

STARBUID DIES OF HIS WOUNDS.

He Denied Complicity in the Jackson Robbery,

And Says Hall Shot First—His and Hall's Pistols Recovered, Also That of Perkins.

John T. Starbird, the man who was shot by G. C. Hall on Wednesday night in his own house on Seventh street, near E—, has given a full account of what occurred and the circumstances leading thereto was published in the RECORD-UNION yesterday morning—died at the Receiving Hospital about 1 o'clock yesterday.

Several hours before his death he made the following statement in the presence of Jailer McManus, James G. Davis, City Attorney Brown, W. L. Talbot, W. T. Waters and H. E. Greer:

"All I know about this affair is that George Hall wanted me to go with him to find this fellow. We could not find him. We had a couple of beers. I called him a stool-pigeon and a —. We both pulled our pistols and fired. I was too drunk and got the worst of it. We clinched before he shot me. My pistol stuck in my neck. He fired at me. He got a pair of beer, and I got my pistol in the parlor when he was after the beer. I have no use for a stool-pigeon. I was not much acquainted with Hall. I met him in the saloon at Seventh and E streets."

"I do not know anything about the Jackson affair.

"I was on the police force in San Francisco just two years; was appointed February 19, 1891. I was broke on account of drinking.

"Hall fired the first shot.

"I have a wife and five children. My name is John Starbird. I was born in Somerset County, Maine, and 28 years of age. I do not want a priest or minister; I belong to no religion. I have a brother in San Francisco."

"There have been no very important developments in the case calculated to throw new light upon it. A brother of Starbird's came up from San Francisco last night in response to a telegram announcing his brother's death. He is a very quiet, gentlemanly person, and said he could not comprehend how his brother could have got mixed up in any crooked affair.

"He inquired about the particulars of the affair, and as to the condition of Hall and whether or not any charge had been made against him.

"A search of Starbird's house yesterday resulted in the recovery of his pistol behind a bed in the room where the shooting between him and Hall was concluded. It had four expended and one unexpended cartridge in the chamber, the remaining one having an indentation in the cap, showing that it had been fired.

"Hall's pistol was also found in the rear of the house, where he fell in his flight after the shooting. It had one entire cartridge and two expended ones, which tallies with a statement made by him on Wednesday night. The weapon belongs to George Phinney, proprietor of the saloon at Seventh and E streets, who had lent it to him when he started off with Starbird in the evening to try and find Perkins.

"A search of the latter's room yesterday also brought to light a nickel-plated pistol, such as W. F. Jackson says was used by one of the footpads who stood him up on Monday night. It was loaded with 38-caliber cartridges, similar to one found in his pocket when he was searched after his arrest. About a dozen cartridges of the same kind were found in his room.

"Hall admits that he was slightly acquainted with Starbird, but says he knew him only as 'Jack.' He also admits having been in his company on Wednesday.

"There is a gentleman in the city who says he has known Perkins a long time, and that his name is not Oliver, but Charles, and that his Eastern record is bad.

MILITARY NOTES

Shooting for the Regimental Trophy—Some Recent Promotions.

Colonel J. W. Guthrie, commanding the Second Regiment of Infantry, N. G. C., has in pursuance of brigade orders, ordered Companies A, B and G to assemble at the armory on Thursday morning, February 23d, at 10 o'clock, to participate in the dedication ceremonies of the new government building.

Companies A, E and G, Field Staff, non-commissioned staff and band have been ordered to assemble at the armory on Monday evening, February 19th, for battalion drill.

The examining board for non-commissioned officers for 1894 will be composed of the following officers: Captain A. J. Lloyd, Company A; Lieutenant A. E. Stearns, Company G, and Lieutenant J. D. Schoonmaker, Company E.

The next regimental trophy shoot will take place at the range on March 4th.

The following promotions are announced: Company A—Privates R. Enright and M. Greenfield to be Sergeants; Privates J. P. Schmitt, M. Enright, W. J. Myer to be Corporals; Company E—Privates J. W. Schneider and B. E. Nutting to be Corporals.

The following discharges are also announced: Company A—Private J. Wall, Company C—Private E. J. Jones, George Fleming, W. H. Kingdon, Wm. La Bore, Tyler Lockwood and Earle T. Smith.

The members of Companies A and E are preparing themselves for the next shoot to take place at the range next Sunday, and each company is confident of out shooting the other.

CALLINAN'S SHOVEL

A Witness Says He Saw It Descend on Lynch's Head.

