

GRANGERS IN THE WOODS.

Their Annual Picnic and Reunion at Elk Grove.

Even the Rain Could Not Keep Them at Home on Saturday—Games, Addresses, Races, Etc.

Notwithstanding the weather on Saturday morning was threatening and a few light showers of rain fell, the Grangers' annual picnic, held at Elk Grove, was well attended and a very enjoyable day was passed by those in attendance.

It was estimated that about two thousand were on the grounds, but a much larger number would have been present had the day promised more fairly.

The train leaving here at 10:40, however, was quite filled and a large number arrived in carriages during the forenoon. The day was quite cool, and wraps and light overcoats prevailed.

The orchards, meadows and grain-fields are looking their best, and wild flowers abound, making the ride from the city to the grove, whether by rail or other conveyance, a very delightful one.

By noon most of the crowd had arrived, and the grounds presented a pleasing scene. Large numbers of buggies, carriages and other vehicles were grouped about under the trees, while the picnicers were proceeding to spread their luncheon on the openings to enjoy the few glimpses of sunshine which the clouds permitted.

Dancing began to the music of the First Artillery Band, about 11 o'clock, and a light shower caused a brief interruption. About the time a stampede for the grove was imminent the shower ceased, and for the remainder of the day the weather behaved very well, although the ice-cream and lemonade stands would have been better patronized had the day been sunnier.

Beer and other conventional picnic drinks were plentifully supplied, and the only strong liquors on the grounds were a few carefully concealed pocket flasks. The refreshment stand conducted by the Women's Christian Temperance Union had a variety of liquors on hand, but the most interesting beverage in their collection was buttermilk, so that there was nothing to drink but beer or a disturbance of any kind during the day.

About half-past 2 o'clock a track was staked off for the foot races and ropes stretched to keep back the crowd. Quite a number took part in the races, which resulted as follows:

Race for boys under 8 years old—First prize, won by Eddie Davis; second prize, won by George Stilson.

Race for boys under 10 years—First prize, John Gallagher; second prize, Claude Ream.

Race for girls under 10 years—First prize, Ruby Ross; second prize, Maudie Higgins.

Race for girls under 12 years—First prize, Myra Warner; second prize,azel E. Via.

Race for boys under 14 years—First prize, Willie Edwards; second prize, Clarence Ross.

Race for boys under 18 years—First prize, George Coons; second prize, Louis Witt.

Race for girls under 16 years—First prize, Jessie Jefferson (Jessie won last year); second prize, Maudie Carter. This was a close and exciting race, and betting was about even.

Race for married ladies—First prize, Mrs. C. A. Fical; second prize, Mrs. Stolz. This race resulted in a tie the first heat between the above named ladies and was decided in a repeat over the same course. Betting was cautious and no odds were offered.

GRACE MURPHY EXONERATED.

Arrested and Taken to Sanger Upon a False Charge.

She is Befriended by the People of Sanger and Released—Touching Letter From Her Mother.

It now transpires, as predicted by the RECORD-UNION at the time of her arrest, that Grace Murphy, the twelve-year-old girl recently arrested here on complaint of a Mrs. Smith of Fresno County, was a victim of unwarranted persecution.

Grace left the El Capitan vineyard, near Sanger, and took the train for Seattle, where her mother resides, but Mrs. Smith caused her arrest and detention on a charge of petit larceny.

The girl claimed that she left Mrs. Smith on account of ill-treatment and abuse, and started to Seattle in response to a letter from her mother who sent her a ticket.

Mrs. Smith swore out a warrant for the girl, charging her with petit larceny, and told the officers at Sanger that there were more serious charges; that Mrs. Murphy was a respectable woman, and the girl a falsifier.

The following letter from R. L. Barr, the Constable who arrested Grace, is self-explanatory. Constable Barr told the officers here that he would see that the girl had fair representation, and he did so.

