PRIMROSE FREE A Folsom Convict Who Was Serving Two Terms. Ed J. Dwyer, one of Sacramento's rising young attorneys, achieved quite a legal victory in Superior Judge Van Fleet's court yesterday. Mr. Dwyer was counsel for Thomas Primrose, a convict who is confined at the Folsom Penitentiary, and succeeded in releasing him. Primrose was convicted of burglary in Santa Clara County in 1877, and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment at San Quentin. In 1889 he was transferred to Folsom, and a month later escaped. Five years later he was arrested in San Benito, under the name of George Brown, and sentenced to nine years at San Quentin. He was recognized at the prison and the authorities at Folsom were notified. His term of imprisonment there expired, and he was released on the 7th of this month. Warden Anil of the Folsom Prison was on hand when Primrose was discharged and took him back to Folsom to serve out his uncompleted sentence there.

Attorney Dwyer brought the matter before Judge Van Fleet on habeas corpus and argued that the three years Primrose was alleged to owe the State had been served concurrently with the nine-year sentence. Judge Van Fleet decided yesterday that this view of the matter was correct, and he accordingly ordered Primrose released. It is said that this was the first time this identical point was ever raised in a California court. The case of ex-parte Green, which Attorney Dwyer cited, was somewhat in point, but does not involve as much as does the Primrose case.

FOLSOM GRANITE A Large Contract Therefor Let by the Stanford University. Andrew Burnett, who recently purchased the granite quarry at Folsom from Ed McCue, is now busily engaged taking out stone for the Leland Stanford Jr. University at Palo Alto. This, says the Telegraph, is one of the largest contracts for stone ever given to a quarryman in this state. The country, the stones are to be dressed to a smooth surface, and Mr. Burnett has a number of first-class stone-cutters engaged, who are now daily turning out a large amount of material ready for shipment.

GOVERNOR MARKHAM He Writes That His Campaign Trip Has Restored His Health. N. R. Higgins, Private Secretary to Governor Markham, received a letter yesterday from the latter, who is at present on a camping trip on San Gabriel River. The Governor states that his health is improving beyond his fondest expectations, and he has a picturesque little camp pitched near the water's edge. This fact, he says, has caused him to over 300 trout. The Governor says that he is doing him more good than all the medicine in the world.

New Incorporations. The following articles of incorporation were filed in the Secretary of State's office yesterday: California Security Loan and Trust Company of San Francisco, Capital stock, $1,000,000. Directors—A. S. Magoun, F. R. Wilkins, E. C. Ticknor, and W. H. Winton.

That Glorious Cool Wave. The Weather Bureau reports show the temperatures at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. yesterday were 59° and 79°, while the highest and lowest were 82° and 69°, with fresh southerly winds and a cloudless sky.

Wagner's Divorce Suit. The divorce case of Mrs. Helena Wagner against John Wagner is on hearing before Superior Judge Catlin, and may last several days, as there is quite a contest between the parties, principally regarding their property. Mrs. Wagner alleges cruelty and failure to provide.

PEARLINE FOR SALE

Hot Weather

Drives Women to their Senses.

It's the time when they must have something to lessen their work. It's the time when they must have Pearlina. Nothing else saves as much or does as much, in all washing and cleaning—and it's done without harm. Soak your clothes in Pearlina and water—no soap—Pearlina contains all the soap necessary—two hours, or over night, rinse well, and they will be clean—particulars for this way of washing on every package. Hot weather increases the number who use Pearlina—but in cooler times there's no falling off.

It's easily explained, you can drive women to use Pearlina—some of them have to be driven to it. But, once they've used it, you can't drive them into giving it up. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearlina." IT'S FALSE—Pearlina is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearlina, do the honest thing—send it back.

ALLEN'S ASSAILANTS.

Gordon is Sentenced to Twelve Years at Folsom.

A Motion to Reduce Smith's Bail is Refused—Casey Held as a Witness Under Bond.

Milton Halligan, alias Harry Gordon, the confessed garrotter who assisted in the assault and robbery of Robert Allen, appeared before Superior Judge Van Fleet yesterday for sentence. The young man looked as handsome as ever, and when asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, he said he had nothing to say. He was sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment at Folsom. The case of Smith, who was arrested in connection with the Allen case, was also heard. His bail was reduced to $500, and he was held as a witness under bond.

SOME GOOD ADVICE.

Judge Van Fleet lectured the young man severely, and also gave him some very good advice. He said he recognized the fact that Gordon was a young man of unusual intelligence, and of a kind not often found among the criminal classes. He was sorry to see him in such a predicament, and he hoped that he would be able to do something to help him. He advised Gordon to be good, to work hard, and to try to make something of himself.

POLICE COURT CASES.

The case of John Silva, charged with disturbing the peace, was called in the Police Court yesterday, and dismissed, the complaining witness agreeing that such disposition be made of the case. Harry Mains was fined $30 for disturbing the peace. Jacob Scott, charged with misdemeanor, had his trial set for next Saturday.

AMUSEMENTS.

On Friday night of this week the first presentation will be given in this city of the "second edition" of William J. Gilmore's fairy pantomime spectacle, "The Twelve Temptations," which was so highly given last season. Since then, however, the production has undergone many changes in the line of trick, mechanical and scenic transformations, ballets, specialties, matches, costumes and music, which practically make it a new piece.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANCIS NEVITT.

The remains of Mrs. Francis Nevitt, who died a few days ago at Ontario, will be brought here tomorrow for burial beside her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Nevitt were among the earliest residents of the city.

ROBERTS ALLEN'S CONDITION.

E. P. Allen, son of Robert Allen, telegraphed from Stockton yesterday that his father—although very low—appeared to be better than he was a few days ago.

FOR THE FAIR.

Living Up to the Race-Track—Exhibits for the Pavilion.

"There is nothing particularly new that I can tell you regarding the preparations for the State Fair," said Secretary Ed. Smith of the State Agricultural Society yesterday when accosted by a reporter. "We are getting ready quietly, but are at a stage now when little else than correspondence and talk are going on. I receive a number of applications daily for space at the Pavilion, and tell you some of them promise to be magnificent exhibits."

MORE ACCOMMODATIONS.

The work of erecting fifty-six new stalls for race-horses is nearly finished, and altogether the park is taking on quite a lustrous appearance. With the completion of these stalls the park will contain 600 stalls for race-horses, being more than any other track on the coast possesses. Beside these, 500 stalls for cattle, and all are being put in good condition by a force of carpenters.

POLICE COURT CASES.

The case of John Silva, charged with disturbing the peace, was called in the Police Court yesterday, and dismissed, the complaining witness agreeing that such disposition be made of the case. Harry Mains was fined $30 for disturbing the peace. Jacob Scott, charged with misdemeanor, had his trial set for next Saturday.
