

DELUGED WITH WATER.

A Cloudburst Creates Sad Havoc in San Diego County.

SEVEN HOUSES IN CAMPO WASHED AWAY.

Heavy Rainstorm in San Bernardino County--Superior Judge J. P. Hoge of San Francisco Passes Away--Suit Brought to Test the Validity of the Chinese Registration Law--A Man Arrested at Ashland With a Quantity of Supposed Stolen Jewelry in His Possession.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 14.--Information has just reached this city of a disastrous cloudburst at Campo, this county, on Wednesday. The town is situated at the mouth of a ravine, and a torrent of water came down on the town, washing away everything that could be moved and destroying many head of livestock. No lives were lost.

The information regarding the cloudburst at Campo was brought in by the driver of the stage running from the station to Campo. He says that two heavily laden clouds came in collision above the mountains west of Campo, and the waters came down the ravine in a torrent from fifteen to twenty feet deep, and swept over Campo without a moment's warning.

Campo is a small place, with not over eight houses, but with one exception every one of these was swept away, and it is remarkable that no lives were lost.

No estimate can be given of the losses, but they will not be small. The cloudburst was a heavy storm in San Bernardino.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 14.--A heavy storm raged for many hours in the mountains east of the city this afternoon. A strong wind came up from the east, filling the valley with dust, so that the landscape was scarcely visible. Soon after rain commenced to fall at Redlands, and soon the streets were running with water. Probably nearly a half an inch fell. The wind shifted again and the rain stopped.

A branch of the storm followed around the mountains, and it rained heavily northwest of this city. No damage was done. The weather is hot and sultry.

DEATH OF JUDGE HOGUE.

The Eminent Jurist Passed Away at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.--Superior Judge Hoge died at his Geary-street residence at noon to-day, surrounded by his family.

Judge Hoge had been ill for some time past with a severe attack of gastritis. His stomach became so weakened that he could retain but little nourishment, and on account of his age was not able to survive the weakness that followed the ravages of the disease.

Judge Hoge has been a distinguished character in the legal fraternity of San Francisco for forty years. He was born in the State of Ohio in 1811 and received a classical education at Jefferson College, Pennsylvania. After graduating he returned to his native State, studied law and in due time was admitted to practice.

When 20 years of age he removed to the State of Illinois, settling in the city of Galena, where he soon became very popular as well as prosperous. He took a lively interest in politics, and in 1843 he was elected to the Twenty-eighth Congress and named to the office of clerk of the House of Representatives. He was elected to the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers. He was again elected to the Twenty-ninth Congress.

At the close of the year 1849 Judge Hoge resumed the practice of the law at Galena and entered into partnership with Samuel M. Wilson. The firm continued in business there until the year 1850, when Wilson and Hoge came to California and the firm resumed the practice of law in San Francisco. His career in California has been an active one, both in law and politics.

In 1878 he was chosen President of the Constitutional Convention, and later on was the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of Law.

In November, 1888, Mr. Hoge was elected to the Superior bench, the first judicial position he had ever held, and took his seat in Department 4 on January 1, 1889.

The Judge leaves a widow and several children. His last day was a quiet one, and he was looked upon by his brother attorneys as a man of brilliant attainments.

TEST CASE.

Suit to Determine the Validity of the Chinese Registration Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.--A few days ago a suit for $10,000 damages against the Southern Pacific Company was brought by Thomas D. Riordan, attorney for the Chinese Consulate in this city, acting in the name of Gee Chong Tone. The suit was based on the fact that the Southern Pacific Company, through an agent, refused to sell a railroad ticket from San Francisco to Sacramento to Gee Chong Tone. The purpose of the suit is to attack and test the Chinese registration law passed by the California Legislature in its last session.

An answer has just been filed by the Southern Pacific Company in which it is admitted that the company refused to sell the ticket to Gee Chong Tone as alleged, and also refused to carry the said plaintiff, but "avers that such refusal was because plaintiff is a Chinese person, and did not exhibit his certificate of residence upon demand therefor, which was duly made as required by Section 5 of the Act of the Legislature of the State of California, approved on the 20th day of March, A. D., 1891." The answer also attaches a copy of the Act and "further says that plaintiff not only failed to exhibit as aforesaid the said certificate of residence, but as a matter of fact never has taken out the same as required by the said Act or in any other manner." Defendant also denies that the plaintiff has suffered damage in the sum of $10,000 or any other sum.

