

CITY TRUSTEES.

They Are Still Unable to Agree on City Jail Quarters.

An Ordinance to Regulate Gasoline Storage—A List of Charter Holders to be Named To-day.

The first matter considered at the meeting of the City Trustees yesterday morning was a communication from R. P. Burr, offering to rent his building on the north side of J street, between Second and Third, for a city jail, for $100 per month, the city to make the necessary repairs and alterations.

A communication was also read from W. P. Coleman on the same subject. He offered to rent the Arcade building for $135 per month, and agreed to make necessary repairs and changes that the Trustees would require.

The Mayor thought that if the city should take either of the buildings the owners ought certainly to repair them so that they will be fit for occupancy. However, he did not know that either of these places would be suitable. The Old Pavilion might do, and there was also a good building at Fifth and I streets. It might be wise to take the latter place. He did not like the Second street place, because there were too many politicians around and they might cause trouble sometimes.

Trustee Conklin said he guessed the politicians could be killed off easily enough. But, to be serious, he believed it was about time for the Trustees to take action. They had been dilly-dallying with the subject for three months, and were no closer to a decision than when the subject was first brought up. He was willing to leave the entire matter in the hands of the Mayor, if by so doing, all liability of criminal neglect would be removed from the (Conklin's) shoulders. But he understood that it was a subject which should be handled as a subject of the board, and he was determined that something must be done very soon.

The Mayor thought it might be well to buy some building, but Trustee Conklin wanted to know where the money was coming from. He was opposed to doing anything in the line of purchasing at present.

Trustee McLaughlin looked over at School Director J. N. Payne, who was present, and jokingly suggested that the city buy back from the School Board the Perry Seminary building. He said he believed this was the place for a jail, and he presented a petition signed by many residents, asking that the jail be removed to the seminary building.

The Mayor wanted the matter continued for a day. In the meantime he would prepare a report and submit it. The petition of Mr. McLaughlin could also be considered at the next meeting.

After a great deal of discussion it was decided to postpone action until the report of the Mayor was received. He will submit it at a special meeting to be held today at 2 o'clock.

CONTRACT EXTENDED. It was ordered that the time for receiving bids for a sewer between Ninth and Tenth, N and O streets, be extended one week. There was only one bid submitted.

CONCERNING AN ALLEY. W. C. Fitch, who resides on Sixteenth street between D and E, complained that, according to the surveys which were made, the corners of the alleys would be rounded, and six feet of his lot would be cut off. He did not believe the city had any right to do this.

Trustee McLaughlin said the survey was proper, and to settle the trouble he asked the board to visit the locality, take a body and see what had been done. It was so ordered.

GASOLINE STORAGE AGAIN. Trustee McLaughlin submitted an ordinance which he had prepared in relation to the storage of gasoline. It was read by the clerk, and then Mr. Conklin submitted two amendments to the Gutrie ordinance.

Trustee McLaughlin said that the latter ordinance was not fair. If one firm in town was allowed to keep 10,000 cases he thought every other business firm should have the same privilege. It was intended to beat some of the dealers in coal.

The Mayor wanted to defer action. He thought it would be better to let the matter drop for a week or so.

The other two members insisted, however, that action be taken, and they were tired putting things off.

The roll was called on Trustee McLaughlin's ordinance, and the Mayor and Trustee Conklin voting against it.

The roll was then called on the amendment, and it was carried, Trustee McLaughlin voting no. The Mayor did not want to vote at all, but Mr. Conklin insisted that he vote one way or another, so he sided with the Third Trustee.

AN ALLEY FENCE. The petition of the property-owners asking that the fence of Fred Elliott, in the alley between L and M, Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, be moved, was read.

Trustee McLaughlin reported that he had investigated the matter, and he thought the fence should remain where it was.

NO NEW REGISTER. The board decided that a new supplement to the Grand Jury register was needed at the coming election. The old one will be utilized.

