

BARBER COUNTY INDEX

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 1910

CHASE HARDWARE COMPANY

sell the famous Round Oak Heating Stoves.

H. A. Bailey and Ed Ricks of Kiowa were in the city last Wednesday.

Henry Rankin and Elmer Thomas were eight seers in Wichita last week.

Mound City Paints may cost a trifle more, but—J. R. Young Drug Co.

Wm. Flickinger and Luther Benton of Kiowa, attended the funeral of little George Tinsler last Thursday.

B. H. Moss departed the first of last week on a month's visit at Wellington, Kansas City and other cities enroute.

Miss Pearl Clymer, instructor in the Normal Department of the High School, is spending vacation with her parents at Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Middleton departed last Wednesday for Independence, Kansas, to spend Christmas week with their son and family.

James Booth, Fred G. Stiller and J. T. Maris of Coldwater were looking after business affairs in this city last Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Van Horn gave a very enjoyable party for the young people at the Presbyterian Manse Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Updegraff of this township, and Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Updegraff of Isabel spent their Christmas with their son and brother, Dr. A. D. Updegraff, and family at Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McGuire and the baby arrived last Friday from Ivanhoe, Oklahoma, to spend the holidays with Mrs. G. R. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McGuire and other relatives and friends.

A Kiowa husband presented a sweet little 3-months-old baby to his wife for a Christmas present last week. That's reversing the order of things, but then anything is possible—since Maine went Democratic!

Miss Ella Guthrie and mother departed last Friday to visit with relatives and friends in Caddo county, Oklahoma. Miss Guthrie will return on Saturday but Mrs. Guthrie will remain there probably until spring.

"Ole Peterson" was the best Swedish show ever here—Madison (Wis.) Capitol.

This show will be in Medicine Lodge Friday evening. A show that pleases the city of Madison is certain to please everywhere.

Manager J. A. Fair of the Metz Lumber Company yards of this city received a Christmas present that is worth while. On Monday morning's mail he got a gold fountain pen and a check for $10, from the head office in Wichita. How'd you like to be the lumber man?

W. S. Gant visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woods, his father-in-law and mother-in-law at Winfield from Monday until Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Woods accompanied him on the return trip and will spend the remainder of the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Gant.

Mrs. Hilda Moss and her father, Mr. Winter, came up from Oklahoma last Thursday to consult an attorney, Samuel Griffin, in the divorce case recently filed against Mrs. Moss by her husband, B. H. Moss. Mrs. Moss, we are told, is very much incensed on account of certain allegations in her husband's petition but will not resist the divorce if the objectionable features are eliminated.

Hon. F. D. Coburn has sent out his annual "Kansas in 1910" card showing things in Kansas. It showed livestock valued at $234,876,692; wheat, $52,785,965; corn, $76,402,327; oats, $18,441,607; rye, $174,291; barley, $2,034,022; broomcorn, $1,604,603. As for other farm products making a grand total of $539,793,034. This is an increase over 1909 of over seven million.

It has come to the notice of The Index that a localizer can not be too circumspect in referring to the fraternity, especially if that "fraternity" be one upon whom the years bear lightly and who has come into a full realization of the balm for which Ponce de Leon searched in vain. Therefore we desire to do the amende honorable thus: There are those who are so irreproachably gifted in their early years, that though they are long experienced they are they are long experienced they are still young and beautiful.

Mrs. C. W. Krizmire is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

J. C. Freeman does all kinds of plumbing. Shop in I. O. O. F. building.

R. H. Hall returned to Wichita on Monday. Mrs. Hall will remain during the week.

H. Dubois makes a specialty of interior finishing and decorating. He guarantees first-class work.

Frank Lindley of Wichita is spending the holiday vacation with his parents and friends in the city.

For Sale: Rhode Island Red Roosters at 50 cents each while they last. Geo. Stewart, Medicine Lodge, Route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCague and son, Thomas P., went to Alva on Saturday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pursell.

A. M. Houchin left Tuesday for Eureka and other points in the eastern part of the state on business pertaining to the sale of his ranch.

Eldred Post, G. A. R., will install officers at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. All civil war veterans are invited. Supper after installation.

Ralph Hagerman has been very ill with pneumonia during the past week but late reports are that he is much better and is now considered out of danger.

Eld T. Noble, formerly of McAdoo township, now residing in Pratt, was in the city last Wednesday and Thursday, the guest of T. L. Lindley and F. J. Wadsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Tinsler departed on Monday for Topeka—Mr. Tinsler going to attend to business affairs and Mrs. Tinsler to visit a short time with friends.

