

WON AND LOST.

The Sacramento Split Even With the Oakland Team.

San Jose Polishes Off the San Francisco—The Rejuvenated Altas

Suffer Defeat.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The Sacramento team had an easy victory over Oakland at the Emeryville grounds this morning. Youngman pitched the first few innings for Oakland. He was unsteady and hit hard. Then Loughran pitched the game out. Sommers pitched good ball for Sacramento.

In the afternoon game in this city Oakland won by a score of 10 to 8. The feature of the game was the batting of Hassam, who drove in six of the eight runs made by the Sacramento team. Following are the scores:

Table with columns: Team, Runs, Hits, Errors, Pitches, etc. for Oakland vs Sacramento and San Jose vs San Francisco.

Cincinnati, 82.7 Boston, 70.1 Boston, 59.8 St. Louis, 61.9 New York, 57.9 Toronto, 57.4 Philadelphia, 51.8 Athletic, 51.2 Philadelphia, 43.2 Milwaukee, 43.2 Pittsburgh, 43.2 Washington, 34.7 Cincinnati, 39.0 Louisville, 33.3

BRIGHTONS VICTORIOUS.

The Altas are Not So Young as They Used to Be.

Brighton came out on top yesterday in a ball game against a team composed of the most part of Sacramento baseball stars of days gone by. There were "Billy" McLaughlin, the policeman, Homer Barry, Jack Sullivan, Mike Fisher, Russell Flint and "Bats" Hilbert in the combination—all old ball-tossers, who have not played a long game of ball in years, having rested on the "retired" list since the Alta club disorganized. Holliday, Sayers and "Bill" Veach also played with the Sacramento team.

The Brightons were composed, for the most part, of sons of the rich ranchers near Perkins, but were strengthened in three of the positions by Sacramento amateurs. There was a large crowd in attendance, a goodly portion being residents of Brighton. They might have been outnumbered had they been the most enthusiastic people in the Park.

The game was exciting and fairly well played. It looked as though the city representatives had won the contest, but the eighth inning was over, but the Brightons got in their long strokes in the last inning, and won by a score of 10 to 12.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Charles P. O'Neill is in town, looking in on the fair.

Mrs. H. D. Stegeman left for the bay yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. L. D. Ryan has returned from a long visit at Santa Cruz.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of Miss Mattie Johnson, daughter of Senator and Mrs. William Johnson, and Frank A. Edinger, the well-known train dispatcher of this city. The marriage will take place on the 23d of this month, at the home of the bride's parents, the Rosebud rancho.

Weekly Crop Report.

The following weekly crop report, furnished by the State Agricultural Society, cooperating with the Weather Bureau, has been telegraphed East by Director Barwick, of the State weather service:

In Northern California the weather has been pleasant and very favorable to the fruit, grape and other late crops, with hops turning out well; while in Southern California the weather has been very dry and the crops are suffering. The foothill raisin grapes are excellent in flavor and size, while the yield will be large. The Riverside raisin grapes are about three weeks later than usual.

Petty Offenders.

Saturday's Police Court calendar was a long one, but was disposed of in short order. Ah Gim was fined $10 for keeping an opium den, and Charles Mitchell, Dan Hughes and James O'Brien, who were arrested in the den, were each fined $5. Ed. Martin, a vagrant, was given an opportunity of leaving the city. John White was fined $10 for drunkenness.

Ed. Fellows, charged with battery, had his case continued until Wednesday. The trial of Fred Eckhardt and his wife on the charge of battery was set for Monday.

A Week's Failures.

The Bradstreet Mercantile Agency reports twenty-eight failures in the Pacific Coast States and Territories for the week ending yesterday, as compared with fifteen for the previous week and three for the corresponding week of 1890. The failures of the past week are divided as follows: Retail trade, 12; hotels, 1; saloons, five groceries, four general stores, two restaurants, two clothing, one furniture, one livery, one printer, one hotel, one flour and feed, one dry goods and one grain dealer.

Troublesome Hackmen.

There is much complaint from visitors to the Park at the manner in which hackmen are permitted to obstruct the main entrance to the ground. They drive their hacks close up to the gate, leaving no room for people to get through.

Ladies have complained also of the foul language that some of the men use about the gateway.

The police should see about this.

Put Out of Misery.

The running mare Minnie Miller, which broke down on Friday in the middle of a race, was on Saturday shot and killed by order of her owner.

It was found that she was so badly injured in one of her last legs as to be perfectly useless. She appeared to be "hamstringed," but whether the tendon broke from the mare's effort, or was cut by the fore foot of another horse, is not known.

En Route to Folsom.

Deputy Sheriff Costello of San Francisco arrived in this city last evening with two prisoners en route to Folsom. One was George M. Taylor, who has been sentenced to eight years for forgery, and the other was Frank Beal, who was convicted of burglary and ordered imprisoned for seven and a half years. Beal is well-known to the police of this city.

Cider Works Burned.

Woods' cider works, near Oak Park, were burned Saturday night. No alarm was turned in, as there are no facilities for extinguishing a fire out there. The loss will probably amount to several thousand dollars.

St. Nicholas and His Knife.

Special Officer Eldred's Narrow Escape from Death.

Hennessey Stabs a Colored Man and Then Tries to Cut the Officer.

A commotion on L street, near Third, attracted Special Officer Eldred's attention last night shortly after 9 o'clock. Hastening to the scene of the trouble, the officer found Frank Lee, a colored man, bleeding copiously from a knife-wound in his breast just above the heart.

"There's the man that did it," said Lee, directing the officer's attention to a white man who was running across the street. "That's Hennessey's name."

The officer ran after the fugitive and overhauled him. He exhibited his star and told the man he was under arrest. Instead of submitting quietly, however, the fellow raised his hand, in which he grasped the officer's knife, and made a vicious lunge at the officer with it. Eldred jumped back out of the fellow's reach just in time, probably to save his life. The officer then threw his prisoner down, and after disarming him, took him to the Police Station, where a charge of assault with a deadly weapon was entered. The prisoner gave his name as Charles Hennessey.

Hennessey's version of the affair was that he had been struck by Lee, and was by some other negroes and used the knife in self-defense. He said he did not know that Eldred was an officer, else he would not have tried to cut him.

Lee claims that he was walking along the street quietly when Hennessey, whom he did not know, jostled him. Angry words followed and then Hennessey cut him.

An alleged eye-witness who saw the whole affair, gives a version of it that differs from that given by either of the principals. He says that Hennessey was sitting on the steps leading into a colored woman's bungalow, when the colored man came and pitched water over him. While Hennessey was remonstrating with her, says the witness, Lee came out of a saloon, near by, and running toward the woman, struck him in the face. Two other negroes were approaching, and Hennessey took to his heels, and slashed Lee, after which he ran.

Officer Eldred says Hennessey's clothes were not wet, and that he bore no marks of having been struck. The officer will probably put a second charge of assault with a deadly weapon against the prisoner.

It is not thought that Lee is dangerously wounded.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

"The Century" for September has many salient points of interest. The subject which will attract most interest is the discussion of the "Trusts" and "Trusts" at Camp Morton, Indianapolis, during the war, a discussion begun by Dr. John A. Welsh's article in the April Century. The present number contains a reply to that article by Colonel W. R. Holloway, who during the war was Private Secretary to General Sherman, and in reply has the endorsement of a committee of the Grand Army of the Republic appointed to investigate the subject.
