RIOTOUS CHINESE.

Missions Being Burned and Looted by Whites.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—The steamer Belgic arrived to-day from China and Japan with details of the riots and murders at Wusieh.

As soon as the incendiaries at Tanyang became known it was announced that there would be another at Wusieh. Strangers speaking an Upper Yangtze dialect appeared in the city, spreading the usual calumnies and stirring up the people to set fire to the church. This, they stated, would be done in a few days. This was being expected by the Chinese rice shops had to cease their work of preparing the grain, the workmen expecting to have their share of the booty.

On Sunday morning the Chinese missionaries sent to warn the Chinese, who replied verbally, "Make your minds easy, there will be no disturbance. The people are well disposed here, and if the Europeans do not go away there will be no breach of the peace." At the request of the Father, the Chinese promised to send two gun junks to the places in the neighborhood in order to prevent any excitement. He also sent for two pikes and made them responsible for the peace of the district.

On Monday the rioters attacked the Mission. They soon began to break in the doors and windows. Some converts who attempted to stop them received wounds. Forty or fifty soldiers entered the priest's courtyard and drove out the mob, but at the same time the school was set on fire. The soldiers immediately abandoned the place to the rioters, without making a single effort to stop them.

A stone building, open to the back doors. The only persons remaining in the orphanage were a few Chinese relatives, who at first ran some danger, but were soon allowed to escape. The building was then methodically set on fire with gunpowder and oil, which was evidently brought expressly for the purpose. The church and next the priest's house, were then kindled by the same means, with such effect that nothing was left but ruins. The church was the largest and most richly decorated belonging to the mission.

The principal authors of the attack were men speaking an upper Yangtze dialect, being natives of Hunan. They were not numerous, but were certainly the ringleaders.

As the mob advanced and obtained a hold on an immense crowd of plunderers, including soldiers, swooped down upon the place without let or hindrance. Christians attempting to flee were seized and wretches laden with the spoils of the church, but were beaten back.

Unfortunately, in the two prefectures of Huanan and Kiangyin the mob has extended its ravages. We have already learned that twenty of these men have been burned; and it is said that a native priest has been slightly wounded and that two or three Christians have been killed. The Viceroy of Nanking has sent an official named Yu to take the place. It is understood that Yu has visited the ruins in company with Father Ischepe. The Futai at Soochow has sent a delegate to arrange this sad business.

COWARDLY WRETCH.

A Young Man of Sausalito Fatally Injured His Cousin.

SAN RAFAEL, July 17.—On the 23d of last month Charles Cochran, a young man residing in Sausalito, brutally beat his cousin, Maria Story, at that place. Friends tried to hush up the matter, but the young lady is now in a critical condition.

Miss Story was engaged to be married to a young man, also a resident of Sausalito. It is reported that the young man did not suit the fancy of Cochran, and in order to stop the marriage he circulated stories derogatory to the reputation of his cousin. She called on him for an explanation, and for a reply the fellow struck her in the face, knocking her down. While she lay on the ground he continued his assault, and repeatedly kicked her till she was almost insensible.

She was carried to the house of a friend and medical assistance summoned, but the case is now reported to be utterly hopeless, the severe kicks in the region of the base of the brain having brought on paralysis, and death may ensue at any time.

Cochran was arrested at the instance of the District Attorney, but has been released on bail.
