

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY.

They Spend a Very Quiet Sabbath in San Francisco.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. HARRISON ATTEND DIVINE SERVICES.

President Harrison's Sister Meets With a Very Serious Accident Near Cleves, Ohio--Postmaster-General Wanamaker Addresses the Sunday-School Children, and Later the Young Men's Christian Association.

Special to the Record-Union.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.--The Presidential party spent a very quiet Sabbath. This morning the President and Mrs. Harrison accompanied Mayor Sanderson and Mrs. Sanderson to the First Presbyterian church. The remainder of the day the President spent in his rooms at the Palace Hotel. A number of persons called during the day, but he generally asked to be excused on the ground that he needed rest after the fatiguing efforts of the last two weeks.

ACCIDENT TO PRESIDENT HARRISON'S SISTER.

CINCINNATI, April 26.--This evening a telegram was sent to President Harrison on the Pacific coast from Mrs. Eaton, in Kansas City, that their sister, Mrs. Bettie Eaton, of North Bend, had been fatally injured to-day by being thrown from a carriage on a runaway. The accident happened this afternoon at Cleves, about twenty-three miles west of this city. Mrs. Eaton and her niece, Miss Moore, were on their way to church in a carriage, driving a family horse, which, though spirited, has always been considered safe. On their return the horse shied at something and started away. The breaching of the harness broke, and the horse plunged down a bank, throwing both women out of the carriage.

Mrs. Bettie Eaton was thrown to the hard ground violently, her head striking first. Miss Moore had her shoulder dislocated and suffered severely. She was able to be removed to the Eaton homestead at North Bend, and it is hoped the injuries are not fatal. Mrs. Eaton's injuries were known to be so serious at first she could not be removed to North Bend. She was at once taken to the house of a friend, Mr. J. H. Eaton, who had Dr. Hughes called in immediately.

A telephone message from Cleves, at 8 o'clock to-night, said that all hope of her recovery seemed to have been abandoned. About midnight to-night, the Cincinnati agent of the Associated Press received a telephone message from Mr. Grossman of Cleves, who said that at 8 o'clock to-night Mrs. Eaton was conscious and able to talk, and there were some hopes of her recovery.

He says, in the mail, that the horse did not run away, but that the breaching broke when he was going down a steep hill between Cleves and North Bend, and that he could not help rushing down the hill, and that Miss Moore in her fright caught the reins and the horse veered and upset the buggy over a steep bank.

Miss Moore, who lives in Chicago and is here on a visit. Miss Moore's mother is at Cummingsville to-night on her way to North Bend.

Mr. Grossman telegraphs that Miss Moore's injuries are not thought to be serious.

The hopes of Dr. Hughes are that Mrs. Eaton has not suffered internal injuries as was thought at first. She is about 60 years old, and has a son, Archibald Eaton, now at El Paso, Mex., in the service of the Vandalla Road. Mrs. Eaton was a lady of high and low, rich and poor, and all Cleves and North Bend are grieved over this accident.

THE NEWS CONVEYED TO THE PRESIDENT. SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.--President Harrison received the first news of his sister's injury from an Associated Press telegram stating that she had been fatally injured in a runaway accident. It was shown to him by Postmaster-General Wanamaker. President Harrison was deeply shocked, and he said that he loved the news. He said that he had no information on the subject, and that he is not aware of any sister being in Chicago. His brother-in-law, Mr. J. H. Eaton, who thought the telegram might refer to her. He had a sister living at North Bend, and another one at Minneapolis.

The President was further telegraphed to Chicago for further information. Until he received definite news he could not state what change would be made in his plans.

The President was later furnished with copies of the Associated Press dispatches containing the news of the accident to his sister as fast as they were received here. When the news first came Postmaster-General Wanamaker stated that it looked as if the entire party would start directly for the East. "When I saw the news," said Mrs. Eaton was not so dangerously injured as at first thought, the President was greatly relieved, and stated that until definite news was received no change would be made in his plans.

The President and Mrs. Harrison sat up until a late hour, anxiously awaiting further news.

At 2 A. M. President Harrison was still awaiting further news from his sister. He was trying to write a direct wire to North Bend, and stated that if the news was not more encouraging he would start immediately for the East.

At 2 P. M. President Harrison received a dispatch from North Bend stating that Mrs. Eaton was doing very well.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER. SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.--Postmaster-General Wanamaker addressed the children at the Calvary Baptist Sunday school. He said, on being introduced to the children: "When I am introduced to children I like to speak to them, and have them speak to me. I like to shake hands with them. Now, you all have got yourselves up here, and you are all above the heads of the children. You are many wings. Thus two thousand Sunday school children shook hands with the superintendent of the largest Sunday school in America."

