

A HUMBOULT CASE.

Judgment of the Lower Court Affirmed by the Supreme Court.

A Suit Growing Out of the Grading of a Street in Eureka—The City Gains a Victory.

There was filed in Deputy Clerk Govan's office yesterday by the Supreme Court its decision in the case of Richardson vs. the City of Eureka (Humboldt County), respondent.

The action was to abate a nuisance, and to recover damages occasioned by the obstruction of a water-course flowing across the plaintiff's land.

A motion was made to dismiss the appeal, but the same was denied (22 Cal. 64), the court saying: "Any defects alleged to exist in the statement of the case will be considered when the cause comes before us on its proper merits."

"It is urged," says the Supreme Court, "that the statement ought not to be considered, because it does not appear by any indorsement of the Judge thereon that it was used on the hearing of the motion for a new trial."

"Objection was made on that ground to the settlement of the statement, whereupon the attorneys for the moving party asked permission to amend the statement by signing the same. This request was granted and properly so. The statement as presented to the court is not the respondent's statement of the case, and service thereof was accepted without objection."

"It is claimed also that the court erred in allowing the moving party to insert in the proposed statement a request for its settlement and allowance. If such matter was essential to the validity of the statement, there was no error in the ruling of the court although the amendment was made after the time for the filing of the statement had expired."

"The answer in effect admitted that there had been a natural water-course across the plaintiff's property, but that it had been changed or abandoned, and that no proper channel of escape had been provided in lieu thereof."

"We do not think the court erred in sustaining the objection to the question: 'Now, in your opinion, as an expert, would plastering be in the condition that you found it, had the building since the plastering was placed there, settled or seven or eight inches, or more, than the building which has settled six or seven inches cannot be in the condition that it was before it was plastered?'"

"There are other exceptions urged by the counsel for the appellant, but we do not deem it necessary to discuss them in this opinion. We have examined them, and think there is no merit in any of them. Judgment and order affirmed."

THE USUAL BATCH.

Judge Cravens was slightly indisposed yesterday morning, and for this reason several cases which were on his calendar were continued.

John M. Nash, arraigned on the charge of felony for illegal registration and attempting to vote illegally, had his examination continued to Thursday, the 17th inst.

C. McCormack and Barney Hughes, convicted of violation of the law, were given six hours to leave town, with the alternative of six months in the County Jail.

B. Bianno, charged by Jesse Corrales with assault with a knife, was examined for trial to-day. Corrales claims that Bianno assaulted him at Third and L streets on Monday night and bruised his face with the muzzle of a revolver, which he thrust into his physiognomy.

W. A. Busby, tried for an attempt to vote illegally, had judgment in his case deferred until to-morrow. Judge Cravens, desiring to further consider and investigate the circumstances of the case.

J. McNulty, equity defendant, was arraigned for disturbing the peace, on complaint of August Huber. The latter claims that McNulty impounded some dairy cows belonging to him and cruelly neglected or starved the animals, and when he protested McNulty abused him. The case was continued to the 25th inst.

Chris. Renkin, charged with battery upon M. J. McManus on election day, had his trial set for the 24th inst.

Henry McConie, for being drunk, was fined $50 or two days and a half in jail, and Andy Walker got five days for being drunk.

EVERYBODY'S COLUMN.

Correspondence of Interest to the General Public.

Under this heading the RECORD-UNION will publish short letters from correspondents on topics of interest to the general public. The matter in these communications will be understood to represent only the views of the writers. All communications should be accompanied by the name of the writer, not for publication, unless so desired, but as a guarantee of good faith.—Eds.

A Voice from the Interior.

Eds. RECORD-UNION: Mr. Jacobs of the San Francisco Traffic Association lets the cat out of the bag. Now the interior can readily understand the real motives and purposes of the Traffic Association. To help San Francisco out of her trouble the interior must be placed at a disadvantage in the way of rates, and if the railroad company does not respond favorably to their demands the railroad company must be cinched in some way, and it is hoped by them that the Legislature will accept their demands. Why reopen this Pandora box? Does the railroad company owe anything to San Francisco that it must pay it back now?

STILL IN MYSTERY.

Nobody Knows What Has Become of Alexander B. Syne.

The More Plausible Theory is That He Was Robbed and Then Thrown Into the River.

There have been no new developments to throw any light on the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Alexander B. Syne, as related in the RECORD-UNION yesterday morning. His parents and friends are utterly at a loss to account for his disappearance, except the theory that the missing young man was robbed on the Yolo bridge and thrown into the river.

This belief is strengthened by the fact that on Saturday night, a short time before he was last seen in the vicinity of the bridge, he was seen to display considerable money in a saloon in this city frequented by desperate characters.

Syne's mother thinks he had about $80 in money on his person, besides a valuable gold watch and a diamond pin worth some $5.

Early on Saturday night Syne escorted over to this city Miss Louise Lehmannberger of Washington, to whom he is said to have been engaged to be married, and on leaving the bridge at last night, some he promised to call about 10 o'clock the next morning to accompany her on a walk.

George Lander reported yesterday that as he was crossing the bridge at 9 o'clock on Sunday morning he encountered a man lying flat on the plank. He attempted to light a match to see if he could get a light, but the wind was too strong, and supposing it to be some person overcome by drink, he continued on his way.

The probability is that the person seen by Lander was Syne, and that after the former had passed on Syne was thrown over the bridge by men who had robbed and beaten him.

Yesterday the river was dragged in the vicinity of the bridge, but the body was not recovered. The water is now at a very low stage, and there is not much current in the channel, so that if the missing man's body is in the river it should be found not far from the bridge.

Syne was seen a few hours after he left on Saturday night, but it is said he was not under the influence of liquor, and that he had excellent control of himself in this respect. It is said he was "doped," which is the usual method resorted to by the habitues of tough joints in order to get the better of a victim.

Syne's father believes the young man has met with foul play, and places no importance to the various other theories advanced as to his voluntary leaving his home, or taking his own life, there being no apparent cause for his doing either.

The fact of Syne having been seen near the bridge a few hours after he left in company with an unknown man, that they were engaged in a heated controversy, and that his coat and hat were found there in the vicinity of the bridge, and the fact that he was followed or accompanied to the bridge by thugs for the purpose of robbing him, and that he made such resistance that they had to beat him into insensibility, subsequently throwing him into the river.

FALLING TEMPERATURE.

The Mercury Getting Down to Business—A Storm in the North.

The Weather Bureau reports show the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday to have been 64 and 36°, with cool northerly breezes and a partly clouded sky during the greater portion of the day.

The barometrical readings at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. were 30.45 and 30.24 inches, respectively.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 64 and 34°, and one year ago to-day 67° and 38°, which admonishes us to expect cooler weather for some time to come.

There was 10 of an inch of rain on the 19th of November of last year, but whether there will be any this 19th can not yet be foretold, although considerable of a storm was blowing over Washington and Oregon yesterday.

The Result of a Dispute.

The suit of George Peters vs. Mrs. Anna Garcia, which has been pending before Superior Judge Catlin for over a month, was concluded last yesterday afternoon so far as the evidence goes.

The suit is the result of a quarrel between the litigants, and while only $150 is asked on account of a dispute about the boundary lines of some swamp land in the "pockets" below the terminal of the Riverside road, the suit will cost the litigants several thousand dollars.
