

TRACKING HORSE-THIEVES.

The Whittle Ranch Raiders Located in San Francisco.

Sheriff Stanley and His Men Do Some Quick Work—Who the Thieves Are.

Several days ago two men made a raid upon Whittle's ranch, near Ione, and decamped with four horses and a cart.

Sheriff Adams of Amador County was notified and started in search of the horses and thieves immediately.

Chief of Police Crowley of the metropolis was communicated with by Under Sheriff Bugbey, and it is now believed that the thieves will be in custody.

The investigation was so thorough that a most complete description of the horse-thieves, as well as the names, was secured.

EXCITING CONTESTS.

The Handball Tournament Results in Three Ties for First Place.

Payne and Bliss Win and Lose With Yoerk and McClatchy—More Contests Ordered.

The largest crowd that has yet witnessed the handball contests at the Sacramento Athletic Club rooms, was there last night.

The last of the scheduled games were reached last night, but the tournament is not ended yet, as three teams are tied for first place, and they will have to play each other now for first, second and third prizes.

The first contests last evening were between Flint and Dwyer on one side and Gorman and Berger on the other.

The second game, however, Flint and Dwyer gave their opponents a merry race, and brought the perspiration from them in streams.

The two crack teams were greeted with loud applause when they appeared in the court, and the cheering was kept up wildly through both games.

After a five-minute rest the second game was proceeded with. Payne and Bliss went in with a determination that the contest should be a close one.

After another hymn, George B. Katzenbach addressed the audience with a few introductory remarks, concluding by introducing Mr. Beauchamp, who began his remarks with a preamble, saying that he sometimes liked to say something before he began to speak.

While the lecturer speaks very earnestly and eloquently, he also introduces some observations and follows by an earnest prayer by Rev. Mr. Stevenson.

THE GAMESTERS.

Several of Them Succumb to the Law and Punish.

In the case of the keepers of the faro game, raided by Captain Bradley on Saturday night, the dealer, E. Ferris, was arraigned before Judge Cravens yesterday afternoon.

He pleaded guilty and was fined $100, which he paid promptly, but with retention, and withdrew.

Ab Loy, for conducting a Chinese lottery, also fell victim to Captain Bradley's energy, and was fined $40.

The case of the Messrs. Hornlein, charged with carrying on a crap game, was continued until Friday, July 1st.

The widely-known and eloquent advocate of temperance, Lou J. Beauchamp of Ohio, began a series of lectures at the Congregational Church last evening under the auspices of the Independent Order of Good Templars.

The meeting opened last night with the singing of the audience of "Rock of Ages," which was followed by an earnest prayer by Rev. Mr. Stevenson.
