

TARIFF QUESTION.

Discussed by Republicans at a Banquet at Canton, Ohio.

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY OCCUPIES THE POST OF HONOR.

Relations Between the Rival Choctaw Factions Still Strained to the Utmost—Belief That Another Battle Will Be Fought—People of Antlers In Dread That the Town Will Be Burned.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

CANTON (Ohio), March 29.—The Republican tariff banquet here to-night was a political success. Four hundred guests were present from various cities in Ohio. The banquet was spread in the Tabernacle, a mammoth structure dedicated to political purposes in 1884 with a speech by James G. Blaine. The interior of the building was handsomely decorated.

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY OCCUPIES THE POST OF HONOR. Hon. J. P. Fawcett was toast-master, and at the conclusion of the feast he read letters of regret from ex-President Harrison, Senator Sherman, General Gibson of Ohio, Hon. J. C. Burrows of Michigan, ex-Governor Foraker, ex-Speaker Reed, Senator Manderson and Congressman Dabell.

With the exception of that of Senator Sherman, the letters of regret contained no significant utterances. Sherman took occasion to discuss the financial question. He said what was needed was honest currency, and his experience had shown him that the notes of national banks, secured by an equal or greater amount of United States bonds, form the best currency that has yet been devised. Carefully limited in amount and backed by the credit of our whole people, supported with ample reserves in coin, and which is clear authority in case of necessity to redeem them in coin by the sale of bonds, has been proved by our experience since the first day of January, 1879, to be a wise and safe currency, the profits of which inure entirely to the benefit of the whole people. The chief fear, he declared, is that these notes will not be safely restricted by law, and their credit may be impaired and destroyed by the carrying out of wild and visionary notions regarding the coinage of silver. The Senator expressed the hope that the silver coinage delusion has passed away. In conclusion he says: "The real solution of the silver problem is that they put into our silver dollar enough silver at the market value to be equal to the gold dollar, and then maintain all forms of money, whether coin or notes, of equal and interchangeable value."

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY responded to the toast "Republican Presidents." Hon. D. K. Watson of Columbus, Hon. P. C. Young of New Lisbon, Hon. J. I. Squire, State Senator Green and James R. Garfield also spoke.

GOVERNOR M'KINLEY, in the course of his address, reviewed the life and services of various Republican Presidents. Speaking of Harrison, he said the Administration was pure, vigorous and patriotic, and his own contemporaries will give him his true place in history. "The country," said McKinley, "needs the Republican party, for its principles and purposes and policies underlie every American interest, and are allied with true growth and advancement. Since 1859 until now the Democratic party has been without power to do anything with public measures worthy of the sanction of the Republican party. Now they have full possession. There is no longer any excuse for pretense; no longer any room for hypocrisy. If they believe in their own profession of the past thirty years, they can now make them effective. There is no cause for discouragement on our part. We have but to move on with our old-time vigor, yielding nothing of principle."

THE CHOCTAW FEUD.

Relations Between the Rival Factions Still Strained to the Utmost. PARIS (Tex.), March 29.—The relations between the rival Choctaw factions are still strained to the utmost. It is believed another battle will be fought at Antlers in a few hours. The eighteen militiamen arrested there last night had a hearing before the United States Commissioner here to-day. As soon as released they bought new Winchester each and then tanked up on whiskey and boarded the north-bound Frisco train at 6 p. m. Passengers on the south-bound train, which met the north-bound at Antlers, say Locke had fifty men, and declared that if the militia stopped and made any demonstration he would fire upon them. The militia were in the smoker, with the lights out. All efforts to reach Antlers by wire since dark have failed, which is considered a bad omen. The deputies that went to Antlers last night returned this morning, reporting all quiet up to the time they left, but say the people of Antlers fear the town will be burned to-night.

CLOTHING CUTTERS' STRIKE.

The Manufacturers' Association Making an Active Fight. NEW YORK, March 29.—The Clothing Manufacturers' Association, who locked out their cutters Saturday, have determined upon an active policy. In view of the court's action in the Ann Arbor Railroad strike, they went before Judge Lawrence yesterday to procure an order requiring the officers of the Garment Workers of America and the American Federation of Labor to show cause why they should not be restrained from boycotting the manufacturers, or from issuing orders tending to damage their business. The argument was adjourned to-day for one week on condition the cutters shall not issue any more boycotting circulars in the meantime.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—A special Board of Bloomington, Ind., says the Board of Trustees of the Indiana University have selected Professor Joseph Swain to succeed Dr. J. M. Coulter as President of that institution, and a committee has Leonard jumped from the train near Colo, Ia., while it was running thirty miles an hour, and escaped. The other three prisoners—Frank Tracy, E. Ramsay and Thomas Rowley—are still in custody. Two of the deputies left the train to pursue the fugitive.

