

CHANGE OF VENUE.

J. D. Smith Does Not Want to be Tried in Sacramento.

Voluntuous Affidavits Being Read in Judge Catlin's Court—Alleged Prejudice—Counter Affidavits Filed.

In Judge Catlin's Court yesterday afternoon J. D. Smith, the ex-diver-keeper who is awaiting trial for complicity in the assault and robbery of Robert Allen, moved through his attorneys, Johnson, Johnson & Johnson—for a change of venue.

In support of the motion a voluntuous affidavit sworn to by Smith was produced and read. It contained lengthy quotations from the Sacramento papers, which were alleged by Smith to be prejudicial to his case and having a tendency to prevent him from receiving a fair trial in this county.

It could not secure bondsmen for his release, also that the friends of Robert Allen are thirsting for revenge and would not give the defendant, Smith, a fair trial.

These affidavits were being read when the adjournment hour arrived, and the reading of them will be resumed to-day.

Before the court adjourned District Attorney Ryan announced that he had a number of affidavits to present against those offered by Smith.

Mr. Ryan also presented affidavits from George Boyne, William Godt, Samuel Katzenstein, William M. Petrie, George Phillips, W. E. Peterson, Joseph Hahn and J. B. Klumpe, setting forth that in their opinion Smith could not receive a fair trial.

The Executive Committee of the Fourth of July celebration met last night and concluded its labors and dissolved.

The sub-committee appointed to prepare a plan to carry out the idea adopted at a previous meeting regarding the celebration of the Fourth of July, 1892, has submitted the following report.

Your sub-committee to adopt a plan for preparation of the proper celebration of the Fourth of July, 1892, in Sacramento, the same being the Columbian year, the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America, beg leave to report:

That it is fitting that the Capital City of California should celebrate that day with unusual brilliancy and patriotic effort.

That to do the full duty of the city on that occasion requires much preparation, business tact and patriotic devotion.

That it is not too early to begin to prepare at this time, as is being done already in Eastern cities, that such body may be desirable here to submit, at the December election, 1891, to the vote of the people, the question of sustaining the cost of such a celebration, which ought to be one to do the nation, the State and the city high honor; be free from selfish ends, jobs and the control of cliques, and should, and will if properly prepared, draw to the city thousands upon thousands of people to join with us in the celebration.

We therefore recommend that this body on dissolving request the following bodies to name a permanent Fourth of July Committee of Management for the celebration of 1892, and that such body organize by the first day of September, 1891, and proceed to business: The City Trustees to name three, the Board of Supervisors to name three, the City Board of Education to name two, the County Board of Education to name two, the Board of Officers Fourth Brigade two, the Grand Army of the Republic two, the Patrons of Husbandry, Sacramento Grange, two, the Sacramento Society of California Pioneers to name two, the Native Sons of the Golden West, all city parlors jointly—two, and these, on assembling, shall elect one at large to be Chairman, thus constituting a committee of twenty-one.

The communication is to be transmitted to the bodies named.

GRAND ISLAND'S RECLAMATION. Suit Brought Against a Reclatrant Land-Owner.

A. T. Reynolds, Henry W. Meyers, Howard Kercheval, C. W. Clarke and Isaac Hall, the Executive Board of Reclamation District No. 3 (Grand Island), commenced suit in the Superior Court yesterday, through their attorney, W. A. Gett, against E. R. Parvin and Eliza Parvin for the recovery of $855.50.

LUCEY'S DOCTOR BILL.

He Thought the City Physician Was Working for Nothing.

Major Gett and Judge Davis Have a Set-to—A Gambler's Misfortune—Judge Henry Perplexed.

In May of last year Edward Lucey, a gambler, was run over by a railroad train and had his legs badly mangled. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where the City Physician Nichols amputated the crushed limbs and performed other medical services.

When Lucey began to recover preparations were made, as is the custom in such cases, to have him removed to the County Hospital. But the young man and his friends objected to his going there, and pleaded with the doctor to have him cared for at some private place.

Dr. Nichols used up the money immediately, however. When Lucey recovered sufficiently to partially enjoy life again, he began to use up the $200, until only $70 was left.

Dr. Nichols gave the facts as he understood them while on the witness-stand, and then Lucey told his story. The latter said that he supposed all along that the doctor was acting in his capacity of a physician.

During the hearing of the case there were several announcements by attorney Gett and ex-Judge Davis, Lucey's counsel. Each accused the other of knowing no law nor anything else, and would probably have been not judge Henry interfered and threatened to throw the case out of court if they did not desist.

There was no other testimony offered except that given by Lucey and Dr. Nichols, and the case was submitted on that evidence.

Judge Henry scratched his head in a perplexed manner at the case as a loss for an opinion in the matter just then. He said he would have to think it over and read up the statute which fixes the duties of a City Physician.

IMPROVED RED MEN. A Delegation of Southern Indians Call at the Governor's Office.

Five strapping Indians walked into Governor Markham's office yesterday and asked to see the Executive. He attaches in the office lost their presence of mind for a few moments at the sight of the invading redskins, but finally regained their composure sufficiently to inform the tanned visitors that the Governor was not at home.

Chief Cahizon Gervasio of Indio, San Diego County, had been, they said, deposed as the head of the tribes by Indian Agent Rusk, because, they claimed, Chief Cahizon had remarked that the Agent was not doing his duty properly.
