

CAMINETTI'S ADDRESS.

The Democratic Candidate for Congress Declares Himself.

He Talks Principally on Local Issues and No Tariff—Hon. W. M. Gibson's Speech.

There was a large gathering at the Clunie Opera-house last evening in response to the announcement that Hon. A. Caminetti, Democratic nominee for re-election to Congress, was going to speak.

pretty speeches did not count for much, but it was practical work with the committee and with the members that accomplished what was desired.

This concluded Mr. Caminetti's remarks, and he retired amid loud applause.

MR. GIBSON TALKS.

Chairman Stephens then introduced William M. Gibson of Stockton, who, he said, would make just a few remarks.

Mr. Gibson proved to be an unusually eloquent and clear speaker. He said that Democrats were good Americans as well as good Democrats.

The Chairman wasted little time, and after stating in a few words the object of the meeting, introduced Mr. Caminetti.

LOCAL ISSUES ONLY.

Mr. Caminetti said he was glad the opportunity had been offered to him to address the people of the Capital City and make a report on the past session of Congress, and what he proposed to do if re-elected.

He said that in the present campaign he had not given any attention to discussing the tariff question. This was not because he was afraid of that topic, but because he thought there were other interests and interests that already existed which needed the attention of his representative in Congress more than political questions.

There are numerous matters of vital importance to the people of this district to come up in Congress at its next session, and matters that had already come up but had not been disposed of.

BE DONE WITHOUT INJURY.

To any private or public interest, without injuring the valleys. And he believed it could be done in a thorough and systematic way.

LAST PROPOSITION.

Provided that hydraulic mining may be resumed, provided that no injury be done to the valleys; that the work shall be under the supervision of the Government engineers, and unless it could be done without injury to the valleys.

Mr. Caminetti then referred to a number of speeches delivered by his opponent, John F. Davis, in various cities in the district.

Mr. Davis had made no such talk. On the contrary, he had made a long and interesting address to the miners and the people of the district.

SUGAR CANE EXPERIMENTS.

Another work he had under way was a proposition to have the Government make some sugar cane experiments in the Sacramento valley, just as it had done in Florida and Louisiana.

Mr. Caminetti said that if the people were satisfied with the work he had accomplished and the foundation he had laid for other work, he hoped they would show their approval by re-electing him.
