

TOUBEY CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

His Partner, John J. Conlin, Brings Suit in the Superior Court.

They Were Engaged in Building a Fence and Sidewalk Around the Capitol Grounds.

Contractors John J. Conlin and James Toubey, who have the work in hand of surrounding the Capitol grounds with a concrete sidewalk and granite and chain fence, have had trouble and are at war.

The contractors pooled their issues when bidding for the job, and resolving to go into partnership, took the work at a price far below the figures set by their competitors.

But the partnership did not prove to be a satisfactory one, and Conlin has commenced suit in the Superior Court to have it dissolved.

Conlin sets forth in his complaint that the contract has been commenced and is partly finished. In the course of their joint operations they have acquired a large number of costly tools. When their contract is finished they will receive from Toubey some $2,777, and they have already drawn $1,100. According to the terms of the contract the work must be completed within five months after the date of the contract, and Conlin alleges that the property rights of the firm are such that no equitable division of the assets and good will can be made without great loss to the firm.

A sale thereof or by completion under a receiver and a division of the proceeds.

Then comes the sensational part of Conlin's charges.

He declares that Toubey has not only done his duty as a partner but has actually been robbing the plaintiff. He goes on to relate that Toubey has made false entries in his accounts; has represented to the plaintiff that he has paid out large sums of money when, in fact, he had not paid out any such sums, and that he made such false representations for the purpose of defrauding his partner, the plaintiff.

And this is not all that Conlin charges. He sets forth further that Toubey has in the employment of the firm six teams and has charged the firm excessive and fraudulent rates for them, charging for them by the day, when it had been agreed to charge only by the load. More than this, Conlin accuses Toubey of having made a payroll of workmen who did not exist, and had also made double charges for laborers' hire.

Under their partnership agreement, says Conlin, Toubey was to have personal supervision over the work going on at the Capitol, but has performed it in such a careless and negligent manner that much of it will have to be done over again. Conlin says he has complained to Toubey and requested him to stop, but to no purpose.

In conclusion, Conlin asks the court to dissolve the partnership, appoint a receiver to finish the work, and to enjoin Toubey from further interference with it.

Contractor Conlin informed a Record-Union reporter Monday evening that he and Toubey had settled their differences, and that the suit would not be brought on an issue. But it has been filed just the same, and at last accounts yesterday afternoon no attempt had been made to withdraw it.

The stonemasons employed by Conlin & Toubey quit work yesterday, and will do no further labor until the differences between the contractors are settled.

HEALTH OF THE STATE.

A Marked Decrease in the Number of Respiratory Cases.

Dr. J. R. Laine, Secretary of the State Board of Health, in his report for the month of March, states that the mortality reports from 115 cities, towns, villages and localities, having an aggregate population of 813,281, show 1,176 deaths from all causes during the month of March.

This corresponds to a death rate of 1.44 per 1,000 for March, or 17.28 per 1,000 per annum.

There were 191 deaths due to consumption, 89 to pneumonia, 39 to acute bronchitis, 11 to congestion of the lungs, 1 to cholera, 1 to cholera infantum, 35 to other diseases of the stomach and bowels, 12 to diphtheria, 10 to croup, 14 to scarlatina, 12 to measles, 8 to whooping-cough, 29 to typhoid fever, 3 to malarial fever, 4 to cerebro-spinal fever, 34 to cancer, 2 to erysipelas, 109 to diseases of the heart, 9 to alcoholism, 9 to influenza, and 532 to all other causes.

This shows a continued reduction in fatalities from respiratory diseases. In January there were 655 deaths from diseases of the lungs, in February 380, and in March 230.

There were 96 deaths in January from grippe, 29 in February and 9 in March. January shows 110 deaths from diseases of the heart, February 65, and March 109. Any reasons that might be advanced for these sudden fluctuations must necessarily be conjectural.

PREVAILING DISEASES. Reports of prevailing diseases from 105 towns, villages and localities, outside of the large cities, show 69 cases of acute pneumonia, 21 of pleuritis, 236 of acute bronchitis, 5 of congestion of the lungs, 72 of diarrhea, 30 of dysentery, 3 of cholera infantum, 4 of cholera morbus, 13 of typhoid fever, 8 of scarlatina, 12 of measles, 141 of whooping-cough, 181 of cerebro-spinal fever, 25 of erysipelas, 2 of inflammation of the brain, 11 of inflammation of the bowels, 15 of inflammation of the kidneys, 272 of influenza, 73 of neuralgia, 2 of purpural fever, 79 of rheumatism, 81 of diphtheria, 39 of pharyngitis and 1 of chicken-pox.

Measles are reported prevalent at Elk Grove, Monrovia, Watsonville, Folsom and San Diego.