"Now we're acquainted, and I am so glad to know you, to come here and see you and hear your sweet songs. They are the same old songs we sing all over the land. How sweet it is to think of that. The same old Bible open in every church in any land. I have been going to Sunday school ever since I was a little youngster like you, and find as I grow, that the Sunday-school jacket grows too tight for the best of it. It is true that I teach a Bible class in the Bethany Sunday-school in Philadelphia, where 700 scholars often attend. Who will say there is anything better for full-grown men to do on Sunday than to open his Bible and study God's ways for us to live? In all the 4,000 miles I have never seen so many so happy to face. You have a scriptural land here, overflowing with milk and honey, and full of God's wonderful love to the people he cares for, whether they care for him or not."

Mr. Wanamaker devoted the rest of his talk to a parable about an old mill in four "S. S."--Sunday Sanctuary Scriptures and the Savior. His youthful audience was all attention, and when it was all over the children looked as though they would like to cheer.

At the Wigwam this afternoon an enormous crowd of about 4,000 people gathered to hear Postmaster-General Wanamaker, who delivered an address under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Among other things, he said: "I am glad to be counted on the side of the Christian Association, of the Sunday-school cause, of temperance, anything that helps man and fits him to be the highest type of American citizen. I am wild for anything that is for young men. There is something in my shoes that stops me when I get alongside of a good-looking boy or young man. There are railroad fellows we have with us. They have a church of their own, and they have a grip to have, holding on to the brakes and levers. I like to take off my hat to them and say thanks, and to the postoffice clerk, and to the man who goes out to every one as a personal friend. To-day I want to speak to the Christian Association as one of God's given things to help us keep our feet on the straight and of temptation blow upon us in the struggle we are making to climb up to the place we have been dreaming about."

THE WALLA WALLA TRAGEDY. President Harrison Telegraphs Secretary Proctor to Order an Inquiry. SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.--The President had a conference with Brigadier-General Ruger late this afternoon in regard to the lynching of the murderer at Walla Walla, Washington, by a party of soldiers last Friday night, and subsequently the President sent the following telegram to the Secretary of War at Washington: "The affair at Walla Walla is very discreditable to army discipline. If there is any man in the army who is composed of soldiers, you will order a Court of Inquiry, and see that the responsibility for the disgrace is fixed, and that the guilty are brought to punishment."

NO ACTION TAKEN BY THE DEPARTMENT. WASHINGTON, April 26.--No action has been taken by the War Department in regard to the lynching of the murderer at Walla Walla, who was lynched by soldiers last Friday night. Secretary Proctor said to-night that the matter had been left to the division commander, General Ruger, and every effort would be made by the department to aid the civil authorities in bringing the lynchers to justice.

FATAL FLAMES. A Man Loses His Life in a Fire at Napa. NAPA, April 26.--At four o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in an outbuilding in the rear of the California Bakery, on Main street. The flames quickly spread to adjoining wooden buildings in the rear of a building owned by M. Silva and occupied by himself as a soda water depot, by Mrs. Scabury as a milliner, by C. Clauson as a saloon, and by other parties engaged in various businesses, all partially consumed.

Over the saloon rooms were let to lodgers. The following sentence from the report of the fire is of interest: "The fire was first noticed by the firemen and taken out, but went back after something. His body was clad only in his underclothes. He was lying on the floor, and the fire had reached the flesh badly cooked, though not charred. It is supposed that death resulted from suffocation. He was a laborer, and had been at work at the time he went to bed only an hour before, after attending a dance here. An inquest was held."

The origin of the fire is not known. The total loss to property is $2,000; partially insured. Had it been in the north building, the whole city would probably have been burned.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S PREMIER. He Is Emphatically Opposed to a Political Union With America. TACOMA (Wash.), April 26.--Premier John Robson of British Columbia was in this city to-day en route to Victoria with the remains of his son, who died in California a few days ago. Robson said to a reporter: "As the next-door neighbor to our country, we are not interested in reciprocity. We want it as regards raw materials. We are opposed both to unrestricted reciprocity and to a political union. The latter, we believe, will lead to a political union, which we emphatically oppose. We believe we have material to build up as great a nation as yours, and we want a friendly rivalry. If your President honors us with a visit, we promise him a sincere and hearty welcome. I see much in the States, and I see nothing to which I have not already given my assent. You achieved nothing in the way of national success that we cannot achieve."

