

ONG AH FONG.

Arrest of the Alleged Assailant of Fong Ah Dep.

He Puts in an Appearance After Many Months, and Officer Wilson Gathers Him In.

Shortly after noon yesterday Officer Wilson arrested a Chinaman who was described to him as being the one who made a murderous assault on a fellow-countryman in this city last April.

On the night of April 7th, about 9 o'clock, Fong Ah Dep, an industrious Chinese laborer, was walking leisurely along I street, near Third, when suddenly a Chinaman rushed up to him, and with a word of warning shot him. Dep fell to the sidewalk, and instantly a great commotion ensued.

Two or three Chinamen were seen to hurriedly depart from the crowd, and Special Officer Goods, Captain Lee and others gave chase through the alley-ways.

One of them was caught, and on being brought before the injured man at the Receiving Hospital, he was identified as being the shooter.

The bullet struck Fong Ah Dep in the fleshy part of the back, without the aid of a hand was taken out by Dr. Nichols, the City Physician.

Yesterday morning, however, he was noticed on the street in the Chinese quarter, and the members of Fong Ah Dep's society immediately got wind of it.

Half an hour later Officer Wilson had the Chinaman located and finally arrested him in a cellar between Second and Third streets.

When the officer left the jail to hunt up the Chinaman a Record-Union reporter went with him. When they reached the corner of Second and I streets a Chinaman half block distant was noticed to quickly walk from the sidewalk into one of the tenements near by.

The officer drew his pistol and marched the prisoner as quickly as possible to the sidewalk. While walking out the Chinaman dropped his pistol, which was instantly picked up by his friends and put out of sight.

A Chinaman was sent to Folsom yesterday afternoon to bring Fong Ah Dep, the man who was shot, to this city. He arrived late last evening and was the complainant charging the prisoner with assault to murder.

The society to which Dep belongs held a meeting yesterday night, and it was decided to employ Charles T. Jones to prosecute the case.

The committee did some other business, the most important of which was to order the construction of a new reporters' stand at Agriculture Park, to replace the dilapidated one now there.

The intention is to drop the new stand a little lower than the present one, so that the occupants can have a better view through the opening in the judges' stand of the starters in three-quarter-mile races.

It will be provided with a folding stairway, so that reporters may descend at any time to the track, and being compelled to work their way over a barricade and through the crowded grand stand, the new structure will be guarded at the stairway, so that no one can gain admission thereto except the duly accredited correspondents of the daily papers.

In front of the reporters' stand, but so low as not to interfere with them, will be placed a "box," or stand for the timers of the races, where they will be safe from annoyance or interference by outsiders.

That portion of the board reserved for occupied by the timers will be set apart for weighing the jockeys and drivers, which will obviate the necessity of their climbing to the top of the stand.

While these improvements will entail but very little expense, they will be greatly appreciated by those whose convenience and comfort it is sought to promote.

FUNERAL OF N. A. KIDDER.

The remains of the late Captain Nathaniel A. Kidder, took place yesterday from Masonic Temple by a service conducted by Concord Lodge, F. and A. M. The religious services were conducted by Rev. T. Woodham, and Hon. N. Greene Curtis spoke feelingly of the life and character of the deceased.

The bearers were John Watt, B. F. Tade, P. S. Lawson, J. A. Miller, M. Dusenberry and W. R. Jones.

At the cemetery the Masonic burial ritual was read. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, which, with the large number of persons attending the funeral, attested the high esteem in which he was held.

POPULAR AIRS. Last Evening's Open-Air Concert at the Plaza.

The last of a series of three splendid concerts, given by the Hussar Band (Pedro Cortes, conductor), took place at the Plaza last evening, and to say that the vast assemblage thoroughly enjoyed it would be putting the truth in a very mild form.

The descriptive piece, "The Chinese War March," etc., proved a great hit. It comprised a Chinese josh-house performance, with Chinese orchestra, under the direction of Yeh Tie (William Bryant), which was repeated. The whole number was finely presented.

Number 7, a charming andante and Schottische Twilight, composed by Professor George C. Hollbrook, received very hearty applause, and is a very meritorious piece of work.

