

KAISER WILLIAMS SPEECH

German Subjects Aroused at the Sentiments Expressed.

RIOTING CONTINUES IN THE STREETS OF BERLIN.

The Police Have a Conflict With Three Thousand Ruffians, in Which the Latter are Worst--The Mob Then Begin Looting the Shops of Butchers and Bakers--The Emperor Undisturbed by the Actions of the Rioters.

Special to the Record-Union. BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The authorities have taken great alarm over the occurrences of last night and have been on the qui vive, expecting that far more serious disturbances would follow the discovery of their own strength by the workmen.

At an early hour menacing crowds of workmen began to assemble in Unter den Linden. There was a strong force of police present, however, and they kept the crowd of idlers continually moving.

Several socialist meetings were held in the vicinity of the Borsen, and this did not have a reassuring effect upon operations there, as it was feared the mob might attack the headquarters of speculation, which is held by many to be partly responsible for the bad times existing.

During the course of the morning disorderly workmen assembled at several other places in the city, notably in the vicinity of the Brandenburg Gate, the Museum and the Square, in front of the opera-house.

At noon another large crowd collected in the opera-house square. The police charged the mob with drawn swords and dispersed them with little resistance.

It is evident the soldiers are to be used against the riotous element only as a last resort to establish order.

It is believed by many people that owing to the inadequacy of the police force to handle disturbances, though thus far their conduct merits the highest praise, the government should adopt stern measures to put down the trouble once for all.

Roughs tried to break through a line of police at Castle Gate, and almost succeeded, when a force of mounted officers arrived and broke up the crowd, riding down and injuring many of the mob.

Emperor William does not show any anxiety as to the final outcome of the present troubles. There was great excitement in the vicinity of the palace this afternoon, when his majesty, attended by an aid, and preceded by two mounted policemen, emerged on horseback from the palace.

THE OPPOSITION THOROUGHLY ORGANIZED. LONDON, Feb. 26.—A Berlin correspondent of the Times writes that the opposition in Germany by Emperor William's speech at Brandenburg is indescribable. It is felt the gauls are thrown down and the government is being assailed by the ever-growing opposition is to be fought to the bitter end.

It was remarked to-day that the police were less self-controlled than yesterday. They attacked the mob in a more violent manner, and did not scruple to use the edge of their sabres. The result is that the number of wounded is larger than yesterday.

In Michael Kirch street, the crowd became enraged at a policeman who drew his sword. He was disarmed and dragged to a nearby canal, and had it not been for the arrival of a detachment of mounted officers he would have been drowned. As it was, he was badly beaten.

A strong force are guarding the palace and patrolling the streets at night, and every precaution is being taken to meet further outbreaks from the rioters.

Curiosity brought out at least 30,000 people to-day. Throughout the afternoon the streets leading to the castle garden were crowded with people who greatly harassed the police. This fact served to cause exaggerated ideas of the extent of the disaster.

The press of all shades of politics appeal to the public to remain in doors.

The Emperor assumed an air of the greatest nonchalance when he rode out to-day. An attempt was made by the demonstrators, who shouted for bread and work, to organize a procession to follow him, but they were prevented by the police.

Through Unter den Linden this afternoon, and was loudly cheered. The damage done yesterday and to-day amounts to thousands of marks.

The newspapers warn the people against overestimating the importance of the disturbances, which they say are due to ruffians. The socialist papers disclaim, on behalf of the socialist leaders, any connection with the rioters, and covclare that the members of the mob belong to the lowest dregs of the population.

Thursday night's riots were extremely serious. A number of shops were entered, and the goods were smashed, furniture and all kinds of goods were carried away in sacks.

All was quiet at midnight. There was some disorder near Schloss Freinbeit and the palace at 10 o'clock. Several arrests were made, and there was a disturbance at the east end about 11 o'clock.

A Steamer Sunk, and All Save One on Board Drowned. LONDON, Feb. 26.—Meager news of a terrible disaster in the North Sea, by which a steamer went to the bottom, carrying with her every soul on board, with only one exception, was received in this city at a late hour to-night.

The steamer Loughbrow (British) and the Forest Queen came into collision off Flamborough, on the North Sea, the Forest Queen being torn apart. The sea rushed through the breaches made in her hull in great volume. She at once began to settle, and in a very short time plunged to the bottom.

