

THAT RAID ON GINSBERG.

Several Persons Charged With Resisting Officers.

Justice Henry Engaged in Investigating the Case—Testimony Taken Yesterday.

The charges of resisting officers, which were placed against Max and Jacob Ginsberg, M. Litzberg, Mrs. Ida Blum and Mrs. Blumberg, were heard before Justice Henry yesterday.

The trouble arose about 1 o'clock on the 25th inst., when Under Sheriff Rooney and Deputy Sheriffs Johnson and Hendricks raided Max Ginsberg's place in search of a Chinese lottery.

The court room was crowded with spectators and much interest was shown in the trial.

Deputy Sheriff Johnson testified that they went into the store of Max Ginsberg; that they wanted to get into the back room.

He said he would let them in, but made considerable delay in opening two doors. They finally got in, and in the furthest back room was a Chinaman and a white man.

Some tickets were on the table and some on the floor. They had a sledge to break in the door if necessary.

They found in the back room a box of anything of the kind. There were some loose pieces of paper with marks on and bits of ink. They were tickets and duplicate tickets.

He did not know whether they were tickets for that day's drawing or for some other drawing. He did not think that the lottery was drawn there, but was satisfied that the tickets were kept there.

He found a white man and a Chinaman in the back room. After he found the tickets he placed Ginsberg under arrest.

He did not remember seeing Mr. Litzberg there. When he came out into the front room, Jake Ginsberg said: "You can't take my brother up without a warrant."

Witness asked Max if he would go with him without resistance, and Max refused, and witness told him he would take him anyhow.

He did not put handcuffs on Max until after the row commenced, and did not squeeze the handcuffs tight. Jake grabbed witness by the shoulder and the ladies came to his assistance and held witness.

Witness was striking down when he first spoke to him about the warrant. He had arrested them there before for selling lottery tickets. He tried to make the arrest because he found tickets there.

When the scramble commenced and he was putting handcuffs on Max or the others jumped on him. His forehead was badly cut, but he did not know how or by whom, as he was too busy to take notice.

Deputy Sheriff Hendricks corroborated Johnson in his testimony and described the beginning of the scuffle. The two Ginsbergs and the ladies were concerned in it.

Witness did not see Litzberg at the beginning. He was striking down when they were all in a heap behind the counter. He did not see any tickets sold.

He had seen a Chinese lottery drawn and described the same. Witness picked up tickets and put them in a box, but in the scuffle they were lost, with a registry book. One ticket was partly marked.

William De Sano testified that he was coming up street in front of Ginsberg's store and saw some lottery tickets and pens lying on the floor, and the scuffle going on. He stopped to see it, and Max went around behind the counter.

Johnson followed; Jake Ginsberg followed Johnson and caught him by the shoulder. They were talking, and the ladies came and helped Ginsberg. One of the ladies had what witness took to be a small hatchet, but he did not see her attempt to use it.

Litzberg and the ladies tried to take the sledge hammer away from Under Sheriff Rooney.

Joseph Stack was with De Sano at the time, and corroborated his testimony. He saw Max strike Johnson.

Frank Welch testified that he was in Ginsberg's store on the afternoon in question, and was in the back room. He was going for the purpose of buying a Chinese lottery ticket. It was the first time he had ever been in the back room, and not finding anyone in front, he went through the door and found a Chinaman there.

He asked the Chinaman what was the matter, and he answered that "policeman come." Witness started to go out, but the deputies came in before he got out. The back door was opened and Rooney came in. Witness did not see any lottery tickets at all when he went in. He saw some pieces of paper in the officers' hands, but did not see what they were.

He started to go home but was not allowed to, as Hendricks stood in the door, but after a while he saw an opportunity and got out.

A. W. Lebaso testified for the defense. He was in the store when the officers came in. He went in to see what was the matter, and answered that the officers were in back. When the officers came in, he saw a Chinaman and a white man in the back room.

He was going to arrest him for selling lottery tickets, and he said he could not arrest him without a warrant, and Johnson said he would. When Johnson asked for a warrant, Max Jake put his hand on Johnson's shoulder and Johnson knocked him flat on the floor.

He had bought some Chinese lottery tickets there at previous times. He did not see any lottery tickets or any box with them on the counter. He did not see anything in the officers' hands. He was positive Johnson struck him, and he did not see Jake strike him.

When the ladies rushed in to help and the scuffle began he thought it was time to get out. He saw a Chinaman and a white man in the back room, and he heard a show-case break he supposed he had cut it with the glass.

