

"UNCLE BILLY" WILLIAMS.

The Veteran Republican Campaigner at the Opera-house.

He Addresses a Large Throng on the Issues of the Day—He Was Humorous, Too.

There was a large attendance at the Clinton Opera-house last evening to hear "Uncle Billy" Williams, the veteran Republican campaigner, speak on the issues of the day.

There was music and fireworks outside the opera-house for awhile and then the meeting began. A. J. Johnston, the handsome Chairman of the County Central Committee, called the assemblage to order and announced the officers of the meeting as follows: President, Hon. Charles T. Jones; Vice-Presidents—Ed F. Taylor, W. H. Sherman, C. H. Holmes, J. O. Funston, C. H. Willey, W. H. Jennings, Z. F. Wharton, T. H. Wallis, Ira A. Robie, Scott Ennis, George Chaffender, F. Swain, Thomas Fraser, F. Brock, B. A. Johnson, H. F. G. Wulff, J. O. Coleman, W. Duden, J. L. Robinson, R. Corsaw, Ed C. Roeder, William M. Petrie, A. E. Hornlein, W. E. Bowman; Secretaries—J. O. Funston and W. F. Jennings.

MR. WILLIAMS INTRODUCED. Mr. Jones, in taking the chair, thanked the committee for the honor conferred upon him, and then he proceeded to congratulate the Republican party upon the magnificent outlook in the present campaign. It had been a campaign of intelligence, and he predicted that when the sun sets on next Tuesday, it would set on a great victory for the Republican party and progress. Mr. Jones said he would not take up much time, as a distinguished gentleman was to address them. He then introduced "Uncle Billy" Williams.

Mr. Williams was received with loud applause. Despite the fact that he is 73 years of age, he is hale and hearty, and a clear and eloquent speaker. He devoted himself principally to the tariff last night and delved into statistics to considerable extent. Speeches of this kind are usually dry, but "Uncle Billy" interwove his figures with so many jokes and mirth-provoking anecdotes that his hearers were in a constant uproar.

Mr. Williams put his audience in a good humor right off, by telling the beautiful story of Adam and Eve in Eden before their fall. He said, "I was a Democrat. He was not satisfied with the beautiful farm and woman that God had given him, but wanted a change. So he opened up a garden in France. Now, thousands of years after, the Democratic party is still at it."

NOT VERY JEFFERSONIAN. "The Democratic party," said the speaker, "but his platform started off with a declaration that the party was still loyal to the principles laid down by Thomas Jefferson. But the rest of the platform does not follow the Jeffersonian principles in its planks to make an ordinary toothpick. The Democratic party is great on the Constitution, and I have no doubt that when the time of judgment, these Democratic politicians are arraigned for their lies about the McKinley bill, they will object and swear that it is not constitutional."

"Uncle Billy" took a swallow of water and then said to talk a moment to Democrats, if any were present, about steel rails. "In England," he said, "there are no steel rails in this country. England had a monopoly and charged us from $20 to $30 a ton for them. A man went over to England and brought the Bessemer process. Then a Republican Congress imposed a duty of $25 a ton on steel rails. The Democratic theories are true that $25 would have been added to the $20 or $30, but it didn't work that way. Under the influence of American competition, built up through protection, we produced in 1890 2,540,000 tons of steel rails, which were sold at $35 a ton."

WIRE NAILS. "Now about those wire nails you have heard about," continued the speaker, "the protection has built up the manufacture of wire nails, they cost $2.75 a keg less than the duty. Now, you old Democrats, where does the tariff make the difference? We made no plate glass in this country in 1890. Some men said, 'Give us a protective duty and we will make plate glass.' It takes two things to make glass, sand and fuel. God Almighty filled the mountains with sulphur and the Republican party had the sand. Glass we paid 35 cents a square foot for when England and France supplied us for 35 cents."

"Those old Democrats told us that the McKinley bill would be a great Chinese wall shutting us out from foreign markets. Has it shut us out of the English markets? Last year we shipped $17,400,000 worth of dressed meats and $4,650,000 worth of live cattle to England. The sales of wheat there were $6,000,000, and of corn $20,000,000. We sold them $9,000,000 worth of cheese. The goods Cleveland and these other Democrats consigned to American cheese. We sold to England last year $29,000,000 worth of farm products and $12,000,000 worth of manufactured products."