ONCE POPULAR HOTEL SOLD. NEW YORK, March 29.—The Park Row and Duane-street old landmark, known as Sweeney's Hotel, was sold at auction to-day. It was built by the late Daniel Sweeney and opened in 1857. In its day Sweeney was the popular hotel, and not ten years ago Sweeney was offered $100,000 for the good-will alone, but owing to the uptown trend of the hotel trade even before Sweeney's death, five years ago, the old hostelry had ceased to pay. The sale brought $188,000.

ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS. BUFFALO, March 29.—Charles F. Tomes, local manager of the American Preserves Company, has disappeared, leaving a letter confessing that he is a defaulter. The amount of the delinquency was placed at $10,000 to $20,000. It is said the bank books of the company cannot be found, and it is supposed Tomes took them. Tomes has been living extravagantly and playing horses and bucket shops.

A FLURRY IN WHEAT. LIVELY TIMES ON THE CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.

All the Elevators in the City Filled to Overflowing—Extra Houses to be Erected. Special to the RECORD-UNION.

CHICAGO, March 29.—There were lively times on the Board of Trade shortly after noon. In view of the evident corner in May wheat here, which has held that future far above parity with other markets for several weeks, and has rendered shipment impossible, thereby filling all the elevators in the city to bursting, the Board of Directors, at a secret session last night, decided that a storage emergency exists. Extra emergency houses will now be erected on the way down, and the necessity presents itself. This fact was not known until about noon. Meantime, in the West trading with Kansas and the whole West clear according to the weather map, and no prospect of rain, the shorts were excited and pushed prices up until the clique began realizing heavily. The early advance was aided by statements that Secretary Mohler of Kansas had said the good rain reports throughout the State were bogus, and private reports from that State were bad. When the clique began to sell, however, and the action of the board became known, there was a great rush to buy, and prices went up in great jumps, tumbling within a few minutes from $2 1/2 to 7 1/2. But at the bottom the shorts were not so much down as they began to take profits, and there was quite a rapid recovery to 7 1/2. Later the market weakened again and closed at 7 1/2.

The clique has been selling for two or three days, and it was supposed had got rid of over 3,000,000 bushels. To-day business was almost paralyzed for a time, and runners were current of large private settlements by the clique.

In the excitement of the break much wheat was thrown on the market on stop-loss orders.

At the same time that wheat broke provisions took a tumble, land went out over $1 a tierce, pork 25 cents per barrel and lard 15 cents a hundred.

John and Michael Cudahy, rich pork packers, are at the head of the bull clique with many other wealthy Chicago and New York men.

The deal was the most gigantic in the history of the grain trade, and mighty accumulations of capital were arrayed against each other. It is said the clique controls 11,000,000 bushels of contract wheat and is ready to take as much more if storage room can be found for it.

The elevator proprietors are emptying bins of corn, oats and barley into the holds of vessels and chartering vessels for the purpose elsewhere, to make room for wheat.

The following is a comparison with high prices here to-day: Wheat was 18 cents lower in St. Louis, 18 cents in Duluth, 17 cents in Minneapolis, 12 cents in Toledo and 8 cents in New York.

The big shorts, Ed Farrington and Arthur Orr, are said to have been driven in and settled with the clique on private terms.

HIS HEAD BLOWN OFF.

An Old Man Commits Suicide in a Horrible Manner.

NO FEATURES REMAIN BY WHICH TO IDENTIFY HIM.

Attempt Made to Wreck the Steamer Bawmore—Twenty Sticks of Giant Powder Found in Her Hold with a Fuse Attached—Murder and Suicide at Flagstaff, Ariz.—Schooner Sunk Off Goat Island.

Special to the RECORD-UNION.

SAN JOSE, March 29.—An unknown man committed suicide in the most horrible manner about 5:50 this morning. At that hour Night Watchman Herrington of the new Postoffice building heard a loud explosion, and soon after, seeing smoke issuing from a window in the building, he entered the place, when a horrible sight met his gaze. Near the north wall lay the trunkless body of a man. Fragments of his skull, scalp, brains and blood were scattered in every direction. The body lay on its back, a few straggling, curly gray hairs attached to the narrow ridge of the skull being the only part of what once had been the head.