D. Enright heard a racket and saw Johnson come from back with a sledge in his hand. Ginsberg said something to him and Johnson knocked him down. He was positive that Johnson struck him first blow. There was a general scramble. Witness did not know who Johnson was and put his hand on his shoulder and asked him what he was doing there and to let go of him. Ginsberg said he would not go without a warrant. Johnson struck Ginsberg in the face with his hand in the last twenty years in the matter of locomotive building.

The Huntington looks like a baby-engine alongside the leviathan ten-wheeler.

The exhibit will also include one of the pioneer passenger coaches in use on the Poisson Railroad, a modern parlor coach, an old box-car (No. 1) of ten tons capacity and a furniture freight car of modern construction, numbered 60,093, with a capacity of thirty tons.

Tapped the Hill. Yesterday afternoon, while S. Rosenfeld was temporarily absent from behind the counter of his cigar store on J street, his money-drawer—which has no alarm-bell attachment—was touched off by a sneak thief, who captured $30 and made his escape.

Highest Award Medal and three diplomas have been given the New York Condensed Milk Company for the superiority of its Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk, Borden's Extract of Coffee and Unswweetened Condensed Milk, exhibited at the World's Columbian Exposition.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC—I will continue to sell the remainder of my clothing, hats, etc., until the 1st of February at auction prices. Charles Robin, 612 and 614 K street.

CARB.—Allee Brown and Mamie Haley would be pleased to see their friends at their new dressmaking parlors, 521 J street, between Fifth and Sixth, up stairs.

HAVE YOU ANY STOCK?

New Departure in the Collection of Assessments.

People Will Hereafter be Very Careful About Subscribing for Stock.

Quite a large number of Sacramentans are now being educated in the matter of the responsibility of stockholders in mining and other corporations, in a manner which will make it very difficult to float stock here for some time to come.

Heretofore, those who purchased mining stocks have felt that they could hold the stock and pay assessments on it until they were tired of it, and then, by refusing to pay an assessment, could allow the stock to be sold for the assessment and escape further liability. But the lawyers have found a way to force a man to pay an assessment without letting him out of the corporation by selling his stock.

It is an unusual case, and one people should study it up before investing in stocks or corporations.

Some four years ago quite a large amount of the stock of the Carizel del Norte Mining Company was sold in this city, and the purchasers soon discovered that the stock was worthless, as the parties issuing it had no legal title to the mine. A number of persons who had purchased this stock, however, did get possession of the mine, and organized a company called the "Sacramento Mexican Mining Company" and sold a very large number of shares of the stock, after adding to the list of stockholders the company two or three other mines in the same vicinity.

The company was composed of good men, and the stockholders elected a Board of Directors who were good men. The stockholders had the utmost confidence in the management, and no man could think of any way in which he could be "done up."

The stock of this company was paid for by monthly assessments, the money thus collected being used to develop the mine, which is located in the State of California, and many of the stockholders looked forward to being millionaires some day, and were not to be deterred. Finally all hands became impatient to know just what the real condition of the mine was, and a proposition was made by the Board of Directors to stockholders to send a mining expert to Mexico and get a report on the mine. Some favored the plan and others did not care for it, and the matter was referred to the directors, who decided to levy an assessment of two cents a share, and did so on the 25th of April, 1883.

Those who had no faith in the mine came up promptly and paid the assessment, while those who had enough of it did not pay, expecting, of course, that the delinquency would be overlooked. The stock sold, as is usually done in such cases. But the directors never attempted to collect the assessment by selling the stock and letting the money go to the return of the expert, who reported that the mine would not pay for the working.

Now comes "the little joker." Within the past few days the stockholders as had not paid the assessment received the following notice from a firm of attorneys:

"We have been instructed by the directors of the Sacramento Mexican Mining Company to demand payment of the amount of the delinquent assessment of two cents per share of the stock of the company held by you, which assessment was levied by the directors April 25, 1883, and to inform you that unless the same be paid to the Secretary of the corporation by February 1st next, we shall commence proceedings against you to recover the amount of such assessment together with the costs and expenses already incurred."

This was naturally a startling proposition on its face, for no stock had ever been advertised for sale or sold, but it is nothing compared to another feature which does not appear on the face of the notice.