WHEN TO BURN RUBBISH. Health Officer Dr. C. B. Nichols appeared before the board and presented an amendment to Ordinance No. 142, Section 13. It was in reference to the burning of leaves, rubbish, etc. According to the amendment it will be unlawful for any person to burn rubbish in the east side of the city between 10 a. m. and midnight. The penalty for an offense of this kind is the same as is provided for in Ordinance No. 142.

Dr. Nichols stated that there was much complaint about the burning of leaves, and that the health officer had been complaining, and it was no more than right that persons who were in the habit of getting rid of their rubbish in this way should be stopped. There was no ordinance at present prohibiting them, and the board of Health desired the amendment adopted.

Under the report the amendment was laid over for final action until next Monday.

GRADING OF FRONT STREET. Bids for grading Front street and a portion of the Y-street levees, preparatory to ripraping, were opened. James Touhey was found to be the lowest bidder. City Engineer Mulloney's figures call for 4,135 yards of earth, and Touhey agrees to do the work at the rate of twenty-three cents per yard. This will make the cost $95,000. The matter of awarding the contract will be taken up at to-day's meeting.

NO CHARTER FEE-HOLDERS YET. The board was about to decide the matter of naming fifteen freeholders to be voted for at the coming election, but each member had a list, and did not wish to discuss the merits of one against another, so the matter was laid over until today.

The usual batch of bills was allowed and the board adjourned.

MILITARY BASEBALLISTS. Company E Meets Two Inglorious Defeats at the Hands of G. A party of young men attached to the local militia went up the river Sunday on an excursion, and, landing in the vicinity of Bannock Slough, engaged in two games of baseball for the championship. The contesting teams were made up of members of Company E and Company F.

It was a bad day for the E boys, they being badly worsted in both games. The first game resulted in a score of 7 to 11 in favor of the victors, the victors also had nine home-runs to its credit, while the losers got none.

In the second game the score was 9 to 3, the 9 to 3 victory being in favor of the home-runs this time to their opponents' none. The feature of the game was Sheehan's pitching. He struck out eleven men in four innings, and lined out a home-run once when the bases were full.

HER LONG REST. Funeral Services Yesterday Over the Late Mrs. E. J. Gregory.

The obsequies of the late Mrs. Eugene J. Gregory, which took place at the Congregational Church yesterday afternoon, were attended by fully one thousand friends of the lamented lady, the large church being crowded to its utmost capacity. The pulpit was almost obscured from view by the many large and beautiful floral pieces sent by intimate friends of the family.

An appropriate sermon was delivered by Rev. J. B. Silcox, in the course of which he paid a touching tribute to the lovely character of the deceased, whose share he believed should be a guide to all who wished to deserve the love and esteem of their neighbors.

Prior to Mr. Silcox's remarks, the hymn "I Can Read My 'Thy Clear'" was sung by a special choir composed of Miss Lida Clinch, Mrs. B. F. Howard, R. T. Cohn and W. H. Kloross. After the sermon, a recess to the memory of the dead and "Lord, Let Me Know My Mind" were sung.

After the prayer which concluded the ceremony, the members of the Naomi Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were the first to go forward to view the remains of their deceased sister. They were followed by the members of Calista Parlor, N. D. G. W., and of the Ladies' Museum Association, after which the other friends of the deceased availed themselves of the opportunity to take a last look at the features of her whom they loved so dearly in life.

After the bereaved husband and relatives of the deceased gathered about the casket the scene was very affecting, and there were few dry eyes among the throng of persons present.

The pall-bearers were E. A. Willis, P. E. Platt, Wm. McLaughlin, Louis Schindler, F. D. Ryan and J. J. Nagle. Among the floral offerings was a large and elaborate piece embracing a pillow with the name "Emma" in purple letters. Above this was a star, surmounted by a large banner, with the words "Rest to the Purple Gown to Heaven." This piece was the offering of the employees of Gregory Bros' establishment.

From the Ladies' Museum Association, the letters, "I, M. A.," in white flowers, in a panel bordered with smilax, placed on an easel and crowned with a star and banner, and with the words, "Our First President."

