

KILLING OF McWHIRTER.

Interest in the Case Continues Unabated at Fresno.

EVIDENCE AGAINST HEATH AND POLLEY STRONG.

A Man Perishes in the Flames While Rescuing Household Effects From a Burning Building at Kootenai.

Idaho—A Los Angeles Attorney Arrested on a Charge of Embezzling Funds of One of His Clients.

Special to the Record-Journal. Fresno, March 17.—Interest in the McWhirter case continues unabated, though no facts of great weight were made public to-day. It is generally conceded here that the evidence against Heath and Polley is strong. The prosecution claims not only to have completed the chain of evidence against them, but also to be narrowing the circle around more influential persons. The third man, so often spoken of in this matter, has not yet been arrested. Assistant District Attorney Mark Walser said to a reporter to-day that this man was in Fresno, and from other expressions he let drop it is certain that he is under close surveillance and will be arrested soon.

Considerable comment has been caused by the circumstance that Heath has been able to retain such counsel as W. W. Foot, James H. Budd, Charles McPike and others. He was employed on the ranch of M. H. Curtis at $30 a month, and it is not likely he saved enough out of this to pay his attorneys' fees. General Heath, father of the accused, is said to have left his family in very moderate circumstances, and it is said that none of Heath's relatives are wealthy.

AN ABSURD REPORT.

The Boiler of the Monterey Not Affected in the Least.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—Henry T. Scott, manager of the Union Iron Works, was seen this forenoon in reference to the statement published in the New York Times of to-day to the effect that the coast defense vessel Monterey, now at Mare Island Navy Yard, had strained her boilers during her trial trip, and is therefore unfit for service in her present condition. Mr. Scott refuted the statement emphatically, and characterized it as absurd. He said that if the stay bolts of the boilers had parted, as the Times asserts, the whole ship would have gone. The same amount of steam was used on her trial trip, Mr. Scott said, has been used since, and the boilers have not been affected in the least.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Strange Act of a Ship's Mate While Visiting a Young Lady.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—Frederick Cook, first mate of the steamer Arago, plying between here and Portland, fatally shot himself to-night at the home of John Hey. Cook was evidently demoralized. He called on Miss Hey and acted very strangely. Finally he pulled a pistol, and as the woman fled from the room he placed it to his head and fired. He was a single man and was paying addresses. There appears to have been no quarrel, and so far as known there was no attachment between them. Cook is still alive, but evidently dying.

COAL TRUST METHODS.

Wholesalers and Retailers at the Mercy of the Combine.

SUPPLIES CUT OFF UNLESS THEY BUY "AUTHORITY."

Mysterious Disappearance of a Mail Pouch Containing Drafts Amounting to Sixteen Thousand Dollars—Twelve Men Buried in a Landslide on the Canadian Pacific.

Special to the Record-Journal.

St. Paul (Minn.), March 17.—The latest developments in the coal combine sensation tend to confirm the investigation committee in their belief in the existence of such a combine. Mr. Welsh of the Joint Committee secured a batch of original letters giving further details of the combine's organization and methods of work, and the committee will have them under consideration to-day. The letters apparently prove conclusively that a great coal combine exists that requires all wholesale dealers to pay to John J. Rhodes $1,000 before going into business, and retailers must pay $100 to the same gentleman for a like purpose. The supply of coal is absolutely cut off from all persons who attempt to sell it without "authority."

In one letter, said to be written by Rhodes, S. H. Wilson of Minneapolis was informed that he had better furnish no more coal to W. Esters till the latter paid his subscription. In another letter to the Lehigh Coal and Iron Company is told that it must make W. Petran subscribe or shut off his supply. Other letters of a similar nature were found. Chairman Donnelly of the committee received a letter from one of the Pennsylvania coal barons threatening to see that Minnesota gets no hard coal if the investigation is not dropped at once.

RAILWAY WORLD.

