

HE'S CRAZY AS A BEDBUG.

That Is What One of the Witnesses Said of Palmer.

More Evidence that Palmer Did Not Know What He Was Doing at Times.

The Palmer trial was resumed before Judge Garber and a jury in the Superior Court yesterday forenoon. The usual dense throng of visitors was in attendance all day, showing the greatest interest in the case...

His Character Changed. N. L. Drew testified that he had known Palmer for several years, and had noticed a marked change in his conduct lately. He talked to him half an hour before the shooting, and made up his mind that he would land in some insane asylum.

On cross-examination Mr. Drew confessed that he had been at the Senator Fair suits had been settled. Mrs. Rubie resided on the Monument ranch while Palmer lived there. She had seen him in the last, and she was sure he was crazy.

Palmer's Forgetfulness. Henry Rubie testified that he worked on the Monument ranch and was well acquainted with Palmer. He thought him insane. Palmer at one time gave him a horse and then sold it to another man.

Palmer's Opinion. "Well, what was the matter with him?" asked Mr. Harlow. "Oh, I was satisfied that he was crazy," replied Stafford.

On another occasion, continued Stafford, Palmer drove up I street in a buggy and had six more buggies hitched on behind. He was acting in a very silly manner.

Some time after that, though, the witness and Palmer had hard words. They met in the Crystal Palace saloon, and Palmer asked him to take a drink. The witness declined, and immediately Palmer drew a pistol on the witness.

On cross-examination Harlow said that he drew his pistol on him, and told him to be careful and not make a "break" like that again.

LAND FISH WITH LEGS

Instead of water suckers. While the most of us are fond of fish and the sport of catching them, just now Gilman has a sale of covering caught up in Los Angeles; not the covering to a land fish or a sucker, but to our good people who work and toil for their honest dollars, which is not gained from building themselves up with the covering of blackmail, or behind a newspaper.
