

MUTINOUS TROOPS.

Discontent Among Privates in the British Army.

MEMBERS OF THE OLDEST CORPS REFUSE TO OBEY ORDERS.

Their Behavior So Glaringly Insubordinate That the Officers Were Compelled to March Them to the Barracks and Put Them in Confinement—The House of Commons Votes a Large Sum to Aid the Suffering Poor in Ireland.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

LONDON, July 22.—Truth to-day prints another startling story of mutiny in the British Army, which it claims occurred in the Second Battalion of the Coldstream Guards, quartered in Wellington Barracks, near Birmingham Palace, where incidentally it furnished the guard of honor during the recent visit of Emperor William. It seems that the extra duty thus necessitated was far from pleasant to the guardsmen, who long have been the pets of the British army. After the departure of the Emperor the guards expected a day of freedom from guard mounting for recuperation. The men, however, were ordered on parade duty, and as usual, in full marching order. As a result they became sullen and unmanageable, the first and third companies at first bluntly refused to parade.

The officers of these companies held a hurried consultation, not liking the prospects of a term of exile similar to those of the Second Battalion of Grenadier Guards subjected to a similar result. As they argued the matter with the officers, holding up to them the prospects of exile from England, the privates finally, but sullenly, consented to parade, but their behavior became so glaringly insubordinate, that the officers marched them back to the barracks and ordered the privates to be put in confinement. The significance of the mutinous sentiment can be judged when it is understood that the Guards are the oldest corps in the army with a single exception.

THE MCKINLEY TARIFF.

Opinions of Members of the Chambers of Commerce of France. PARIS, July 22.—The Associated Press correspondent here has been making inquiries of the Chambers of Commerce in France as to the present feeling concerning the McKinley tariff, and as to whether this feeling will affect the French exhibit at Chicago. The Vice-President of the Chamber of Commerce of Algiers said that the Chamber passed a resolution not to go, declaring that the new tariff law tends to deprive the French of an important market, and that it is impossible, all trade between France and the United States.

ATTACK ON THE CZAROWITZ.

PRINCE GEORGE RECOUNTS THE FACTS TO HIS FATHER. The Timely Interference of the Prince Saves the Czarowitz From Being Decapitated. Special to the RECORD-UNION. COVENTRY, July 22.—A newspaper in this city publishes what purports to be the text of a letter from Prince George of Greece, to his father, King George, giving an account of the attack made upon the Czarowitz in Japan. He tells about their visit to Kyoto, and how they started for Otsu. In the afternoon, as they were going through a narrow street, Prince George heard a shriek, and saw a policeman hitting the Czarowitz on the head with a sword.

Not a Pronounced Success.

BAVBRETH, July 22.—The greatest interest of the musical public was centered in to-day's production of the revised version of "Tannhauser," originally produced in Paris in 1876. The general opinion that this year's ensemble is inferior, though some individual artists are good, has been confirmed by to-day's rendering of "Herrn Nikky," which, in the opinion of the Bayreuth audience, is in danger, chiefly because Frau Wagner experiments too much with beginners and carries drilling to far crushing individuality, creating artificiality and confining to the dimension of a small room what is intended for a large stage.

Slavin Comes to Grief.

LONDON, July 22.—There was a disgraceful scene at a boxing exhibition in a theater in Liverpool this evening. In the course of a match Slavin, who rolled about hardly able to stand, jestingly said Mitchell could not hit him in a hundred years. Mitchell, angered, knocked Slavin about the stage and finally over among the audience. During the row Slavin fell several times, and Mitchell continued striking him, even while he was on his knees trying to rise. The fight proceeded from his nose and mouth. When Slavin regained the stage the curtain was lowered and the fight proceeded behind the scenes until, with great difficulty, the men were separated.

Wedded to a Fretzner.