Number 8, the selection, "Out of Sight," which consisted of the very latest popular songs of the day (as sung by Fletcher's Minstrels on their last visit to Sacramento), was received with great delight by the popular songs. This number was repeated also.

The Artillery Band will give the next concert on Sunday evening at the Plaza, commencing at 7 o'clock.

OFFICER ARLINGTON. No Apparent Change in the Condition of Annie Manning's Victim.

Officer Arlington's condition is about the same as on Tuesday night. His strength is fully maintained, but he is beginning to show the effects of his long suffering.

Night Officer Clark, who assisted in removing him on the preceding night, and was present when the bullet was found in the vacated bed, states that it bears no evidence of having ever been shot through with a pistol. It even looks as if it were in which it was imbedded in the cartridge-shell, and has no marks to indicate that it ever traversed the rifled barrel of a pistol.

He kicked me and knocked my hat off. He kicked me and knocked my hat off. He kicked me and knocked my hat off.

At this point the officer asked him the question again, and tried to get him to repeat his answer to Officer White, but the prisoner insisted that another party did the shooting. He called me a scoundrel, but described him as having a heavy queue and a sort of "I-own-the-town" swagger.

Half an hour later Officer Wilson had the Chinaman located and finally arrested him in a cellar between Second and Third streets. When he was brought to the Police Station, where he was identified as the one wanted for the offense. On the way down to the jail, when Officer Wilson asked him what he shot Fong Ah Dep for, the prisoner replied, "He kicked me and knocked my hat off. He kicked me and knocked my hat off."

At this point the officer asked him the question again, and tried to get him to repeat his answer to Officer White, but the prisoner insisted that another party did the shooting. He called me a scoundrel, but described him as having a heavy queue and a sort of "I-own-the-town" swagger.

COUNTY SALOON LICENSES.

Liquor Men Want the New Ordinance Repealed.

They Will Be Heard on the Subject Next Tuesday--Have Any of the Members Weakened?

The question now is as to the condition of the average Supervisorial spinal column, and whether or not it has withstood during the heated spell. The retail liquor dealers appeared in force in the Supervisors' room yesterday, led by their attorney, W. A. Anderson, for the purpose of having the ordinance repealed.

Mr. Anderson said that Grove L. Johnson had also been employed as counsel for the Liquor Dealers' Association, but was busily engaged in the Superior Court. He therefore asked the board not to take any action in the matter of enforcing the ordinance on the 22d instant, as was proposed, but to fix a date when it could hear petitions and arguments on behalf of the liquor dealers.

Chairman Greer said he could see no objection in fixing a date for further hearing. There was no objection, and the ordinance was passed, and there was no use in reopening the subject and encouraging agitation. He thought it would be mutually beneficial, of course the board would receive them, but he did not see how they could cut any figure in the matter now.

Mr. Anderson said that he did not understand there had been final action taken in the matter. Supervisor Miller had called for the ordinance to be read, and it had not been read. He asked that they be given a hearing.

Chairman Greer said he had not, and Mr. Anderson claimed they had not. He repeated that he had not, and that the ordinance had been definitely acted on.

Mr. Greer said that final action had been taken. Mr. Miller offered an amendment to it, but the amendment received no second, and the ordinance was passed and is now in force. However, he was not satisfied that the liquor men from the right of petition, if they wished to be heard again.

Mr. Anderson said he represented two millions of capital and he would not believe the board desired to harass people. The liquor men did not wish to be placed in a position where they would have to contest the ordinance, and had asked that its enforcement be delayed in order that a conflict might be averted. Three members of the board, he understood, are in favor of modifying the ordinance.

"If that is the case," said Mr. Greer, "why not settle the whole matter now? If you have a majority of the board with you the ordinance can be rescinded and modified. For myself, I have acted as I thought was right and for the best interests of the people, and I have done so without fear or favor."

Mr. Anderson said that all they asked was that there be a delay in the enforcement of the ordinance until the liquor men could have time to prepare and file their petitions. The latter are now being circulated throughout the county, and all this requires time. The License Collector had given notice on the 20th he would begin the collection of licenses.

Supervisor Bates brought the discussion to a head by moving that Mr. Anderson and the liquor men be given a hearing on Tuesday, the 21st, at 10 o'clock a. m., and that Mr. L. C. Leitch and others who wished to be heard on the side of the ordinance be notified thereof in order that they may be present and be heard.

