

LETTER DAY SAINTS.

Resolutions Promulgated by the Mormon Church Conference.

STATEMENTS MADE BY THE UTAH COMMISSION DENIED.

Claim Made that the Church Exercises No Influence Over Members in Political Matters--No Coercion or Other Influence Whatever Exercised by Church Leaders.

Special to the RECORD-EXTON.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 6.--At today's session of the Mormon conference, a lengthy set of resolutions was adopted relative to a statement made by a majority of the Utah Commission in a recent report to the Secretary of the Interior. The resolutions set forth that the commission made many untruthful statements concerning the church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the attitude of its members in relation to political affairs.

The general conference, in these resolutions, deny most emphatically the assertion of the commission that the church dominates its members in political matters, and that the church and State are united. Whatever appearance there may have been in the past of a union of church and State, the cause was, say the resolutions, that those holding ecclesiastical authority were elected to civil authority by a popular vote.

"There is no foundation or excuse for the statement," say the resolutions, "that the church and State are united in Utah, or that the leaders of the church dictate to members in political matters. No coercion or any other influence of an ecclesiastical nature has been exercised on us by our church leaders in reference to such national political party as seems to us best suited to a republican government."

The resolutions further declare that the members of the church do not believe there has been any polygamous marriages solemnized among the Latter-day Saints during the period named by the commission. The resolutions also declare that the commission's report of polygamous marriages was utterly without foundation in truth, and repeating in the most solemn manner the declaration by President Woodruff at the last general conference, that there has been no plural marriages during the period named; and that the practice has been entirely forbidden.

CABINET GOSSIP.

California Not Yet Sure of Securing a Portfolio. WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.--It is not likely that any one will be able to discover for a certainty whom Mr. Harrison has selected for cabinet positions until after the November elections, but it is believed that he has already made up his mind on the subject. It is thought that he now contemplates using two cabinet appointments to strengthen himself in New England and on the Pacific Coast. Circumstances may arise which will make the President want Mr. Miller to remain in the cabinet, and, of course, if they should, the Attorney-General would accommodate the situation by resigning his office. It is believed that the California man probably Mr. Estee, and Governor Cheney of New Hampshire will be appointed to the cabinet vacancies. It is also believed that the appointment of Mr. Cheney would greatly assist him in his work for the President in New England, and that Secretary Proctor is of the same opinion.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

Important Cases to Come up at the October Term. WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.--At the October term of the Supreme Court of the United States, which meets next Monday, the first case to come up will be that of Thomas Henry Cooper, owner of the schooner Sayward, brought to test the question of the constitutionality of the United States over the seal fisheries in Behring Sea.

The lottery case is set down for argument after the Sayward case is disposed of. This case involves the question of the constitutionality of the recent anti-lottery legislation. Following this will be heard a number of cases bearing upon the constitutionality of the McKinley Tariff Act.

DISTRESS IN RUSSIA.

Entire States Being Deserted on Account of the Famine.

PEOPLE LIVING ON ONE BISCUIT A DAY.

William Henry Smith, First Lord of the Treasury and the Government Leader in the House of Commons, Is Dead--Terrific Gale in the Irish Sea--Six Workmen Killed by an Explosion of Gas.

Special to the RECORD-EXTON.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.--Cable advices from Russia say that entire States are being deserted on account of the famine. They also assert that a new law has been made forbidding the sowing of seed this fall, so that the acreage next year will not be sufficient for the home supply, still less for export. So great is the distress that people have been driven to pilaging each other, first setting fire to villages, then robbing the inhabitants.

By the united charities of the Government and people a biscuit a day is allowed every individual in the famine district. The distress is a greater menace to the Government than all efforts of philanthropy. The famine may cause a revolution, and the Government has decided to aid in being sent in by Holland Jews and nihilist societies of America. The latter have sent $5,300.

TO AID THE DISTRESSED. ST. FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.--The Grand-duchess has decided not to drink champagne at any regimental banquets, and to contribute the money which would have been spent to the famine-stricken districts. All classes of citizens here, following the example of the czar, have resolved to abstain from all entertainments during the winter and contribute the money thus saved to a fund for alleviating the distress of the famine-stricken people.

Most of the public officials announce their intention to devote a certain percentage of their salaries to the same purpose, and women have decided to give a proportion of their humble wages. Even children will offer their little savings. Collections have been taken up at all churches every Sunday. A stream of relief is coming in through wide channels, but the system of distribution, it is said, is very defective.