The other pieces were: Bouquet of La France roses, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Willis; large star, with motto by Naomi Chapter, cross with the word "Rest to the base," Mr. and Mrs. George Schrodt; cross and anchor, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Ryan; floral banner, inscribed "E. J. Gregory," and at the base of the staff, "N. D. G. W.," Calista Parlor; the workmen employed at the old Sutter Fort expressed their regard for the deceased by contributing a large and beautiful design of "Gates Ajar," cross and anchor, "Knock of Ages," Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Platt; wreath, with the word "Rest," Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Howard; anchor, Colonel and Mrs. J. W. Guthrie; harp, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Garfield; and crescent, Miss Lida Clinch; basket of flowers, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gill; star and crescent, Mr. and Mrs. R. Forbes; cross and anchor, Mr. and Mrs. John Hatcher; star and crescent, with the name "Emma," Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sabury; large and beautiful scroll, Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Welch; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Coleman; Mr. and Mrs. W. Maslin; Colonel and Mrs. C. V. Kellogg; and Mrs. H. C. Gardner, elegant bouquets; wreath, with the word "Rest," Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beckley; Mrs. E. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. J. Nagle; anchor, Agents Club; broken column, Mr. and Mrs. B. U. Steiman; anchor, Mrs. L. Lacey; Mr. and Mrs. A. Wood; star, Mrs. Chas. Van Heusen; pillow, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gerson; beautiful wreath, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong; large cross, nephews of the deceased; bouquet of La France roses, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hale; basket of flowers, Miss Millie Gregory; stand of cut flowers, Mrs. C. K. McLaughlin; cross and anchor, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace A. Friggs; bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Crocker.

The procession formed with the Native Daughters in advance, followed by the Ladies' Museum Association and Naomi Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, all in charge, the three groups forming the escort. Then came the clergyman, the pall-bearers, the hoarse, the mourners and friends.

The procession was one of the largest ever seen at a funeral in this city. When the first carriage entered the City Cemetery, the procession was passing P street on Tenth, distant from the cemetery nearly three-quarters of a mile. At the burial plot of the family an immense concourse of people assembled, a great number having driven or walked out in advance of the procession. Over the family burial plot and adjacent grounds two large caissons were sent, each containing a number of flowers, the caissons were arranged for the mourners and the pall-bearers, and to shelter the societies, which were ranged in double columns to the rear of the pall-bearers.

The floral pieces were placed to the west and north of the grave, and were so plentiful and rich and so disposed as to give to the scene a character of beauty and brightness that went far to dispel the thought of death, and to mitigate the woe of the mourners. Even the usual yawning mouth of the grave was absent, and in its place was a bed of choice flowers concealing it, and upon which the casket rested. In short, it seemed as if the wife and mother had been simply translated to a bed of roses and ferns and in the midst of a lovely floral border to rest and await the resurrection.

The exercises were begun by the choir of vocalists which sang at the church, singing "Abide With Me," then Miss Millie Gregory, Mrs. Mary Leake, Miss Mollie Beckenbach and Miss Fred. Colegrove, officiating for Calista Parlor, N. D. G. W., took their places at the head of the caisson, and read with deep feeling the beautiful ritual for the dead prescribed by the order.

At one point in the delivery of the parts the most touching of the oratorical alluded to the grave, and each laid upon the caisson a bunch of flowers, the choir meanwhile singing, "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

At the conclusion of the ceremony by the parlor, the members of the Eastern Star Chapter advanced, and each in turn added her tribute of flowers to the floral wreath which already almost hid the casket. Rev. J. B. Silcox then read the ritual of his church appointed for such occasions, the casket was lowered into the grave, and the door closed above it, and the choir sang, "Sister, Thou Art Gone to Rest," thus concluding the burial services of a woman who was honored, loved and esteemed by her community, and the memory of whose character will remain as a gentle and refining influence.

