

PEACE REIGNED SUPREME.

A "Harmony" Ticket is Nominated by the Republicans.

Conklin for Trustee, Young for Auditor, Buckley for Assessor and Putnam for Collector.

The Angel of Peace hovered over the heads of the delegates to the Republican convention last night.

"Harmony" was on every tongue. "Harmony" was in the very air they breathed.

The delegates were not prompt in taking their seats, and it was not until half an hour after the time announced for commencing business, that the Opera House began to take on that appearance which the fastidious theatrical manager would fain call "gratifying."

A. J. Gardiner called the convention to order at 7:45 o'clock. "Gentlemen and delegates," he said, "in accordance with the usual custom and time-honored practice of the Republican party, we are assembled this evening in open session, united with one common object in view, to select Republican candidates, to fill the various departments of our city government."

Charles T. Jones nominated Hon. Elwood Bruner for the position, and he was elected unanimously.

Mr. Bruner was greeted with cheers as he stepped upon the platform. He made a brief speech in thanking his seat, thanking the convention for the honor bestowed upon him, and echoed Mr. Gardiner's appeal for harmony.

Major Ennis, W. L. Pritchard, H. O. Tubbs, Charles E. Addington and T. Stafford were elected temporary Secretaries, and Messrs. Ray, Whitmore and Hill were elected Sergeants-at-Arms.

W. A. Anderson moved for the usual custom of appointing a committee on credentials he dispensed with, and that the published list of delegates be accepted as correct. This motion was adopted.

The Chairman was authorized to appoint committees on Organization and Business and on Resolutions and Resolutions. While he was making up these committees the Secretary called off the list of delegates, which showed that very few were absent.

Chairman Bruner announced his committees as follows: Organization and Business—A. J. Rhoads, Joseph Hopley, E. F. Taylor, C. B. Clark and A. J. Anderson, E. C. Hart and Charles T. Jones. A recess of fifteen minutes was then taken to allow the committees to prepare their reports.

When the convention reconvened, Major Ennis called the committee on Organization and Business stepped up to the foot-lights and addressed the convention as follows:

"Your Committee on Permanent Organization and Business respectfully recommends that Hon. Elwood Bruner be selected permanent Chairman, and—"

"Mr. Chairman," said Mr. Anderson, "I move that the portion of the report read be adopted now."

Cheers greeted the Major's motion, and it was unanimously carried.

PERMANENT OFFICERS. Continuing, Mr. Ennis said: "We further recommend for permanent Secretaries, J. T. Stafford, W. H. Ennis, C. E. Addington, and W. Tubbs, and for Sergeants-at-Arms, William Hall, Charles Downie, Matt. McManus, Messrs. Ray and Jesson; that the order of business be, first, nominations for Third Trustee; second, for City Auditor; third, for City Assessor; fourth, for City Collector; fifth, for Fire Commissioner, for the long term; and sixth, for Fire Commissioner, for the short term. Also that a City Central Committee be organized by the delegates from the First and Second Wards, to be selected by the delegates from their respective precincts; three each from the Third and Fourth Wards, to be selected in the same manner, and one at large, to be selected by the convention."

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

Major W. A. Anderson reported on behalf of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions. "As in the past," he began, "we recognize the Republican party as the party of progress and principle. It is always safe to rely on the action of the united Republican party for good, patriotic and economical governmental administration, national, State and municipal. We deprecate any dissensions in the party lines, professed by selfish ambition, or the rapacity of any faction or clique, and pronounce against all unfair attempts to control our primaries or conventions in the interest of any person or clique. One of the tenets of the Republican party demands 'fair elections.' This election must be extended to all primary elections of the party. We view all the side issues, under whatever name designated, whereby Republicans are drawn away from party fealty, as the enemy."

And calculated solely to injure to Democratic supremacy, national, State and municipal. Our experience in this city teaches us the realization of this fact, and the feeble local government discloses that there is always danger in this temporizing idea. We pledge our candidates to an economical administration of the municipal affairs on sound business principles, to the end that taxation may be reduced to the lowest possible figure. We are in favor of radical reforms in the Police Department that will give us a harmonious and efficient force of competent officers. We insist on sanitary and police regulations which will insure the health, safety and improvement of our city, and demand the vigorous enforcement of such regulations, laws and ordinances. We look upon the apportionment of 55 per cent. of the gross revenue from water rates as a calamity ominous to the city, and favor any lawful means to be selected for the diversion of such funds from the support of the water works and the improvement of the system."