The motion was carried without dissent, the liquor men withdrew, and the board proceeded to consider the hydraulic miners' petitions.

The elegant residence of A. A. Van Vorhies, at Fourteenth and H streets, was last evening the scene of a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Van Vorhies to Rev. Carroll M. Davis, who was formerly rector of St. Paul's Church in this city. The members of the congregation and a large number of other friends of Mr. Davis were invited to welcome him. After a delightful drawing-room party, which was terminated by a collation and it was a merry assemblage that enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess. The affair was entirely informal, and therefore all the more agreeable. In addition to the pleasure of the evening, vocal and instrumental solos were rendered. Charles Phillips gave a delightful solo, and songs were also rendered by Mrs. Addie Carter, Miss Mary Johnson, Mrs. Pinkham and Horace Crocker. Miss May Currier acted as pianist for the singers, and also played several charming selections on the piano.

Beneath a snow-white wedding-bell of Marched Niel roses, Miss Grace E. Hatch and Louis E. Jordan were made husband and wife yesterday morning at the residence of the bride's parents, 321 H street. Rev. Carroll M. Davis performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by only the relatives and a few of the immediate friends of the families. The rooms throughout the house were exquisitely decorated with flowers, evergreens and large palm leaves, while the entrances to each of the rooms were overhung with wreaths of ivy. The guests began to assemble at 10:30 o'clock, and at 11 the marriage ceremony took place. The bride was attended by Miss Emma Groth of this city, and J. W. Lambdin of San Jose was the groomsmen. After the benediction had been pronounced congratulations followed until all had wished the pair happiness and prosperity. A wedding repast was served and in the afternoon a reception was held, lasting from 12:30 to 2:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan were married at San Jose on the afternoon train. They will spend their honeymoon at San Jose, Monterey, Santa Cruz and other places about the Bay. On their return they will take up

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

Reception by the Young Women's Christian Association.

A very pleasant time was had last evening at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association on Ninth street. The guests were the clergymen of the city, the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, with their wives, and the newly-arrived Secretary, John L. Spears. The entertainers were the Secretary, Miss Alice Andrews, and the Board of Directors of the Young Women's Christian Association.

After a brief prayer by Rev. Mr. Massey a piano solo by Miss Dunn was rendered in excellent style. The address of welcome on behalf of the ladies was made by Miss Barclay. This was followed by a vocal duet by Miss Andrews and Mr. Longbottom, "Bright Be Our Pathway," which was appreciated by the audience.

A brief but impressive address by Rev. Mr. Massey was next announced. The reverend gentleman alluded to the fact that California had not advanced so rapidly in population, wealth and importance as some of the other States, and he mutually and he found a partial explanation of this in the lowered moral tone of our communities and the indifference of the people to the great immorality and lawlessness in their midst. This must inevitably react upon the material prosperity of the country.

The Rev. Mr. Hutchins followed with a brief address full of encouragement and support. John L. Spears then spoke for the Young Women's Association, and gave some interesting information concerning the workings of the Young Women's Association in the Eastern States. It is expected that the two associations will be mutually helpful to each other and cordially cooperate in the good work for the moral and social betterment of our city, and every effort will be made to make the program, and every body was invited to partake.

A WILD RIDE. Midnight Antics of a Drunken Couple on the Public Streets.

Near midnight last night a horse dashed wildly through J street, drawing a buggy occupied by a man and a young woman. The man was so drunk that he lay stretched across the back of the seat, but the girl was not quite so helpless. She was just able to hold the lines and was singing the "Yankee Doodle" as she drove. At Third and J streets the buggy wheels struck the railroad track and the vehicle came to a stop.

When last seen the drunken pair were flying over the cobble-stones at Sixth and J streets, but they probably soon came to grief.

BRIEF NOTES. Walter Wood's room at 322 Q street was raided the other night. Wood lost a watch and chain, as well as the vest which contained them.

George McCall is reported as "missing" from 1412 Fifth Street since the 4th, although the family admit that he went to look for work on the coal barge. If he sent a couple of weeks, so it does not appear to be a bad case of "missing."