Mr. Riordan to-day demurred to the answer on the ground that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense to plaintiff's cause of action.

ADMISSION DAY.

Stockton Anxious to Entertain the Native Sons.

STOCKTON, Aug. 14.--Stockton Parlor, Native Sons, is desirous of having the parlor of San Francisco join in the celebration which the Native Sons and Pioneers are arranging for Admission Day here, but they are deterred from actively trying to persuade other parlor members to Stockton in preference to any other city by the fact that they may incur the ill will of the Santa Cruz Native Sons, as Santa Cruz has been chosen as the place of the celebration. Aside from that reason, the Native Sons here are pleased at the chance of receiving the parlor of San Francisco and neighboring parlor members.

Chairman M. C. Noble of the Native Sons' Celebration Committee to-day telegraphed Grand Secretary Lansted that the San Joaquin River steamers coming from Stockton in preference to any other city by the fact that they may incur the ill will of the Santa Cruz Native Sons, as Santa Cruz has been chosen as the place of the celebration. Aside from that reason, the Native Sons here are pleased at the chance of receiving the parlor of San Francisco and neighboring parlor members.

A meeting of the Joint Committee of Pioneers and Native Sons will be held to-morrow night. The company running the San Joaquin River steamers promises a low rate of fare for those coming from San Francisco, and will subscribe at least $100 to the entertainment.

The World's Fair Appropriation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.--The constitutionality of the law appropriating $500,000 for the California exhibit at the World's Fair, was argued before the Supreme Court to-day. Attorney Beach appeared for Controller Colgan, and argued that the law is unconstitutional, because the object for which the money was appropriated is outside of the territorial limits of the State. E. J. McKinstry appeared for the State Commissioners, and argued in favor of the constitutionality of the law. The court ordered the case submitted on briefs, the Controller being allowed twenty days, and the State Commissioners the same time to file their briefs. The Attorney-General ten days thereafter.

Will Not Accept the Reduction.

PORTLAND (Or.), Aug. 14.--It was learned from official sources to-day that the Southern Pacific Company will not accept the 10 per cent. reduction in freight rates made by the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, but will disobey the findings of the Commission, thus compelling that body to make a test case in the courts. The company holds that the reduction in rates is outside of the territorial limits of the State. E. J. McKinstry appeared for the State Commissioners, and argued in favor of the constitutionality of the law. The court ordered the case submitted on briefs, the Controller being allowed twenty days, and the State Commissioners the same time to file their briefs. The Attorney-General ten days thereafter.

Salmon Fisherman on a Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.--News was brought to-day by the bark Nicholas Thayer from Kodiak of a strike of the fishermen employed by the Alaskan canneries which are operated under contract. The disagreement is reported by the men to have been caused by a refusal of the Southern Pacific to take all the salmon that were caught. There were 152 men employed fishing for the canneries and over 100 came down on the strike. The men are demanding a 25 per cent. increase in wages, and the canneries refused to take the fish because there was an enormous run, and it would have been impossible for them to handle them at that time. The strike is reported to have caused much loss.

IRISH GOVERNMENT BILL.

Balfour's Pet Measure Denounced by Liberal Unionists.

ONLY THE GOSCHEN-CHAMBERLAIN SET SUPPORT IT.

Belief That the Measure Will Either Have to be Amended to Suit Conservative Ideas or be Withdrawn at the Risk of a Disaffection in the Cabinet--Great Interest Manifested in the Report of the Labor Department of the London Board of Trade.

(Copyrighted, 1891, by N. Y. Associated Press.)

LONDON, Aug. 14.--If Mr. Balfour had not obtained the assent of leading members of the Cabinet to his Irish local government bill before announcing it, a rupture in the Government and a split in the party would seem inevitable. A draft of the bill had never been before the regularly constituted cabinet council. The committee had been working on the bill eighteen months, and the ignoring of the Conservative chiefs, closely in touch with the rank and file of the party, has added to the general discontent.

