

CONSTABLES ARE IN IT.

One of Them Has a Paralyzing Claim For Services.

That Little Ditch Riot on Grand Island Proved a Bonanza to R. W. Hanson.

The Board of Supervisors reconvened in regular session yesterday morning, and proceeded to examine bills. That of Constable Hanson for $172.55, for arresting a number of Italian laborers in order to avert a threatened riot on Grand Island last spring, over cutting a ditch bank to let water pass among them.

He deposed that the warrants were applied for and issued and the parties arrested and released on their own recognizance, telling them not to do any more work till after the court had settled it.

A riot was imminent and he issued other warrants and the Constable arrested the offending parties if it took every man in Georgiana Township. He did so by advice of the District Attorney, to whom he telephoned in regard to the matter.

He thought that the wholesale arrest on the second day prevented bloodshed and saved the county a great deal of expense for trial.

Assistant District Attorney Jones asked the witness some questions as to the number of defendants arrested on the first day, and Mr. Hanson answered that three or four were brought into his court.

He thought there were about thirty-three brought into his court on the second day. Other warrants were subsequently issued for the arrest of several parties but not served. He had no personal knowledge of what the defendants were doing at the time of their arrest.

The Assistant District Attorney thought that the warrants only covered the arrest of the parties named in them, and that the arrests of the others could not be charged for.

It was finally agreed that Justice Smith should send up to the board a certified copy of his docket, and also the complaints and the warrants issued.

George Figg, who was very anxious to get back home, as it was in the midst of his fruit season, was also allowed to make a deposition.

He stated that he was on the ground at the time the first arrest was made. A number of Italians were at work under his direction, as trustee for the district, in cleaning out the dead trees, etc., from Beaver Slough.

Even at the time I left people could be heard on the grounds, the trains and the people discussing the beauties of California's display, and urging their friends to visit it.

Another BURLAR. He was Discovered in the House, But Made His Escape. Some excitement was created by an intruder who entered a house at Seventh and G streets about 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

No one was at home but a woman, and when she discovered a man in the house she was greatly frightened and gave the alarm.

EVERYBODY'S COLUMN.

Under this heading the RECORD-UNION will publish articles from correspondents on topics of interest to the general public. The matter in these communications will be understood to represent only the views of the writers. All communications must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not for publication unless desired, but a guarantee of good faith.—EES.

OUR DISPLAY AT CHICAGO.

Eds. RECORD-UNION: I have recently returned from Chicago, where I spent three weeks, a considerable portion of which time was devoted to seeing the World's Fair. My only apology for this statement is that since my return to Sacramento I have heard innumerable inquiries concerning the California exhibit at the fair, and the general impression seems to prevail that it is not worthy of our State. I wish to correct this erroneous idea, and if possible set the minds of our people right on this subject; and to that end will state as a fact, the result of my limited observation, that the California exhibit at the fair, especially in agricultural, horticultural and viticultural lines, is beyond comparison the most complete and beautiful ever exhibited in any State building at the fair.

It is composed of exhibits from the various counties and embraces specimens of every article and product worthy of exhibition, many of which are new to our people.

I cannot enter into a detailed description of the California display, because I took no notes, and did not anticipate being called upon to say anything in its defense.

It is strange that the idea mentioned above is so widespread, and I can only account for it by the fact that the press generally has dealt unfairly with the exhibit, as it has done with every other State display on the grounds. It was the universal complaint of all the different State managers that their home papers were "burning them up."

The Sacramento County display is perhaps the finest in the building and admirably arranged by Mr. J. M. Miller and Mr. Murphy, to whom great credit is due for the energy and taste they have shown in putting their exhibit in order.

Even at the time I left people could be heard on the grounds, the trains and the people discussing the beauties of California's display, and urging their friends to visit it.

Another BURLAR. He was Discovered in the House, But Made His Escape. Some excitement was created by an intruder who entered a house at Seventh and G streets about 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

No one was at home but a woman, and when she discovered a man in the house she was greatly frightened and gave the alarm.

The matter was reported to the police, and a description of the burglar was obtained.

The Lomas Case Settled. The case of Samuel Lomas and his wife against James Scott for obtaining $1,100 from them under false pretenses, giving them a mortgage on a house in this city which he falsely claimed to own, has been decided by the Superior Court.

Declared Insolvent. Francis M. Stansfield has filed his petition in insolvency in the Superior Court, stating that his liabilities consist of three promissory notes, amounting to $5,500, and his assets consist of $147.50.

John Elliott's Estate. Eliza J. Elliott, guardian of the estate and person of John Elliott, an incompetent, has petitioned the Superior Court for permission to sell thirty-one head of stock cattle belonging to the estate, as well as the contents of a safe.

The Chesley & Co. Case. Louis Elkus, defendant in the case of George T. Bronner, receiver of the Chesley & Co. estate, against Louis Elkus and W. H. Jones, has filed in the Superior Court a notice that he appeals from the judgment of the Superior Court rendered against him on May 3, 1893.

ENCAMPMENT FUNDS.

The Second Infantry Will Not Camp This Year.

Prospects for 1894—Apportionment of the Funds—Elections and Other Military Matters.