Death of Mrs. C. E. Kleinsorge. The death was announced yesterday of Elizabeth A., wife of Charles E. Kleinsorge. This announcement is a peculiar one, and one, as it was but a year ago that she died, and it is not understood at the altar in her bridal robes, with a bright and happy future before her. To-day she leaves a sorrow-stricken husband to mourn the loss of a true and affectionate wife, and a babe who will never know the blessing of a mother's tender love and care.

Mrs. Kleinsorge was the daughter of the late Jacob Hoehn, and was reared in this city, where she had a wide circle of friends.

Spindler and Squalor of London. Rev. J. B. Silcox will lecture at the Congregational church to-night on the "Spindler and Squalor of London." The lecture will be profusely illustrated with fine electro-typtic views and will be a rare treat.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

A Teacher's Resignation Causes Promotions and an Appointment.

The Swedish System of Physical Culture Being Tried—Superintendent Hart Wants Help.

The City Board of Education met last evening, Mr. Erlwine presiding, and all of the directors present.

Mr. Tufts, on behalf of the Committee on Furniture and Supplies, reported that he had purchased several new desks, lockers, maps, etc., for the various schools. He reported that more new furniture, stoves, books and other supplies were needed at several of the schools, which he hoped the board would order purchased. The board considered all of the director's suggestions favorably and ordered the supplies bought.

Mr. Davis, of the Committee on Building and Repairs, reported that the Fourth and Q street school he had the sidewalk repaired; he had also ordered repairs of various kinds at the High School, Capital Primary, Twentieth and N, Twenty-fourth and N, Twenty-seventh and J, and at Sixteenth and J. At the last-named school 500 more loads of dirt had been hauled into the yard, but there was a good deal yet to be placed there. This committee was instructed to fit up a room in the Perry Seminary building for the use of the school, and to have the odd furniture belonging to the school department.

PHYSICAL CULTURE. Chairman Erlwine reported that he had had a conference with the principals of several schools, and the conclusion had been reached that it would be a good idea to introduce the Swedish system of physical culture into the Sutter and Capital Grammar schools next year.

Superintendent Hart said he had looked into the matter and thought it a good thing. The teachers he had found thought so too.

It was agreed to lay Mr. Erlwine's report over for a month in order that all the principals might study the subject.

A communication was received from Mrs. R. Davis requesting permission to offer a prize, consisting of a copy of the book "The Art of Teaching," being the best example of writing in the second grade in one of the schools. The request was granted.

TWO RESTORATIONS. A communication was received from Mrs. J. A. Rutherford, teacher of the eighth grade of the Capital Primary School, resigning her position. Intended to depart from the city for her reason. The resignation was accepted.

The resignation of William Goddard, janitor of the school at Fourth and Q streets, was also accepted.

The matter of electing a successor to Mrs. Rutherford was next taken up. Superintendent Hart said that Miss Broman had been elected to the first on the list for the place and was entitled to it. He suggested that as Miss Devine, who lived quite a distance from the school, it would be a good idea to place her in Mrs. Rutherford's place and Miss Broman in Miss Devine's place.

This suggestion was not received favorably, as it was not deemed proper to change a teacher at this time.

Miss Broman was elected without opposition to fill the vacancy, and Miss Anna Stanfield, who was first on the substitute list, was elected to Miss Broman's place in the night school.

A new substitute. The election of a substitute to take the vacancy caused by Miss Stanfield's promotion was next in order. Every member of the Board had a candidate, except Mr. Payne, Mr. Chesley, Mr. E. Smith, Miss Ryan; Mr. Davis, Miss Clara Barton; Mr. Harrison, Miss Tupperington; Dr. Gardner, Mrs. Harmon; Mr. Tufts, Miss Tolbert, Mr. A. Chinn, Mr. Miss Cravens, and Mr. Sherburn, Miss Turner. After five ballots Miss Tupperington was elected.

The election of a janitor to take Mr. Goddard's place was next in order. Mr. Sherburn nominated a Mr. Page, Mr. Hart nominated Emma Smith, and Mr. Harrison nominated Mr. Hubert. The successful nominee was Mr. Hubert.