LONDON, July 22.—The marriage of Miss Ethel Forbes-Leith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Forbes-Leith of New York, to Captain Charles Roodin Barn of the First Royal Dragoons, and Adelaide Camp to the Duke of Connaught, took place this afternoon in the Holy Trinity Church. A large crowd of fashionable people were present, including the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Marquis Lorne and Princess Louise, United States Minister Lincoln and Mrs. Lincoln.

BLOODY WAR RAGING.

Yaqui Indians Continue Their Hostilities in Mexico.

FIERCE FIGHTS WITH TROOPS OF DALY OCCURRENCE.

Cherokee County, Iowa, Visited by Another Disastrous Rain and Wind Storm—Bishop Kain Comments Very Severely on the Official Action of Indian Commissioner Morgan—Secretary Blaine Confident of Regaining His Former Health.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

CHICAGO, July 22.—According to the statements of two young Mexicans now in Chicago, there is a bloody war now raging in the mountains of Mexico unknown to the outside world. It has been supposed that with the death of the great leader of the Yaqui Indians, Chief Cajeme, the Indian wars in Mexico had ceased. Such, according to the story told this evening, is not the case. Thousands of Yaquis are strongly entrenched in the mountains, and the troops which are stationed at the several points along the Yaqui River, are powerless to reach them or protect the lives and property of citizens. In bands of fifty or more, the Yaquis descend on the towns, and fierce fights with the troops follow. The condition of affairs is said to be daily growing most alarming.

OHIO POLITICS.

Governor Campbell Sums Up the Gubernatorial Situation. PITTSBURGH, July 22.—Governor Campbell of Ohio attended the annual fete of the chapters of the Randall Club at Silver Lake to-day. Fully 10,000 people attended the fete, which was a success in every respect. In speaking of the political outlook in Ohio, Governor Campbell said: "The Democratic party is well organized. The Hamilton County disaffection is fast dying. Yes, I expect ex-President Cleveland will lend a helping hand in Ohio this time. He will be invited to make six speeches. Governor Hill will also take part in our campaign, as will also Congressman Jerry Simpson of Kansas and Senator John D. Weaver of Ohio. The latter party is very strong with us now, and they are hand-in-hand with the Democrats. They will nominate no ticket this year. The Governor will be elected generally free coinage."

INDIAN COMMISSIONER MORGAN.

Bishop Kain Comments Severely on His Official Actions. WHEELING (W. Va.), July 22.—The Intelligencer to-morrow will print a letter from Bishop Kain of Wheeling, in which he expresses his regard to Indian Commissioner Morgan's dispute with the Catholic Indian Bureau. He scolds Morgan sharply, saying that since his introduction into the office the Commissioner has shown anti-Catholic bigotry and intolerance. The latter party is very strong with us now, and they are hand-in-hand with the Democrats. They will nominate no ticket this year. The Governor will be elected generally free coinage."

Disastrous Storm in Iowa.

CHESTER (Ia.), July 22.—Cherokee County has again been visited by a most disastrous rain and wind storm, continuing till 4 o'clock this morning. Railroad Creek reached a height only two feet lower than the high-water mark last month, when it wrought such terrible havoc. Many residences on the banks were completely destroyed. Two houses, which were removed from their foundations by the force of the wind, were this morning carried in the Sioux River and dashed to pieces against the Second-street bridge. Timbers and ruins of the last flood were also swept against the bridge, which went out early this morning. Two other bridges in the city were also carried away. There were several deaths and many injuries here and there. The Chicago division north and south of here. Crops are greatly damaged.

Denies That He Resigned.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The officials of the Third National Bank announced to-day that the resignation of Vice-President Buckhout had been accepted. Later Buckhout appeared on Wall street and denied the statement. The cashier of the bank said Buckhout certainly resigned on account of the association of his name with the National Loan and Trust Company's troubles. He stated that the company $17,000 on an overdue note made by him to cover the overdraft account of James S. Silver in the Third National. Silver was one of the directors of the Trust Company and of the Washington National Bank.

