PACIFIC COAST MATTERS.

A Review.

After a careful examination of the somewhat lengthy opinion of Judge French in the Census Fraud case, which is given in full in another column of this issue, we confess our inability to determine upon what ground the learned judge arrives at the conclusion that he cannot put the machinery of a court of equity into operation to stop the consummation of a great and irreparable injury.

Confessedly, "the main question to be decided is, has the Judge of this Court the legal power to grant the injunction prayed for in the bill," and though much effort is put forth to show that on the hearing it was not shown that the Territorial law under which the Secretary makes the apportionment is unconstitutional, we cannot find any discussion of the question of the jurisdiction of the court.

The fact that no question was ever raised in the Territory of Nevada as to the sufficiency of a law similar to the one under discussion, decides no issue that we are aware of, and can carry with it nothing decisive except perhaps an indication that under that law no fraud on the rights of the people was attempted to be perpetrated through its instrumentality.

In the tax cases cited by the writer of this opinion, there was not an unanimous opinion arrived at by the learned Justices of the Supreme Court of California, but the weight of authorities is certainly against the legality of a delegation of legislative power.

The Judge in speaking of the great case of Osborn and others vs. the officers of the Bank of the United States, and the Iowa cases cited by the counsel for the plaintiff, says, "in all of these cases the subject matter is entirely different from that of the case now before me. The matter there was franchise, money, property, vested rights, and the like: in this case the subject matter is political or at best purely legislative in its nature."

The case of Sweet vs. Faville, 23 Iowa, cited by counsel for plaintiff was a suit to restrain the Board of Supervisors and other officers of a county from removing county seat and county offices, alleging in the bill that there was a fraud in the votes that were cast at an election held to determine whether the county seat should remain at Marshall or be removed to Osage. Here the question was purely political, and the court decided that it had the authority to interfere by injunction and did restrain the officers as prayed to do in the bill.

The case of Rice vs. the same defendant, in the 9 Iowa, raised the same inquiry in regard to political rights, and the cases of Dishon vs. Smith, 10 Iowa, and Bradley vs. Commissioners, 20 Iowa, also involved the question of the authority of a court of equity to interfere by injunction to restrain fraudulent acts that were purely and only political, and in each of these cases it was decided that the courts had such power and that it was their duty to use it.

There is but one reference made in this lengthy opinion to the "main question to be decided," and that is in the following words: "I am asked to grant an injunction upon hearing in chambers, which if granted, must be paramount to the final determination of the case; see Natona W. and M. Co. vs. Parker et al, 16 Cal., the 116 section, page 408 Compiled Laws of Arizona, being identical with the California Statute, under which the above decision was made. I am entirely clear that it cannot be done." This is the "main question" decided in one brief sentence; the ground of the decision is that if granted it will be paramount to a final determination of the case. What, let us enquire, will be the result of the injunction being denied? Will that not be paramount to a final determination of the case? The Secretary makes the apportionment upon the fraudulent census returns of Yavapai county, and the rights of every honest citizen of Arizona Territory are violated; and this upon a process of reasoning that will apply as well in favor of granting the redress as against it.

Why is so much pains taken to elaborate upon a question that is not proposed, "for many reasons," to be passed on decisively, and why is the "main question" disposed of in so summary a manner?

Was Chief Justice Marshall wrong when he said that "if the person who is the real principal, the person who is the true source of the mischief by whose power and for whose advantage it is done, be himself exempt from all judicial process, it would be subversive of the best established principles to say that the laws could not afford the same remedies against the agent employed in doing the wrong, which would afford against him could his principal be joined in the suit?" Osborn vs. Bank of United States, 6 Curtis, page 369.

And did the Supreme Courts of Iowa and Tennessee err when they decided that when fraud was alleged a court of equity could restrain public officers from infringing upon political rights? We would like to see these cases met.

We call attention to our reprint of a very able article on Delegate Stevens, taken from the San Diego Union. The sterling character of the Union adds on the record of our Congressional representative.

SAN DIEGO, October 4.—Company G, First Cavalry, Lieut. Ward commanding, has returned and is again occupying its former quarters. The boys evidently prefer a Winter campaign in San Diego to one among the Sioux if their faces indicate their feelings.

