

THE "REGULARS" WON.

A Very Lively Republican Primary on Saturday.

It Resulted in a Victory All Along the Line for the Regulars—Some Outside Delegates.

The skirmish that took place among the Republicans in this city on Saturday was a lively one, and quite decisive in its results. It was only a skirmish, preparatory to the battle to be fought in convention to-morrow, but the result, it is claimed, clearly foreshadows a line of victories in accordance with the generally preconceived opinion of the outcome.

The contending lines of skirmishers represented, as usual, what are known as the "regulars" and the "opposition," and—except at one polling-place—the latter were not in it with their opponents. That exception was at Ninth and L streets, the second precinct of the Twentieth Assembly district, where the opposition ticket lost the day by only two votes.

It was a genuine, old-fashioned primary, and bristled with incidents peculiar thereto. There were toughs and ward strikers galore at every polling-place where there was a contest, and it was interesting to outsiders to note how earnestly each side strove to outdo the other in the matter of trickery and sharp practice. The toughs, like the respectable element, were divided, and the chief struggle between the leaders of the opposing forces appeared to be over the control of the votes of the former class.

There was considerable good-natured badinage indulged in, and a few words were said, but no serious disturbances of the peace. At Fourth and K streets Chief of Police Rodgers and Frank Daroux, who commanded the regular forces at that point, at one time came near having a collision, but the crowd got between them and prevented it.

There were several instances at certain polling-places of men being shoved out of their places in line, but it was a game in which both sides took a hand, and on this score neither has much ground for complaint against the other. The opposition claimed that they did not have "a fair shake" at the Fourth and K street polling-place, because they had no representation on the election board, but they were so far from the scene that the possession of the entire board would not have saved them from defeat.

It seems to be pretty generally conceded that, as the result of the primary, the nominees of the County Convention will be:

For Senator, E. C. Hart. For Assemblyman, Twentieth District, W. A. Anderson; Twenty-first District, H. C. Chapman. The Twenty-second District lies outside the city, and the contest is between W. W. Greer and Eben Owen.

For Sheriff, George C. McMullen. For County Clerk, W. W. Hubbard. For Auditor and Recorder, William Uren.

For Treasurer, E. Lyon. For District Attorney, F. D. Ryan. For Supervisor, Second District, J. W. Todd; Third District, M. A. Howard. For Public Administrator there appears to be no contest. C. W. Finney being the only person prominently mentioned for the place.

H. L. Beckley is the only aspirant for Police Judge, while the nomination for Justice lies between J. B. Devine and Henry Starr. The former is thought to be in the lead.

J. C. Tibbitts appears to be alone in the field for Township Justice.

The delegates elected in the city on Saturday were those whose names appeared on the regular ticket selected at the Friday night caucuses.

PERFORATED BULLSEYES. Many Marksmen at the Rifle Ranges Yesterday.

The members of the local military companies are beginning to recover from the effects of the week at Santa Cruz, and the ranges were yesterday well patronized. The following scores were made:

There is some talk of Companies A, E and G going to Woodland in October to shoot for the regimental trophy, each company to send two teams of five men each.

FRONT-STREET TROUBLES. They Stop an Officer and Succeed in Releasing His Prisoner.

Officer Talbot had a lively experience with toughs late yesterday afternoon. He was detailed to arrest one James Sheridan, who had been creating a disturbance at Front and N streets.

scattered, and the officers soon hunted up Sheridan, whom they found at Second and K. He immediately started to run, but was overtaken by McManus, who handcuffed him and took him to the City Jail.

Last night the officers were looking up the fellows who were so fractious in the region of the Steamboat Saloon.

A THEIVING BEGGAR. He Robs His Would-be Benefactor and Both Disappear.

At a late hour on Saturday night a man was seen to step up to another, who appeared to be a rancher, at the corner of Front and L streets, and ask for a quarter with which to get himself a bed.

The rancher took from his pocket a $20 and a $5 gold-piece and was about to reply that he had no change, when the fellow grabbed the coins from his hand and ran off. The rancher followed, and that was the last seen of either of them.

Deputy Sheriff Brockwell witnessed the occurrence, and telephoned to the police station, and when Special Officer Greer responded the two endeavored to find the victim of the robbery, but did not succeed.

CLEAN UP. The Only Safeguard Against Cholera's Ravages.

What the Authorities and Private Citizens Should Do to Prevent Its Lodgment.

Now that there is at least a possible danger that the cholera scourge may be brought across the ocean, it becomes the duty of the health officials of this city to put forth unusual energy and enforce the sanitary laws to their utmost limit.

It is likewise the duty of every household in this city, and of every family occupying a house, to see that their premises are placed in the best possible sanitary condition. Every offensive cesspool or water cistern of hundreds of such—should be cleaned, old ones abandoned, and every possible precaution taken that would tend to give the disease a foothold here.