The remains were removed to the morgue, and a search of the clothing disclosed a pocket-knife, a razor, 95 cents and a pocket handkerchief. The clothing was old and badly soiled. The body had on a black coat and vest, black and gray striped pantaloons, heavy blue woolen socks, and a light-colored overshirt. The remains of a derby hat, 64, bore Meusdorfer's mark. It is presumed that he blew his head off with a dynamite cartridge. The remains have not been identified.

An inquest was held this afternoon. The only important evidence was that of Henry Kogel, Commander of the Salvation Army, who recognized the body as that of a man with whom he was talking on Sunday afternoon, and who gave the name of Yeage, and that he was a Russian and without means. The jury rendered a verdict of suicide.

SERIOUS TROUBLE. Over Rates Charged by the San Diego Land Company for Water.

SAN DIEGO, March 29.—There is serious trouble at National City, four miles below, over the new rates enforced by the San Diego Land and Town Company for water. From the Sweetwater reservoir to January last $3 per acre was annually charged for water to all lands, whether bought of the company or from others. Then the company demanded a bonus of $50 an acre for all land to be watered under the new contracts in addition to the $3 rate. This operated even on a man who had not been irrigating all his land and who needed a larger supply. The residents protested to the City Trustees, who deferred it to City Attorney Haines. He declared the demand for the bonus illegal and said it could not be enforced. The people refused to pay up and the company refused to make new contracts in National City, declining voluntary offers to pay bonus. The residents of Paradise Valley, part of which lies within National City limits, offered $6,000 bonus for a water-main, to be put in as the new ranches required it, but the company declined. The people are now talking of arming water, if they don't sue the company. The indignation meeting is being considered at National City, especially as three feet of water is going to waste through the weir of the Sweet-water dam.

CALIFORNIA LEAGUE GAMES. The San Francisco and Oakland Wins Yesterday's Contest.

AT LOS ANGELES. LOS ANGELES, March 29.—The game to-day resulted in a victory for Oakland by a score of 12 to 4. The Colonel's team were in good form, and Horner pitched a great game, allowing only six hits, while Roach, who pitched for Los Angeles, had an off day and sent sixteen in the same direction. The weather was cool and pleasant, but the attendance was a little below the average. Oakland made one run in the second inning, seven in the fifth and four in the eighth, while the Angels scored two in the sixth and one each in the seventh and ninth.

A PRISONER AT LARGE. Officers After an Escape From the San Mateo County Jail.

REDWOOD CITY, March 29.—R. G. Allen, who broke jail here with three others, is surrounded in the Santa Cruz Mountains, and was seen and shot at by the officers on Saturday night. He lost his hat and sack of provisions, which are now in the hands of the Sheriff. Sunday Allen went to Wurr's mill and staid all night. He got a new hat, had his sprained ankle dressed, got breakfast Monday and departed. The men at the mill were afraid to attempt his capture. Monday night Allen visited a rancher's cabin, near Chris Iverson's place on Butano Creek, and stole a new supply of provisions. He knows the country well and is a desperate character. He will probably not be taken without bloodshed. Allen is the man who, when originally arrested, was supposed to be Son-tag, the train robber. When he escaped from prison he took with him the arms he was in possession of when arrested, and which were in the prison.

The fire department of the town responded to the alarm, but a long delay occurred before the firemen were admitted, the gates not being opened until the prisoners had been locked in their cells. When the firemen finally got in it seemed as if the flames were beyond control, as the wind was high and the flames burning fiercely.

However, the firemen got to work and soon got the upper hand. The shops destroyed were the pearl-button shop, the broom-shop, the brass foundry and foundry No. 2, all belonging to the State, and Stieckling & Simonds' furniture shop. The fire caught in the finishing-room of the furniture shop.

MURDERER LATIMER. He Details the Manner of His Escape From a Michigan Prison.

JACKSON (Mich.), March 29.—R. Irving Latimer, the triple murderer, who was caught last night at Jerome, has been brought here and is again lodged in the penitentiary. During the long ride from Jerome he told the story of his escape. He said he had been at work on the plan over a year. He had made an exhaustive study of the effects of poisons and decided he had no intention of killing Haight, and gave him the same dose he had given Haight. He said he would have had Haight in the prison had he not killed Haight. The dose he gave them was a mixture of opium and prussic acid. The intended effect was for the opium to make it take effect at once. He administered it in a glass of lemonade. There was certainly a mistake somewhere, as he had no intention of doing anything more than make the men sleep half an hour. The rattling of a dish when Haight fell disarranged all his plans as it brought Rice to the scene, and but for that he would have been able to leave the prison and drive rapidly off in a buggy and before successful pursuit could have been organized he would have been 200 miles away. He declared the story was not to blame in any way except for carelessness. Latimer told the girl of his wanderings after his escape. He said he might have escaped anyway, but sprained his ankle, which handicapped his movements and settled all chance of his getting away.