Another Important Deal Said to be on the Tap.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A special from Montreal says: Another important railroad deal is on the tapis. There is a bill before the Dominion Parliament to incorporate the Atlantic and Pacific Railway Company, amalgamating the Baie des Chaleurs, Great Eastern, Montreal and Sorel Railway, the Montreal Bridge Company, the Ottawa Valley Railway Company, the Pontiac and Pacific Railway Company and Ontario and Pacific Railway Company into one company, with a capital of $10,000,000. The bill also empowers the company to construct a railway from Caspe to St. Marys, Algoma. Power is also desired to connect with a line of railway in Michigan, which gives color to the report that the scheme is backed by the Northern Pacific, and is really designed to be a transcontinental line, with numerous ramifications. The bill has been reported in committee and will pass the House.

CHAMPION CORBETT.

He Thinks He Will Have a Hard Battle With Mitchell. INDIANAPOLIS, March 17.—Champion James Corbett is in town. In an interview to-day he said: "I think only good men can compete for the large purses now being offered. I think the Crescent City Club was foolish to offer $50,000 for the two Australians. Nobody cared who won."

When asked what was the lowest purse he would fight for, Corbett said: "We have two offers—one for $75,000, the other for $50,000. Either would be acceptable. But I am not going to fight for any small amount. I don't propose to fight for 'myself' he said, 'will be the first international fight which has ever taken place in this country where the people could sit down and see it as if they were in a theater.'"

Of Mitchell, Corbett said: "I never saw him fight, but I know him to be shifty, tricky, a hard hitter and a good general. He will be the first man I ever fought anywhere near my own weight. The fight between us will be a hard one, and likely to last long."

"Sullivan will never fight again. He's done, and it's no use crying about it. I shall train three months before the fight with Mitchell. I don't have to come to terms with any club. They must come to me. I didn't blow in my money, and I am more independent than the clubs. I have more money than any of them, and I don't propose to fight for a cent less than I am worth."

MITCHELL IS SATISFIED. BUFFALO (N. Y.), March 17.—"Fight in Buffalo?" said Charley Mitchell to a reporter to-night. "Why, my dear boy, there isn't a place on the face of the earth where I'd rather fight than at Buffalo."

When Mitchell registered at the hotel the clerk handed him a telegram. It was from the wife of his friend, "Squire" Abington, and read: "Abington surely dying. Three physicians at consultation over him. You had better come immediately."

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

A Former Resident of San Francisco Suicides in a Jail.

THE MAN WHO DID THE SHOOTING ON A CHICAGO TRAIN.

Dr. Virechow, One of the Best Cholera Experts in Germany, Says He Thinks There is Less Danger of the Disease Reaching America This Season Than Last, Especially From Germany.

Special to the Record-Journal.

BATTLE CREEK (Mich.), March 17.—A telegram has been received by the Knights of Pythias Lodge in this city from Roman Lodge, in San Francisco, stating that the Italian who did the shooting on the Chicago and Grand Trunk train near this city and subsequently took his own life in the County Jail at Marshall, was a member of the order in regular standing. Roman Lodge asks that he be accorded a Christian burial, and his effects will be taken charge of by brethren, who are awaiting a letter that is on the way. Nothing whatever was said concerning his family, and in fact the tone of the dispatch gives rise to the belief that there is a mystery back of the whole affair that will never be cleared up. His remains are in a vault at Marshall, and his effects consist of $1,500, or thereabouts, in gold, and a second-class ticket from San Francisco to Havre, France. No baggage was found, and no trace can be obtained of his wife and 22-month-old babe who he claimed accompanied him.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Prospect of a Big Tailors' Strike at New York. NEW YORK, March 17.—There is trouble brewing between the clothing cutters and employers. The cutters want an advance in wages, an agreement with the union and Saturday half-holiday six months in the year. The cutters in one house struck as an evidence that business was meant yesterday. The others will follow in regular order till all are out or their demands acceded to. The manufacturers have held a meeting and it is understood if the cutters persist in their demands the remainder will be locked out. This will throw between 6,000 and 7,000 tailors out of work.

FACTS CONCERNING OUTRAGES UPON THEM TO BE LAID BEFORE CLEVELAND.

AMERICANS IN TURKEY.

