

LOS ANGELES' TURN. Another Lively Tilt With the State Board of Equalization. The Visiting Delegation Accused of Misrepresenting Facts—Mr. Swan "Reads the Riot Act."

Los Angeles County was split and tossed by the State Board of Equalization yesterday. Los Angeles is one of the southern citrus belt counties that pleads poverty this year, and was cited to appear before the State Board because of the shrunken condition of its assessment roll.

Supervisors A. E. Davis (Chairman), S. N. Perry, E. A. Forrester and H. C. Hunt were present at the hearing. Mr. Davis was the one of the State Equalizers interested and was Assessor Gray.

Chairman Davis acted as spokesman for the delegation. He stated that the equalizers were ready for business he began his argument. He declared in the first place that no county in the State had been assessed higher than Los Angeles considering the value of land.

Mr. Davis said he and the other Supervisors were perfectly content to rest their case on the facts as they stood. He said the assessment was a fair one and up to the full valuation. They did not care to draw comparisons with any other county's assessment.

Mr. Morehouse did not think appraisements in cases of partition were representative figures, as they did not necessarily indicate what price the property was to be sold for.

Mr. Swan said he understood that in actions for partition the appraisers' figures merely indicated a percentage of the value of the property to be distributed. It did not necessarily represent the true value of the property.

Some Very Sensible Remarks. Eds. RECORD-UNION: I was a witness, impartial I hope, to a scene at the Swimming Baths Wednesday evening, the only importance of which is in the lesson it teaches concerning rights, duties and courtesies of the baths.

Shallow water is provided for the comfort of those who do not swim and wish to keep their heads above water. Their exclusion, nor will gentlemen having the rights of others in mind, so carry on their sport as to "splash" or "duck" those who are unable to swim.

Mr. Morehouse, arose, and very coolly told Mr. Davis and the other Supervisors that he was not composed of tricksters, or of persons who were prejudiced to Los Angeles or any other county.