THE POOR FARMER. "How about the poor farmer?" the speaker declared that the American farmer was the most independent man in the world. The declarations of the Democrats that the farms were all loaded down with mortgages would not be borne out by the statistics. And is the farmer being hurt by the McKinley bill? No. Since that bill went into force, $100,000,000 worth of American cattle were sold to England. The Englishman for a year or more had been eating American beef and "cursing the blessed McKinley bill." The farmer had been taught by the Democrats to grow that he had to support the Government, that this was only another spook story. Weaver says the farmer pays 40 per cent of the taxes," said Mr. Williams. "Let us see. Of the money that you farmers pay into the County Treasury, how much goes to the Government. With the exception of $90,000,000 coming from the internal revenue and other sources the Government has paid you $1,065,000. In Havana tobacco and cigars they were $16,000,000. The farmers did not pay that. They smoke cheroots. On fine cloths it was $10,000,000, and not a yard bought by a laborer or mechanic. On fine dress goods and embroideries it was $16,500,000. The farmers didn't buy that. It was the rich ladies in the East who eat $10 dinners and have their hair frizzed. If you farmers and laborers paid half the tariff taxes you would pay just 95 cents a year—and for what? For the protection of the American flag and the blessings of American citizenship."

THE GREATEST MARKET. "Let me tell you old Democrats something else the Republican party has done. It has built up 300,000 factories, the smoke of whose chimneys reaches as high as the income of American labor. We have built up the greatest market the world has. The English manufacturer piles goods in his warehouses higher and higher. Who made those goods? American workmen? No. English laborers, whose breakfast was a loaf of bread and a mug of beer. Is it right that the English manufacturer should come over here and take advantage of American markets and compete with American labor without paying a little duty? The Republican party has made this the greatest country on the face of the globe, and when our eyes behold the sun for the last time may it be shining on a prosperous land blessed by Republican protection, on a free country, free homes and a free people."

The speaker referred briefly to the silver question. He is not a free silver man. He said, though, that he and the Republican party were in favor of coining silver in large quantities, as long as this did not depreciate its value.

Mr. Williams was applauded to the echo when he concluded his remarks. The audience gave cheers for Harrison and Reid, the National ticket and the ladies of whom there were a large number present before leaving the building.

AMERICAN RIVER WATER.

It Will Be Distributed by a Special Corporation.

Yesterday articles of incorporation were filed by the Sacramento County Water Company, having a capital stock of $2,000,000, of which $1,000,000 has been subscribed, as follows: Albert Gallatin, $800,000; H. P. Livermore, $200,000; C. E. Livermore, $200,000; A. J. Hainstock, $50,000; John Barker, $50,000. The office of the company is to be in San Francisco, and its place of operations in Sacramento County.

The articles state the object of the company to be to buy and sell water for irrigation, manufacturing and domestic purposes and to acquire and own water rights, etc. The corporation is an outgrowth of the Folsom Water Power Company, which owns and controls the dam and power system at Folsom, and the general aims and objects of which were explained in the Record-Union on the 21st of May last.

Within that corporation there has already been formed the American Land and Lumber Company and the Sacramento Electric Light and Power Company, which have contracted with the original Water Power Company for privileges owned by the latter. The new Sacramento Water Company has acquired the right to the distribution of water for irrigation, domestic and other uses.

MOUNTAIN VS. VALLEY.

The Quail and Spoonbill Club Contest on Sunday.

The members of the team that is to hold up the Spoonbill Club's end of the blue-rock shooting match at Folsom on Sunday are: A. Stevens, George Winters, Brock, J. Bohm, J. Fitzgerald, George Nagel, Louis Morrison, C. E. Mack and W. M. King. The Quail Club of Green Valley will have its best men there to contest with the "Spoonbills."

The shooters and friends will leave here by special train at 8 o'clock A. M., and return in the evening. There will be low excursion rates for the round trip, and all who so desire may go for $1.20.

Warden Anll has consented to allow the visitors to inspect the prison in the afternoon.

STARVED HIS HORSE.

Judge Cravens Retaliates on Behalf of the Dumb Animal.

Ninety Days for a Robust Constipative Who Beat His Wife—Two Hapless Women.

James Welch, tried in the Police Court for grand larceny, was discharged yesterday, as the court had no material testimony against him except that of his wife. W. Jordan was found guilty of cruelty to an animal. The testimony showed that he tied his horse in an alley and left the animal there from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until the next morning without food or attention. Judgment in his case will be given to-day.

Marcellus Foray, who fought a lively bout with some Chinese recently, during which he had his countenance badly disfigured and was shot at, appeared for sentence, having pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace.

Judge Cravens thought he had got decidedly the worst of the combat, but was not blameless, and he gave him ten days in the County Jail.

John McNulty, charged with battery, had his case continued to November 12th. Wong Ah, charged with carrying a pistol, withdrew his former plea of not guilty, pleaded guilty and was taxed with a fine of $10, which he promptly paid and retired.

J. E. Jones, found guilty of battering his wife, an Indian woman, pleaded earnestly for leniency and alleged that he was sick, and that he appeared to be in a robust health. Judge Cravens informed him that he had no sympathy for a man who would beat his wife and sentence him to the County Jail for ninety days. He was informed that he would find a good doctor there.