So quickly did the Forest Queen founder that the crew had no chance to save their lives, and all hands, with the single exception of the Captain, went down. The dispatches give no information of the extent of the damage done the Loughbrow.

Horrible Story. VIENNA, Feb. 26.—The details of a horrible story were received to-day. A band of masked men forced their way into the house of a young woman named Mary Leary, in the village of Minin, forced their way into her bedroom and bound the woman with cords.

They then poured a large quantity of kerosene upon her, and set it on fire. The victim's shrieks and cries were blood-curdling. The motive assigned was that she was suspected of having murdered her husband.

Hotting in Brazil. NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The British steamer Cyril arrived here to-day from Brazil and brings reports of differences between the army and navy there that have resulted in a conflict between the two factions.

Explorer Stanley to Enter Politics. LONDON, Feb. 26.—Explorer Stanley is to be selected as the Liberal nominee for Denbigh, Wales, near which he was born.

Sentenced to Seven Years. SYDNEY (N. S. W.), Feb. 26.—Messrs. Finlayson and Smith, directors, and Miller, manager of the Australian Mer- cantile, which is held by many to be partly responsible for the bad times existing.

German to Abandon Southwest Africa. BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The Imperial Minister of Foreign Affairs announced to the Budget Committee of the Reichstag to-day that the government had determined to abandon the German possessions in Southwest Africa.

Died of His Injuries. SOFIA, Feb. 26.—Dr. Vulkovitch, Bulgarian Agent at Constantinople, stabbed yesterday by an unknown man, died to-day. His murder is attributed to a Bulgarian named Ivanoff, an accomplice of Kaulbars.

Member of Parliament to be Expelled. LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Commons to-day agreed to a motion by Balfour that Edward Samuel Wesley Deobain, a member of East Belfast, being a fugitive from justice, be expelled from the House.

Russia's Regret. LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Government of Russia has officially expressed its regrets over the death of Captains Younghouse and Davidson. Both officers, from Pambir, by Russian officers.

THE WIDOW RELEASES ALL CLAIM TO THE PROPERTY. MARYSVILLE, Feb. 26.—A deed was recorded here to-day wherein Mrs. Susan Haskins released any or all claim which she may have had against the estate of her late husband.

Why the People Like It. (From the Rio Vista News.) For a paper that invariably chooses the right course and takes the right side on all great national, State and local matters, commend us to the Sacramento Daily Record-Union.

Reorganization of the Carson and Colorado Railway. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The complete reorganization of the Carson and Colorado Railway Company has been effected, and articles of incorporation were prepared to-day to be filed at Sacramento.

Major A. S. Nicholson and Major H. B. Lowry, who have been to Mare Island on Government business and are now en route to Washington, are in Sacramento.

Oregon's First Apples. In 1871 Henderson Lovell, then living in Oregon, brought several hundred grafted apple trees, including a number of varieties, across the continent in boxes.

The press of all shades of politics appeal to the public to remain in doors.

The Emperor assumed an air of the greatest nonchalance when he rode out to-day. An attempt was made by the demonstrators, who shouted for bread and work, to organize a procession to follow him, but they were prevented by the police.

Through Unter den Linden this afternoon, and was loudly cheered. The damage done yesterday and to-day amounts to thousands of marks.

CALIFORNIA LEAGUE.

The Managers Announce the Personnel of Their Teams.

MANY OF THE OLD FAVORITES NOT ON THE LIST.

The Kimmick-Peckham Fight Declared No Contest, It Being Evident That the Latter "Faked"—The Carson and Colorado Railway Company Reorganize—The Line to Be Extended to Mohave, to Connect With the Southern Pacific.

Special to the Record-Union. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The list of players of the four teams that will compose the California Baseball League this season has been made up. The club managers seem to have secured a better players than ever belonged to the California League before.

San Francisco—Pitchers, Hoffman and Hart of St. Louis Brown Stock of 1891 and Minneapolis of 1892; catcher, Spies; first base, Pete Sweeney (Captain); second base, J. Sharp; third base, Reitz; shortstop, David Coughlin, brother of Roscoe; left field, Rube Levy; center field, Leigh-ton of Manchester, England League; right field and change catcher, Russell, of Santa Rosa.

