

LETTER FROM PORTLAND.

Beselena's Budget of Current Events of a Week.

She Touches Up Some of the Society Leaders—Young Women who Affect the Dress and Aims of Men.

The festive burglar is again on the rampage. This time he burglarized one of our largest stores on a principal street, early on Monday morning. He was evidently an old hand at the "profession," as from the tracks he left it was apparent that he was not in a hurry. After helping himself to the contents of the safe—some $2,000—he seated himself and leisurely went over all the private papers. Finding them not worthy his notice, he scattered them on the floor and decamped with the spoils.

This little incident has a moral, which is, that too many detective agencies and too much police protection is as bad as none at all.

Our leading morning journal, the Oregonian, moved into its new quarters last Tuesday. In honor of the occasion the paper came out in an annual review. The paper is enlarged and improved, and is a credit to our West coast metropolis.

Some big guns have been ordered for Fort Canby, to protect the Columbia River in case we should have with our neighbor little neighbor, Chile. Fort Canby has been called the "Quebec of the United States," and with good defenses would be almost impregnable.

What is to become of the rising generation? Nowaday, when on the street, it is hard to tell the difference between the young person whom, it is supposed, should call a man—with big, long cape coat down to his heels, from the young woman with her short, frizzled hair, and crayed in her cheeks, who looks to be a wild swifter for anything, but if she could only see herself as others see her, she would discard her mannish togethery and be what nature intended her, a womanly woman.

The Oregon Alpine Club has, phenix-like, arisen from its ashes and come forth from the grave, where the citizens thought its bones would rest forevermore. The directors now announce the club has been only sleeping, and, to authenticate the fact, a lot of new members and a big clubhouse is to be erected as soon as possible. This club has done a great deal of good in the past, and we are glad to see it will continue its good work in the future.

The members of St. Anne's Catholic Charitable Association gave a very enjoyable entertainment and dance last Tuesday evening. The hall was well filled, and everything passed off smoothly. The Japanese fan drill, given by eleven young ladies, was especially interesting, and the dumb-bell exercises given by the young lady members of the Rainbow Club, dressed in the rainbow colors, were the evening's feature.

The death is announced of Richard Halloran, brother of Martin Halloran, yardman for the Pacific here. He was 62 years of age. He was a native of Ireland, and had been in this country for many years. He was a very good workman, and was much respected by his fellow workmen. He was buried in the Catholic cemetery last evening.

While on their way home from Folsom on Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. M. Clark were overtaken by a very heavy fog, three miles east of Perkins, and their horse running away, compelled them to walk to the latter place through rain and mud. They remained at Perkins over night.

Had Better Return It. A week ago last Monday a boy stole a buggy-robe from his employer and sold it to a man who was in his buggy at the time on K street, between Front and Second, for a nominal sum.

The purchaser—who must have suspected that the robe was stolen—is known to two persons who witnessed the transaction, and he will probably save himself some trouble by returning the robe at once to the police.

Convent Improvement. The executive branch of the Convent Improvement Committee announces that plans and specifications for the new addition to the Sisters' building can be seen at 2 P. M., February 6th, at the office of A. A. C. Turner, and J. W. Turner, to which time sealed bids for construction of the building will be received. The committee in charge reserves to itself the right to accept any or reject all bids.

Lecture This Evening. Mrs. Emma Pow Smith will lecture in the Fourteenth and K street United Brethren's Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the interest of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. A cordial invitation extended to all. Mrs. Smith is a gifted Christian woman, and one of the state organizers for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The lecture will be free.

School Department Needs. To-day the members of the City Board of Education will make a tour of inspection among the various schoolhouses in order to ascertain what repairs will be necessary the coming year.

The City Board will shortly fix the tax levy for the year, and the members of the School Board will have to figure out how much their department will require.

Privileged to Vote. James J. Heffernan, a native of Ireland, was admitted to yesterday by Superior Judge Catlin yesterday. Heffernan forewore his allegiance to Queen Victoria, and District Attorney of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in his opinion he would make a good citizen.

On an Assigned Account. The suit of W. S. Kendall vs. O. A. Lovell has been appealed from Justice Henry's court to the Superior Court. The suit is for $50, on an assigned account for material furnished and services alleged to have been rendered by Lovell to W. P. Bailey.

