FOR THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.—John G. Campbell, of Prescott.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES.—Wm. Cole, of Bradshaw; Thos. Stonehouse, of Williamson Valley; Thos. W. Brooks, Del. Pasco Mill; C. H. Veil, of Prescott, and M. Peralta, of Wickenburg.

FOR THE SHERIFF.—James S. Thomas, of Woolsey Valley.

FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.—Thomas G. Roddick, of Kirkland Valley.

FOR SUPERVISORS.—Gideon Cornell, Edward Kerr and Gideon Brooke, of Prescott.

As matters now stand there is a vacancy in the council portfolio of the ticket for one Councilman, and it is hoped, by nearly all voters in the county, that Captain J. P. Hargrave will permit them to vote for him.

Concerning the Councilman to be elected jointly, by this county and Maricopa, the feeling here is that J. P. Hargrave would be act honorably, if he would be no more than right to give the Councilman.

We are told that many members of the Convention favored the re-election to Congress of R. C. McCormick, but no action was taken in the matter.

The following gentlemen were appointed to serve as a County Central Committee for the ensuing year: E. J. Cook, of Prescott; A. H. Peoples, of Wickenburg; Fred. Henry, Weaver District; Robert Bell, Camp Verde; John White, Peoples Valley; L. R. Stephenson, Walnut Grove.

A Lively Excitement. Has broken out here, about diamonds. I. Q. Dickason, T. W. Brooks, W. W. Hutchison, Geo. Hoyle and a score of other well known citizens are fitting out. All believe diamonds exist here and as matters now look, the Miner force and a few store-keepers will be compelled to garrison Prescott.

Accident. We learn that a soldier, while on guard at Fort Whipple this week, had a finger shot from his left hand, by an accidental discharge of his gun.

Arrivals. One of James Grant's stages, drawn by four best horses, arrived here early yesterday morning heavily laden with passengers and mail. Among the passengers we observed Dr. J. H. Pierson, Superintendent of the mail line; J. M. Bryan, of Wickenburg, and H. Kline. Col. Canby came as far as Ehrenberg, and two Apache Mohaves (those who have been visiting at the East) got back to Camp Date Creek.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

The Indian problem in this Territory is, as yet, unsolved, notwithstanding all the false moves that have been made by agents of the Government to stop the war. And it will, we fear, remain unsolved until citizens in sufficient force to deter and coerce the savages shall have entered the Territory.

It has been thought, by some people, that if the Indians could be induced to come upon the reservations and there receive more food and clothing than they would care to use, they would be content. Well, most of them have come in and been fed over and above their most greedy desires. And what is the result? Why, the same as we have time and again predicted. Disaffection with that mode of life; contempt for the white man and his government; and increased power—in arms, ammunition, strength of body and knowledge, to combat the whites more successfully.

Major J. H. Hines, an officer who, as commander of Camp Apache and temporary agent for the Indians of the White Mountain Reservation, has done exceedingly well by the savages, has had his men shot at by Indians, and they have been forced to retaliate. And, to prove that he acted rightly in this matter, General Howard has approved of his course.

At the Verde Reservation the savages have been treated with distinguished consideration by agents, soldiers and citizens; yet, every foul bird of them has flown. And they left behind them a trail of blood, which they were unable to eat and did not care to take with them.

Now, they are feeding upon the corn, vegetables and animals of land working citizens. At Camp Grant, discontent is the order of the day among the savages. They steal; they act mean; they threaten their good agent with death, and they go upon stealing and killing sprees.

Further south are savages in whose footsteps naught but desolation is visible. Corpes, burned houses, robbed farms are to be seen on every hand. Even the penitentiary Indians—Yimas, Papagos and Maricopas—have had to suffer loss of animals at the hands of savages who, at Camp Grant, a short time ago, entered into solemn treaty with the whites.

Maddened by this new breach of faith, and by recent losses, some Pimas and Maricopas are up here seeking revenge. They go to Camp Verde and join themselves to a force of soldiers. There presence is discovered by the wily Apaches, whose war chief—Sulele—and four bravos, some time ago, being sent to Gen. Howard that he was too weak, from hunger, to see the General. Like that old scoundrel, Delachay, chief of the Tombos, Sulele was noted for "tricks that are dark and tricks that are vain." He was aged about 40.

The foregoing, concerning the Sulele matter, we have learned from citizens at the San Joaquin, who arrived here recently from the Verde. These gentlemen also informed us that Captain Carr, Lieutenant Grant and Heine, Dr. Mathews, and a pretty large force of soldiers and Pima and Maricopa Indians left the post Sunday afternoon, intending to chastise the marauders, two-faced Apaches.

Some of the Apaches recently killed by the Pimas, bore upon their persons passes from Lieut. Whitman, also their own descriptive lists. This, then, is the result of the feeding and petting process. And now, we hope, Government will tell and enable the good people of this Territory to get a pistol out of the doctor's belt, falls to do so, makes a dive for the door, knocks down one of the guard, and while running away, is shot through the head by another of the guard; falls, lives some time thereafter, relating about peace, the ghost and is planted "where the wicked cease from troubling." And, remember, this was the same Sulele who, some time ago, being sent to Gen. Howard that he was too weak, from hunger, to see the General. Like that old scoundrel, Delachay, chief of the Tombos, Sulele was noted for "tricks that are dark and tricks that are vain." He was aged about 40.

Los Angeles and San Francisco will have to contend with the route of the San Diego, as Scott declines having any idea of building any other road in California.

San Francisco is troubled. Its Committee of "One Hundred" is divided, and Stanford is pressing his points for land in the city and $2,500,000 in cash.

Meanwhile, the friends of an independent railroad to the Colorado and St. Louis, via the 35th parallel route, are far from being discouraged.

At all events, Arizona's chances for railroad connection with the States and Territories on either side of her are daily growing better and better.

Stock Ranch for Sale. I offer for sale my Stock Ranch in Williamson Valley, for the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars. The farm consists of 450 acres of land, on which 200 tons of hay can be cut yearly. There are two large frame houses on the premises—one 48 by 50 and the other 30 by 70; also a stable 100 feet long by 15 feet wide; one cedar post corral, adjoining stable, one hundred feet square; also, one cedar post corral that will hold 500 head of large cattle.

There is a spring of delicious water and of great volume close to the dwelling houses, and farther away, a small lake, sufficient to water any amount of stock in the district.

With abundant water and unobstructed range, with plenty of hay, and any quantity of timber on hand, either for fuel or fuel, the advantages of this farm for stock and dairy purposes are unequalled in Northern Arizona. It lies on the direct route to Hartsville and the Wall-pat mines, and offers a splendid stand to any one desiring of keeping a public house.

Government title will be given to the property. C. E. BEAN. Prescott, A. T., August 30, 1872.