Every man who purchases stock in a corporation is supposed to know that he is individually liable for his proportion of the debts of the corporation incurred while he is a stockholder, and it develops the fact that the money to be raised by the forced collection of this assessment is not to be used entirely to pay the debts of the corporation, but to pay back a percentage to those who willingly paid the assessment at the time it was levied, because they had no faith in the mine. The delinquent only amount to a very few hundred dollars. The directors are now collecting only one and one-quarter cents per share in the full two cents when the assessment was levied. This is where the novelty of the thing comes in.

One of the delinquent stockholders said yesterday that this is an entirely new style of transaction to me. I was one of those who had no faith in the mine at the time the assessment was levied, and I was strongly opposed to it, and made up my mind to allow the mine to be sold as delinquent and thus get out of the whole business. I thought I knew something about the mode of procedure in such cases, but I did not know that people will have to educate themselves a little more in these matters.

"Mind you, I don't dispute the fact that the money for my share of the debt of the corporation, but I can't understand how the law can compel me to pay money back to another stockholder who paid an assessment. I may be so, but probably is, but it is news to me and will be to many another man who holds stock in corporations.

"I think the minority in corporations have rights as well as the majority, and they ought to be protected by law. These people who paid the two cents were in the majority, and they are doing it wrong. They were ready to bet that much more on the mine. I was not and did not bet. They bet and lost, and now come and make me pay a portion of the money they insisted on risking.

"Well, it's all right. I am going up to pay this assessment, as I don't want any of the money that I earned another lesson and won't forget it."

HIT WITH A HOE An Italian Gardener Assaulted and Robbed. Last night an Italian, who gave his name as Jim Garibaldi, appeared at the police station for a warrant for the arrest of Antonio Guisti, who he said had assaulted him with a hoe and inflicted a severe wound upon his head.

The parties reside outside the city, near the County Hospital. Garibaldi is a gardener, or part owner of the vegetable gardens in that vicinity, and Guisti is a neighbor. The injured man is now at Guisti's place to see him about something, and that the latter attacked him without provocation, being assisted in the assault by several companions. He was referred to Township Justice Henry for the desired warrant, the alleged assault having occurred outside the city.

TO REGISTER CHINESE. T. P. Ford Appointed by collector Byington for That Purpose. Thomas P. Ford has been appointed by Internal Revenue Collector Byington to assist in the registration of Chinese, and will enter upon his duties to-day, proceeding to-day to Lincoln and going thence to Auburn, Colfax, Iowa Hill, Michigan Bluffs and other places in pursuance of that object.

He had previously been named as Chief Deputy to Collector Stairley, Mr. Byington's successor, but as that gentleman will not take office for a week or ten days yet, and there is urgent work to be done in the matter of registering Chinese, Mr. Byington has named Ford for that duty.

LUCCI, THE MURDERER.

A Man Who Looks Like Him Under Arrest in Davisville.

A telephone message was received at the Police Station last night to the effect that a man had just been arrested there on suspicion of being the murderer of the murderer of Rafael Laroco.

The person sending the message could not give a description of the suspect that was quite satisfactory at the Police Station, but the prisoner will be held until to-day for identification.

A NEW BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN.

Can the Contractor Not Put One in His Machine?

K street is supposed to be swept clean three times a week, according to the contract, but the contractor, who has the sweeping machine is apparently worn out, and simply scratches up the dirt and scatters it for the wind to dispose of at leisure. The machine should be renovated or the street Commissioner take charge of the sweeping.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

ENS. RECORD-UNION: Will you kindly give an opinion as to the merits of the following cases: An obligee A gives a note to B for $50, supposing it to draw 1 per cent interest, while in reality it is made to draw 1 1/2 per cent. B collects interest on said note at 1 1/2 per cent, giving receipt in full for same. At the expiration of that time A takes up the note. B then puts in a claim for an additional 50 of interest, and obligee A claims between the 1 per cent, which he had collected and given a receipt in full of all interest for, and the 1 1/2 per cent, which he himself supposed that the lower rate was all the note called for until he came to examine it. A refuses to pay the 1/2 per cent, and obligee A claims that he is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Unquestionably A is right. A note rendered and a receipt of payment in full would be difficult to overcome. However, even a note and a receipt may be explained on the face of their face record in the interests of justice. But A discharged the intent of the debt as understood by himself and creditor, just justice and moral right are with him.

Changed Daily for Weinstein, Lubin & Co.

SPECIAL SALE OF WHEEL GOODS ENAMELED WARE

FROM THE FISHER STOCK. ALSO OF TO-MORROW AT 9:30 A. M.

Of Standard Quality and in Perfect Condition, for Kitchen Use.