The fusion is said to have been engineered by James J. Martin, one of the best-known Democrats in the State. The joint platform will incorporate the demands of the St. Louis platform.

Royal Arch Masons.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 22.—The General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States began its twenty-eighth triennial convention here to-day. This body is the largest Masonic body in the world, having a membership of 141,901. It is also the oldest body in the United States, its history extending back to 1817. Interesting references were made in the report of the Grand Scribe to the growth of the order in Asia, Mexico and South America.

Terrible Deeds of Robbers.

HEAZLETON (Pa.), July 22.—This afternoon, when Mrs. Garvey returned home from a berrying expedition, she found her thirteen-year-old daughter, who had been left at home in charge of the baby, on the floor with her throat cut from ear to ear. As the family savings were gone it is supposed robbers did the awful deed.

Bold Bank Robbery.

PHILADELPHIA (N. J.), July 22.—The police of this place and neighboring towns are trying to get a clew to the perpetrators of the robbery at Easton yesterday. Three men entered the bank at the dinner hour. Two engaged the clerks in conversation, while the third crept into the vault and stole a package containing $10,000. Fortunately, the overlooked another near by containing $100,000.

Five Hundred Acres of Wheat Burned Near Milton—Twenty Horses Perish in the Livestock Stable Fire at Marysville—Testimony Taken in the Suit of Faylor Against Members of the Late State Senate—The Compton Court-martial.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

UKIAH, July 22.—Advices have just reached here that the town of Boomville, in Anderson Valley, twenty-two miles from here, has been entirely destroyed by a forest fire. Only one building remains. The loss is estimated at $30,000. There are very few particulars. GRASSY FIRE NEAR MILTON. MILTON, July 22.—From the burning of a house and barn a grain fire was started on the Floyd ranch, southeast of this place, last evening, which burned over 500 acres of wheat on the ranches of Floyd, Bach and Jorgensen. This morning we had a trace of rain. A grass fire on the Robie ranch, next north of town, is raging.

MORE SERIOUS THAN FIRST REPORTED.

MARYSVILLE, July 22.—The losses by last night's fire will reach $30,000, being $10,000 more than estimated this morning. On the entire property burned there is but $100,000. The fire is supposed to have originated from a cigarette, which one of the employees had carelessly dropped in the hay-loft of the livestock stable. Twenty horses perished in the fire.

THE FAYLOR SUIT.

Plaintiff Tells of the Formation of the Combination. SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—The trial of Faylor's suit against a number of State legislators for an accounting, involving $8,000 said to be due him as a lobbyist, was resumed to-day, and among the witnesses were Colonel C. F. Crocker, Gus Sutro and the plaintiff. Stephen T. Gage was called as a witness, but did not respond. Colonel Crocker testified to conversations with Faylor, but denied any reference to money matters during these conversations. He also had conversations with Faylor, but denied any reference to legislative matters. On an objection being raised to Attorney Gage's question as to how the money of the Southern Pacific Company was disbursed under Colonel Crocker's direction, Crocker said he proposed to show that the Southern Pacific Company paid $25,000 to Faylor, which was paid to Burns, and subsequently paid to the defendants.

THE FIGHT OFF.

The Half-Fitzsimmons Fight Will Not Take Place to-night. In view of the positive stand taken by Governor Merriam, the management formally decided to postpone the fight indefinitely, fearing a riot should an effort be made to carry out the programme. President Cowles of the Minnesota Athletic Club this afternoon gave the following statement to the Associated Press: "Up to noon to-day it was hoped under a fair and reasonable execution of the law, which at no time makes a prize-fight a misdemeanor and felony, as is the case in many other States, the contest could proceed and the club have an opportunity to receive the money for the fight. The club asked the Sheriff to be content with arresting the principals and putting them under bonds for future appearance, and that the law would be enforced before the course after the event. The Sheriff was disposed to adopt this policy, but under a threat from the Governor of instant removal from the office, he was obliged to do otherwise. It is certain that should the fight be every means in the power of the State, the Sheriff is obliged to do so. The Governor has ordered the First Regiment under arms for the purpose of enforcing the law. In such a case of things the club could not take any proceeding with the contest, and as a result of the conference in which the Mayor, the Sheriff and County Attorney were present, the club officials took to-day, the club threw up the sponge and declared the fight off. The club loses its right to receive the money for the fight, and in addition about $8,000 expended in the construction of a big pavilion and for other necessary expenses.

