Wheat Market at San Francisco Steady, With a Heavy Tone. Business in Local Cereals Fairly Active-Poultry Scarce and in Demand.

The remarkable decrease predicted by Bradstreet, in the face of the heavy increase apparent in the visible supply last week, has been puzzling speculators east and west of the Rockies, who are governed in their transactions by these estimates. There are several theories offered to explain the discrepancy, but they seem to be satisfactory. However, this amounts to but little, as the market has recently acted independently. The Eastern markets scored another advance, but business on the local exchange was not so enthusiastic. The market was steady with a heavy tone, and the total sales were 2,700 tons. Of this amount 2,100 tons were of Wheat, 1,900 tons of January at $1.34 1/2 to $1.35 1/2, 200 tons of May at $1.34 1/2 to $1.35 1/2, 200 tons of July at $1.34 1/2 to $1.35 1/2. Dally opened higher, but closed weaker at noon. There were sales of 600 tons, all of which were May at $1.35 1/2 to $1.36 1/2. The vegetable market was unchanged this morning and business was dull. Potatoes in good condition meet with ready sale. Few green vegetables arrived and prices were steady. Mushrooms are scarcer and prices were higher. The fruit market is well supplied with oranges of all kinds and prices show little variation. Lemons, limes and grapefruit supplies are now plentiful. Choice Apples are active, but there is little demand for Pears. The receipts of the country poultry are light, but Eastern arrivals are heavy and the market is weighted down with the stock arriving and to arrive. Potatoes are in demand and prices are higher. In the market for dairy produce the supply of fresh butter shows signs of accumulation, and prices are easy. Choice ranch Eggs are firm and in demand. The receipts of game were very light this morning, and no change was made in prices.

Business Fairly Active-Apples Making a Better Showing. SACRAMENTO, January 4, 1893. Business was fairly active in the local markets today, and stocks moved off well. Apples are making a better showing than for some time past. Receipts are confined mostly to the choice varieties, and command a fancy figure. Limes, which were scarce last week, are now in good supply, as are also oranges, both of foreign and domestic growth. Mandarins especially being plentiful. A carload of Louisiana-grown bananas arrived today, and the market was well supplied. The cargo did not arrive in the best of condition, and if looks good for anything, they do not compare with the island growth. Vegetables of all kinds are in good supply, excepting Potatoes, which are scarce, and choice varieties are very firm, prices having an upward tendency. The poultry market is firm, receipts being light, with an active demand. Ducks and Geese are an almost unknown quantity, while even the fancy prices offered for Turkeys and Geese are higher than the holidays. There is no change in the situation so far as other lines of Produce are concerned. Ranch Eggs being about the only thing which show any particular firmness.
