

MANY HAPPY CHILDREN.

Boys and Girls Made to Rejoice by Christmas Coming.

Entertainments and Distribution of Presents Among Kindergarten and Sunday-School Children.

The Sacramento and Proebel Kindergarten children had their Christmas entertainment at the A. M. E. Church, on Seventh street, yesterday afternoon.

The basement of the church was brilliantly lighted and decorated, and an immense Christmas tree laden with many treasures occupied a corner.

A large number of the ladies of the association were present and others who were identified or interested in the commendable work.

The program given was a very interesting one, and the little ones seemed to enter into it with wonderful interest and enjoyment.

Among the performers are Misses Kittie Hutchinson and Bessie Rodgers, and Misses Rhoads and Dixon, the teachers.

The program given was a very interesting one, and the little ones seemed to enter into it with wonderful interest and enjoyment.

There was a good attendance at the First Baptist Church, on Ninth street, last evening at the Christmas tree entertainment.

The ladies in charge of the preparations and entertainment were: Mrs. Aitken, Mrs. Fountain, Mrs. Rummage and Miss Ida Gallup.

A bountiful supply of presents and good things were distributed, and the evening was a very merry one.

The Christmas tree entertainment and visit of Santa Claus at the Sixth-street M. E. Church last evening was the event of the year to the young folks present.

The class-room of the church, however, was almost filled with a merry throng, and everything passed off very pleasantly indeed.

The room was profusely decorated with evergreens, and three Christmas trees, among with were 1878 and 1879 decorations.

Miss Ethel Elworthy recited "Dottie's Christmas" and Mrs. F. J. McCusick, Oakland, recited "Long Ago."

Following the drama both Santa Claus and Kris Kringle put in their appearance, and toys and good things generally were distributed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Johnson of Courtland are in the city.

D. J. Mannix has returned from Willows, Glenn County.

Miss Oneta Glenn has gone to Oakland to visit during the holidays.

W. G. Sommers, a prominent farmer of Colusa County, is visiting the city.

Charles D. Radcliffe, editor of the Record Daily News, is visiting here, accompanied by his wife.

William F. Hutchinson of Yolo County has gone to spend the holidays with relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs. R. H. Buckingham of Washington, Yolo County, has gone for a visit to Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crony left for Rio Vista yesterday to spend the Christmas time with Mrs. Crony's relatives.

Mrs. M. Powell of Washington, Yolo County, has gone to Portland, Ore., accompanied by her daughter Annie.

Arrivals at the Golden Eagle Hotel yesterday: A. J. Simpson, G. P. Carpenter, Baltimore; D. P. Palmer, Chicago; C. G. Langham, E. A. Keiner, E. Mansfield, New York; J. Dexter, Portland; Mrs. J. B. Gallagher, Butte City; H. J. McKusick, Oakland; William B. Fancher, Yacovitz, Miss Clinton, San Jose; C. W. Hopkins, W. H. V. Raymond, J. T. Newton, T. J. Harris, wife and child, San Francisco.

On Tuesday evening, at their home, 1929 M street, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Blue entertained a few of their friends.

The evening was spent in card-playing, and numerous musical selections were rendered.

Total, 6,812.

From other points: San Francisco shipped 12,639 tons, Oakland 750, San Jose 2,910, Stockton 8,147, Marysville 367, Portland 1,024. Grand total, 22,909 tons.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Metropolitan Theater this evening Charles E. Schilling's minstrel troupe appears.

Among the performers are: Miss J. Grandall, George H. Edwards, Ed Neely, W. F. Clark, J. F. Morgan, L. J. Nolan, James Daly and William T. Dickson.

The company is spoken of by the press as strong musically, both in vocalists and instrumentalists.

A feature of the entertainment is the presentation of a full act of the comic opera "The Pirates of Penzance," with elaborate and beautiful scenic effects.

The arrangements for the opening of the Clunie Opera-house Monday night are completed, and the promise of a successful opening by Mr. Dalley's New York Stock Company is excellent.