THE MONEY QUESTION.

Faylor on taking the stand testified that he introduced Senator W. H. Williams D. M. H. Burns, introduced during the session of the Legislature, and in the conversation following the introduction, Williams told Burns he had entered into a contract with the State Library. The combination consisted of the San Francisco delegation with the exception of Britt and Mahoney. Williams said Criminals had gone to San Francisco to get up business, to see the railroad company and others, and if, on his return, the result was not satisfactory, he wanted Burns to take hold of the matter. Faylor testified that Burns replied that he didn't want to make any money, but would consider the matter.

Continuing.

Continuing. Faylor testified that as soon as a Finance Committee had been appointed at Burns' request, he (Faylor) notified the committee of the proposed bill. They met in a room in the State Library. On one occasion the witness overheard a conversation between him and Burns, in which Burns said he would vote against the bill for $750 each. "Before this," testified Faylor, "Burns said they had agreed to this, but had said $500 to Burns, and $250 to Williams. He had not acted like a honest man, and he told Burns that Criminals had held out $500 of the $1,500, and they didn't want anything but $250 each. Faylor testified that after he returned here from Sacramento Burns told him to come to his (Burns') office, and he would settle with him. Burns said that the Faylor said that the combination owed the latter $6,000, and that it would be paid. Burns had given the witness $750 in part payment for services, cross-examination, which did not materially change his testimony. Frank Freeman was recalled, and asked by the State, whether he had introduced a bill to pass the Glenn County bill. Freeman testified that the money was not drawn by three persons, R. T. Rowley, W. H. B. Freeman and Henry Wangelheim of San Francisco. Freeman further said that the money was drawn on a receipt signed by him. Such receipt he submitted to the legal authorities rather than to precipitate trouble, and would pay back the money received for tickets.

Under the circumstances the action of the State authorities is cruel and unjust, as the fight could and should have been prevented by the law. "President Minnesota Athletic Club."

"President Minnesota Athletic Club." The declaration of the Minnesota Athletic Club that there would be no fight is final, so far as that club is concerned, and with that the contrary is true. The club is entirely unfounded. As stated by President Cowles of the club there has been much expense, and it would be a building forming a barrier impregnable against the law. The witness said that he had seen one dollar of expense had been incurred. "Mayor Smith earnestly urged the club to go on with the fight, but it was decided to do otherwise. To-day's session was spent in listening to testimony of the accused. He said that all day on April 24th, the men at the fort seemed peaceful and orderly. He heard no rumors of any attack on the afternoon of the 24th. Prosecuting Attorney Blanford and the Sheriff called during the day and told him they had heard a rumor that the soldiers were going to lynch Hunt, the next or some other night. Blanford said he had counted thirty men on route up town while coming down. He told him there was nothing unusual in that, as the men went down town every evening. "Witness then brandished the statement of Blanford that the latter had told him of the rumored attack as coming through Sergeant Jones as unqualifiedly false. The Sheriff and attorney did not ask to have the troops kept in the garrison, and did not seem to believe in the rumor.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

ST. PAUL (Minn.), July 22.—This city is full of people interested in the big fight which has been indefinitely postponed to take place to-night between Fitzsimmons and Jim Hall, two Australians. Sheriff Ben met Governor Merriam this morning and received instructions that the law must be enforced, and the Sheriff says he can do nothing but stop the fight. This afternoon Governor Merriam ordered the State militia to be in readiness to assist the Sheriff in enforcing the law. The Governor declares that he will prevent the fight at all hazards.