Oakland—Pitchers, Jack Horner of Milwaukee of 1891 and Pacific Coast of 1892; catcher, Ed O'Neill; catcher, Mark Wilson; first base, Fred Carroll (manager and Captain); for six years with the Pittsburg National League Club; second base, John J. O'Brien of Brooklyn; third base, Bushman of Quincy; shortstop, Hutchinson of Sacramento; left field, Elmes; center field, O. H. Smith; right field and change catcher, Lou Hardie; extramur, George Lohman and David Woods of Cedar Rapids.

San Jose—Pitchers, Harper and Lookbaugh; catcher, Clarke of San Francisco; first base, Dooley; second base, Hanley; third base, Ebbetts (Captain); shortstop, Everett; left field, McGucken; right field, McVey; right field and change catcher, Stallings.

Los Angeles—Pitchers, Stafford of Lincoln, Neb., and Roach of Kansas City; catcher, Emmet Rogers of Toledo; first base, McCauley of Philadelphia; second base, Gienapp of St. Paul; shortstop, third base, Hulin of Santa Rosa; shortstop, Hassmer; left field, Treadway; center field, "Rusty" Wright; right field and change catcher, Newman.

"NO CONTEST." The Kimmick-Peckham Fight Declared a Fake. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The much-talked-of welter-weight fight between Charlie Kimmick of Minneapolis and Peckham of Bradford, Pa., drew a large crowd to the quarters of the Pacific Club to-night. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

Both men were in the ring at 10 o'clock. It had been announced that the winner would be matched against the winner of the Ryan-Needham contest for the welter-weight championship of America, and the long list of victories of Peckham in the Pacific Club.

COMMERCIAL CONGRESS.

Action Taken by the Trans-Mississippi Conference.

THE SUGAR-BOUNTY ACT STRONGLY INDORSED.

The Citizens of Mound City, Ill., Forcefully Show Their Contempt for Tramps—Two Convicts Shot While Attempting to Escape From an Alabama Jail—Fatal Railway Collision in Ohio.

Special to the Record-Union. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 26.—In the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress to-day resolutions were adopted as follows: Requesting Congress to refer the question of improving the Southwest Pass of the Mississippi River to a River Commission; favoring the construction of the Nicaragua Canal as distinctly an American work, and requesting capitalists to aid in its construction; approving and indorsing the Acts of Congress giving a bounty on sugar, and admitting machinery for the manufacture of sugar free, and requesting Congress to make liberal appropriations for teaching best-sugar chemistry; that all unclaimed public lands be restored to the public domain; that Arizona and New Mexico be not only members of the Union, but also of the States.

The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary. Patterson of Colorado then spoke on the subject. He said that up to 1870 gold and silver were used as legal tender, and until 1873 silver was on par with gold, but after that it was almost classed as one of the baser metals.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

He was not only a member of the Union, but also of the States. The silver question, the special order of the day, came up, and a free bimetallic coinage resolution was read by the Secretary.

THE SILVER PROBLEM.

Likely to Occasion a Stubborn Fight in Congress.

MAY CAUSE A SPLIT IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Alexander K. Craig, Contestant for a Seat in the House From the Twenty-fourth Pennsylvania District, Declared Elected—Secretary Noble Testifies Before the Committee Investigating the Charges Against Pension Commissioner Raum.

Special to the Record-Union. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

The free coinage men of the House felt elated over the action of last night's caucus refusing to consider any proposition for delay of free coinage legislation. Harter and his friends content themselves to-day by simply announcing that they will oppose the Bland bill by every parliamentary tactic in their power when it comes up in the House, and that it will never pass the lower branch of Congress if the generosity of the Democratic Committee on Rules has placed at their disposal parliamentary weapons of obstruction necessary to tire out and weary the friends of the free coinage by weeks of delay.

IRISH NATIONAL LEAGUE.

John P. Sutton Tenders His Resignation as Secretary.

LINCOLN (Neb.), Feb. 26.—John P. Sutton has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Irish National League of America, as a result of the disagreement of himself and Treasurer Lyman with President Gannon's action in issuing a proclamation a couple of days ago, to which their names were appended without their knowledge.