RAIN IN TORRENTS.

A Heavy Gale Accompanied the Down-pour in the Sierras.

Snow Was Looked for Last Night, But It Came Not—Barwick's Storm Ideas.

Dispatches received at railroad headquarters up to midnight last night report one of the heaviest rainstorms in the Sierra Nevada Mountains ever known.

The rain fell in various points on "the snow" all along the route of the Central Pacific for awhile during the forenoon, but soon ceased as the temperature grew warmer and gave way to a heavy rain.

The mountains were heavily coated with snow from the cold storm of the previous night, but the rain melted it rapidly and in a short time innumerable rivulets appeared and went tumbling down through the canyons and into the valleys below.

The rainstorm increased in severity as the day progressed and at nightfall was accompanied by a heavy wind—a veritable gale in some of the most exposed places.

The continued fall of rain was something of a surprise to the railroad officials, as they had been expecting another cold and heavy snowstorm.

At Elise Canyon it was raining "pitchfork" with a veritable gale blowing. Cisco reported a heavy rain and wind, and that rain had been pouring in torrents all afternoon and night.

At Colfax and down to Auburn it was also raining hard.

The Oregon express, which should arrive here at 4:15 this morning, is eleven hours late, owing to washouts and severe storms in Oregon.

A LOW BAROMETER.

The Weather Bureau reports show the rainfall during the 24 hours ending at 5 o'clock last evening to have been 38 of an inch, making for the storm 54 of an inch, for the month, 2.50 inches, and for the season, 9.98 inches, as against 2.12 inches to the equal date last year.

The highest and lowest temperatures yesterday were 67° and 51°, with 35 southern winds ranging from 24 to 33 miles per hour, reaching a maximum velocity of 45 miles per hour on several occasions, and an extreme velocity of 50 miles per hour.

The barometer away down. The barometrical readings at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. were 30.02 and 30.03 inches, showing quite a rapid fall in that instrument during the 12 hours, viz: .23 of an inch.

It is no wonder the wind howls and whistles or changes its direction from southwest to southeast, which, to even it up, must be called a southerly wind. When a heavy and steady rainfall begins no doubt the wind will decrease in velocity.

The lowest barometer during the memorable and phenomenal storm from the 27th to the 30th of November last was 29.64 inches, at the beginning of the storm on the 27th, after which time it continued to fluctuate, but kept going down until the 30th, when it reached 29.56 inches, which was the day that gave so much excessive precipitation in twenty-four consecutive hours all over the State, from Del Norte County on the north to Los Angeles on the south.

The present storm. The barometer during the present storm read 29.68 inches at 5 P. M. yesterday, and is still on the downward path toward the point that brings high wind and heavy precipitation.

The storm's temperature has knocked the frost temperature into a cocked hat, and the wind will now prevail until the winding up of this storm; for when the southwest quadrant of the storm center passes over us it will leave a cool wind to precede the present warm one.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 54° and 49°, with a trace of rain, and one year ago today 48° and 37°.

The River Rising. The river rose rapidly last night, starting in about dark. At midnight it had reached 18 feet 8 inches, and was still rising.

Mrs. Logan's "Home Magazine" and the "Weekly Union." Both only $1.75 per year. The Home Magazine of Washington, D. C., considered by Mrs. John A. Logan, is the best and most popular low-priced periodical ever printed.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS.

At Brown's Theater Comique to-night Jack McAuley and Charles Turner will settle the mooted question as to which is the handsomest with his fists.

How He Came There. The defendant, who was as black as the ace of spades, bore the euphemistic surname of John White.

White shuffled his big feet uneasily, and Officer Nevins responded: "Well, White, what black crime are you guilty of?"

"I suppose you weren't near the place at all," said the Magistrate, sharply. "How do you know I was there?"

"But, your honor, I'm sure I saw in the papers that every man hanging round my hen house, and—"

"No, sah, yo' honah, sah; he didn't see me," he said, "but I wuz wot he seen, 's the prisoner interrupted."
