EVERYBODY'S COLUMN

Correspondence of Interest to the General Public.

[Under this heading the RECORD-UNION will publish from correspondents on topics of interest to the general public. The matter in these communications will be understood, and the writer's name and address will be given, unless otherwise stated. All communications must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not for publication, unless so desired, but as a guarantee of good faith.—Eds.]

A Believer in Woman's Rights. Eds. RECORD-UNION: We women appreciate your paper, hence the call for space for suffrage and temperance work.

A few mornings ago a young man called whom I am well acquainted with, and I presented a petition reading like this: "To the Legislature of the State of California: We, the undersigned citizens of California, ask you to pass a law granting full suffrage to the women of California."

He read it over carefully and said, "Yes, indeed, I will sign that, I am always in favor of anything that will benefit the ladies, and I know of nothing that would be a greater advantage to them than the ballot." This is a fair specimen of the educated, refined young men of the nineteenth century, and from such we take courage, believing that enough of good will will come from the world's prohibition and equal suffrage for all; that our land may in truth be "the land of the free and the home of the brave."

A few weeks later a nobly bred man called, and I likewise presented the same petition for his signature. He also read it carefully and said he would sign it; and he did so. I am glad to see that not only do we not think they should fill offices or enter the professions. I asked what his objections were based upon, and he replied that he was a woman's man, and he believed that women were filling the various positions so well that they were driving men out of employment. Strange, is it not, that anyone in this nineteenth century should make such an argument as that? Why don't we women complain because the men are encroaching upon our lines of employment?

If we believe that each sex has its working sphere, and that the other sex has no right to cross that line, then certainly we must have a complaint on the ground of women's work, throwing them out of employment.

Think of the thousands of men who are engaged in the various trades, in hotels, families, as cooks, yes, even doing all kinds of chamber work, as laundresses, dressmakers, etc., and some of the finest milliners in the world are employed in the world is owned and conducted by men; hundreds of men are employed in the various trades.

Ice-cream parlors, lemonade stands, bakeries, confectioneries, and other departments, numerous to mention, are filled by men, and what might rightly be said to women.

But who ever says anything about the women being crowded out of employment by men?

Well, I am sure I do not for one. I believe in each individual filling any position, if he or she may be fitted and fully qualified to fill it, irrespective of sex, and that no barriers should exist on account of sex. We are glad that the people are getting more liberal in their views on this subject.

Forty-one years ago no profession was open to women, and very few ways of making their living, except by teaching, sewing and knitting, and spinning and weaving school, and later they only received half the pay that a man received for the same work. Now over three hundred different professions are open to them, and how thankful we are that so much has been gained, and yet there are not enough, if we were sure that we always have a kind father, or husband, to provide us with homes and home comforts we would not be so anxious for the privilege of entering the professions and that all avenues of labor be opened to us; but many thousands of women are thrown upon their own resources, and their daily bread, and often for a family of small children, and very often for an invalid husband; and as the ballot is the safest weapon, for all classes, and in all conditions, especially for the working classes, as the negro and naturalized foreigners, Indians who are taxpayers, yes, even the native-born, and without representation.

It has proved a success wherever it has been tried. Women now vote in over thirty States, in some capacity. In most of the States they have school suffrage, and in Kansas they have municipal suffrage, and in glorious Wyoming men and women vote on equal terms and have the right to hold any office, and all women suffrage in Wyoming is a success. This coming election women of Wyoming will cast their ballots for President and Vice-President, and the result will show how they have had that privilege. It begins to look like the principles set forth in the Declaration of Independence may yet be realized in the United States, and that we are not a tyranny." Will not our noble men of California come forward and give our women the ballot, that California may be second to Wyoming in this great cause? E. C. K.

Royal Baking Powder.

The Official Tests

Royal Baking Powder
Purest and Strongest.

DR. PETER COLLIER, late Chemist-in-Chief of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., having analyzed the chief brands of baking powder,

Reports the Royal Baking Powder the greatest in leavening strength,

Yielding over 27 per cent. more gas than the average of the others tested. Dr. Collier adds: "I have made many analyses of various brands of baking powders and

"I have always found the Royal composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. "Peter Collier, M. D., Ph.D."

"April 2, 1892." Actual analyses show the Royal Baking Powder to be 27 per cent. stronger than other brands. It is best to use the Royal Baking Powder only, for it makes the purest, lightest and sweetest food; but if your grocer induces you to try another brand, see that he charges you the correspondingly lower price.

BUSINESS BUILDINGS

Two Handsome Ones About to be Erected on K Street. The work of preparation for the erection of two new business buildings on K street is nearly completed. One of these is the building about to be erected by M. S. Hammer, the druggist, on the northeast corner of Fourth and K streets. It is to have a frontage of twenty feet on K street, and running back eighty feet on Fourth street.

