motion for final settlement was postponed to November 9, to which day the court adjourned.

LAST Monday posters were printed as follows: "A meeting of the SCRUBS of Tucson is requested at the court-house on Tuesday night, October 27, to discuss the coming election." For some reason, the meeting did not come off, although the court-house was lighted and quite a number of people went there, staid awhile and departed. Guess it was a "sell" and only intended to give variety to the campaign.

MORE people are interested in a fine cigar than in almost any other thing except that of staple articles of food, and all such will be glad to know that P. Lazarus has just received an invoice of 20,000 direct from San Francisco. Among them is a brand entitled "The Pride of Arizona," manufactured expressly for Mr. Lazarus. Smokers will do well to call upon him and test his cigars.

PERSONAL.—Gov. Bashford will leave San Diego for Tucson next week.

W. B. Hellings arrived in San Francisco about the 10th and is expected soon in Arizona.

D. P. Flanders, photographic artist, left by Thursday's stage for Los Angeles. He is a clever gentleman and good artist, and we wish him God speed wherever he may go.

Maj. C. H. Veil, well known throughout Arizona, was lately at his old home in Johnstown, Pa. He was considering a proposition of business upon the determination of which, he would decide whether or not he would return to Arizona.

Judge C. T. Hayden arrived here from Salt river on Thursday evening, and addressed the people in the court-house last night. It is out of the question to give any idea of his remarks in this paper, more than to say that they were mainly of the tenor of his published cards and addresses.

THE case of L. C. Hughes, district attorney of Pima county, charged with bribery and under his own recognition to answer to the charge, came up before Judge Dunne last Saturday on an application for a writ of habeas corpus. This hearing resulted in a further hearing on last Tuesday, the petitioner for the writ not having shown sufficient cause for its allowance, and the Judge and prosecuting counsel being willing to give the fullest opportunity to him to make his case. At Tuesday's hearing, the application for the writ was allowed, and another hearing on the merits of the case was had yesterday, when the motion to discharge Hughes was denied. Testimony was taken again, after which John Titus, counsel for Hughes, proposed to submit the case to the Judge without argument, to which Mr. Farley, the people's counsel, assented. By order of the Judge, L. C. Hughes was required to enter in bonds of $500 to answer to the charge against him before the next grand jury. In making the order, the Judge remarked that because of the feeling excited in this case, he would not increase the amount of the bond he had been under, but wished it understood that this sum must not be taken as a precedent as to what he should require in cases of similar gravity. So after several hearings, in two of which testimony was taken, and the fullest opportunity given for vindication, L. C. Hughes is under bonds to answer to the charge of bribery, and that too wherein his duty as district attorney is involved.

Col. W. G. BOYLE writes Gov. Safford that he was taken very sick on his way over the Colorado desert in California, en route to San Diego, and that he barely escaped with his life. His letter is dated October 15 in San Francisco, and at that time he was unable to do any business but was improving. He has been interviewed by men regarding the "Krom Dry Concentrator," of which he entertains a favorable opinion, but before purchasing one for use in Arizona, he will visit Humboldt county, Nevada, and personally inspect the practical operations of it. He hopes to be strong enough to leave for Arizona in about twenty days from the day of writing, and will come via Guaymas. Col. Boyle says many stock men have called on him in regard to bringing sheep to Arizona.

THE weather has been rather cool but pleasant during the week, except in the early part of it, we had soaking rains. No frost is reported yet.

JUDGE Wood, ex-officio superintendent of public schools in Mohave county, has returned to Gov. Safford a census report for that county for 1874. It shows twenty-six boys and eleven girls between the ages of six and twenty-one years, and that twenty-six of them can read and write.

It will be borne in mind abroad, that the people of Mohave are almost exclusively engaged in mining, and that it is but a short time since it was regarded prudent to take families into that county because of hostile Indians. Now it is deemed safe and families are increasing, and, as shown elsewhere in to-day's CITIZEN, the county is rapidly pointing up in mining operations and new discoveries.

We have a letter from Guaymas of date October 15. It says the officials for the coasting port of La Libertad had arrived. No foreign goods will pass through the port of Libertad, it being only opened for domestic trade and under the control of the collector of Guaymas. It is only intended to accommodate the farmers and miners. At present there are no houses of any kind at the port, but it is understood suitable buildings for the public business will be put up at once.

No further railway news was received from those in charge of negotiations with Col. Poston and Mr. Eldridge.

JUDGE THOMAS J. BIDWELL writes Gov. Safford that he has bought a very fine stock and agricultural ranch in Yavapai county about eight miles below the station in Kirikland valley. So Yuma county will lose one of her most prominent citizens, and one who has always been prominent in her public affairs. But he still will remain in Arizona and be a useful addition to Yavapai.

THE SAN DIEGO UNION says an emigrant train passed through town on the 29th bound for Arizona, and that they came from Amador county in California.

THE New York and London copper markets were firm and prices advancing up to October 2. The prices in New York at that date were 2 1/2 to 2 3/4.

THE GRIFFIN (GA.) NEWS says: "If we were to tell half the truth about what is going on in this town we would be mobbed before breakfast."

SAN FRANCISCO, October 29.—Green backs are buying at 91 and selling at 91 1/2.