FACTS CONCERNING OUTRAGES UPON THEM TO BE LAID BEFORE CLEVELAND. BOSTON, March 17.—Owing to the alleged outrages by Turkish officials upon the rights of American citizens in Turkey, Rev. Dr. Judson Smith, Junior Foreign Secretary of the American Board; Rev. C. C. Tracy, missionary from Morson, Turkey, and Rev. Dr. Edwin C. Webb, one of the Prudential Committee of the American Board, have gone to Washington to lay the facts before the Government, and also recent complaints that the Turkish officials have interfered with the mails of the missionaries, and even with the telegrams of United States Government officials. The statement is made that a telegram from the United States Consul at Sivas was suppressed, and it is also said that Minister Thompson reports that he sent telegrams to the United States Government, and not receiving any reply, concluded those dispatches had also been stopped by the Turkish Government.

His failure is credited with causing the firm to take this course. Ira A. Rumbury, attorney for the Schwabs, said to-day that they indorsed Westheim's paper for $165,000, all accommodation paper. The total liabilities of the Schwabs, including the above accommodation paper, are about $225,000. Rumbury could not tell what the assets would amount to.

JULES FERRY IS DEAD.

THE FRENCH STATESMAN SUD- DENLY PASSES AWAY. Heart Disease the Cause, Which Was Due to the Effect of a Bullet Wound Received in 1887. Special to the Record-Journal. PARIS, March 17.—Jules Francois Camille Ferry, the celebrated statesman, is dead.

M. Ferry's death was caused by heart disease. The affection of the heart from which he suffered was due to the effect of a bullet striking the rib near the base of the heart at the time he was attacked by Aubertin in 1887. He also suffered from spasms early this morning, and despite every effort made by the physicians, who were hastily summoned, the convulsions continued to grow in violence until at 6 o'clock in the evening he expired in a terribly severe spasm.

Mme. Ferry said in an interview with a reporter this evening: "For the last two weeks Ferry had complained of dizziness in his head. His sleep was much broken, and his general health suffered in consequence. In the last few days he seemed to recover somewhat his former energy and spirits, although the difficulty in breathing kept increasing. Last evening he went to bed at 10 o'clock. Before midnight he awoke with a chill, succeeded later by one more severe. A doctor arrived at 1 o'clock, and after treating Jules Ferry felt relieved, and fell into a sound sleep. He was roused at 3:30 a.m., and we helped him to get into a chair, and for an hour he was in a condition of such extreme prostration that he could talk but little. At 10:30 o'clock he began struggling for breath. This sudden rally was followed by another sinking turn. These alternations of rallying and sinking continued until 5 o'clock, when he raised himself in his seat, looked at me fixedly, and said: 'Save me,' and fell back again. His struggle for life became agonizing, and the physicians injected morphine to relieve him. After a few unintelligible words he fell into a state of coma, which ended in his death."

He died in the arm chair in which for years he had done all his writing and reading. All members of his family and the staff were beside him to the last. The news of his death was quickly spread. None since Gambetta's death made such an impression. Hundreds of politicians called at the house during the evening and inscribed their names in the visitors' book. The general feeling is that, although Ferry's election to the Presidency of the Senate was contrary to the wishes of Carnot and Ribot, his death is a serious loss to the Government. As yet names of possible successors to the Presidency of the Senate are hardly mentioned.

Jules Francois Camille Ferry was born at Saint-Die, in the Vosges, April 5, 1832. He studied law in Paris, was admitted to the bar there in 1854, took part in journalism and joined the opposition to Napoleon III, being one of those concerned in the Trial of the Thirteen in 1864.

In 1869 he was elected to the Corps Legislatif and sat with the left. He quickly made himself conspicuous, proposing the abolition of the court that acquitted Prince Pierre Bonaparte and also the dissolution of the Corps Legislatif as no longer representing the people.

He voted against the declaration of war with Prussia. When the empire fell in 1870 he was made Secretary of the Provisional Government of the national defense, and since then has held numerous high public offices.

In 1880 he became Prime Minister, but his Ministry fell a victim to its Tunis expedition policy. In 1883 Ferry again became Prime Minister, but his Ministry was ended through the mishaps of the Tonquin campaign. The unpopularity he then acquired was a potent element in his defeat for the Presidency on M. Grevy's resignation. More than one attorney has been made on his life.