Cholera is essentially a filth disease, and there is little danger of its abiding long in a community that is thoroughly clean. Ordinary self-interest—to say nothing of the safety of an entire community—should inspire citizens to clean up their premises and keep them clean.

It is of little use for one to do so if his neighbor neglects this important duty. If necessary—and it looks as if it were—the authorities should appoint assistant inspectors and have every house and lot in the city visited and examined as to the condition of their plumbing, cesspools and vaults, and the habits of families in disposing of the refuse matter of their households.

No ordinary "cleaning up" of the Chinese quarter will suffice. That hotbed of filth and nastiness should be put through such a course of purification as it has never yet known. We cannot expect to have the cholera here if it can be kept out, and there is only one way to keep it out, and that is by giving it nothing on which to feed.

During a visitation of cholera the water used for domestic purposes is one of the most potent factors in its distribution, and in this particular our city is in an unfortunate position, as our river water may be contaminated by a dozen or more towns before reaching us.

Only a few months ago it was demonstrated beyond question that a supply of pure water comes to us from the mountains in this vicinity, but the situation is now so strong against the expenditure of a few thousand dollars that nothing was done about it. Under the present condition of things the only safeguard, so far as the water is concerned, is to boil it. This, if done properly, will dispose of any germs that may be present.

It behooves the City Trustees to see that the city sewers are frequently and thoroughly flushed—no half-way work about it.

Dr. J. R. Laine, Secretary of the State Board of Health, in a statement made to a contemporary, says that epidemics of cholera have been known to arise in places where the water is greatly intensified when in the vicinity of filth and the impurities of a great city.

When cholera was in this country before it did not reach us by the water, but was taken by diphtheria, for instance, during any ten years, and yet diphtheria is not looked upon by the people with anything like the same dread as cholera.

"In such cities as Boston and Philadelphia," says Dr. Laine, "the sanitary authorities have in former epidemics been able to predict with certainty the localities where the disease would prove fatal. They could indicate where it would follow along the side of one street and not upon the other; that it would clear one part of the city and not affect the rest; and that it would be confined to a certain portion of another to any considerable extent, or not at all. This would at first seem remarkable, but the authorities could explain the cause. They could tell that beneath or alongside of a certain sewer or the emanations from defective drains were the most likely to be affected."

There is no reason to believe that the disease will deviate from its usual course. Once here we must observe municipal and domestic cleanliness, all cesspools and privy odors must be annihilated; garbage and refuse should be destroyed. Our sewage must be rapidly drained away, our sewers well washed out. We must not use any food that has been in contact with water that has been boiled; avoid excesses; be cheerful, and we need have no fears of the epidemic.

PEOPLE having spare rooms to rent during the State Fair are requested to register them free of charge with W. B. Maydwell, 420 K street, Secretary of Citizens' League Bureau, who will, on application, give information concerning terms, etc.

Clan Gordon's First Picnic Was a Great Success.

The first annual picnic of Clan Gordon, of the new Scottish fraternal order, was held at East Park on Saturday and was well attended. Quite a large number of Scotch athletes and others came up from Oakland and San Francisco on the preceding evening, accompanied by several pipers, and early on Saturday their quaint music was heard on the air as the picnickers rode through the streets.

Besides the pipers there was dancing music by the First Artillery Band. The games were well patronized, and were assisted by the Rev. Frank McCullum, assisted by Hon. Deputy Fraser of San Francisco, and Chief Crowe of Clan Fraser, San Francisco.

A RIOT QUELLED. Attempt of a Tough to Capture Chinatown and His Failure.

A tough-looking specimen of humanity created a small riot in the Chinese quarter at Third and L streets last evening. He took a bottle of whisky from a Chinaman who was loading a wagon for the country, and in five minutes most of the highlanders had surrounded the thief, who tried to fight his way out of the crowd.

The air for a few moments was full of flying bottles, dried fish, Chinese dishes, chopsticks, dried lizards and wild assortment of things. The riot was attracted to the scene of confusion and marched the disturber off to the police station, followed by a band of Chinese who were shouting the jabbering language of the tribe.

WAR OF RACES. A Colored Youth Laid Low by a White Boxer.

A colored youth named Bryant and a white one named Lolla had a dispute Friday night and concluded to settle the matter with bare knuckles. They and a party of friends retired to the yard back of the A. M. E. church on Seventh street and went to it. They fought desperately for nearly an hour. There were no rounds nor rest, and the white pugilist was the superior boxer and hardest hitter, and pummeled his dusky opponent unmercifully. Bryant was laid low by a blow to the nose, and he was literally "punched into a heap."

Native Sons' Installation. District Deputy Grand President J. C. Slater, accompanied by F. T. Johnson, L. F. Brenner and Frank Smith, went to Folsom on Saturday evening and installed the officers of Granite Parlor, No. 83, N. S. G. W. After the installation a banquet ensued and the usual hospitalities were extended to the visitors by the Native Sons of Folsom.