SAN DIEGO, October 4.—Special orders No. 192 Headquarters Army, directs Capt. D. H. Brotherton, Fifth Infantry, and 1st Lieut. R. G. Rutherford Twelfth Infantry, to report to the President retiring board. Second Lieut. C. F. Roe has been appointed regimental Adjutant Second Cavalry vice Clarke. Gen. Sherman has been to Los Angeles and has now gone to Yosemite.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 3.—Stocks trifle better. Alpha 46; California 62.50; Consolidated Virginia 57; Ophir 33.35; Sierra Nevada 12; Savage 17.25; Yellow Jacket 26.25.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 3.—Mayor Johnson of Savannah acknowledges by telegraph the receipt of seven hundred dollars contributed by citizens of this city, to the sufferers of yellow fever. The funeral of the late James Lick will take place to-morrow at one o'clock p. m.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 4.—There was but little doing in stocks to-day; no session of the board in the afternoon on account of the Lick funeral. Alpha 45.50; California 61.75; Con Va 56.50; Gould & Curry 15; Justice 18; Ophir 31; Yellow Jacket 25.25. All the old officers of Bank of California were re-elected to-day. There is great enthusiasm here over the news from Colorado.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 4.—Senator Booth writes that at the request of the Republican State Central Committee of Indiana he will remain in that State until the end of the campaign.

EASTERN STATES. PHILADELPHIA, October 4.—John Lick, son of the late James Lick, passed through the city yesterday on the way to San Francisco. He refuses to make public his intentions concerning his father's will. Wool is in good demand in Philadelphia market and firmer. Prices are tending higher. California fine and medium is quoted at 25 to 35; coarse 20 to 25 cents.

BOSTON, October 4.—Judge Howe has accepted the independent nomination for Congress to run against Gen. Butler in the Lowell district.

ATLANTA, Ga., October 3.—Gen. Ruger, commanding the United States troops here, has turned over to the mayor of Savannah five thousand dollars worth of commissary stores for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers. The epidemic is unabated.

SAVANNAH, October 3.—Yellow fever interments yesterday number seven.

HARTFORD, CONN., October 3.—The municipal elections throughout the State took place yesterday. The towns within the range of Hartford, which gave eight hundred and sixty-nine Democratic majority in April last, now give one hundred and thirty-six Republican majority, a gain in five months of one thousand votes for the Republicans.

NEW YORK, October 3.—A correspondent at Constantinople telegraphs that the situation is really critical. From the incendiary articles in the public prints, he thinks it urgent that an American fleet should be sent to the Bosphorus to protect the lives and property of American residents.

NEW YORK, October 4.—Times Hartford special says returns of town election continue to show Republican gains.

NEW YORK, October 5.—Returns from election in Georgia on Wednesday are very meagre and lack interest, as the result in that State was a foregone conclusion. The Democrats have rolled up their usual majority there; the Republicans made only a nominal contest.

CHICAGO, October 4.—E. A. Woodward late partner of Wm. M. Tweed and for whom a large reward has been offered, was arrested here this evening at the Palmer House where he was registered as A. Wallace of Liverpool. He was disguised but a New York gentleman pointed him out to the police.

DENVER, COLORADO, October 4.—Republicans have carried the State ticket, members of Congress and three-fourths of the Legislature.

DENVER, COLORADO, October 4, 9 a. m.—Returns from the State election held yesterday show that the Republicans have undoubtedly carried the State by a decided majority, electing their entire State ticket. Both branches of the legislature are also Republican, which secures two United States Senators and gives the vote of three presidential electors to Hayes and Wheeler.

DENVER, COLORADO, October 4, 10 p. m.—Official figures show still heavier Republican gains and majorities than this morning's dispatches indicated. The Democrats concede the State to the Republicans. Routly majority for Governor will reach three thousand; the Legislature will have a Republican majority of two thirds in each house; the triumph is complete and overwhelming.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, October 2.—A dispatch from Belgrade says that Gen. Sumnorokoff, Russian envoy, is not coming to Belgrade as was expected. Russian inundation is steadily crowding out the Serbian element. Preparations are making at Belgrade and on border of Russia inconsistent with pacific declarations of the cabinet at St. Petersburg. There are good grounds for supposing Russia will soon openly take the responsibility of a war which she has been waging under the flimsy cover of the Serbian flag.