The prosecution closed its testimony early yesterday afternoon in the case of Thomas Callinan, charged with the murder of John Lynch, in Judge Johnson's court.

The testimony was substantially the same as taken at the preliminary examination and also at the former trial. It consisted of the evidence of Mrs. Mealand and City Physician C. B. Nichols, who attended Lynch, and of several persons who saw the difficulty resulting in the blow which it is claimed caused Lynch's death.

Water Toomey, a teamster, testified that he heard a dispute between Callinan and Lynch over the question as to which should spread a load of earth on the street where they were working, and heard Lynch call Callinan a liar. He did not see Callinan strike Lynch with a shovel.

George Suler, another teamster, heard Lynch apply opprobrious epithets to Callinan, and saw the latter hit Lynch with his shovel and knock him down. He helped Callinan carry the injured man to Kivett's barn near by.

Some other testimony of a similar character was taken. Shortly after 2 p. m. the prosecution rested and Charles E. Jones made his opening statement to the jury.

The case will probably be concluded to-day.

AT IT AGAIN

Several Valuable Dogs Poisoned—An Indignant Declarer.

The dog-poisoners have begun their work again, and a number of valuable animals have been poisoned in the neighborhood of Capitol Park this week.

The Capitol Commissioners have had painted signs forbidding the introduction of dogs into the park, as they run over and destroy the young plants in the beds. For this reason, perhaps, a rumor has been started that the park employes have done the poisoning. This is indignantly denied by them, as they say that not only they have no disposition to degrade themselves by doing such cruel work, but they do not wish to defy the law by committing a felony, dog-poisoning being classed as such, and rightfully rendering anyone caught at it liable to imprisonment in the State's prison.

MAX GINSBERG'S CASE

The Jury Disagrees—No Testimony for the Defense.

The trial of Max Ginsberg for selling a lottery ticket took place yesterday afternoon in the Police Court, a venire of twenty-four having been summoned.

Hallif Hardy had taken especial pains to summon a good representative jury, which was composed mostly of the heads of prominent business houses in the city. No evidence was introduced by the defendant.

They stood nine to three in favor of conviction. When the foreman of the jury stated that they were unable to agree, Justice Devine said:

"Gentlemen of the jury, according to the evidence in the case I cannot see how the jury could disagree. The case was a plain one, and the jury should not have experienced any trouble whatever in arriving at a verdict. However, a venire is obliged to you for sitting in the case. You are discharged."

City Attorney Brown is determined to push the case to a conclusion, and says he will try it ten times, if necessary.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Congregational Church on Wednesday evening next, the 14th inst., Miss Anna K. Selkirk will give a concert and entertainment. Miss Selkirk is a California girl of fine musical ability.

The RECORD-UNION warmly commended her as a contralto vocalist when she sang here with the Glee Club of the University of California, though then she was the victim of sudden indisposition, and did not do herself full justice. She will be assisted on this occasion by Miss Josephine Shaw of San Francisco, an eloquent and high dramatic talent that she is by all critics termed a genius. She first attracted attention in exercises of the San Francisco High School, and soon became widely known as a wonderfully gifted singer. She will recite in Sacramento, among other selections, Mr. Phelps' admired production, "One of the Elect." Jewish elements of the University Glee Club, a violinist of rapid and fine musical character, will be of the support. Mr. Clement has played here twice in concert with great success. The tenor of the support is Gilbert Graham of the University of California, who has a rich and admirably trained voice, and has twice sung here, winning many friends. Theo. Martens of this city, the accomplished musician, will be the pianist of the evening. The programme will include violin solo "Sixth Air Variet" (De Beriot), Mr. Clement, tenor solo by Mr. Mahan; contralto solo by Miss Selkirk; duet, Mr. Graham and Miss Selkirk; "Chanson Polonoise" (Wagner), Mr. Clement; contralto solo by Miss Selkirk, with violin obligato by Mr. Clement; dramatic readings by Miss Shaw.

At the Clunie Opera-house this evening the comedy drama "An American Princess" will be played. It will be the last night but two of the play, in which the stock company has full opportunity to demonstrate its versatile ability.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

John McFarland of Gail is in the city. C. L. Wilson came down from Lincoln yesterday.

Mrs. L. F. Moulton of Colusa is a guest at the Capital Hotel.

W. A. Selkirk, the Petaluma journalist, is at the Capital Hotel.

H. S. Spaulding of Grass Valley is at the Golden Eagle Hotel.

Assemblyman Eben Owen of Franklin was in the city yesterday.

Governor Markham left the city yesterday for his home in Pasadena.