No Unionist section thoroughly indorses Balfour's outlined measure. The Spectator, the leading Unionist organ, in its issue to-morrow will put the position of the Liberal Unionists straight, in denouncing the bill as a serious and dangerous measure. The National Observer, a leading exponent of the Tory opinion, attacks the Ministry as being a Liberal Unionist organ. Among the Liberal Unionist groups only the Goschen-Chamberlain can be said to be in favor of the bill. Mr. Balfour, strong as this group are, they are likely to be forced eventually to rescind, but just as they were near the labor market is in a disturbed condition. The demand follows in shipbuilding, engineering and the iron and steel trades, and the price of iron and steel is high when compared with other commodities. The price of iron and steel is maintained on a high level. This is partly due to good wages paid the colliers, whose power of combining prevents the lowering of wages, and partly the output, and this maintains prices.

Advices from Rome give a detailed account of the sad adventures of a party of students from an English university, while bathing at Porto Danzio. The water was very rough. Lucian Johnson of Baltimore, tutor of Brookline, Indiana, and James K. S. of Chicago, and Henry Duens of St. Louis were bathing together. Suddenly all were swept off by the current. They all managed to gain shore except Duensing. Johnson swam out again, but just as they were near the shore he was swept off by the current and lost his wits in the fright, and heard him murmuring a prayer. Johnson was rescued by a boat which came to his assistance then held up Duensing, a lying Johnson. As quickly as possible the students launched a boat and went to the rescue, but just as they were near the spot the sailor and Duensing sank. The latter was drowned, but the sailor was rescued. Two days afterward the body of Duensing was recovered.

Mr. Spurgeon is able to stop for a brief period daily. The best opinion at present is that it will be many months before he will be able to preach.

Lord Coleridge, replying to a correspondence asking an opinion on the Bible passage, "swear not at all," and Christ's words, "let your oaths be as the oaths of special occasions. St. James expresses the same idea. He also says he has no doubt of the lawfulness of oaths on special occasions. St. James expresses the same idea. He also says he has no doubt of the lawfulness of oaths on special occasions.

Empress William's Health.

BERLIN, Aug. 14.--Aside from the inconvenience of moving about with his leg held stiff by bandages, Emperor William is enjoying excellent health. The fact that the Emperor is able to do so is a great relief to the people, and to the business of the empire is regarded as pretty good evidence that the alarming reports circulated in regard to his physical and mental condition are unfounded.

CANADA'S RAILWAY SCANDAL.

Startling Evidence Brought Forth in the Investigation.

OTTAWA (Ont.), Aug. 14.--The Senate Railway Committee met again to-night. Startling evidence was brought forth in connection with the Bailies-Chalmers railway scandal.

Contractor Armstrong, who previously refused to answer certain questions, made a clean breast of it. He said that while the effort to reorganize the company failed, he set about organizing a new syndicate, as he had heavy claims against the road in New York. He held a lengthy conference with Premier Mercer and other members of the Quebec provisional government. In order to complete the deal he got Baron Baccard, editor of the Leveleur, the Government organ, to act as agent between himself and the Government. An arrangement was made by which the Government paid him an advance of $175,000. The witness repaid Baccard $100,000, retaining only $75,000. The statement created a sensation.

John Bayless and Timothy Cooney, workmen, who were in the building at the time, were blown to pieces. Two bucketsful of shreds of human flesh were all that could be found of their bodies. George Wells, who was in a house a hundred yards away, had his skull fractured by a fragment which flew through the window, and will die. Three workmen in the big mill, four hundred yards away, were severely injured by flying fragments of the demolished building. Several others were slightly injured. Archie Livingston, Superintendent of the mill, who was standing very near it, escaped without injury.

The daughter of Bayless, one of the men blown to atoms, is lying at the point of death from grief.

THE RYE UKASE.

Likely to Ruin the Milling Industry in Germany.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14.--The ukase prohibiting the export of rye from Russia is still affecting prices of grain here. To-day rye advanced two roubles and wheat one rouble.