Sierra Valley reported 25 cases of scarlatina, Wheatland 25, Needles 20 and Santa Rosa 12. Fatalities have been very light, as the fever has been of a mild type.

Whooping-cough has been epidemic at Azusa, and has prevailed to some extent at Monteville, Minot, Auburn, Marysville and Marysville. Mumps have been reported from many different points.

A LONG RUN.

Marysville Horse Thieves Heard From in San Luis Obispo.

Some weeks ago reference was made in these columns to the fact that a couple of men had stolen a pair of horses and a buggy in Marysville and were heading this way, having been traced as far as Roseville. Good descriptions were given of the men and their outfit, but they passed Sacramento all right and were next heard of at Paso Robles Springs, in San Luis Obispo. Says the Marysville Journal of Saturday:

"Marshal Frank Misenheimer of Paso Robles telegraphed Sheriff Saul last evening that the team and buggy which were stolen from George Jenkins' stable in this city about two weeks ago, were secure in that city, where they had been left by two men, who had continued their journey southward."

"According to the map, it is about 367 miles to Paso Robles, but the route by which the thieves must have gone, it is estimated that they traveled fully 600 miles."

"Sheriff Saul has been informed that the men sold one of the shotguns which they 'hired' from P. George, but whether the team had been sold or merely left at the livery stable he could not state."

"It is highly probable that the men will be captured before they have traveled much further, as almost every officer in the southern part of the State is in possession of a description of them."

"At the Sheriff's office another dispatch received this afternoon from the same officer at Paso Robles states that the two men left that town on the morning of the 7th inst., and walked some distance. They then stole another team and continued their journey south. Under Sheriff Bevan has sent thirty dispatches to various officers in the southern part of the State."

ASSESSABLE CROPS.

Hops and Alfalfa Will Hereafter Be Specially Taxed.

It has been decided by the State Board of Equalization to instruct County Assessors not to include hops and alfalfa among the "growing crops" that are exempt from taxation, the Legislature having classed them as permanent improvements, being grown year after year from the same roots.

Hence the farmers will understand what it means when Assessor Irvine assesses them at $10 an acre for alfalfa, and from $25 to $30 for hops.

Articles of Incorporation. The following articles of incorporation were filed in the Secretary of State's office yesterday:

Auburn Co-operative Fruit Company of Auburn, Placer County, Capital stock, $2,000. Directors—W. E. Freeman, A. L. Young, F. De Gomez, W. H. Curtis and F. P. Dickson.

Theresa Zeta D. K. E. Hall Association of San Francisco. Directors—W. E. Freeman, Fisher Ames, C. L. Tilden, P. R. Whitcomb, E. C. Sutcliffe, W. D. Mansfield and A. G. Booth.

JORGENSEN MUST GO.

The Agricultural Directors Rule Him Off the Course.

A Napa Visitor's Experience in the Capital City—Minor Police Court Cases Adjudged.

The Police Court was crowded yesterday morning with jurors and interested spectators, but the session was brief. A number of jurors had been summoned to serve in the third trial of Jorgenson, of Agricultural Park fame.

City Attorney Hart addressed the court, saying that he had been informed by Superintendent Hancock of the Park that a ruling had been made to exclude Jorgenson from the stalls, and that the board did not desire to inflict penal punishment upon the man. All they wanted was to establish their authority and maintain their right to control the premises as they saw proper. Hart thought there was no necessity for a third trial in the case.

Judge Craven also came to that conclusion promptly, and dismissed the jurors and witnesses present.

A BRACK OF DIPLOMATS. "Handsome" Brady was called to answer the charge of being drunk, but he did not respond. Through an officer the court was informed that Brady was sick and could not meet his appointment in court.

Captain Dozier next confronted the magistrate. The Captain had been drunk again. He assumed the regulation look of repentance and deference, but flattered forth a protest that was vain. The Captain was given ten days in which to philosophize.

JOHNSON'S COSTLY SPIRE. August Johnson, who also drank more whisky than he could control, and who called at the Chinese Mission Sunday-school and wanted to revolutionize things, stood up for sentence. He could give no logical reason why he should not receive a dose of justice, and he got it.

Judge Craven told August it would have been cheaper for him to have filled up on Napa wine than to come to Sacramento and try to drink all the Chinese whisky. He convinced him of this fact by imposing a fine of $25.

THE TAN PLAYERS. The six Chinese arrested for gambling were in court, with their bondsman and "cousins," but had their cases continued until Thursday.

Spring and Summer, 1892. The display of spring and summer goods at Gordon Bros' tailoring establishment, 520 J street, is well worthy an inspection. This firm is a leader and guarantees all its work.

Mr. Milo Gilson.