Al Bin, charged with gambling, had his case continued until Friday, the 11th. Mrs. Purcell, charged with being a common drunkard, ordered an assortment of cases, and was sentenced to the County Jail for ninety days. In the past month she has served two terms of five and ten days, respectively, and the court observed she was improving in appearance and that a longer term would be better for her.

Mary Dolan, also recognized as having been a common drunkard, was a first subject for the hospital, but the jail and was discharged.

Looking Up "Staffers." The persons employed by the Citizens' Association were still engaged in copying of the names of alleged "staffers" from the new Great Register yesterday at the Courthouse.

When the lists are completed—say these who have charge of the work—they will be distributed among a number of competent persons who will make thorough inquiries as to the identity of the alleged "staffers" with the view of heading off illegal voters on election day.

Election Challenges. In reply to a letter of inquiry from C. L. Sison, County Clerk of Butte County, First Deputy Attorney-General Layson yesterday replied that: "Challenges on the ground of residence are to be determined by the two inspectors and two judges of the Board of Election, according to the Political Code, sections 1142, 1233."

Rankin's Assault. Justice Newton of Washington yesterday examined Morris Powers on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, and held him to answer before the Superior Court.

Powers is the man who is alleged to have assaulted and stabbed William Rankin a couple of weeks ago on the Yolo bridge.

F. A. Peterson's Whereabouts. Several weeks ago a young man named F. A. Peterson, who had been in the employ of H. S. Crocker & Co., suddenly disappeared. His whereabouts had remained in mystery until a few days ago, when a friend received a letter from him, written at Stockton, where he is now living.

The Damon Murder. It is now claimed by the police that Kate Cooper, the woman who is alleged to have administered to A. S. Damon, some years ago, the whisky and opium which caused his death, has been located and will soon be under arrest. Her alleged accomplices, Manuel and Richard Strybe, are now in jail here awaiting trial.

In Olden Times. People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is known that the use of Pills will permanently cure habitual constipation, will inform people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

WRITE TO Cooper for anything in the musical line.

IN THE HOMESTRETCH.

Candidates Struggling to Be First Under the Wire.

Democratic Meeting at Oak Park Last Night—Two More Republican Meetings.

The Democratic candidates held a meeting at Oak Park last night, at which T. J. Main presided. One of the speakers said he had canvassed the county, and that this was the largest gathering he had met.

The first speaker was Matt F. Johnson, candidate for Superior Judge. Mr. Johnson declined to discuss political issues, as he said he did not think it becoming a candidate for a judicial position to do so. He therefore confined his remarks to an explanation of the duties of a Superior Judge, which office he held to be second in importance only to that of Supervisor. The latter is the agent and disbursing officer for all the people, while the Superior Judge was charged with doing justice between man and man. He spoke well of his opponent, Mr. Devlin, and declared that it was the duty of every man, Democrat or Republican, to vote for Mr. Devlin if he honestly believed him to be better fitted to discharge the duties of that office than himself. He added, however, that he had granted leave here for twenty years, and denied any client of his to say that he (Johnson) had not always done his duty as a counselor and advocate, and he was proud to say that he had ever enjoyed the confidence and respect of every Judge before whom he had tried a case. It had been the ambition of his life to be a lawyer, and every self-respecting lawyer—some day occupy the bench, it was an honorable ambition, and he had no apology to make for his candidacy. Mr. Johnson was loudly applauded.

M. R. Beard, candidate for County Clerk, was the next speaker. He said that the duty of law was that every man is entitled to restitution for every wrong taken from him by fraudulent or dishonest means, and he felt that he was entitled to the same. He was speaking because it was once stolen from him after the people had elected him. He openly declared that he had a majority of eighteen when he ran seven years ago, but that the returns were tampered with, and his name erased from some fifty ballots. He declared it was simply preposterous for any one to contend that fifty persons in the county did not vote for either him or his opponent (Hamilton) for the office of County Clerk.

William Grimshaw, candidate for Auditor and Recorder, W. O. Davis for Supervisor, and John Miller for Coroner, made brief remarks.

J. A. Elder, candidate for Treasurer, said he had heard everywhere that Ed Lyon, the Republican candidate, and himself were the two best men in the county, and he was inclined to believe it was so.

"Now," he added, "Lyon has had the office once, and if I'm as good a man as he is—let me ask you—shouldn't I have it this time? I've always been a farmer, but I'm getting too old for that, now, and I want some of the sweets of office."

The meeting closed with a speech by Gillis Doty, candidate for the Assembly, who discussed the political situation from top to bottom.