MILLING INTERESTS THREATENED.

BERLIN, Aug. 14.--At a meeting of the Silesian millers to-day it was decided to send a deputation to Chancellor von Caprivi begging him to abolish the export duties, saying that otherwise the Russian ukase would likely ruin the milling industry and throw thousands of hands out of employment. The Fossische Zeitung demands that the Government should prohibit American foods and reductions of freight charges, especially as the Balkan harvest seems to be unimpaired, and the Ministers support him. It is rumored that the Russian railway administration refuses to give guarantees for the transportation of grain to the German frontier.

SEMI-DECEASED RETURNS PROMISED.

VIENNA, Aug. 14.--The rise of prices of grain promises splendid returns to grain exporters, especially as the Balkan harvest seems to be excellent, and sufficient for Austrian home consumption.

APPROVED BY THE PRESS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14.--The press of this city has approved the ukase prohibiting the exportation of rye. Reports from the provinces say the failure of the winter sowing cereals is almost complete, prices of cattle and sheep are falling, and the peasants are selling horses to procure food.

THE HOUSE IS AGITATED, AND PRICES ARE FALLING.

The House is agitated, and prices are falling. Speculators are busy freighting ships with cereals for the purpose of taking advantage of the interval before the ukase goes into operation.

PRICES GOING UP.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 14.--The Russian ukase prohibiting the exportation of rye claims prices to go up to-day on the Commercial and Flour Exchange, the highest point reached being every bushel. In one week the market has gone up 14 cents. This rise, in connection with the corresponding one in wheat, caused considerable activity on 'Change.

JUDGES REMOVED BY BALMACEIDA.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.--The Chilean Congressional Envoys at Washington have received advices from Chile which they say confirm the statements heretofore made that President Balmaceda has removed all the judges in the country and has appointed his own judges in all places. C. A. firm hold the work is taking on a young man of the Orient and Occident.

WANTED TO DIE.

A Soldier Makes a Desperate Attempt to End His Life.

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.), Aug. 14.--Private R. J. Kasselman of B Company, Fourth Infantry, now in annual camp here, made a desperate attempt at suicide to-day. He has been despondent for a couple of days, and was reproached by his Captain this morning for something. Going to a tent, he tried to get a razor, but his room-mates prevented him. When the Captain was notified he sent a guard to arrest Kasselman. The latter rushed behind a tree, and repeatedly threw himself upon it, inflicting eight painful wounds in the chest. Finding that the bayonet did not penetrate the blouse readily, he raised the blouse and drew the weapon into his abdomen. He will die.

Loan Association Swindle.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.--Postoffice Inspector Stuart is in receipt of many letters which show that the National Capital Savings, Building and Loan Association was even a greater swindle than at first supposed. Victims are being heard of from all over the country. He anxiously asks that this be sent back. Inspector Stuart fears it has been realized on. It has been learned that Lewis B. Morley, manager of the concern, is in Canada. YOUNG MOSBY.

Count Mikiewicz Refers to Him as a Crack-brained Cad.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.--Count Eugene Mikiewicz, a Russian financier, who has made himself famous by securing a concession from the Chinese Government for the establishment of a great international bank, and who narrowly escaped a bullet in the hands of Beverly C. Mosby, son of Colonel Mosby, the other day, says:

"I cannot understand how a fellow who claims to be a high-toned Southern gentleman can be such a crack-brained cad. I do not deny that Miss Mosby and her children are a little more shaking hands with me, and thanking me for saving his sister's reputation, and then, after I refuse to prosecute William Miller at my house by such a stony quiet for the young lady's sake, he must go and tattle about his attempt to shoot me, in the hope of making himself a hero, I presume, and thereby bring out the whole miserable story into general notice."

"I declare I am almost angry enough to go back to Washington and have him arrested on a charge of attempted murder. I do not deny that Miss Mosby and her children are a little more shaking hands with me, and thanking me for saving his sister's reputation, and then, after I refuse to prosecute William Miller at my house by such a stony quiet for the young lady's sake, he must go and tattle about his attempt to shoot me, in the hope of making himself a hero, I presume, and thereby bring out the whole miserable story into general notice."