A stalwart teamster in the employ of the Glens Falls, N. Y., Lumber Company, says that both he and his wife highly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. She failed to gain strength after a severe illness, felt miserable, could not sleep, and had no appetite. When she took Hood's Sarsaparilla she began to pick up and was soon all right. His own experience was that in the spring he was all run down, had weakness and distress in the stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla brought him round all right, and he is now better and heavier than for years.

Thousands, yes almost millions of people, testify to the wonderful value of Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling or weakness of mind, nerves or body. It is the helping hand which restores full health and strength. Mr. John J. Scully, President of the Seaman's Union, 256 Catherine Street, Detroit, Michigan, voluntarily writes as follows: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.":

"Gentlemen: I feel in duty bound to tell you of the benefit I derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have been troubled with nervous dyspepsia, was tired and languid, with no ambition to work; my sleep was irregular. So I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. From the very first I felt better, and it seemed to be just the thing for me. The nervous dyspepsia has now entirely gone, my appetite is excellent, I can eat heartily without distress afterwards; I sleep well, and can now go about my work without that tired feeling so frequent before I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have taken six bottles and recommend it as the King of Medicines." J. J. SCULLY.

The Supervisors' Contract With Attorney Devlin Not Satisfactory.

He Would Have Reaped Too Good a Harvest—District Attorney Ryan Makes the Objection.

At the recent session the Board of Supervisors passed an order to the effect that Attorney R. T. Devlin be employed to collect, by suits or otherwise, any and all money due Sacramento County from the State, and that the attorney be paid what he so collected by way of compensation. Mr. Devlin had appeared before the board and stated that there was a possibility that several hundreds of dollars might be collected, and he was willing to try it on the terms agreed to. If he recovered nothing he was to receive no compensation. The Supervisors, apparently, did not think much about the proposition, Chairman Greer remarking at the time that "Whether Devlin or anybody else saw a chance to pick up some money for the county, he was willing for them to try."

Everything connected with the transaction was successful enough until District Attorney Ryan heard of what had been done. Then there was trouble. Mr. Ryan felt aggrieved that he had not been consulted, but he had no objection to paying Mr. Devlin 50 per cent. of what was collected. Five per cent. is all that is allowed by other counties.

As a result of Mr. Ryan's "kick" there was a meeting of the Supervisors in his office yesterday. Mr. Devlin was also there. It is said that quite a lively interview was had. The Supervisors had their eyes opened, and frankly admitted that they had passed the resolution without really knowing what was to come out of it. They expressed surprise at Mr. Ryan's announcement that if Sacramento County could collect at all, she could collect $40,000 from this State, and that Mr. Devlin's share of the proceeds would be $20,000.

As a result of the meeting, the Supervisors agreed to rescind their action, and that they agreed to make the collection for 5 per cent.

The proposition was made to Mr. Devlin originally on the strength of the discovery of an old and forgotten law which requires the payment of taxes on the State for the collection of State taxes.

SUBURBAN HOMES. More Residence Property Opened Up Near Oak Park.

The suburban districts are rapidly growing in popularity among residence-seekers, as is shown by the constant demand for residence property in neighborhoods easy of access to the business portion of the city. The remarkable growth of the locality about Oak Park has caused unusual comment, and many persons are seeking to secure homes there.

Extensive improvements have already been made, and more are contemplated. The large grove of fine oak trees immediately west of the city, comprising some thirteen acres, is to be cut up into seventy-six lots and sold for residence purposes. Curtis & Bowler, who are superintending the work of desecration, state that the streets are already laid out and graded, and the lots so surveyed that from some five to six acres are on each lot. The most remote portion of the grove is but two blocks from the terminus of the electric railway, and the western side of the grove fronts on the Lower Stockton road. The lots are to be sold at from $150 to $250 each, one-half cash and the balance in easy installments, with interest at 6 per cent.

Will reconsider it.

Mr. Bowley states that since the fact became known that this tract was to be placed on the market, the demand for lots has been so great that the possibility of the prompt sale of nearly every lot is very great. He further states that in order to give all intending purchasers an equal opportunity in making selections the sales will not commence until tomorrow morning.

This is an opportunity rarely afforded, and should be carefully considered by all in search of homes.

What Ten Dollars Did.

An interesting happening in the store came under the notice of the writer the other day.

A man who is a resident of Sacramento, and who, as an intelligent person, is fairly familiar with the value of goods, came into the store with ten dollars in his pocket. It was all the money he had to spare at the time. He wanted a suit of clothes, but was in grave doubts whether he could get a respectable looking suit for that amount of money. He had heard of ten-dollar suits, but had never thought them of possible interest to him.

He was told that ten dollars would buy a really stylish, all-wool suit, while he had well-made suits of neat appearance as low as five dollars. This seemed to surprise him even more—especially when he was shown one of the five-dollar suits.
