Very Light Business in Wheat at the Produce Exchange.

Barley Stronger at an Advance-Potatoes Firm-Fruit Market Dull-Butter Weak.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 19th. Wheat was at a discount again in the East this morning, and the Chicago prices showed a decline of 1/4 cents per bushel. There were no influences of active speculation in the commodities undoubtedly influences the market, so as a guide for local speculators it is not very safe to take at present. According to the most reliable estimates the surplus on hand January 1st was 27,170,000 bushels larger than one year ago. This is obtained by an approximate estimate of 70,000,000 bushels wheat in all hands on January 1, 1892, and estimating the present crop at 510,000,000 bushels, and this, allowing 50,000,000 as surplus on July 1, 1893, the quantity available for export would be about 171,000,000 bushels. The business done this morning on the local exchange was very light, only 2,200 tons of May wheat changing hands at $1 33 1/2 to $1 33 3/4. The receipts were 114,389 cwt. Barley was stronger at an advance, owing to the reported reduction in overseas freight rates. The sales were 1,400 tons at from $3 25 to $3 25 1/2. The receipts were 3,492 cwt. The vegetable market is lightly supplied with early varieties of onions, and under a moderate demand. Choice onions are in good request. Asparagus is more plentiful, with some sales at reduced prices. Cabbage, cauliflower and peas are very large. Cucumbers continue to arrive. Mushrooms are in good supply. There is no change to report in Fresh Fruit and business is very light. The market for grades of both Apples and Oranges meet with a ready sale, and these are scarce, especially in the latter. Very good Peas are in supply. Dried Fruits are firm, with stocks ample for the demand. The receipts of Potatoes are not excessive and stocks clean up fairly well, except in Turkey, which sell slowly, particularly if alive. Beans are in demand, and the low range of prices is maintained. The butter market is still depressed for all grades outside of the best, and in steady, though cleaning up well in place of Eastern, though an out of the market. Cheese is unchanged.