Wooden Toy Wagons, 28c and 48c each. Large Two-wheeled Dog or Goat Carts, $1 95 each. Wooden Toy Carts, 12c each. Heavy Tinned Iron Basting Spoons, 3c each.

Teapots according to sizes. Special prices, 49c, 55c, 64c and 72c. Coffee Pots according to sizes. Prices, 68c, 77c, 87c and 98c. Teakettles, 98c, $1 17 and $1 88. Deep Dishpans, from 8 to 17 quarts. Prices, 68c, 78c, 98c, $1 08, $1 22.

Washbasins, 29c each. Lipped Saucepans. Prices, 25c, 32c, 37c and 44c. Berlin Saucepans, with covers. Prices, 46c, 59c, 72c and 83c. Berlin Kettles, with covers. Prices, 62c, 75c, 87c.

Preserving Kettles, 37c, 44c, 49c, 56c. Water Pails. Prices, 78c, 87c and $1 02. Pudding Pans, extra deep. Prices, 19c, 23c, 25c and 29c. Milk Pans. Prices, 19c, 23c, 27c, 32c, 37c.

Funnels. Prices, 22c and 32c. Deep-lipped Frying Pans. Prices, 32c, 36c and 42c. Drinking Cups. Prices, 13c and 14c.

Also, a few more of the Wood Salad Sets, fork and spoon, same as sold a few days ago. Price, 8c a set.

Washbasins, 29c each. Lipped Saucepans. Prices, 25c, 32c, 37c and 44c. Berlin Saucepans, with covers. Prices, 46c, 59c, 72c and 83c. Berlin Kettles, with covers. Prices, 62c, 75c, 87c.

Preserving Kettles, 37c, 44c, 49c, 56c. Water Pails. Prices, 78c, 87c and $1 02. Pudding Pans, extra deep. Prices, 19c, 23c, 25c and 29c. Milk Pans. Prices, 19c, 23c, 27c, 32c, 37c.

Funnels. Prices, 22c and 32c. Deep-lipped Frying Pans. Prices, 32c, 36c and 42c. Drinking Cups. Prices, 13c and 14c.

Also, a few more of the Wood Salad Sets, fork and spoon, same as sold a few days ago. Price, 8c a set.

WEINSTOCK, LUBIN & CO.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PAPER PATTERNS, 400 TO 412 K STREET, SACRAMENTO.

Rawhide Chair. Wood Seat Chair. PRICE, 75 CENTS. PRICE, 50 CENTS.

Handsome Bedroom Suits, 7 pieces. Price, $22 50.

JOHN BREUNER, FURNITURE AND CARPETS, SACRAMENTO, CAL.

THE GREAT AND GROWING PRODUCE AND GROCERY HOUSE. We are constantly endeavoring to increase our business, enlarge our sales, decrease our prices and lead in every instance. WILL SELL TO-DAY:

20 pounds French Prunes.....for $1
22 pounds Choice Rice.....for $1
25 pounds Tapioca.....for $1
22 pounds New Zealand Currants.....for $1
Choice Eastern Sugar-cured Hams.....for 18c
Choice Eastern Sugar-cured Bacon.....for 18c

THE ABOVE IS FOR FIRST-CLASS GOODS ONLY. BELIEVE US, NEW! NEW! WITH US EVERY ARTICLE IS WITH US EVERY ARTICLE IS NEW! NEW!

GROCERIES! POSTOFFICE REMOVAL.

BEFORE PURCHASING YOUR EGGS AND ACCESSORIES, do not forget that EMMANN'S carries a line of delicacies at his regular prices. The list includes:

ORANGES, APPLES, NUTS. Of every variety, CANDY, and ALL THE INGREDIENTS FOR MEAT MEAT. Also, all kinds of VEGETABLES and a most complete line of GROCERIES.

EMMANN'S GROCERIES. SEE OUR PRICES.

BEFORE PURCHASING YOUR EGGS AND ACCESSORIES, do not forget that EMMANN'S carries a line of delicacies at his regular prices. The list includes:

ORANGES, APPLES, NUTS. Of every variety, CANDY, and ALL THE INGREDIENTS FOR MEAT MEAT. Also, all kinds of VEGETABLES and a most complete line of GROCERIES.

EMMANN'S GROCERIES. SEE OUR PRICES.

BEFORE PURCHASING YOUR EGGS AND ACCESSORIES, do not forget that EMMANN'S carries a line of delicacies at his regular prices. The list includes:

ORANGES, APPLES, NUTS