The report was read with cheers, and it is needless to say, was adopted unanimously.

Chairman Bruner then announced that the first thing in order under the adopted report on business would be the selection of a City Central Committee.

After some delay from the Third Ward delegates, the committee was made up as follows: First Ward—A. J. Rhoads and J. F. Cavanaugh; Second Ward—R. T. Devlin and J. H. Hart; Third Ward—John Hurley, Andrew J. Galligan and Wilbur F. Smith; Fourth Ward—W. H. Goswin, J. J. McKinnon and W. W. Conners; Committeesman at Large—A. J. Johnston.

W. A. Anderson at this juncture took the floor, and said that inasmuch as finances were an important matter, he would move that each delegate be assessed fifty cents, and every candidate $5.

THIRD TRUSTEE. After the money had been collected from the delegates, the Chairman announced that nominations for the office of Third Trustee were in order.

E. C. Hart took the floor and stated that it was well known that the Republican party was not "exactly" in harmony. Factions existed. He said he proposed to offer the name of a gentleman to the convention whom he felt sure would lead the party to success, and who would cement the party factions. He proposed the name of Charles T. Jones.

Major Anderson immediately took the floor and offered a resolution to the effect that Alonzo R. Conklin be declared the choice of the convention. "Call the roll! Call the roll!" came from the ranks of the houses. Major Anderson retained the floor, however, and continued to talk. He said that he had been to see Mr. Conklin during the past few days, and had indorsed the platform adopted by the convention. He would accept the nomination, and would appear before the concluding session of Mr. Anderson.

Before the resolution could be put, Charles T. Jones said, he did not see how Mr. Conklin could have indorsed the platform adopted by the convention before it had been adopted. He thought Mr. Conklin had been deceived by the convention and adopted the platform in the presence of the delegates.

Win J. Davis and Frank J. Ryan followed Mr. Jones in the same strain. They thought that a Republican should not be ashamed to appear before a convention and say he was a Republican.

Mr. Bruner then stepped further speaking by stating that so far as he had been informed there was nothing to indicate that Mr. Conklin did not intend to appear before the convention.

There were more cries of "call the roll" on Mr. Anderson's resolution, and Mr. Bruner ordered the roll called.

The vote resulted as follows: For the resolution, 101; against, 48. The Chairman announced that Mr. Conklin had been nominated by acclamation.

A BIT OF IRONY. "A. J. Sematz sarcastically moved that Charles T. Jones be declared the choice of the convention, that the balance of the Citizens' ticket be nominated."

The Chairman ignored the motion and called for nominations for City Auditor.

Charles T. Jones named Captain J. J. Young for the office. Mr. Jones stated that although he had voted against the Citizens' ticket, he intended to support the nominee and the entire Republican ticket to the utmost of his ability.

Mr. Bruner then called for nominations for City Assessor.

Grove L. Johnson nominated H. Clay Chipman. He said this gentleman had demonstrated his popularity in Sacramento during the past year, and would without doubt carry victory with him. He was elected last fall to an honorable office, by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. Johnson said he had heard since he came into the convention that it had "all been fixed" and that Mr. Conklin should be nominated for Trustee and Mr. Young for Auditor. If this was the case (Mr. Johnson said) he would not support either.

Charles Root nominated Ed. H. McKee, the present City Assessor, for City Auditor, and Major Anderson nominated by request J. H. Ferguson.

Frank D. Ryan seconded Capt. Young's nomination, and Charles N. Post advocated the nomination of H. Clay Chipman.

The candidates were called upon for speeches.

Mr. Young responded briefly, promising to do credit to the position if nominated.

Mr. McKee withdrew from the contest, and Mr. Anderson withdrew the name of Mr. Ferguson.

The roll was then called on the nominations of Messrs. Young and Chipman. The vote resulted as follows: Young 119, Chipman 35.

Captain Young was formally declared the nominee.

BUCKLEY FOR ASSESSOR. The Chairman announced that nominations for City Assessor were in order.