Railroad Commissioner J. M. Rea of San Jose is stopping at the Golden Eagle.

Mrs. Edgar S. Campbell of Portland, Or., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Dray.

Miss Deming has gone to Santa Barbara in company with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crocker of San Francisco, where they will spend the Lenten season.

Arrivals at the Capital Hotel yesterday: S. W. Briggs, Chicago; John McFarland, Galt; C. L. Wilson, Lincoln; R. T. Heath, St. Louis; W. A. Selkirk, Petaluma; George J. Tucker, Princeton; J. E. Moulton, Colusa; J. W. Wachen and wife, San Jose; S. Dejaliet, Woodland; J. K. Cole-riek, Murrieta; D. H. Birdsell, J. Sullivan, San Francisco.

Arrivals at the Golden Eagle Hotel yesterday: Miller Hall, C. A. Ligare, H. S. Greene, Chicago; L. F. J. Winkie, Keeler; C. F. Hughes, Dubuque, Ia.; S. Asheim, St. Louis; E. H. Meek, Milwaukee; H. S. Spaulding, Grass Valley; H. D. Holway, Philadelphia; J. E. Camp, Perkins; S. W. Scott, L. Goldman, M. Junk, New York; S. Morgan Smith, York, Pa.; M. Dinkelspiel, Sunset City; James M. Rea, Mrs. George F. Williams, San Jose; E. C. Dray, C. A. Burns, A. G. Smith, Irving Lockwood, John C. Inman, B. C. Rucker, John D. Baumann, W. M. Willett and wife, T. W. Armstrong, San Francisco.

Miss Nora Hyland was given a very pleasant surprise party on Monday evening at the residence of her brother-in-law, Alexander Dunbar. During the evening, which was delightfully spent in singing, games and dancing, a mock marriage was performed, after which the blessing was pronounced on the happy pair. All sat down to a bounteous repast. Toasts were given by Messrs. Brannan and McCormack. After wishing the guests adieu at a late hour, the party dispersed. The guests were: Nora Hyland, Iose White, Emma Laufkotter, Mamie Costello, Lamma L'Oakter, Kittle Kelly, Mary Waters, Lettie O'Brien, Sadie Waters, John McCreaney, Andy Brauman, Will McCormack, Will Keip, A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dunbar, Mrs. Waters and Master Rob Dunbar.

Sale of the Baths.

All the property of the Sacramento Swimming Bath Association, at Twenty-first and O streets, was sold at auction yesterday, under the provisions of a trust deed, to pay the claim of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank. George O. Bates was the bidder, and the bank reported to bid $8,746.25, the full amount of its claim, and secured the property.

Civil Service Examinations.

The regular semi-annual civil service examination for Postoffice clerks and carriers will take place at Moynahan's Business College, 313 R street, to-morrow, the 10th, at 10 o'clock a. m.

In a Bad Fix.

An elderly man who has made a livelihood by peddling lines was taken to the Receiving Hospital last night suffering from an aggravated attack of asthma.

snowing on the Hill.

Conductor Pearson of the Colfax local train stated yesterday afternoon that snow fell in the morning as far down as Colfax, but melted as fast as it fell.

Has Much to Answer For.

Justice Henry last evening performed the four-hundredth marriage since he became a magistrate. May the Lord have mercy on him.

Fraternal Visit.

A number of the Grand Officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West will pay a fraternal visit to Sacramento Parlor this evening.

Work of a Sneak Thief.

Last evening a coat, vest and $10.25 in silver were stolen from a Chinese employe of the State House.

When you feel a general lassitude and breaking down of the system, Angostura Bitters will work a wonderful change. Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons, manufacturers. At all druggists.

CLEAR WATER WELLS INSPECTED.

The Water Committee of the City Trustees Visit Them.

Unfavorable Weather Delayed Arrangements and Prevented a Satisfactory Test.

The Water Committee of the City Board of Trustees, consisting of Trustees Davis, Bragg and Kent, accompanied by Trustee Devine, a RECORD-UNION reporter and several others, went out to inspect the wells on the Strong & Williamson tract, where it is proposed to erect the pumping plant with which to supply the city.

The day was not a favorable one, as Jupiter Pluvius had taken the weather in hand and filled the air with raindrops. It had been expected by J. R. Edson, who represents the contractors, to start the pump early in the morning and do a half day's pumping before the visitors arrived. The rain of yesterday and the day before, however, defeated such calculations. The thrashing engine which was to do the pumping got mired down before it reached the well and it took twelve hours of digging and lifting to get it out of the slough of despond. In consequence the pump had only been started about fifteen minutes when the visitors arrived, and as the recent rains have caved the dirt in around the wells, it looked as if a branch of the Sacramento River had got lost and cropped out on the plains.