LONDON, October 3, 6 a. m.—The Daily News says it is intimated that Russia and the United States have concluded a treaty by which the former cedes the port of Okhotsk in Siberia and adjacent territory on the sea shore, in exchange for an iron clad, and the sum of six millions roubles, and that a Russian crew had left for America.

LONDON, October 4, 6 a. m.—A telegram from Belgrade says Russia has ordered the railways leading to Turkey and Roumania to place sixteen trains daily at her disposal and a request to the same effect has been made Roumanian railways.

PARIS, October 3.—Russia publishes a communication from the Russian embassy from this city, in which it is stated that the Czar is still in favor of peace. Russia should eventually intervene it would only be with the entire agreement of the powers, and that intervention in any case would be preceded by a conference.

MARICOPA COUNTY. PHOENIX, October 2, 1876. EDITOR CITIZEN: The camp meeting which has been going on near town for two weeks closed last night. It was well attended throughout. The Rev. Mr. Hedgepath who is the minister in charge of this circuit, leaves in a few days to attend the conference of his church (M. E. South) at San Bernardino. It is hoped that that body will reassign him to this charge, as he is far above the average as a speaker, and an excellent man, and has made many friends during his stay with us who all would much regret a change in pastors.

A very sad event, happened on the grounds during the camp meeting. A bright little boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chenoweth, was stricken with fever and called from the pleasant camp of his parents to his long home in eternity. The funeral sermon of the deeply mourned little fellow was preached by the Rev. Mr. Hedgepath on Sunday at eleven o'clock from the text, "I am the resurrection and the life, whosoever believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." The discourse was able and eloquent and the audience was held in an attitude of deepest interest throughout.

The Democrats of the different precincts held their primary convention on the 25. The following men were elected to represent the party from this precinct in the county convention:—J. A. Chenoweth, J. P. Holcomb, T. G. Greenham, J. R. Richards, J. A. Parker, G. A. Wilson, Geo. R. Roberts, and Thos. Childs. The delegates from Tempe are Winchester Miller, Capt. Sharp, and Judge Graig. The county convention will meet next Monday. The Republican committee of Twenty-three met on Saturday last, and nominated the following ticket:—for Councilman, John Smith; for the Assembly, C. H. Grey, and M. H. Calderwood; Sheriff, Geo. E. Mowry; Treasurer, Capt. John W. Owen; Recorder, E. B. Kirkland; District Attorney, T. J. Drum; Supervisors, Buker and Miller; Justice, Jas. A. Young and J. D. Rumburg; Constables, W. F. McNulty and J. I. Bland. The board of Supervisors, to-day in session, established four new precincts, one at Sun-flower valley, one at Cave Creek, one at Wheatfields, and one at the Richmond mine, and appointed judges and inspectors of election for all the voting places in the county. The family of Mr. Geo. E. Loring, our jeweler, are at Wickenburg en route for Phenix; they are just out from the "Hub" and come to make a permanent home with us. Mr. Loring has rented a store on the main street, and intends to have a first class stock of jewelry in a short time. A Goldman is expected home in a few days from San Francisco, where he has been laying in his Fall stock of merchandise. It is reported that a young gentleman of your city is about to lead to the hyemal, one of the fair of this valley. O "fy?" that's too bad, but we can't help these "tiny" things; they will happen in spite of us. Dr. Rodgers, arrived from the south this week and will remain here for a few days; Dr. O. J. Thibaud with confined to his bed with fever.

Mr. Silsby, of Silsby Brothers, painters, at Prescott, is in town. The western stage due here at six a. m. has not arrived at this 4 p. m. Every one predicts that Mr. Wormser, who has been for some time at Prescott, is aboard (those who know his weight will understand.) ROLYAN.

HON. C. C. BEAN, who met with the misfortune to receive a pistol ball in the knee pan two weeks ago, in the canyon of East Hassayampa, is recovering as rapidly as his friends could have any reason to hope for. The ball has not yet been extracted, and the patient is as yet confined to one position in bed, but by a system of splints and wings the limb is handled so easily he is quite comfortable and chats as cheerfully as is his wont when nothing is the matter. [Minor, September 29.]