J. O. Fungus made a patriotic speech, placed in nomination John J. Buckley, the present incumbent.

F. Taylor nominated James N. Porter.

The roll called showed that Buckley had the majority and he was declared nominated.

Nominations for City Collector being next in order, W. A. Anderson placed in nomination the present incumbent, George A. Putnam, and there being no other nominations, Mr. Putnam was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Putnam mounted the rostrum, paid his assessment and indorsed the platform. He said that his past record would be a guaranty for his future actions.

For Fire Commissioner (long term) Grove L. Johnson placed in nomination John Weil in a complimentary speech.

Mr. Weil was nominated by acclamation.

Frank D. Ryan nominated William E. Miller for Fire Commissioner for the short term. There were no other nominations, and Mr. Miller was nominated by acclamation.

This completed the ticket. Chairman Bruner proposed three cheers for the ticket, and they were given with a will. The convention then adjourned sine die.

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE. After the convention had adjourned and the delegates had departed, the newly-elected members of the City Central Committee held a meeting and organized as follows: Chairman, A. J. Johnston; Secretary, Mr. Galligan, and Treasurer, J. J. McKinnon.

Death of a Pioneer. Harvey Alvord, an old resident of this county, died at Howell's, in Cosumnes township, yesterday. He was 73 years of age, a native of New York, and came to this county in 1840, since which time he had resided here, with the exception of two years.

There was a caucus last night of the Republican members of the Legislature in the Supreme Court-room at the State Capitol. The subject before it was the apportionment of the State into Congressional and Legislative Districts. The caucus agreed upon the Voorhies Congressional apportionment heretofore published, and virtually agreed upon the legislative apportionment, but another meeting will be held this evening, when the latter will be again considered and final action taken.

Open-Air Meeting. A small crowd of men stood out in the rain last evening at Fourth and K streets to hear W. N. Willey and C. B. Sedgwick, of San Francisco, speak in favor of a bill to create an urgent necessity fund in each county for the relief of the unemployed workingmen.

MORE RAIN.

The Storm Sets in Once More in Good Shape.

It Comes Just in Time to Shut Off Another Visitation from Jack Frost.

Rain commenced falling in this city at 7 o'clock last evening and continued through the night.

Reports received at the railroad office last night were to the effect that the barometer was falling on "the hill" and the weather was showery. Above Emigrant Gap snow was falling quite heavily, and the indications pointed to a heavy storm. All trains were on time, however.

The Signal Service temperature at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. yesterday was 38° and 51°, while the highest and lowest temperature was 54° and 36°, with a black frost, which means a heavy white frost, but not of such a damaging nature as a killing.

A black frost may occur when the lowest temperature does not reach the freezing point (32°). At and below that point all frosts are killing. A light frost may occur when the temperature, a few feet above the ground, does not fall lower than forty to forty-four degrees, owing to the amount of moisture in the air.

A temperature of the atmosphere in the air just passed would have produced only a light frost, because the amount of watery vapor in the air was much less than yesterday morning, when the temperature was 36°.

Usually in very cold weather in California the air is quite dry, thereby putting the temperature of the air that no frost occurs, and if it does it will not be of such a damaging nature, if the air was much more moist. That is especially the case in secret why citrus fruit trees and the fruit also can bear a lower temperature in California without any serious damage, while the same temperature in the Riviera of Italy and in Florida would devastate those orchards. The climate of these places is humid, and the moisture which our air is so dry one; hence the difference.

The barometrical readings at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. yesterday were 29.4 and 29.38 inches, respectively, showing that the instrument had started again on the down-grade toward the storm-producing point on Sunday night. The storm on Monday was entirely too great to insure settled weather.

The highest and lowest temperature one year ago yesterday was 50° and 36°, with 22 of an inch of rain, and one year ago to-day 46° and 39°, with 24 of an inch, which was again on Thursday, with 19th, there was 28 inches of rain. The last storm was rather peculiar, in not giving nearly so much rain here as it did in Oakland, Colusa, Willows and other places.

The barometer at the Summit yesterday morning was low, and snow fell at intervals.

RESPECT TO SHERMAN. The Adjutant-General Issues Orders to the National Guard.

