

DAILY RECORD-UNION THURSDAY MARCH 26, 1891 ISSUED BY THE SACRAMENTO PUBLISHING COMPANY

Weather Forecast. Forecast till 8 P. M. Thursday, 26th--For Northern California--Fair weather, except light rain at Eureka, Red Bluff and Sacramento; winds generally westerly; cooler, except near stationary temperature at Eureka and Red Bluff.

CHILE. If the reports from Chile are half true, the hour is at hand for civilized nations in the name of a common humanity to interfere with a protest. It is said that on both sides in that disturbed country prisoners of war are butchered as soon as taken, and that savagery and cruelty mark every step of the unfortunate trouble.

South American soil is volcanic, and the character of the people in a large portion of the continent would seem to partake of that characteristic. Revolutions would seem to be an absolute necessity in some of the South American States, as if without them there would be retrogression along the rear roads of civilization. It is impossible for any country to attain a high degree of prosperity where there is always a feeling of insecurity, and a sense of political unrest, that is liable at any moment to drive out tranquility.

Another line of Novelty Dress Goods at $1 25 a yard has arrived. New shades, new weaves. Several exquisite styles of Pattern Suits have just come in from Paris. Only one of a kind. See them at once if you want the choice.

Fine Challis. Foremost among the light summer fabrics the Challis claims your attention this season. Its picturesque style, its lightness and coolness, and its splendid draping properties make it a deservedly popular fabric. We have Challis in several grades, the finest being a French Wool Challis in some of the prettiest patterns that ever came to us. "Nature has made some strange fellows in her time," and it is certainly a strange fellow that can reproduce nature in textile form so wonderfully as do those geniuses in far-off France.

Points on Pipes. We have commenced to keep Pipes, and all other utensils for the enjoyment of the "fragrant weed," in a large variety. The way we have made the pipes may be gleaned from this item:

A Meerscham Pipe, with a straight stem, amber mouth piece, put up in a satin-lined leather case, for $2. We have also pleasing assortments in Meerscham Bowls, Meerscham Cigar Holders, Meerscham Cigarette Holders, Briar Pipes, Pipe Stems, Corn-cob Pipes, Tobacco Pouches.
