

Moral Reform Movement.

These societies are actively engaged in New York in getting names to petitions for the suppression of seduction and adultery...

An Anecdote.—A Washington correspondent of the Boston Post writes to the editor of that paper as follows:

The members, both democrats and whigs, appeared to be in fine spirits today. The whigs have been whipped into a good humor. I heard a democrat from Tennessee tell the following story of and to the whigs, at which they all laughed heartily.

New Project for a Bank.—A writer in the Ohio Statesman, who says he has devoted much time to the subject of banking, proposes a plan which he thinks will pay off the states' debts...

My plan is a state bank, to be located in Columbus, with a capital of ten millions, and to issue any amount of paper deemed necessary.

There are a number of bogus makers, engravers, financiers, &c., now in the penitentiary. Let the bogus boys be set at work to make the hard, to pay in as capital stock...

He further proposes that the notes thus issued shall be received for all debts due the state, and be made a legal tender...

Love of Home.—Perhaps there are not to be found on the face of the earth a race of human beings whose attachment to their native place will bear a comparison with that of the Hindoos.

England's next Move.—It is implied in a late English paper that the British forces in China, having nothing to do since that country has been brought to terms...

Aint you a disciple of Fourier? "Not exactly; but father has a tenant who goes on the Owen (owing) system."

DAY after the FAIR.—The Vermont Statesman announces that its editor, Mr. Day, has gone to get married.

Rather Tough.—The Philada. Spirit of the Times says: "A curious thing occurred in Fourth street recently. A young woman actually pawned a baby, and got two dollars on this 'pledge' of love."

"A Yankee in London" thus writes to the editors of the New York Commercial: "The only topics of great national importance now under consideration are the anti-corn-law agitation and the weaning of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales."

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

L. P. SANGER & CO. ARE now opening at their old stand in Ottawa, a large and extensive assortment of Fall and Winter DRY GOODS, Embracing an assortment of almost every thing needed, besides a thousand and one articles that may be deemed unnecessary. We can with safety assure our customers that we can enumerate more different articles in our stock than any ever offered in this county. We have also a good supply of GROCERIES, Hardware, Crockery, Clothing, Boots & Shoes, Hats & Caps, DRUGS & MEDICINES, Iron, Castings, Nails, School Books, Paper, and a large assortment of BLANK BOOKS.

We have tried the old-fashioned long winded credit system long enough, and have firmly made up our minds to adopt the old maxim that "a nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling," and shall hereafter confine our business to this maxim, and are determined that we will sell as low as can be purchased at Chicago or elsewhere, for cash. We are aware that "puffing" is now the order of the day, and think it unnecessary to say more, but if you will give us a call and examine our stock, we shall not grumble if you do not purchase, for without our customers are satisfied we are giving them good bargains, we do not wish to sell.

Now is the time to bring on your Cash, Wheat, Pork, Lard, Hides, Tallow, Bees-wax, Flax-seed, Furs, Deer Skins, Feathers, or any thing that we can send to market and save ourselves. Ottawa, Nov. 4, 1842. 22-11.

Asiatic Hedging Seed.

THE subscribers have just received, on commission, a few pounds of the above article, which is offered to the farmers of this county at the very low price of sixteen dollars per pound. Flouring Mill.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has taken the mill commonly known as the "Millard Mill" or "Jackson's Mill," situated at the town of Millard, on Fox River, near Georgetown, where he will be happy to do his best to please all who may favor him with their custom. The mill, which has always borne a fair reputation, is now in better order to do work than it perhaps ever has been, having been lately thoroughly repaired, and having received a new Saint Machine, and new Belts, of a superior quality. The undersigned, confident that he can do his work as well as it can be done in the country, respectfully solicits a trial. J. E. SKINNER. Nov. 18, 1841. 21-11

Land Agency.

THE undersigned will pay particular attention to the investigation of titles, redemption and sale of lands, and payment of taxes in La Salle and any of the adjoining counties. Having been engaged a good portion of my time as Surveyor for the last seven or eight years in said county, I am enabled to give a complete description of almost any tract of land within the boundaries of the same. Persons wishing to purchase lands in La Salle or Grundy counties, would do well to call on me, as I now have for sale some of the best lands in those counties, to the amount of some ten or twelve thousand acres, a great portion of which belongs to the State Jack of Illinois, for which the notes of said bank will be received at par. GEO. H. NORRIS. Ottawa, Dec. 20, 1842. 24-11