Republican Meeting to Come. The candidates have all closed their campaign outside the city, and will confine their efforts to this quarter until Tuesday. To-night the Republican candidates will speak at Eighteenth and M streets.

On Saturday night they will all appear at the old Pavilion, and there will be a torchlight demonstration by the uniformed clubs, with W. B. Miller as Marshal. The clubs will meet the candidates at the league headquarters, at the Capital Hotel, and escort them to the Pavilion.

AFTER JUSTICE STARR. Barnett Bros. of Chicago Say He Exceeded His Jurisdiction.

Barnett Bros., a firm doing business in Chicago, have, through the law firm of Johnson, Johnson & Johnson, petitioned the Superior Court for a writ of replevin, calling for inquiry into the case of J. P. Hawkins vs. the Barnett-Landolph Fruit Company, which was recently decided against the company by Justice Starr.

The suit was for money alleged to be due Hawkins for services rendered in consummating a contract between an association of fruit-growers in Shasta and the Barnett-Randolph Company, which by the latter was to handle all of the Shasta fruit. Charles G. Barnett, the local agent of the company, was ordered by Justice Starr to pay over a money due Hawkins. Barnett protested, declaring that the money in his possession belonged to Barnett Bros., and not the company, and the Justice would not have it that way.

It is now set forth in the petition for a writ of replevin that the Justice exceeded his jurisdiction, and acted without authority in deciding to whom the money in Barnett's possession belonged, and it is asked that the Justice be cited to appear in the Superior Court and explain.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE. Sacramento Council Holds Its Seventh Annual Ball.

The seventh annual ball given by Sacramento Council, Y. M. I., No. 27, at Turner Hall last night was a very pleasant and successful affair. The hall was fairly crowded with dancers, and the music furnished by Jones, Fisher & Watson's band was, as usual, highly satisfactory.

The hall was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the walls hung with emblems and banners of the council. The programme of dances, done in gilt and colors, with a large fair-simile to the social of the county, with a cover of parchment, was an artistic souvenir of the event worthy of preservation.

The committee in charge were: Arrangements—J. O. Heisch, C. D. Hastings, William Fleming, F. F. Carolan, A. E. Ash and J. A. Klein. Reception—J. C. Kelly, T. W. O'Neil, H. P. Ryan, J. McQueney, John Miller and P. F. McMurry. Floor Director—J. O. Heisch. Floor Committee—W. Mahoney, L. Gorman, J. Keating, B. Kiernan, B. Lynn, J. J. Devine, William Douglas, R. N. Cook, C. Hartnett and J. McAnulla.

WHY SO? An Alleged Woman-Beater Charged With "Vagrancy."

A Frenchman, who gave the name of "Eduard," was arrested last evening and charged with vagrancy. A woman, who is so unfortunate as to be his mistress, complained that he had beaten her brutally with a loaded cane, and it seems that she should have a chance to prove that charge in court.

If convicted of vagrancy, the fellow will probably be allowed to go free on his promise to leave the city; whereas, if he beat the woman, as it is said he did, he should be made to labor in the chain-gang for six months and a hard water, inasmuch as the law does not recognize the whipping-post.

HEIRS WANTED. A Texas Lawyer Seeking the Kin of Major Hiestand.

Major Sanderson of San Francisco is in receipt of a letter from James B. Goff & Son of Austin, Texas, which reads as follows: "One Major W. H. Hiestand, or his heirs, are entitled to a large amount of property, and we wish to find them.

We understand that Major Hiestand died within the last year at the residence of his married daughter in San Francisco or in Sacramento. Hiestand was an officer in the United States Army, and formerly was District Judge in Louisiana."

Also, Two-wheel Velocipedes, the front wheels 24, 26 and 28 inches in diameter, reduced to $4, $4 50 and $5.

The same, with rubber tires, $5 50, $6 50 and $7 50.

Crystal Glass Gas Globes, with gilt and colored flowers, handsome goods, at 35c each.

A CONTRAST.

There's as much progress being made in Boys' Ready-made Clothing as in men's, and the trim, well-cut garments of to-day are in wide contrast to what was considered "good enough for boys" a few years ago.

Moreover we take the same pains in fitting and altering clothing for boys that we do in men's wear.

A heavy-weight, strongly-made and well finished Boy's Suit, consisting of plaited blouse coat and knee pants, for ages 4 to 12, $2 50. We can recommend this for school wear and rough usage, and it will be found far superior to the shoddy suits that are being sold at this price.

Rough and Ready Suit, of heavy strong material, pants strongly sewed, $3 50.

A Dressy Suit for $5, in several different materials and different designs. We think this line superior to anything we have had heretofore.

Little Boys' Double-breasted Suits, in new and stylish chevots, $6 and $7 50.
