ISSUED BY THE SACRAMENTO PUBLISHING COMPANY Office, Third Street, between J and K. THE DAILY RECORD-UNION, For one year, $3 00 For six months, 1 50 For three months, 1 50

THE WEEKLY UNION, The cheapest and most desirable Home, News and Literary Journal published on the Pacific Coast. The WEEKLY UNION per year, $1 50

These publications are sent either by Mail or Express to agents or subscribers, with charges prepaid. All Postmasters are notified.

The RECORD-UNION and WEEKLY UNION are the only papers on the Coast, outside of San Francisco, that receive the full Associated Press dispatches from all parts of the world.

San Francisco Agencies. This paper is for sale at the following places: L. P. Fisher's, room 21, Merchants' Exchange, California street; the principal News Stands and Hotels, and at the Market-Street Ferry.

Weather Forecast. Forecast till 8 P. M. Friday: For Northern California—Fair weather but cloudy and foggy on northwest coast; generally warmer except cooler at Keeler.

UNPARDONABLE STUPIDITY. It sometimes appears that it is only sufficient to induce a fairly intelligent man into office to make him a ninny.

It is by such practices as were indulged in in Oakland, and such idiocy as the Berkeley Trustees have manifested, that the ballot reform law is to be defeated, if at all.

The local legislature has got safely over a stumbling block that it should never have found, that, indeed, was of its own creation. It has at last committed itself to the exercise of the power to order the closing of dives and the revocation of their licenses.

The board at one time hesitated, and practically decided that they could not do as they now have done. That was error for which they have now atoned.

Let the friends of a free, untainted and absolutely secret ballot in Sacramento be watchful that no blunders are made here in the next few weeks.

restaurateurs. The Chief of Police cannot afford, nor will he consent, to become the laughing-stock of the city by adopting so narrow a definition, as the dive-keepers ask him to accept as to what constitutes a restaurant.

The Chicago Tater-Ocean in a reflective article upon the increase of crime in America arrives at the conclusion that it is not due so much to the drinking habit or to poverty as to the growth of the gambling spirit.

duty can escape betterment. He gains in dignity, courage, precision and intelligence.

The brutal scene near Danbury, Conn., on Wednesday, when two bruisers chewed each other, is one of the natural outcomes of the slogging craze which is more and more brutalizing the public taste, and making it callous to cruelty and bestiality.

CHINA'S EMPEROR. Like Major McLaughlin, He "Needs No Guard." The Pekin Gazette lately contained a curious decree from the Emperor referring to certain proposals that had been made for his proper education.

The great Kien Lung explained his objection to the system to be that the emperors would be less likely to raise the standard of moral virtue, made use of the opportunity to tender their advice on things in general, and to air their views.