Superintendent Hart informed the board that he could not attend to his clerical duties and visit the schools, and he wanted an assistant or clerk. The matter was referred to the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

HEAVY EXPENDITURES. The bills against the board for the past month were unusually heavy. This was on account of the number that had been laid over from previous meetings and on account of a number of insurance payments falling due. The salary list amounted to $8,750, and was allowed. MILL ON THE FLOSS. A Bare-Knuckle Argument Out Beyond the Levee. Last night about 7:30 o'clock two colored youths, one a boy named Ray, employed in a down-town drug store, and another a porter in an up-town hotel, repaired to a vacant lot at Ninth and O streets and engaged in a prize fight.

The story is that Ray boasted of being better than anybody else in his fistic class and the porter was willing to dispute his claim. At any rate a lively mill was the result, and Ray was completely knocked out. The porter proved to be a fighter, and he was back and he punned Ray to his heart's content.

Quite a number of persons saw the fight.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS. Business Transacted at Last Night's Monthly Meeting. At the meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners last evening, Con Harkins tendered his resignation as chairman of Engine Company No. 1, and it was accepted. A. Meyers also tendered his resignation as chairman of the Hook and Ladder Company, which was accepted. The positions will be filled at the next meeting of the board.

Chief Gutrie was authorized to make contracts with firemen, which he deemed advisable.

The monthly reports of the various firemen were received and filed, and the board then extended its session, to decide on the new hose for the department.

The agents of three hose companies were present and each addressed the board in reference to the matter of purchasing new hose for the department. Two samples of cotton hose were submitted and one of rubber. The remarks of the gentlemen were listened to and the board went into executive session, to decide on which kind to purchase.

The following bills were allowed: Capital Gas Company, $17.70; Phoenix Milling Company, $22.40; C. McCreary & Co., $7; Schaw, Ingram & Hatcher, $5.45; J. C. Cunningham, $12.30; Pacific Stables, $3; A. Meisler, $13.55; Paul Graf, $3; W. H. Jennings, $6.12; John A. Suit to be Foreclosed. Suit has been brought by Joseph Miller against Manuel S. Nevis, C. L. White, M. J. Azavedo, J. L. Azavedo, J. W. Richmond, John Doe and Stanton Myers to recover $12,342.50, principal and interest, extended by Manuel S. Nevis to plaintiff on $10,000, 10, 1890. Nevis mortgaged to Miller all of the block bounded by K and S, Twentieth and Twenty-second streets, with the improvements thereon, in order to secure the payment of the note.

Miller prays for a foreclosure of the mortgage and asks the court direct that none of the defendants should have any interest in the mortgaged premises.

Not a Serious Affair. S. A. Phelps was tried in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace of the Mrs. Ebert, who resides on Nineteenth street near O. The testimony showed that all Phelps did was to go to the house and reprimand some of the children for annoying Mrs. Ebert. When he did so, the mother became very angry, and there really was a disturbance in the neighborhood. Judge Crockett did not think Phelps was to blame, however, and he ordered him honorably discharged.

Smith and Furlong. By consent of all the attorneys engaged in the cases of J. D. Smith and William Furlong, Judge Catlin yesterday consented to an indefinite continuance. The defendants are charged with complicity in the robbery of Robert Allen.

The Grand Jury is about to investigate the case, Allen having died of his wound received at the hands of the Haley gang since the charge was returned in the second grade in one of the schools. The request was granted.

The Williams Mansion Sale. On Wednesday the elegant residence and grounds of the late Lowellyn Williams, at Fourth and H streets, will be sold at public auction by D. T. Simmons for the executors of the estate. There will also be sold all the fine furniture, paintings, carpets, etc., in the mansion.

The sale will take place at 10:30 a. m. It is said that there are a number of wealthy citizens who intend bidding for the prize.

Governor's Mansion Funds. Upward of $5,000 has already been subscribed toward the purchase of a Governor's residence, and about a thousand dollars is promised, making in all nearly six thousand. The committee in charge will print and distribute a prospectus to complete the purchase within ten days. This done, there will be a prospect of our having Governor Markham and his family residing with us.