General Allen has been apportioning the available funds for encampment purposes for 1893-94. This money can be used in either year, but Colonel Guthrie's regiment, the Second Infantry, Battery B, Light Artillery, and the Signal Corps will not go into camp until next year.

The entire transportation fund for the National Guard amounts to $12,000, of which $200 will be allowed to the field officers and non-commissioned staff of the Second Infantry, and $160 for horses.

The usual allowance has been provided for the Signal Corps, and $400 each for subsistence of Companies A, C, E, F, G and the battery. Companies B, D and H, at Vallejo, Auburn and Grass Valley, will be allowed $200 each for subsistence.

Some close financing will have to be done to provide transportation if the entire force goes to the seacoast. Each of the six old companies will have to assist the three new ones in the matter of subsistence, and probably cheap transportation could be secured to some point on the bay or at Vallejo for the entire regiment; and if a division encampment is to be held money will have to be raised by the Division Commander to bring the forces to some central point.

Company G held an election for Captain and Lieutenants on Monday evening which resulted in the re-election of its present officers—Captain T. B. Hall, First Lieutenant A. E. Stearns and Second Lieutenant J. L. Zittinger.

The battery elects a Second Lieutenant on Friday evening, at which Colonel Hubbard will preside.

Major Augustus Smith is about to apply for retirement, his health not permitting of his serving on the active list any longer. He has served on the Brigade staff since January, 1893, has been very active until within the last year or two, and his other officers will miss him greatly.

Sergeant-Major William T. Caldwell, Orderly on the Brigade Staff, has been discharged, his term having expired.

The Official and Employees of the Central Electric Railway Company complain of the conduct of certain boys in the vicinity of Twenty-eighth and M streets who persist in running after and jumping on cars while in motion.

Yesterday afternoon, despite the constant warnings of the carmen, a boy named Orrin Underwood tried to jump on a car at Twenty-eighth and M streets while it was running, and missed his footing and was thrown heavily to the ground by the momentum of the car and knocked senseless.

AN ARM BROKEN.

A Firecracker Thrown Under a Horse Causes an Accident.

Captain Bradley's daughter Edith sustained a bad fracture of the arm and elbow joint on the Fourth.

She was sitting in a buggy with a friend, on N street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth, when a horse driven by a girl shied at a firecracker thrown under him by a boy and overturned the buggy in which the two girls sat.

They were thrown to the ground and Miss Bradley's arm was broken near the elbow and the elbow joint dislocated. Would it not be a good idea that the Trustees should pass an ordinance prohibiting the discharge of anything larger than the ordinary firecracker on the streets and making it a misdemeanor to throw them at or under horses?

The Weather Bureau reports show the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday to have been 89° and 59°, with gentle fresh southerly winds and clear weather prevailing.

The barometrical readings at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. were 29.92 and 29.75 inches, respectively. The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 86° and 58°, and one year ago to-day 88° and 57°.

Adam Damm and Charles Flohr will start to-morrow for the mountains in the vicinity of Sierra Valley. Their principal object in life for the following ten days will be that of catching grasshoppers for bait and monkeying with fish-hooks and lines.

They have contracted to send down from the mountains daily what they can catch monthly unless they start a fish market and do a commission business.

The annual meeting of stockholders of East Park Association was held yesterday. The following officers and directors were elected for the ensuing term: L. Lewis, President; E. A. Crouch, Secretary and Treasurer; Albert Gallatin, Joseph St. John, J. M. Henry.

It is expected that when the road is completed to the park it will become a great place of resort.

Bruce is Getting Well. James T. Bruce, the brakeman who was shot at Gold Run a week ago yesterday by ex-convict Fredericks, is greatly improved.

Dr. Huntington said yesterday that if no complications should ensue Bruce will be made as fit as a day.

The bullet will be extracted to-day. The new electric light plant at the Folsom State Prison was put into operation on Fourth of July night, and the grounds were made as light as day.

Hereafter it will not be possible for anyone to approach under cover of night and plant either weapons or opium for convicts. Scheel Not Improving. The young convict, Scheel, who was accidentally wounded in the battle between the Sonntag-Dalton gang and the guards last week, is not improving as rapidly as could be wished.

His condition remains about the same as at last report—neither better nor worse. Death of May Beede. Miss May L. Beede, daughter of S. S. Beede, of the Red House, died in this city yesterday, at the age of 17 years.

Deceased was a native of this city, where she had grown up in the love and esteem of all that knew her, and among whom her death will be deeply felt. A Sacramento Dancer. J. C. Frazer, the well-known local teacher of Scottish dances, was a competitor at the Caledonian fete at Shell Mound Park, Alameda, on the Fourth.

He won the first prize in the Highland reel, and third in both the reel of Tulle and sword dance. To Erect a Monument. Robert Forbes, executor of the will of Arthur Lloyd McConville, deceased, has petitioned the Superior Court for permission to erect a monument over his remains at a cost of $250.

McConville left an estate valued at $5,045.62. Violated an Ordinance. A. D. Martine and A. Conregleri were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Lowell upon complaint of the Health Officer for dumping garbage at Eighth and T streets, thereby violating Ordinance No. 233.