Adjutant-General C. C. Allen issued the following order yesterday:

The Commander-in-Chief announces to the National Guard of California, with much sorrow, the death, on February 14th, instant, of General William Tecumseh Sherman, U. S. Army, retired.

General Sherman was at one time Major-General of the militia of the State of California, and during the trying times of 1842 aided the civil authorities of the State to the utmost of his power, and carried the powers conferred upon him by the laws in maintaining order in protecting the lives and property of our citizens. In 1843, after a patriotic speech, dated January 2, 1856, General Sherman said, "Several gentlemen have consulted me as to the expediency of my going to the Governor may at any moment be compelled to order out the militia, in which case I would have no objection of day, and I should have to act with decision. No violence is designed on the part of the State authorities, but if resistance is offered to the extent of the militia, they will have to be used in the proportion of the resistance offered; civil war is so horrible a prospect, that, of course, we should do all in our power to avoid the necessity."

And that due honors may be paid to this distinguished patriot, whose life in the military and civil life has been an incentive to the young men of this nation, it is hereby ordered that the flags on the armories of the State be displayed at half mast until after the day of the funeral, and that the colors of the several regiments and companies of the N. G. C. be draped in mourning, and the officers of the N. G. C. wear the usual badge of mourning for the period of thirty days.

FOLSOM OLD FELLOWS. A New Rebekah Degree Lodge Instituted on Monday.

A new lodge of the Rebekah Degree Order of Old Fellows was instituted Monday night at Folsom. There were over forty names on the membership roll and the following officers instituted the new lodge: Grand Master, John Glasson; D. G. Master, J. T. Pinkham; Grand Warden, Edward Christy; Grand Secretary, J. E. Pellow; Grand Treasurer, J. Hill; Grand Inspectors, H. F. Dains; Grand Marshal, P. F. Dolan.

The following officers were installed: Noble Grand, Mrs. Eliza Butler; Vice-Grand, Mrs. Mary K. Lovett; Secretary, Mrs. Ella Slayback; Treasurer, Mrs. Augusta Levy; Conductor, Mrs. Annie White; Warden, of Hattie Miller; Organist, Mrs. Stephen Miller; Grand Inspectors, Mrs. Louisa Klump; R. S. N. G. Mrs. Belle Hyman; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Annie Schiller; G. M. Mrs. Mollie Graham; L. S. V. G. Mrs. J. A. Vin; R. A. S. Mrs. Belle For; L. A. S. Mrs. Sarah McManus; Chaplain, Miss Emma Miller; and a number of other officers. Mrs. Louisa Klump, Mrs. Belle Hyman.

After the installation ceremonies a banquet was held and the affair was quite enjoyable.

THE CONSPIRACY LAW. Comments Upon It From a Worker's Standpoint.

Ens. RECORD-UNION: The Senate Judiciary committee having recommended that Senate bill No. 576 do pass, it is time the public awake to the danger lurking in the proposed law. That some one should busy himself to secure such recommendations signifies that there are those who are willing to bring about a more serious friction between employers and employees, and that the struggle for existence under the industrial conditions now obtaining simply amounts to a fight. In this battle, as in all, weapons must be used. The time is not far back when these weapons consisted solely of such as were wielded by physical force.

In such conditions the workers were ever worsted. Realizing the folly of a continuance of such fighting, they learned to combine and use more humane weapons—weapons of the intellect, if you please. Among the most effective of the weapons now used is that one originated by our forefathers, who assembled in town meetings and voted to withhold all patronage from, to hold no commercial intercourse with those who dealt in goods produced by those who ill-treated or oppressed them. This method was vigorously used by the oppressed, and they forced an appeal to physical force. So it is now. Those who desire to resist the law makers are met with a refusal to hold commercial intercourse with them. Such refusal is met in New York with a law making such refusal a conspiracy. So far-reaching is this law that when one refuses to work for another and a third gives him money or "words of sympathy," he is guilty of conspiracy to injure the business of the second party and must go to jail. The cases are numerous where this law has been done. Within the past six months it was done at Huntington, N. Y., where the cigarmakers were hustled to the penitentiary in car-load lots, sixty a day, till there were none left to carry on the fight. Even girls in their teens were adjudged guilty of conspiracy under this law and received their sixty days in jail, some of whom have never yet got home from their imprisonment.