The Junior Endeavor of the Christian church will have supper at Mrs. C. T. McCracken's Thursday night of this week, Dec. 29th, 1910. Everybody cordially invited to come.—Emma Greever, President.

Your own friends have attained position, honor, cash. How? Opens Sept. 6. Salt City Business College, Hutchinson, Kansas, Box 353 P. Catalogue free. Positions await graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Taylor returned to their home at Burston, Kansas, yesterday, after a pleasant visit with Mr. Taylor's mother, Mrs. G. R. Taylor, and other relatives.

John MacGregor Jr., returned to Oklahoma City last Wednesday to again take up his work at the barber business. He has regained his normal strength after a hard battle against typhoid fever.

Mrs. O. J. Beck and daughter, Joy, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Ivernia Tedrow and daughter, Phyllis, of Medicine Lodge, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. D. M. Carmichael of 426 North Emporia avenue.—Sunday's Wichita Eagle.

Mrs. J. C. McGarvin of Raymond, Kansas, arrived the latter part of last week to visit during the holiday season with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Woodward, of this city, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burton, of Aetna township.

Mansfield Daniel, four sons and daughter arrived from southern Missouri last Friday to make their home in this city temporarily or perhaps permanently. Mr. Daniel is Mrs. A. L. Linton's father. Two of the sons, Flem and Thurman, were here about a year ago and hence are well known in the city. The family made the trip overland.

Our friend, Roy Evans, seems to be coming into his own during the holiday season. As before noted in these columns, he has been in the government service at Washington, D. C., and is at present enjoying a trip through the southern states. He writes from Charleston that he is having a fine time. He thinks that Charleston is the nicest place he has ever visited. Other cities on his itinerary are Jacksonville, where he spent Christmas, Palm Beach, Key West, Raleigh and Richmond.

Blame your doctor for your bodily ills, lawyer for your losses, cook for your stomach, children for your bad temper, wife for all else that goes wrong, and then if you run out of adversaries, sum it all up and jump onto your newspaper as it is generally responsible for all wrongs in sight, and a thousand imaginaries of a pessimistic individual, advises the Athol Record. An editor can stand more than all the rest of the human family, and then come up smiling for more worlds to conquer.

"Ole Peterson"

All former successes in Swedish comedy-drama seems to have been eclipsed by Gilbert Tossick's effort, "Ole Peterson." Competent critics have even declared this pretty play equal to the "Old Homestead" in many respects.

The specialties are new, an abundance of special scenery has been provided, in fact nothing left undone to brighten the performance. If you enjoy an evening of pure, clean and refined entertainment, don't fail to see the funny, good-natured Swede at the opera house on Friday night of this week.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in the sickness and death of our husband and father.

MRS. CRICK AND FAMILY.

Child of sorrow, Child of care, Woudest thou learn thy griefs to bare; And escape from every snare, Trust in God.

Human strength is weak and vain, Let not sin its power regain, Humbly ask and help obtain, From thy God.

Painful days and months and years, Gloomy doubts, distressing fears, In this darkness vale of tears, We may see.

In the hour of pain and grief, If you learn to trust his grace, All the way.

While we live and while we die, We can fully satisfy, Then we'll reign with him on high, Safe at home.

We'll be there, When the Lord of glory calls us, We'll be there,

To enjoy the feast of love That the Savior from above has prepared for those who prove, Worthy there.

ALFRED CRICK.

Christian Church

We wish to begin the new year with a great Bible school, and every member present at the morning church services.

There will be an election of Bible school officers, as well as church officers.

The following officers were elected to serve the next term in the Christian Endeavor Society: Stella Kidd, Pres.; Had White, Vice Pres.; Caroline Read, Sec'y.; Wilson Smith, Treasurer; Bessie Thom, Organist. The young people of the town and community are invited to attend our Young People's Service.

The Lord has abundantly blessed us this year and we look forward to the new year of opportunities for service.

We wish all a happy new year. The public is welcome and cordially invited to attend all our services.

BISHOP M HOPKINS, Pastor.

Little Mary Parsons is very ill with pneumonia.

Cotton seed meal, oil cake, alfalfa meal, chop, bran, etc., at A. S. Cole's mill, north Main.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mahurin, on Wednesday December 21st, a son. All doing nicely.