Reed's Sensational Speech. In Justice Henry's court yesterday the trial of W. M. Reed of Florin, who is charged with having libeled certain members of the Board of Supervisors in a recent speech before the Farmers' Alliance at Galt, was continued until Thursday at the request of the defense.

It is understood that the Grand Jury will to-day investigate the facts in the case.

Levee Work Across the River. At a ball given at Washington Saturday night for the purpose of raising funds with which to strengthen the levee levee in front of the town, about $100 was realized from the sale of tickets.

A Superintendent is to be selected and the plan of work adopted shortly. The Yolo Supervisors will be asked to contribute something to aid the work.

Furniture at Auction. At 10 a. m. to-day W. H. Sherburn will hold an auction sale of furniture, carpets, etc., at the residence of Mrs. P. J. Hopper, 1114 N street, consisting of elegant walnut chamber sets, parlor sets, carpets, bookcases, wardrobes, tables, dining-room furniture and belongings, Garland range and numerous other articles.

They Soon Came to Grief. Two boys named William Corbett and Edward James appeared in the Oakland Police Court Saturday on charges of violating one of the city ordinances. They claimed to have homes and parents in Sacramento, and they told a touching story that the Judge allowed them to go upon their promising to return home.

A Daniel Come to Judgment. In Judge Catlin's court yesterday was commenced the trial of Dan Fay, who, with his brother Pat, is charged with having burglarized the County Jail some months ago and stolen a set of harness. Attorneys W. Devin, J. H. Hopper and Toss are defending the prisoner.

To Enforce the Ordinance. Chief of Police Drew has notified all saloon-keepers that they must comply with the ordinance providing that saloons must not be kept open after midnight.

DOES NOT MEAN A PROSPEROUS business career. There is something much more important than that. Good health is one of the essential stepping-stones to a successful life. If you are a sufferer you probably will believe that if you are out of the city be treated by mail.

Take the case of J. B. HOWARD, Perrin, Placer County, Cal. He suffered from heart failure and rheumatism and was completely cured by the help I have received at your hands. Every day friends remark to me that I look better, when only a short time ago they expected to hear of my death. I feel that an invalid like me has indeed been rescued from the grasp of death, and I feel that I have no cause to complain. Believe me, gratefully yours, signed, "J. B. HOWARD."

Many others have also been cured: W. A. Cox, 520 O street, Sacramento, cured of rheumatism and nervous troubles; W. B. Briggs, 612 K street, Sacramento, cured of dyspepsia and general debility; Mrs. Wheeler, Stockton, cured after suffering 18 years.

THE DOCTOR WILLIAMS' DISPENSARY is a Medical and Surgical Institute, located at 612 K street, for the cure of all diseases, affections and debilities. A staff of physicians and surgeons, having diplomas and the endorsement of the best colleges of medicine and surgery, skilled specialists, who have had long experience in treating special and chronic diseases, are in constant attendance. The great advantage an institution of this character has is self-demonstration. How often an individual physician has cured a case, only to find that the patient has the advantage of having the case examined and surgical staff diagnose their case when it is necessary to resort to a hospital or a national cost. A pharmacy is attached and all prescriptions filled free of charge.

Sufferers from Rheumatism, Asthma, Consumption, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach, Female Weakness, Cancer, Heart Disease, Bronchitis, Protrusion, Sciatica, Tapeworm, Deafness, any Sexual Disorder, Loss of Manhood, Balarium, Urinary Troubles, Low Charges, within the reach of all, combined with the best medical and surgical skill, consultation, advice and thorough examination, free to patients. A friendly talk may save you years of suffering, and perhaps your life. Young, middle-aged or old men suffering from the effects of folly and excess restored to perfect health, vigor and activity. Every visitor seen privately, and all communications received in sacred confidence.

Open daily from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. and 6 to 8. In order to accommodate those who cannot call during the week, we have established Sunday office hours from 10 to 1 p. m.