A Fugitive From Justice. SEATTLE (Wash.), April 26.--Martin J. Gallagher, who was out by a colored man in an affray a few nights ago, and was at the time suspected of being a fugitive from California justice, was arrested at the Providence Hospital to-day on a telegraphic request from Chief Crowley of San Francisco. Gallagher assaulted a man named Cole in San Francisco two years ago, and forfeited $2,000 bail. He will be held until an officer arrives to take him back.

Arrived by the Acapulco. SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.--The steamer Acapulco arrived from Panama last night, having on board Antonia Batres, Minister from Guatemala to the United States, and T. O. Gomez, ex-Minister to the United States, and Secretary of the United States Consulate at Valparaiso, and Rear Admiral R. H. Seymour.

Chinaman Mortally Wounded. LOS ANGELES, April 26.--A Chinese woman was shot and mortally wounded to-night by her husband. She is said to be the notorious Long Ark. The man had quarreled with her, when he drew a pistol and shot her in the bowels. The murderer escaped.

Wild Geese and Electric Lights. The night was still and dark, and as the birds flew over the city some of the geese would get bewildered by the bright light of the electric lamps and circle round and round the light, swooping if lost. The ducks do not seem to care for the excitement of city life and go quietly on their way, but a goose is so supremely curious that he can hardly pass an electric light without flying round and examining it. About two years ago there was a terrific thunder storm in this city and vicinity, during which a flock of geese, numbering probably 200, entered the city and soon became bewildered by the storm. Some of them, it is said, even lit on the roofs of houses, and certain it is that at half-past four or five in the morning there was a great flock of geese sitting in the light of the city lamps, on the corner of Main and First streets, in the center of the town. This, of course, is an exceptional case and would probably never have happened if it had not been for the storm, but why they should be so irresistibly attracted toward a light as to lose all fear of man's habits, and to alight in the middle of the street, has always been a wonder to me.--Kansas Correspondence Forest and Stream.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Surprise Occasioned at Senator Chilton's Appointment.

CRISP'S CHANCES FOR THE HOUSE SPEAKERSHIP.

Leading Indiana Democrats Working Up a Little Boom for Ex-Governor Gray for the Presidency--President Harrison's Utterances on His Journey Gain Him Many Friends Throughout the East.

Special to the Record-Union.

WASHINGTON, April 26.--The appointment of Senator Chilton by Governor Hogg of Texas has occasioned great surprise here. It was generally believed that it was arranged that Mills should have the Speakership, which would result in the Speakership of the next House going to Crisp. Not much seems to be known of Chilton, other than that he has the reputation of being a brilliant orator in a public sense of the word, and that he is a member of the House of Representatives. It is said that he is a member of the House of Representatives, and that he is a member of the House of Representatives. It is said that he is a member of the House of Representatives, and that he is a member of the House of Representatives.

REAGAN'S POSITION. REAGAN WAS ONE OF THE PICTURESQUE CHARACTERS OF THE UPPER HOUSE. HE IS KNOWN ABOUT THE CAPITOL AS "THE LITTLE OF THE CONFEDERACY." HE WAS POSTMASTER-GENERAL AND LATER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY OF THE CONFEDERACY. SINCE THE CONFEDERACY DISSOLVED HE HAS SPENT HIS TIME, AFTER HIS POLITICAL DISABILITIES WERE REMOVED, FIRST IN THE LOWER AND THEN IN THE UPPER BRANCH OF CONGRESS. FOR YEARS HE HAS BEEN AN IMPORTANT VOTE, HIS FRIENDS INSISTING ON HIS RE-ELECTION TO THE SENATE AN UTTER IMPOSSIBILITY, IT IS SAID HE WAS ONLY TO GLAD TO BECOME A PARTY TO THE DEAL BY WHICH HE COULD BE LET DOWN EASY INTO THE PRESIDENCY OF HIS NATIVE STATE, A FIVE-YEAR OFFICE AT $10,000 PER ANNUM. THE WORK IS TO HIS LIKING, AS HE HAS TAKEN A GREAT INTEREST IN THE RAILROADS, WHICH ARE ONE OF THE COMMITTEES WHICH HE FRAMED AND REPORTED TO THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACT. HIS EXPLANATION OF HIS MOVE TO THE PRESIDENCY OF HIS NATIVE STATE IS ONE OF THE MEMOIRS OF THE FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.