Lee Chapin came home from Kansas City last Thursday to spend the holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chapin.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hall of Wichita arrived last Saturday to spend the holiday vacation visiting with Mrs. Hall's parents, Judge and Mrs. Ellis.

Claude Null was taken very sick with pneumonia Saturday and his condition is very serious, although there are good prospects for his recovery.

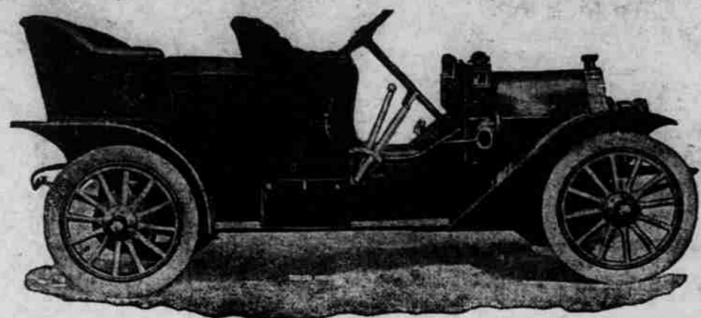

Attorney Walter L. Owen of Cherokee, Oklahoma, visited in the city last Thursday and Friday. The principal purpose of the trip was to attend the funeral of Master George Tinsler.

Mr. Overstreet, the jeweler, wheeled to Medicine Lodge, Sunday, intending to go down into Oklahoma, but as he could not make train connections, he lodged at "the Lodge" and got home Tuesday morning by way of Belvidere.—Sawyer News.

Miss Etta Williamson departed on Saturday for her home at Quincy, Illinois. Miss Williamson is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bucklin of this city. She had been here about a year and made many friendships among our citizens.

J. H. McCreedy, a brother-in-law of Jas. McGuire's, arrived last Thursday to visit a few days, departing yesterday. His mother has been here for the past month. She came here in a poor state of health but found the climate so helpful that she has about concluded to remain. We trust that Mr. McCreedy will eventually do likewise.

In Holy Bonds

Mr. Ralph L. Ewing and Miss Fannie Springer were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents on South Oak Street in this city at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, December 21, 1910. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the members of the family of the bride's parents attending. Rev. Howard Cady of St. Mark's Episcopal church performed the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ewing went to Kiowa by automobile where they boarded the Santa Fe at 4 o'clock the following morning for a short trip to Wichita and other cities.

While this marriage was anticipated, its taking place when it did was quite a surprise and incidentally deprived a number of young men and young ladies of the exquisite pleasure of doing the charivari stunt, although they promise to make good in this respect later.

Mr. Ewing has been in business in Medicine Lodge about two years. He is a talented musician and is at present conducting a music store and dealing in musical instruments. He is a young man of great energy and will succeed in his vocation.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Springer. She is a native Barber county girl and is blessed with a most pleasant disposition which has made her many friends. She is one of the city's most popular young ladies and is entitled to all the admiration and esteem which she enjoys.

Mr. Ernest R. Cole and Miss Harriet A. Gott were united in marriage at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mary Gibson, in this city on Wednesday evening, December 21, 1910, by Elder Bishop M. Hopkins, pastor of the Christian church of this city. Only relatives of the bride and groom attended, excepting Miss Lila Powers who played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Gibson served a most excellent three-course luncheon. The table was beautifully decorated in seasonable offerings and all pronounced it a splendid feast.

The groom is one of the prosperous young farmers of the Lasswell vicinity. He was born and brought up in Barber county, the son of V. Cole who was one of our substantial farmers in earlier days but now resides at Alva, Oklahoma. Ernest is one of the county's most industrious, cordial young men and has hosts of friends.

The bride's parents reside at Marengo, Indiana, but for the past few years she has made her home among relatives here. She is a charming young lady and is highly esteemed by countless friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole left for Harper on Thursday to spend the holidays after which they will begin house-keeping on the groom's farm at Lasswell.

Wells R. Parsons of Winchester, Okla., and Miss Rosa May Ogden of Sharon were united in marriage at the home of the bride's father, A. J. Ogden, on Sunday, December 25th (Christmas) by Elder S. E. Hendrickson. The groom is a stranger here but the bride was brought up in Barber county and has many friends who will wish her a future abundantly blessed with joy and happiness.

Floyd H. Rogers of Capron, Ok., and Mattie Isaacs of Cherokee, Ok., were united in marriage by Probate Judge Garrison in this city last Thursday, December 22nd.
