

FINANCIAL QUESTION.

Chief Interest in the Senate Centered on the Speech of Hill.

NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE SENTIMENTS OF THE PRESIDENT.

Asserts That He is a Bimetallist, but Believes That Congress at This Session Should Rest Content With the Repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing Act, and at the Regular Session in December Resume Consideration of a Permanent Financial System.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Chief interest in the Senate to-day centered in the speech of Senator Hill, who defended his position on the financial question in an address of nearly two hours' duration. Nearly every member of the Senate was in his seat and an attentive listener, and many members of the House crowded over to hear the Senator. "I am a Democrat," he has now become proverbial, was recalled to-day by his forcible declaration on the financial question when, as usual, he epitomized his silver views in the single sentence, "I am a bimetallist."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The first unpleasantness over the silver debate in the House occurred this morning when Burrows of Michigan asked for an extension of forty minutes. The House of Representatives objected to this, but after some debate the speaker acceded to the request. The speaker appointed a committee to report on the proposition that the 100th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The first unpleasantness over the silver debate in the House occurred this morning when Burrows of Michigan asked for an extension of forty minutes. The House of Representatives objected to this, but after some debate the speaker acceded to the request.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The first unpleasantness over the silver debate in the House occurred this morning when Burrows of Michigan asked for an extension of forty minutes. The House of Representatives objected to this, but after some debate the speaker acceded to the request.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The first unpleasantness over the silver debate in the House occurred this morning when Burrows of Michigan asked for an extension of forty minutes. The House of Representatives objected to this, but after some debate the speaker acceded to the request.

THE OSTROM ACT VOID.

Opinion Rendered by Deputy Attorney-General Sanders.

JUTE BAGS MAY BE DISPOSED OF TO MEET FARMERS' WANTS.

Insurance Rates Raised Fifty Per Cent. on All Property Situated Within the Corporate Limits of the City of Fresno—A Condemned Chinaman Makes a Desperate Attack Upon His Death Watch in the San Rafael Jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—An opinion affecting the sale of jute bags manufactured in the State Prison was to-day addressed by Oregon States, Second Deputy Attorney-General, to Charles Sennett, of the Board of Prison Directors. It holds that the Ostrom Act is void, and that the Prison Directors can dispose of the bags on hand in such a manner as to meet the demands of the farmers and all other consumers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The arguments in the Curtis murder trial were finished this morning and the case was given to the jury at noon. The jury returned their verdict at 3 o'clock this afternoon of acquittal. The jury on this first ballot voted nine to three for acquittal. This is the third trial of Curtis, the jury in the first two trials disagreeing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The arguments in the Curtis murder trial were finished this morning and the case was given to the jury at noon. The jury returned their verdict at 3 o'clock this afternoon of acquittal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The arguments in the Curtis murder trial were finished this morning and the case was given to the jury at noon. The jury returned their verdict at 3 o'clock this afternoon of acquittal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The arguments in the Curtis murder trial were finished this morning and the case was given to the jury at noon. The jury returned their verdict at 3 o'clock this afternoon of acquittal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The arguments in the Curtis murder trial were finished this morning and the case was given to the jury at noon. The jury returned their verdict at 3 o'clock this afternoon of acquittal.

THE STORM ON THE ATLANTIC.

A Tug Loses Seven Scows, Each Containing One Man.

FIVE OF THE CREW OF A FISHING SMACK DROWNED.

The Financial Affairs of the World's Columbian Exposition at Present in a Favorable Condition, Indications Pointing to a Marked Success in a Money Point of View—Fred Douglass Scores the Management for Slighting the Colored People.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden. The schooner, he says, went down yesterday morning off the Highlands, and he drifted about on a spar until picked up.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

THE STORM ON THE ATLANTIC.

A Tug Loses Seven Scows, Each Containing One Man.

FIVE OF THE CREW OF A FISHING SMACK DROWNED.

The Financial Affairs of the World's Columbian Exposition at Present in a Favorable Condition, Indications Pointing to a Marked Success in a Money Point of View—Fred Douglass Scores the Management for Slighting the Colored People.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A pilot-boat arriving this afternoon brought Henry Suza, a Portuguese seaman, the only survivor of a crew of five of the schooner Narragansett, Captain Chase, bound from Philadelphia to Wareham, Mass., coal laden.

REVOLT IN MEXICO.

Battle Between the Cardenas and Galan Factions in Coahuila.

BOTH SIDES LOSE HEAVILY IN KILLED AND WOUNDED.

The French Demand the Dismissal of All Danish Officers From the Siamese Army, Which is Said to be Equivalent to Its Disorganization—Anti-French Riots Continue in Italy—Twenty-Four Places in Austro-Hungary Infected With Cholera.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon. The Galan men fell into the trap and were exposed to a deadly fire from hidden foes on every side. They hoisted a white flag and surrendered. About thirty of Cardenas' men were killed, while their opponents lost fifty killed and wounded.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

REVOLT IN MEXICO.

Battle Between the Cardenas and Galan Factions in Coahuila.

BOTH SIDES LOSE HEAVILY IN KILLED AND WOUNDED.

The French Demand the Dismissal of All Danish Officers From the Siamese Army, Which is Said to be Equivalent to Its Disorganization—Anti-French Riots Continue in Italy—Twenty-Four Places in Austro-Hungary Infected With Cholera.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25.—A special from Eagle Pass to the News says: A startling report comes from Monolova this morning of a fight between the two factions in Coahuila. The news as received here is that Cardenas' men seeing a party of Galan men approaching near Nadorado, twenty-five miles from Monolova, took a commanding position in a canyon.