CHOLERA SCOURGE.

Dr. Virechow Does Not Think It Will Reach America This Year. NEW YORK, March 17.—Dr. Hans Virechow, one of the best of Germany's cholera experts, who comes as Commissioner of Education in connection with the World's Fair for his Government, says he thinks there is less danger of cholera reaching America this season than last, especially from Germany. BOMB EXPLODED.

At the Residence of the United States Minister at Rome.

NO ONE INJURED AND BUT LITTLE DAMAGE DONE.

It is Believed That the Perpetrator of the Outrage Had No Evil Designs on the American Representative, But That His Motive Was for Revenge Upon the Proprietor of the Palace—Second Reading of the German Army Bill Rejected.

Special to the Record-Journal.

ROME, March 17.—A bomb was exploded in Aeneas Matura Place, the official residence of United States Minister Potter, early this morning. Fortunately nobody was hurt and but little damage was done to the building. No cause is known for the deed.

The building was occupied by two other families beside that of United States Minister Potter. As a similar outrage was perpetrated in the same building in 1882, and as Potter only engaged the building for occupation in the closing days of that year, it is believed the fact of the palace being inhabited by the American Minister had nothing to do with the outrage, but that the motive for causing the explosion was to gratify a desire for vengeance upon the proprietor of the palace, irrespective of whether the residents were injured or not. This was the motive suspected at the time of the first explosion, and there is no reason to take a different view now.

The United States Minister called at the Foreign Office this afternoon and told Signor Brin, Minister of Foreign Affairs, that he was convinced the explosion was not intended to injure him or an affront to the United States Government. He expressed regret that such an embarrassing incident had occurred, and assured Signor Brin of the sympathy of the United States Government and its willingness to let the affair pass unnoticed. Signor Brin thanked him for his visit, and two hours later returned the call to inform him that the Italian Government felt the deepest regret on account of the inconvenience caused to him and his family by the explosion.

THE PANAMA TRIALS.

Barboux Resumes His Argument for Charles De Lesseps. PARIS, March 17.—Barboux, counsel for Charles De Lesseps, resumed his argument for the defense at the opening of the court this morning. He maintained that his client was ignorant of the manner in which Baron Reinach used the money paid to him by the canal company; that the evidence in the case proved that the efforts of the attorney Flouquet and De Freycinet to prevent a lawsuit from being instituted by Reinach against the company were made solely in the interests of the Government.

Dubuit, counsel for Marins Fontane, one of the indicted Panama directors, received an ovation on account of his spirited protest yesterday against Premier Ribot's imputation on the members of the bar in his statement of the Chamber of Deputies. When Dubuit arrived in the robing-room of the Assize Court, before the resumption of the trial to-day, the members of the bar cheered and waved their official caps several minutes. Dubuit was warmly congratulated on his effort as a successful refutation Ribot's charges. The incident, which arose out of a report that counsel for Cottu intended to make an open statement in court to the effect that a certain form of the Panama bribery money, has excited the keenest indignation among the members of the legal profession.

A MINER'S REVENGE.

Causes an Explosion Which Kills Himself and Six Fellow Workmen. BERLIN, March 17.—A miner named Boehme purposely exploded ten pounds of dynamite to-day in an iron mine in the Harz district. He and six other miners were torn to atoms. Upon leaving home this morning Boehme gave his wife a letter, which he said was not to be opened till noon. The letter said merely that Boehme would never return. Boehme's motive is supposed to have been revenge, as he had trouble with the Superintendent of the mine and was constantly quarreling with his fellow-workmen.

Dempsey and Maber to Fight.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A local sporting paper's correspondent at Butte, Mont., yesterday sent the following dispatch to his paper: "From all indications a match between Jack Dempsey and Maber, the man who recently defeated Danny Nedham, is a certainty. The Nonpareil wired $1,000 from Portland, Or., as a forfeit to fight Maber for $5,000 a side and a $5,000 purse. Maber will cover the money to-morrow, as he says Dempsey is coming East."