SANGER, Cal., April 29th. Chief Rodgers, Sacramento.—DEAR SIR: Grace Murphy had her trial to-day, and was fully exonerated from all charges. Mrs. Smith had to pay the entire cost. It was shown very plainly that a malicious prosecution had been carried out for the purpose of securing for her four other girls gratuitously volunteered and arrested. The entire community are in sympathy with the girl and down on Mrs. Smith. She is still here, and will be sent to her mother the first of the week. Very truly yours, R. L. BARR.

MRS. MURPHY INFORMED. Father McManus wrote to the girl's mother who had been arrested here, and sent her a copy of the RECORD-UNION containing the particulars of the arrest. The following letter was received by him yesterday:

SEATTLE, April 27th. Mr. John P. McManus—DEAR SIR: I received your note this morning, and I am glad to hear that you are well. I have just and hasten to answer it, to thank you and the others from the bottom of my heart for the interest you have shown in my poor fatherless child.

My dear mother, I am glad to hear that you are well. I have just and hasten to answer it, to thank you and the others from the bottom of my heart for the interest you have shown in my poor fatherless child.

quietus "with a bare bodkin," but was again restrained. At the police station she admitted having indulged in a few drinks of beer and wine, to which she was never addicted nor accustomed.

A family quarrel seemed to be the moving cause in the case. Auction Sales To-day. At 10 A. M. to-day W. H. Shorburn will sell on the premises the entire stock of wines, liquors, cigars, groceries, etc., and the plated ware, crockery, glassware, etc., of Leith's Restaurant, 429 K street.

The same firm will sell, at the same hour and place, by order of the Superior Court, lot 6, Twenty-first and Twenty-second, H and I streets. Sale subject to confirmation of Superior Court.

Also lot 2, O and P, Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets.

The Case is Somewhat Mixed. Dai Hip Sam, a Chinese interpreter, who is also known as T. H. Samuels, was arrested in San Francisco on Saturday on a charge of felony embezzlement, preferred by Leong Chung. He is accused of having converted to his own use $200 given him to pay A. H. Downard, a Sacramento attorney, for services rendered in connection with a Chinese divorce case.

The prisoner denies having received the money, and claims that the woman who is said to have been charged by the abuse to the attorney kept it herself and ran off to Portland with Leong Chung, who now makes complaint against him.

A Revolving Story Revived. There has been a revival of the story that was at first in the eastern suburbs of the city some months ago regarding a criminal intimacy between a man and his little daughter. The latter's health is said to have been shattered by the abuse to which she has been subjected, but nobody appears to have a sufficient knowledge of the circumstances to make a formal complaint.

The parties reside outside the city, but there should be some way found to officially investigate the matter.

The Railroad Hospital. The report of the Superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company's Hospital, for the month ending April 30th is as follows: Number of patients in hospital April 1, 1892, 41; number of patients admitted during the month, 47; number of patients discharged during the month, 38; number of patients died during the month, 2; number of patients on hand May 1, 1892, 47; total number of private house and office patients treated during month, 267.

Too Many Kites. Complaints are being frequently made at the police station from all parts of town that kite-flying in the streets is proving a serious nuisance.

William Wundus, better known as "Texas Bill," the colored barber, who is alleged to have embezzled money from his employer, Henry Williams, was brought up on Oakland Saturday and placed in the City Prison. Wundus left the city after taking the money, but was traced to Oakland and arrested.

Wood Estate. In the matter of the estate of James A. Wood, deceased, George F. Brouner, the administrator, petitioned the Superior Court Saturday for permission to sell a large quantity of live stock belonging to the estate, consisting of horses, cows, sheep, lambs and hogs, and a quantity of baited wood.

Turner Festival Postponed. Owing to the showers of rain yesterday and the unusually cool weather, the thirty-eighth annual May festival of the Turners, which was to have taken place at East Park, has been postponed. Due notice will be given of the time when the festival will be held.

The thing to do in Muslin Underwear is to make it so low in price that nobody wants to make her own or anybody else's. This can only be done by organization. Organization means factory work. Like all other business, it is well done and badly done. Our part is to buy good work; others may take the bad work—we don't want it. That is the whole of the business of getting good underwear—simple as A, B, C. Look around among merchants and see if it is.
