France Tries Unsuccessfully to Pitch Two Games—Catcher Sweet's Debut as a Twirler.

SAN JOSE, July 19.—The Sacramento and San Jose clubs played two games here to-day, and split even. About 4,000 people witnessed the games, and Elbright, who lost the first game for the home team, was hissed loudly.

France, after pitching the first game, was attempted to pitch the second but was batted hard, and retired in favor of Hoffman who met with the same fate, San Jose winning by a score of 9 to 2. Score of the first game:

Theodore Darling has identified the tools which burglars used in trying to crack W. H. Bradley's safe as some that were stolen from his shop on Seventeenth street, near I.

The first expedited special train this season left on Saturday for the East. It contained ten cars, sent out by the California Pacific Union, and was scheduled to run from this city to the Missouri River on passenger time.

As the result of a neighborhood quarrel, J. L. Gomez and wife have caused the arrest of James Harrison, charged with battery, and Harrison has lodged a complaint against his accusers for disturbing his peace. On Thursday the trouble will be ventilated in Justice Henry's court.

THE WEATHER. Observer Barwick Gives Official Figures for Saturday and Yesterday.

The temperatures yesterday at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. were 60° and 90°, while the highest and lowest were 96° and 59°.

The highest and lowest on Saturday were 94° and 60°, with fresh southerly breezes and cloudless skies on both days.

The barometrical readings at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. yesterday were 29.95 and 29.87 inches, respectively.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago Saturday were 84° and 58°, one year ago yesterday 81° and 55°, and one year ago to-day 92° and 58°.

A year ago yesterday was the beginning of a prolonged hot spell, lasting from the 19th to the 24th, the temperature ranging in the daytime from 91° to 102°, and at night from 55° to 67°, showing that we were blessed with cool nights, which in a manner counteracted the heated spell during the daytime.

ARLINGTON'S WOUND. Prominent Surgeons Agree That His Treatment Has Been Proper.

On Saturday Drs. White, Gardner and Gleason, in company with City Physician Nicholas, visited the Receiving Hospital and examined the wound in Arlington's head. They declared that the proper and only course of treatment that could be pursued in such a case had been taken by the City Physician.

All the physicians and surgeons of note throughout the country long since decided that probing the brain is a practice that must be avoided under all circumstances.

A few days since one of the jail officers tried to induce Arlington to write a statement about the shooting, but he would not do so.

A MISSING PAINTER. Clark E. Barnard Mysteriously Disappears From His Home.

Mrs. Clark E. Barnard, whose husband is a painter, has notified the police that he disappeared from their home in the alley between C and D, Ninth and Tenth streets, on Friday night last, and has not since been seen by his family or his friends.

He is 38 years of age, five feet ten inches in height, of light complexion and with light hair and mustache. His weight is 160 lbs. He is dressed in a blue-checked necktie and wore gaiters. He has been in the employ of a painter named Snider.

AMUSEMENTS. "The Lilliputians" closed their engagement Saturday night to a full house, with the burlesque "The Burgomaster of Pineberg." It was very amusing and was capitally given, but it is not nearly so interesting a piece as "The Pupil in Magic," and was devoid of the fine scenery and magnificent effects of the latter. The troupe left for Portland Saturday night.

E. A. Kilday, advance agent for Messrs. "Grab Bag" troupe, is in the city.

Condition of the Wounded. There has been no change apparent in the condition of William Arlington, the wounded officer. His nurse says that he maintains his strength and partakes heartily of beef tea.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.

A Case of Either Murder or Self-Destruction.

Discovery of a Body Supposed to be That of a Young Man Named E. J. Kane.

On Saturday forenoon a man notified Justice Kaupf Washington that he had discovered the body of a man floating down the river, and he secured it to some brush about opposite Freepert.

Justice Kaup sent word to Coroner George Clark, and Deputy Coroner Fenton went down the river with the Justice to where the body had been secured.

They found it to be that of an unknown young man, apparently 19 or 20 years of age. The deceased was a person of light complexion and hair, with no beard.

The body was dressed in a light tweed suit, the coat being a double-breasted, square-out sack; a white shirt and standing collar; in the shirt was an imitation diamond pin.

In one of the pockets of the coat was found a receipt, in the name of E. J. Kane, for a registered letter, No. 7,551, addressed to Morris Harvey, Orangeburg, N. Y., a postoffice key numbered 631, several postal cards, envelopes and blank sheets of paper for a long time, as well as a caliber pistol cartridge, and $4 75 in money. After the name on the receipt referred to were the words, "Young Men's Christian Association."

On examining the body but one wound was found upon it. That was in the right temple, showing where a bullet had entered, but there was no wound to indicate that the bullet had made its exit.

It was evident that the body had been in the water for a long time, as it was badly bloated. Justice Kaup decided to hold an inquest there, which was done, the jury finding that the deceased was supposed to be a person named E. J. Kane, and that he came to his death from a pistol or rifle-bullet wound inflicted by some person unknown.

The body was buried on the Yolo side, it not being in a condition to keep.

There are different theories entertained as to the manner in which the deceased met his death, some regarding it a case of suicide, and others as one of murder. If suicide, the unfortunate youth must have gone into the water before shooting himself, and the fact that there was money in one of his pockets induce many to believe that the deceased took his own life.

On the other hand, the money and pistol-cartridge could have been placed in his pocket as a blind by a person after shooting him.

The officers of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city do not know of any such person, and the probability is that he was an stranger here.

Should any light be thrown on the mystery surrounding the identity of the deceased the body will be disinterred.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

William Boyne Wants the Buffalo Brewery's Assessment Increased.

On Saturday the members of the Board of Supervisors made a trip over the Rancho del Paso to examine the land, with the purpose of determining to their own satisfaction whether or not the assessment thereof by the County Assessor was properly made. The result will be made known when the board takes action this week in the matter.

William Boyne presented a petition to the board setting forth that he is a resident citizen taxpayer of the County of Sacramento; that in the last county assessment roll there is assessed to the Buffalo Brewing Company property described as follows, to-wit: Blocks of land situated between Twenty-first and Twenty-second, and Q and R streets, in the city and county of Sacramento, and known as the Buffalo Brewery, together with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging. Which said property is assessed on said roll for $80,000, or thereabouts; that said assessment is low, and by reason thereof does not conform to the true value of said property in money; that said assessment should be increased so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained in said roll.

This petition was set for hearing on the 23d.

Additional applications for reduced assessments were received as follows: Mrs. M. A. Bowles—Ninety-four acres of farming land in Washington School District, from $100 to $80 per acre.

James Hall—Improvements on east 4, lot 6, I and J, Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, from $80 to $400.

Van Voorhis & Co., in a petition to the board, set forth that on the last county roll they were assessed for their book accounts at $25,000. They ask that the assessment be reduced to nothing, representing "that the actual cash value of said property at the time of said assessment did not exceed the firm's actual debts and mortgages that we have to pay on elsewhere."

The arrested men were "shorty" Gay and Luke Kearns. They will probably be prosecuted for vagrancy.