AN ACTRESS' REVENGE. PARIS, March 29.—During a play at the Theatre de la Gaite this evening Mile Mealy, one of the actresses, invited Mile Jeanne Richard, another actress, to call upon her in her dressing-room. Mile Richard supposed Mealy gave the invitation out of pure friendliness. After the last curtain she entered the dressing-room. The moment she entered, Mile Mealy's maid sprang upon her and threw her to the floor. Mile Mealy then caught Mile Richard by the throat, drew a file from her pocket and began lacerating her face with it. Mile Richard's screams brought other members of the company to the room, and they rescued her, but not until her face was raw and covered with blood. Mealy explained to a peculiar case of suicide. There were no marks on the body and from appearances death was not violent. The body was too far decomposed to render recognition easy, and no one has appeared who claims to have ever seen the man. The Sheriff has taken no notice of the matter and there is no probability that he will.

RAILWAY WORLD. CLARK TO REMAIN PRESIDENT OF THE MISSOURI-PACIFIC, BUT WILL CONTINUE AS A DIRECTOR.

He Will Resign the Presidency of the Missouri-Pacific, But Will Continue as a Director. Special to the RECORD-UNION.

NEW YORK, March 29.—At the unanimous request of the Board of Directors of the Union Pacific, S. H. H. Clark has withdrawn his resignation, and will continue the Presidency of the Missouri-Pacific, but will continue to be one of the directors.

After the meeting of directors adjourned Vice-President Atkins of the Union Pacific issued the following statement: Clark, at the unanimous request of the Board of Directors, has withdrawn his resignation and will continue to be President. He will at once resign from the Missouri-Pacific and terminate his relations with that company as President, so as to give his undivided attention to the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

The determination of President Clark to remain with the Union Pacific caused Missouri-Pacific to drop from 5 1/2 to 4 1/2 on the Stock Exchange, where the brokers were unable to understand what forces controlled Clark's action. George Gould, when seen in regard to the matter, refused to discuss it, and said it was too early to speak in regard to Clark's successor.

Subsequently George Gould said: "Clark will retire from the Presidency of the Missouri-Pacific and give his entire attention to the Union Pacific. We are very sorry to lose him from the Missouri-Pacific. I consider him one of the ablest railroad men in the United States. The Union Pacific interests wished to retain him, and we have reluctantly managed. Assistant General Manager Smith will be in charge of the operation of the Missouri-Pacific for the present. We have not yet considered who will be Clark's successor as President."

Director Samuel Sloan then explained the action of the directors: "Mr. Clark has been a valuable man to the Union Pacific, and the directors did not want to let him go. He was therefore prevailed upon to withdraw his resignation as President. There is no discord between the Missouri-Pacific and Union Pacific over the matter. The Missouri-Pacific directors have not met yet. When they do they will elect another President for their term. The two boards are acting in harmony with each other."

JOY AT OMAHA. OMAHA, March 29.—There were wild scenes about the Union Pacific headquarters this morning. The dignity and perfect deportment of 500 people in the headquarters of the building were at a low ebb, due to a telegram that the Board of Directors refused President Clark's resignation, and that he would resign as President of the Missouri-Pacific and remain and devote his whole time to the Union Pacific. Where doubt and uncertainty existed, caused by rumors of a new man to take the place of the retiring President, and overturn the policy of the road, their reigned profound joy that few changes will be made, and the rank and file of the service will remain as now constituted. To-night there was no happier lot of people than the men and women employed at the Union Pacific headquarters.

The moment she entered, Mile Mealy's maid sprang upon her and threw her to the floor. Mile Mealy then caught Mile Richard by the throat, drew a file from her pocket and began lacerating her face with it. Mile Richard's screams brought other members of the company to the room, and they rescued her, but not until her face was raw and covered with blood. Mealy explained to a peculiar case of suicide. There were no marks on the body and from appearances death was not violent. The body was too far decomposed to render recognition easy, and no one has appeared who claims to have ever seen the man. The Sheriff has taken no notice of the matter and there is no probability that he will.
