

DOWN THE RIVER.

A Rich Section Almost Without a Public Road.

Farmers Building Their Levees Close up to the River—Some Action Necessary.

The ranch-owners along the river from Freeport down to Walnut Grove are likely soon to be without a road leading to this city—and apparently all because of the dog-in-the-manger policy that is being pursued by a few of the more close-fisted and grasping owners of land down that way.

When they constructed a levee to prevent the encroachment of the river they placed it within a few yards of the river bank, rather than a few feet of ground in width; and now the river has so cut away the bank in places that there is barely room for a wagon to pass along the outside base of the levee.

One gentleman was before the Supervisors yesterday asking that body to take some action. He suggested, as one remedy for the existing condition of things, that the county purchase enough land along the river to insure a good roadway.

Mr. Wessells' company at the Clunie Opera-house last night produced the heavy melodrama "Strangers of Paris," in which Wessells is quite at his best, the prison scene being especially a field for him for manifestation of deep feeling and

AROUND THE COURTS.

James Wilson Has the Grade of His Crime Reduced.

Suits on Promissory Notes—A Newspaper Man's Fall—Minor Court Items.

Arguments in the trial of James Wilson—the case in which the young lawyer, John C. Catlin and H. G. Scoble, made their debut—were concluded yesterday before Judge Grant, who is presiding in Judge Catlin's place. The matter was then submitted to the jury and a verdict of attempted grand larceny was returned. As Wilson had been charged with robbery this was quite a victory for the young lawyers, inasmuch as the evidence against Wilson was very strong.

On the day previous Wilson's pal, William Johnson, was charged on the motion of Attorney Catlin, his point being that not enough evidence had been produced by the prosecution to put Johnson on his defense.

W. S. Kendall has commenced suit against J. A. Parker, G. W. Hancock, C. Holland and J. F. Hill to recover $175 alleged to be due on a promissory note. Kendall also sues J. A. Parker, E. F. Alkin and J. F. Hill to recover $322.50 on another note.

S. J. Holsinger of the News staff was admitted to practice law in the Superior Court yesterday on motion of Matt F. Johnson. He presented a certificate from the Iowa Supreme Court.

Minnie L. Driscoll has commenced divorce proceedings in the Superior Court against Daniel Driscoll.

Alfred Pennington has commenced suit against W. Jones to recover $300 alleged to be due on a promissory note. Stephen Allen, a carpenter, has sworn to a complaint before Justice of the Peace Henry charging John Murray with stealing some tools belonging to him.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES. First Anniversary Ball of the Pythian Relief Bureau.

The first anniversary ball, given under the auspices of the Sacramento Bureau of Relief, Knights of Pythias, last night, at Pythian Castle, was largely attended and was a pronounced success. The earlier part of the evening was devoted to a musical and literary entertainment, and the informal programme was a good one.

The entertainment opened with selections by the orchestra, consisting of Messrs. V. Carlo, R. Williams, W. Hale and C. W. Rogers.

Most of the music and selections given were enthusiastically and responded to. Misses Hattie Norsworthy and Sadie Asher did notably well in their recitations, and were loudly applauded.

At the conclusion of the literary entertainment the floor was cleared and the large company engaged in dancing to splendid music furnished by the grand march of the Uniform Rank of Knights of Pythias, and continued until a late hour.

The committees managing the successful affair were made up as follows: Arrangements—M. Hirsch, M. L. Jenkins, A. H. Anderson, L. Pizer and T. C. Green; Reception—J. L. Jarney, S. K. Katzenstein, J. B. Giffin and E. Bayer; Floor—W. B. Oldfield, Philip Hirsch, F. L. Mallory, F. Lohmeyer and C. Wilke.