Sutton has also taken offense at the statements made by Gannon in a published interview since Lyman and Sutton made their protest. Gannon says in this interview that he has hastily glanced over a clipping from a New York paper sent him by Treasurer Lyman. "It was not sent to him," says Sutton, "and he has no right to use my name in such a manner." Gannon confesses that he wrote the address hurriedly. No address over the signature of the President of the League should be written hurriedly.

The Taylor Outrage Case. SEDALIA (Mo.), Feb. 26.—Excitement over the Taylor robbery and the outrage case is still unabated. The sheriff and 100 Deputy Sheriffs searching the country. A telegram was received this morning by the Sheriff from Charles Minter, who has charge of the posse near Tipton, saying that he had the man who shot the Taylor, and asking for bloodhounds. Dogs were sent at once. Governor Francis has offered a reward of $400 for the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrator of the horrible outrage.

Gould Reported Ill. NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The World receives the report that John Gould is again ill, and asserts that this is the reason the tour of his roads, set for last Wednesday, has been postponed. It is alleged he was seized with a chill Tuesday night and has been prostrated since. His son George, in the same article, denies that his father is ill, and says the tour was postponed for business reasons. The World maintains that Gould is threatened with pneumonia and his condition is growing alarming.

Falled to Agree. CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Chairman Walker, on behalf of the Commissioners of the Western Traffic Association, submitted a decision to-day disposing of the Atchison application for a reduction of the second-class passenger rate from the Missouri River to California points. The Commissioners could not agree, and refer the whole matter to the Advisory Board.

Charged With Two Crimes. HOLLY SPRINGS (Miss.), Feb. 26.—J. A. Walling, an ex-railroad employe, has been arrested here and charged with an attempted robbery and shooting of four train hands near Sausbury, Tenn. Walling's arrest here is the result of a complaint started from San Francisco for Warren-town, Ala.

Fatal Railway Collision. CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—The incoming passenger train on the Cincinnati, Portsmouth and Virginia roads last night collided with the accommodation on the Cincinnati Northern. Engineer Collins of the latter train was killed, and his wife, Catherine Flynn, a Cincinnati passenger, was fatally injured.

No Serious Disturbance Occurred. CREDE (Col.), Feb. 26.—The sale of school land here by the State Land Board was begun to-day. The town was overflowing with people and there was great excitement, but no serious disturbance occurred. Eight blocks of 160 acres sold to-day from $100 to $850 per lot.

Suicide of a Prominent Manufacturer. SHARON (Pa.), Feb. 26.—George D. Kelly, one of the most prominent pigiron manufacturers in the Shenandoah Valley, partner in the firm of Pierce, Kelly & Co., yesterday committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. No cause can be assigned for the act.

The People's Party. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26.—The Executive Committee of the National Committee People's party will meet in Omaha May 11th, for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for holding the National Convention there July 1st.

Prairie Fire Near Guthrie. GUTHRIE (O. T.), Feb. 26.—A prairie fire has been burning in the northern part of this county for some days, doing a large amount of damage. The little daughter of J. B. Nida was caught in the fire and burned to death.

The President in Virginia. NORFOLK, Feb. 26.—The Presidential party arrived here this evening, and the light artillery fired a salute of twenty-one guns. The party was seen in charge by General Grover, who escorted them to Virginia beach.

Convicts Shot. MONTGOMERY (Ala.), Feb. 26.—Will Gibson and Rube Marshall, white convicts, have been shot at Wetumpka while attempting to escape. Gibson is dead and Marshall will die.

A Convict Killed. MICHIGAN CITY (Ind.), Feb. 26.—Delbert Dreyer, a convict, killed Wm. Brenning, a fellow-convict.

What Salt is Good For. Cut flowers will keep much longer if salt is added to the water in which they are placed. Effusions may be made smooth by being rubbed on a paper on which salt has been sprinkled.

A strong salt water poured on a brick walk will prevent the grass growing. But in making a garden, salt has been used in making a garden, salt has been used in making a garden, salt has been used in making a garden.

It is used for preserving and packing meat, as it prevents putrefaction by absorbing water from the flesh.

It is used for preserving and packing meat, as it prevents putrefaction by absorbing water from the flesh.

It is used for