Alleged Illegal Voting. F. J. Kelly was arrested on Saturday for illegal voting by Officer Ferral, and Captain Bradley arrested Robert Clark for creating a disturbance at the primaries. Chief Rodgers arrested the notorious "Brick" Mooney for a similar offense.

A Week's Failures. The Bradstreet Mercantile Agency reports twelve failures in the Pacific Coast States and Territories for the week ending August 26th, as compared with thirteen for the previous week, and twelve for the corresponding week of 1891. The failures for the past week are divided among the trades as follows: Two furniture, two boots and shoes, two auctioneers, one laundry, one plasterer, one millinery, one hats and caps, one cigars and tobacco and one lumber.

The New Ballot Law. A. D. Jenny, whose advertisement appears in another column, has been appointed agent for the sale of pamphlet copies of the modified Australian ballot law, as adopted by the State. It is in convenient form for the pocket and should be read and studied by all voters.

The Weather. According to the Weather Bureau's report, the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday were 94 and 57, as against 92 and 58 for the same date one year ago. The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago to-day were 90 and 59.

WAS HE MURDERED? Strange Disappearance of an Elk Grove Clergyman.

His House Had Been Entered and Ransacked—He Had Considerable Money.

The people of Elk Grove are greatly disturbed over the mysterious disappearance of Rev. Frank McCullum, especially so since there are indications that warrant the suspicion of foul play.

Recently Mrs. McCullum went to visit friends at Redwood City, and has not yet returned, unless she came up last night. The last seen of Mr. McCullum was at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon last, at the depot in that village. Where he went to from there his closest friends cannot even surmise.

Although that was about the time of the arrival and departure of the train for Sacramento, it is not believed that he boarded the train, as the agent is confident the reverend gentleman did not purchase a ticket, which heretofore he had always done before boarding a train.

They found the front box window smashed, and their suspicions of violence were at once aroused. They entered the house and found everything in confusion. Even bedding from the upstairs rooms had been thrown downstairs, and everything indicated that the house had been thoroughly ransacked by robbers.

They thought that possibly Mr. McCullum had been murdered in the house and the body hidden, the citizens made a thorough search, but found no body and no evidence of blood. They then searched the yard and barn, but obtained no clue to the strange disappearance of the clergyman. The latter's horse was loose in the yard and nearly famished from want of water.

Dr. McKee informs the RECORD-UNION that the friends of Mr. McCullum turned out and searched for him all over the neighborhood, but could find no one who had seen him after he went to the depot at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

Mr. McCullum had been making collections for the Trustees of his church for several days, and had several hundred dollars in his possession, which fact was doubtless known to several persons about Elk Grove, and it is feared that he has been put out of the way by thugs.

Yesterday Mr. McCullum's friends telephoned to his residence in this city, asking if the latter had seen or heard of the missing clergyman, but he had not; neither had Mr. McCullum been seen at the Western Hotel, where he usually stopped. On a former occasion he was taken ill while on a visit to the city, and then stopped with a family named Davis, but his friends do not know their address.

Mr. McCullum was to have preached his regular sermon on yesterday, and his congregation gathered at the church, thinking that possibly he would show up, but he did not, and now they have to depend on the police of this city to help unravel the mystery that surrounds his disappearance.

Mrs. McCullum was informed yesterday by telegraph of her husband's disappearance, and was expected to leave for home at once.

Twice before Mr. McCullum's house was robbed during his absence, and it looked as if the thieves have had him specially marked for plunder. On this occasion he was known to have considerable money, and that he was about to remove, unless the conference should see fit to return him to his late charge.

Just what to make of the whole matter is perplexing problem, which his friends are unable to solve.

Fighting Females. Nellie Kemp was arrested by Officer Talbot yesterday and locked up at the police station on the charge of battery preferred by Mrs. Barton. The disturbance occurred in the vicinity of Second and H streets.

Notary Public. The Governor has commissioned John D. Lewis, of Bishop, Inyo County, as a Notary Public.

Old People. $20 REWARD. Boys, Beware!

J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as the mineral potash which is in every other Sarsaparilla that we know of, is under certain conditions known to be enacting. J. V. S. on the contrary is purely vegetable and stimulates digestion and creates new blood, the very thing for old, delicate or broken down people. It builds them up and prolongs their lives. A case in point: Mrs. Bolden an estimable and elderly lady of 80 Mason St., S. F. was for months declining so rapidly as to scarcely alarm her family. It got so bad that she was finally afflicted with fainting spells. She writes: "While in that dangerous condition I saw some of the testimonials concerning J. V. S. and sent for a bottle. That marked the turning point. I regained my lost flesh and strength and have not felt so well in years." That was two years ago and Mrs. Bolden is well and hearty to-day, and still taking J. V. S. If you are old and feeble and want to be built up ask for JOY'S Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Largest bottle, most effective, same price.