The plans show that it will be a two-story and basement structure, of brick, and will be finished in modern style and with all the latest improvements and conveniences. The first floor will be occupied by M. Hammer, and there will be a small store in the rear. The upper story will be devoted to offices. N. D. Goodell is also the architect of a $16,000 three-story and basement brick building to be erected immediately for A. Coolidge on the vacant lot between the State House Hotel and Turner Hall on K street, between Ninth and Tenth. The building will have a frontage of thirty feet, and will be 140 feet in depth. The front will be quite ornamental. B. H. Covell is the builder.

This building has already been leased for five years by ex-Supervisor Benjamin Bailey, who will conduct it as a private hotel or boarding-house.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Metropolitan Theater this evening, Reed and Collier will appear in their new farce-comedy, "Hoss and Hoss." Of Charlie Reed the whole community knows, and of his versatility and capacity as a low comedian. Collier is represented as a fair match for him, and the two as the funniest tandem team on the stage. The Philadelphia Record says of the farce: "The plot is lost in the bubbling humor of Reed and Collier, and in the dreams of dancing skirts. Charlie Reed is Lawyer Charlie Hoss, and William Collier is Judge Willie Hoss, who are thrown together with no apology but to create laughter through three acts, and that they did successfully. Judge Hoss holds court in a room which loses judicial caste by the laugh motions his son from the city has put into his head. A stock ticker has been put in, and hung on the wall with other sporting pictures, is a portrait of J. L. Sullivan. The baseball returns, too, are kept posted on the black-board immediately back of the Judge's bench, which he himself has bought and paid for. Since a suit against the women has been put on the docket, several clever specialty acts are introduced, among them being the kangaroo dance by Louise Allen, a novel dance by Helene Collier and a German song by Adele Farrington. The restaurant scene is a new idea, in the third act, and proves to be full of new and clever features.

Reed and Collier jointly are responsible, doubtless, for many of the clever touches that pop out naturally through the play, and to the piece's performance. Any man that says he can practice her kangaroo dance, for "this is a farce comedy and you can do anything you like."

Funeral of Mrs. Boutwell. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Boutwell, widow of the late A. K. Boutwell, took place yesterday. Rev. Father Greely officiating. It was attended by numerous friends, many of whom had known the deceased since her girlhood. Mrs. Boutwell was the daughter of Joseph McDonald, a former well-known railroad engineer, who was killed by an accident on the Placerville Railroad.

Besides her mother—now Mrs. Standing—she leaves two brothers, B. J. and J. F. McDonald, residents of this city.

Wholly Without Foundation. The announcement that J. B. Edson, recently of Kansas, had assumed the active management of the Central Electric Railway Company's lines appears to have been accepted by some persons as meaning that the company had disposed of its roads.

The simple fact is that Mr. Edson has purchased an interest in the property, has been made a director, and will receive Messrs. Henry and Lewis of the labor of looking after the details of the service.

Hard on Keating. The telegraph states that the judges of the Butte City, Mont., races on Wednesday ruled T. E. Keating and his horses off the track for two years for some alleged misconduct.

The order was made under the rules of the American Trotting Association, and unless rescinded it applies to all tracks conducted under the association's rules.

Weather Forecast. Official forecast for the twenty-four hours ending at midnight, August 12th: Northern California—Fair, but partly cloudy and foggy weather along the coast and in the Sacramento Valley; southerly to westerly winds; stationary temperature, except warmer on the central coast and in the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys.

World's Fair—The Chicago "Inter-Ocean." This great weekly and the WEEKLY UNION can be had for $2 a year, or the DAILY UNION for $5 a year, and the Inter-Ocean for $5 50 per year. All about the great World's Fair will be elaborately treated in the Inter-Ocean. Can be had for $1 a year, and a guarantee is issued only by CLARK & WEIHE, DRUGGISTS, 509 Agents, 640 Post street, San Francisco, Cal.

Kleptomaniacs Caused by a Fall. A serious case of kleptomaniacs is reported from Milan, Italy. A rich Russian had been thrown off his horse and landed on his head. He was confined to his bed for a long time, but was finally pronounced cured. He was all right bodily, but immediately commenced stealing the jewelry of his brother and sisters. There seems to be no help by the common doctors' practice and the patient has to look for a cure in a private asylum for the deranged.

People who like frequent changes in government may find variety in Mexico. During the past sixty-two years that country has had fifty-four Presidents, and it is not likely that any other nation has had so many changes of government as have been effected by violence.
