

GOVERNMENT EXPENSES.

Serious Question Facing the House Appropriations Committee.

MEETING TO BE HELD TO CONSIDER THE SUBJECT.

▲Tuckahoe, New Jersey, Citizen Robbed of Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars—The New York Police Succeeded in Frustrating a Big Counterfeiting Conspiracy—Democrats of Bloomington, Illinois, Enthuse Over the Election of Cleveland and Stevenson.

Special to the Record-Union.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A call will be issued soon for a meeting of the House Committee on Appropriations for Monday, November 28th. This will give the committee about a week's time in which to prepare some regular annual appropriation bills for action of Congress when it meets for the second session. It is the purpose to push rapidly all these measures...

JOY AT BLOOMINGTON.

The Pent-Up Democratic Enthusiasm Bloomington (Ill.), Nov. 14.—The pent-up enthusiasm of the local Democrats was turned loose to-night in a ratification of the election of Cleveland and Stevenson, especially the latter, as he is a resident of this city. Nightfall was the signal for lighting bonfires in different parts of the city, and the firing of cannon and anvils. The Democrats began tooting horns and beating drums, and congregated about the business portion of the city. About 7 o'clock they all formed in line, and with bands, marched to the residence of Governor Henry Stevenson...

Several other speakers followed with short talks. Among the stacks of letters which accumulated for Stevenson since election day, he to-day found one from President Cleveland, mailed several days ago. It was mainly of a private nature, and Mr. Stevenson declined to make it public. Stevenson said to-night to an Associated Press representative that he had not given out for publication any interview regarding a special session of Congress, that he repeatedly declined to be interviewed on the subject, and for the reason that Cleveland, as President-elect, was the proper person to speak upon this matter.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION. Prominent Persons Mentioned in Connection With the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Post says: The bulk of opinion here points in the direction of an extra session of Congress, which it is believed will be called at an early date following the inauguration of Cleveland. Undoubtedly great pressure is being brought to bear upon the President-elect to effect this. North-western men who are in closest touch with the people at home are especially insistent in the demand for an extra session.

There is a lot of vague Cabinet gossip being indulged in to-day. It is stated that neither Whitney nor Dickinson will accept places in Cleveland's Cabinet, and great doubt is expressed about Flower's desiring a Cabinet place. There is some foundation for this. It is believed that Mr. Cleveland will not go into the Treasury Department again. Senator McPherson may be Secretary of the Treasury. Colonel Dan Lamont may be the new secretary of the Cabinet. Lamont would be acceptable to all the New York Democrats. It is believed that Colonel Morrison of Illinois will go to the head of one of the departments. E. C. Wall, Democratic National Committee man from Wisconsin, is said to-day to stand an excellent chance of being selected for some Cabinet position.

WILL NOT CALL AN EXTRA SESSION. NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A Democratic paper says it is permitted to announce authoritatively that it is the present determination of ex-President Cleveland not to call an extra session of Congress after the inauguration on March 4th next. It further announces that it would have more or less of an unsettling influence on the business of the country.

Suit for Printing a Campaign Literature. NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Deputy Sheriff Young to-day received an attachment of $19,424 against the Brodix Publishing Company of New York and Washington in favor of Reuben & Bro., printers, for work done and materials furnished. The printing was done for the Republican National Campaign Committee. The Brodix Company, it is said, sublet the contract to Freeman Bros. for $25,000, and the latter firm received but $6,000 on account of work done, and have attached for the balance of claims due. The Sheriff served an attachment on a number of persons, including Cornelius N. Biss, Treasurer of the Republican National Committee.

Special to the Record-Union.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 14.—There were no new developments in the Planz murder case to-day. The inquest was resumed and carried on with the purpose of seeing whether there was a woman in the case or not. The Jones was put on the stand and testified to meeting Planz Friday morning between 12 and 1 o'clock. His testimony was substantially as given before. There was nothing new in it. Mrs. Mary Gaskill, sister of W. J. Leon, the man who got up to throw a brickbat at the dogs which howled as the murdering party passed down Julian street, a block and a half from the hanging, was the second witness. She said she heard the noise of the dogs, and heard her brother go out, but not voices. Her husband was with her in bed. Only got up about 12 o'clock to smoke a cigarette, and did not leave the house. Mrs. Gaskill had never seen Planz before, and that was at a saloon at the brewery, when she was there with a Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Williams and another woman. She was not introduced to Planz, and never saw him again till she saw him hanging on the pepper tree, a block and a half from the house. She never had an opportunity to see him at the Melville House, and did not know where it was. When she heard of the hanging she went down and saw the body and then went over to see Mrs. Rogers, on North Eighth street, about a mile away, to tell her of the hanging of Planz. Never saw Mrs. Williams, except at the time she met her at the saloon at the brewery in July or August, the time she first saw Planz.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

A Locomotive Boiler Blows Up With Disastrous Results.

FIVE MEN KILLED AND ANOTHER FATALLY INJURED.

Although Comparative Quiet Reigns at Homestead, the Feeling Against the Non-Unionists is Becoming So Bitter That Further Bloodshed is Looked For—Several Destructive Fires in the Eastern States.

Special to the Record-Union.