Republican Primary. The Republican City Central Committee to-day publishes its call for a primary election to be held on Saturday, under the provisions of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, with a list of the polling-places and the names of the Judges and Inspectors of Election.

Patriotic Teahouses. A mass meeting of the citizens of Vina, Tehama County, will be held this evening for the purpose of discussing the Chilean situation and opening a roll for the raising of a company to be attached to the 15th Brigade, U. S. A.

Prospective Hare Chase. There will be a meeting of the Sacramento Coursing Club this evening at Davy Crockett Hall, Eighteenth and M streets, for the purpose of drawing the dogs entered for the coming coursing match.

Sad News From Home. Mrs. H. Keller, wife of the photographer of that name, has received the sad intelligence by telegraph of the death of both her father and mother, at Wilmington, Mich., yesterday.

Larceny at Brighton. Constable Hunters of Brighton brought to this city yesterday a man named John Holmes, who is accused of stealing $20 from Mr. Hoy of Brighton, Holmes was lodged in the County Jail.

For the cure of a cough or sore throat, Brown's Bronchial Troches are a simple remedy.

BOOM FOR INVO.

Large Number of Irish Colonists Coming.

Purchase of Fifteen Thousand Acres of Land by H. A. Herbert of Ireland.

[San Francisco Chronicle, January 27th.] Robert L. Fulton, a colonization agent of the Southern Pacific Company, sent a letter to W. H. Mills, the Land Agent of the Central Pacific, from Reno yesterday, stating that 400 Irish families would soon settle in Inyo County. It was stated that Henry A. Herbert of Muckross Abbey, Lakes of Killarney, Ireland, who has been interested in a large project of irrigation in Inyo County, was the chief mover in this migration, and that he was now in New York on business connected with the enterprise.

In connection with this statement some interesting facts were learned from Mr. Mills and other gentlemen as to the irrigation project. Mr. Herbert was ascertained to be a large English landholder. He has a great estate in County Kerry, Ireland, and is well known throughout the British Isles as one of the most practical agriculturists in Queen Victoria's realm. Mr. Herbert came to California last spring, and brought with him a large amount of capital running up into the millions. He was looking for cheap lands, and he found them near Owens Lake, in Inyo County.

He became interested in the project of the Inyo Canal Company, whose system of irrigation spreads over 20,000 acres of land. Mr. Herbert made careful tests of the soil in different places, and found that it was far superior to that which he had tested in Florida and other parts of the country which he had visited and examined with a view to colonization. The result of his investigations was so favorable that he concluded to buy 15,000 acres, and the sale of the land to him is now practically completed. He proposed to start a town on this land as soon as possible, and will bring over a large party of colonists from Ireland soon. He will provide well built paper houses constructed in England—such houses are now especially built for colonists and are shipped to all parts of the world. These houses cost, for $300, those furnished for the latter price having four or five rooms and affording the best of shelter, being proof against the worst weather, as well as against earthquakes. Lumber is high in Inyo, and the houses will be much cheaper than if constructed of wood.

It is proposed by Mr. Herbert to establish various industries on this property, but chief of all will be that of fruit-growing, and by reason of its proximity to the Carson and Colorado Railroads is the only one by which shipments of grain can be made to tide-water by rail, and the cost of cartage is high, but as the rail connects with the Central Pacific at Reno, the route to the East is as practical for fruit shipments as is that of any in the State. For this reason fruit-growing will be one of the best industries in which the colonists can engage. The soil is said to be well adapted for the purpose, being rich and loamy.

The canal company has its headquarters in Carson. It takes its water from Owens River, which flows into Owens Lake, and carries it through a canal for nearly twenty miles along the valley, watering a large section of country. The colonists will have the use of 16,000 inches of water, which is considered ample for their purposes.

The first party will probably reach California before March 1st, coming via the Stages route, and will probably proceed to Mojave, from which point to Keeler, the southern terminus of the Carson and Colorado Railroad. A stage line has lately been established, and is doing a rushing business, as Inyo County, with its recently developed irrigation facilities, attracting many settlers to its fertile territory.

Silcox of the Congregational Church conducted the services, and the interment was held under the auspices of Washington Lodge, No. 20, F. & A. M.