Am now are we to have this infamous law thrust upon us here in California? Will the Legislature pass such a law. I do not believe it. GEORGE HUGHES. Sacramento City, February 17, 1891.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Clemenceau Case" deservedly flopped out last night. But few people went to see it. Sybil Johnstone did not appear, being ill; her sister, a better actress, took her place.

The sale of seats for the dramatic engagement of the eminent tragedian, Frederick Ward, and the not less capable artist, Mrs. D. P. Bowers, will begin at the Metropolitan Theater this morning. The lovers of the pure, elevating and artistic on the stage should make this engagement a notable one by large audiences at each of the four evening performances when they present such dramas as "Henry VIII.," "The Merchant of Venice," "Katherine and Petruchio," "Virginius" and "Macbeth," the fine plays of the engagement referred to.

A. R. Willbur, representing Goodyear, Elitch and Schilling's Minstrels, is in the city.

Amelie Gehring's Trial. The trial of Amelie Gehring, the German girl who is accused of robbing Mrs. Amy Gillig, while in the latter's employ, was virtually concluded yesterday. The case will not be given to the jury until to-day, however, as the arguments are not adjourned. Considerable evidence in rebuttal was taken during the day, and the arguments were begun late in the afternoon. E. C. Hart addressed the jury for the prosecution and Clinton White for the defense. To-day Clinton White will talk for the defense and Charles T. Jones will close for the people.

Alleged Burglars. Robert Coleman, S. Allen and F. L. Schmidt have been arrested and charged with burglary. They were caught in a box car near the depot and brought to the police station by Officer White. It is supposed that they broke into a car containing a consignment of oysters.

Ninety Days for a Vagrant. In Judge Cravens Court yesterday, James Emery pleaded guilty to a charge of being a common drunkard and was sent to the County Jail for 90 days. The cases of George Mollusk and Thomas Dunn, charged with battery, were again continued until Thursday.

At Its Highest. The river rose to the 18 feet 4 inch mark yesterday morning on the Yolo bridge gauge, and then commenced to fall slowly. It was receding at the rate of an inch an hour yesterday afternoon. The raise in the stream for the storm was just nine feet.

Tour of Inspection. General Superintendent J. A. Fillmore, of the Southern Pacific Company, started from this city yesterday on a tour of inspection of the new road at Marysville. He will return to San Francisco by way of Knights Landing and Davisville.

Plan, Correct—Results, Extraordinary. That company which insures its patrons' lives upon the simplest, most equitable and most economical basis is the one that will always succeed. A glance at the fifth annual statement of the Commercial Mutual Life Insurance Company, heretofore presented, demonstrates that superior business methods allied to a considerate regard for policy holder interests, will command the attention and patronage of the public. In 1889 the ratio of expenses of management to receipts was 9.92 per cent. In 1890 the ratio of expenses to receipts was 9.37 per cent., or over six-tenths of 1 per cent. This certainly demonstrates very close and exact business methods, in spite of the competition of the policy holders share. The policies in force December 31, 1890, reached the splendid total of $13,274,747. Of this amount nearly $1,500,000 was new business in 1890.

CROWN LAVENDER SALTS

Crab Apple Blossom Perfume.

Says an authority: "The old-time fashion of perfuming rooms and bed linen is returning to favor, and as the English have always adhered to the spicy lavender for their linen closets, we now find a lavender salt to perfume rooms. It is sold in bottles, and when the bottle is opened the fragrance is rapidly diffused through the room, leaving the air pure and refreshing."

We have the Crown Lavender Salts referred to above at 60 cents.

We also wish to call attention to the popular "Crab Apple Blossom" Perfume, made by the same company. It is a most refreshing and delightful odor and quite different from anything else in that line.

GIRLS' BICYCLES.

There is no better way to develop a pale-faced school girl into a very healthy one than to give her a daily spin on a bicycle before nine in the morning. English women, with their wonderful complexions, have used them for years, and they are not uncommon in our own Golden Gate Park, where rosy-cheeked maidens ride them as well posted as if in a lounging chair.

The bicycles which we carry have two wheels of about the same size and are finely finished in black enamel and nickel. They are provided with fenders over the back wheel, and are as modest to ride as the more familiar three-wheel machines. Price, $35. For ages 10 to 18 years.