READING (Pa.), Nov. 14.—An engine drawing a train of empty cars on the Philadelphia and Reading road blew up near Schuylkill Haven, early this morning, killing five men, tearing up the tracks, dismantling the locomotive, hurling the machinery several squares and scattering destruction all around. A large crowd gathered from the surrounding country and got together the remains of the railroads, whose bodies were fearfully disfigured. The names of the killed are: H. C. Allison, engineer; William Mackey, fireman; William Cowley, extra engineer; William Kendrick, conductor; William Mercer, extra fireman; Michael Jobling, brakeman, is probably fatally injured. The extra engineer, fireman and injured brakeman had brought down the train and were riding back in the cab when the explosion occurred. The explosion came without any warning whatever. The engine had just finished making a shift, and had coupled up the train. The explosion was applied the explosion followed. Cowley was hurled against the rocks alongside the road, and every bone in his body crushed. Mercer was hurled a hundred yards away into a field. The others lay near the wreck.

THE HOMESTEAD TROUBLE.

Feeling Against Non-Union Men Very Bitter—More Bloodshed Feared. HOMESTEAD (Penn.), Nov. 14.—Quiet reigns here, but the feeling against non-unionists is becoming so bitter that further bloodshed is feared. The strikers attacked two men on the way to the mill this morning, but the deputies interfered and arrested two assailants. Sheriff McClary is again on the ground, and, if necessary, will increase his force to maintain order. MAY BE A DECIDED CHANGE. PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—It is probable that within a short time a decided change may take place in the strike situation at Homestead. A meeting of the advisory boards of the Amalgamated Association of different points were in session to-night, and to-morrow will determine whether or not the strikers will continue. A partial resumption of work, together with the expense of supporting the strikers, and capped by yesterday's trouble, has rendered it necessary that some action be taken. As far as can be learned it is thought the leaders will likely issue another manifesto and urge men to continue the battle. LATER.—At 11 o'clock to-night a quarrel occurred between a number of colored non-unionists and Homestead colored men just outside of town. Ed. Adronack, who arrived to-day, left Port-au-Prince, Hayti, November 13th. "On that day," said one of the officers, "almost all the people seemed to be under arms. President Hyppolite, it was represented, was about to start for Cape Hayti, where an uprising was imminent. It was the people of the north who stood by Hyppolite in his fight against Legitime, and now they accuse him of ingratitude. Legitime, it is said, was in Kingston, Jamaica, and seems to be intriguing against his old opponent."

DESTRUCTIVE FLAMES.

WINSTON (N. C.), Nov. 14.—The principal business block of this place was burned last night; also, two tobacco warehouses. The total loss is $500,000; insured, $250,000. The fire started in Brown's drug store and spread rapidly to Haines' building, the Vaughan building and the First National building. The firms destroyed were Caldwell & Brupp, Vaughan & Pepper, Rosenbacher & Bro., A. Kadden and S. Allen, together with the offices of B. G. Dunn & Co., Watson & Co., and the rooms of the Twin City Club. While the fire was in progress an incendiary fire was discovered near the Richmond and Danville passenger depot, and Abbot & Jones' tobacco warehouse and D. J. Sheppard's leaf tobacco, together with eleven houses and some small negro shanties, were consumed. Several other arrests were made, and all is now quiet.

The Deadlock Broken.

WINYIPPEE, Nov. 14.—The election in the Wallace constituency of the North-west Territories Saturday resulted in favor of ex-Premier Haultain's candidate, and will restore to him the control of the Legislative Assembly and the leadership of the Executive. The election was fought out on the separate school question, Haultain promising if returned to power he would establish a system of national schools. Haultain now has a majority of two in the House. Before the election the two parties were a tie and a deadlock existed.

English Capital Coming to America.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Financial News says it thinks the long-expected boom in American railway shares may come at any time. American speculators, it declares, have not yet grasped the potential sources of the traffic expansion that will be effected by the Colman Exposition. There is nothing extravagant in the estimate of $250,000,000 foreign money being left in America as the harvest of the Exposition. Americans will be liberally burdened with money seeking investment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Indian Commissioner Morgan, speaking to-day of the reports about apprehended trouble with the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians in Oklahoma, because of a reduction of the food supply furnished by the Government, spoke at length on what had been done for these tribes in the past. In 1890 they agreed to surrender a large part of their reservation, $4,000,000 being paid in cash and $1,000,000 placed in the treasury to their credit, with interest at 5 per cent. Allotments were then made to each man, woman and child of the tribe of 160 acres of the choicest land. "It can hardly be expected," said the Commissioner, "that the Government will continue to subsidize out of the public

LABOR IN ENGLAND.

The Situation in the Great Cotton Lockout Not Improved.

LITTLE PROSPECT OF THE TROUBLES BEING SETTLED.

Six Hundred Houses Destroyed by Fire at Tokio, Japan—The Sydney Police Unearth More Dead Bodies of Infants, Victims of the Makins Family of Baby Farmers—The Body of the Late Duke of Marlborough Laid at Rest.

Special to the Record-Union.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The second week of the great cotton lockout opens with increased prospect of the trouble being long continued. There are 6,000,000 spindles working full time, 250,000 on half-time and 12,000,000 at rest. The Masters' Federation has stated the owners of spindles working full time to begin to shorten the time Thursday. All have assented except the masters at Bolton, who spin Egyptian cotton mostly. They plead their hands are full of orders and their mills must work full time to fill them. The Sailors' and Firemen's Union has issued a manifesto warning the public to avoid steamers named by Lascares. The manifesto says the recent disasters, notably the wreck of the Peninsular and Oriental steamer Bokhara in the Straits of Formosa, and the Anchor Line steamer Roumania on the coast of Portugal, have shown that the Lascares are unable to stand rough weather. If British seamen had been employed the loss of life would have been less.