A stream of muddy water was pouring out of the flume and one of the Trustees remarked, "I don't see much difference between this and the river water."

In the course of a half hour, however, it had almost cleared itself and samples were caught in bottles by the committee and brought back to be sent down for analysis. Of course this can hardly be considered a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

It is suggested that the trustees should consider a fair test, as there must have been, in addition to the sand and earth in the water, more or less organic matter washed into the wells by the rains.

Changed Daily for Weinstock, Lubin & Co.

This Friday Evening.

A SPECIAL EVENT.

SALE OF CHARLES ROBIN'S STOCK.

We have purchased from Charles Robin, merchant of this city, his entire stock of goods, comprising Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc., valued at $8,000. We paid cash for the same at the rate of 41 Cents on the Dollar.

We intend to dispose of this stock at a special sale on FRIDAY NIGHT. This will be on railroad pay day and will give everyone a chance to examine the stock.

The idea in having this one sale in the evening is to dispose of the large stock quickly and without interfering with our regular business. Our stores will close on Friday evening at 6 o'clock, as usual, reopening for this sale at 7:30 P. M.

The four events for the evening will be as follows:

FIRST SALE AT 7:30 P. M.—Forty patterns in Medium and Light-colored Flannelette, 6 1/4 yard, or 10 yards for $1. Brown Muslin, good quality, 30 inches wide, 4c a yard. Checked Gingham, in good styles, 4c a yard. Bleached Muslin, free from filling, soft for the needle, 30 inches wide, 5c a yard. Bleached Twilled Toweling, red borders, fine enough for glass, roller or hand towels, 11c a yard. The Dry Goods in this sale are not from the Robin stock.

SECOND SALE AT 8 P. M.—Men's Suits sold by Charles Robin at $10 to $27.50 will be divided into three grades and prices affixed as follows: Grade A, $4.35 a suit; Grade B, $6.85 a suit; Grade C, $9.65 a suit. Trousers sold by Mr. Robin at $3 to $10 will be divided into two grades: Grade A, $1.50 a pair; Grade B, $2.50 a pair. In grade B will be some fine worsteds and cassimeres.

The above suits are in the usual sizes for men (33 to 42 inches chest) and in sack and frock styles. In addition are many suits for extra-large men (up to 48 inches chest), which we will put in at the same prices as the others. All clothing in this sale will be pressed and fitted carefully where required. We will also put in this sale some odds and ends in Boys' Suits and Overcoats.

Mixed lot of Overcoats and Ulsters for men and boys. Desirable garments, and sold by Mr. Robin at $10 to $25. Our sale prices will be $5 and $8.15.

THIRD SALE AT 8:30 P. M.—Every Stiff Hat in the Robin stock will be in this sale. Good qualities and styles, suitable for young, middle-aged and old men. Sale prices for Colored Felts, 20c and 48c each; Black Felt Hats, 68c and $1.

FOURTH SALE AT 9 P. M.—Men's Tan Underwear in medium weight, good quality, at 69c per garment. Men's Large Linen Handkerchiefs, white. Price, 6c.

Various short lines of goods, such as Blue Demin Jumpers, 33c; Checked Gingham Jumpers, 25c; Blue and Red Flannel Underwear, 78c per garment; Laundry White Shirts at 69c; Linen Collars at 4c each; Ticking Aprons at 11c.

Agents for Standard Paper Patterns, 400 to 412 K Street, Sacramento.

WE ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR LINOLEUMS AND FLOOR OILCLOTHS.

We purchase these goods in carloads direct from the manufacturers. Probably the goods you have been using do not give perfect satisfaction. Just for comparison try ours. If you live out of town, write for samples and prices.

JOHN BREUNER, FURNITURE, CARPETS, DRAPERIES, 604, 606, 608 K Street, Sacramento, Cal.

OUR FISH STALL

Will contain the very choicest and best Fresh and Salt Water Fish of all kinds

OUR FISH STALL

Market of New Sacramento, 703 to 707 J STREET.

CHRISTIANSON & CO. DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.

THE COPARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between DAVIS & MCKEE has been dissolved by mutual consent.

WILLIAM R. DAVIS, HOMER MCKEE.

NOTICE OF COPARTNERSHIP.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned have this day formed a copartnership, under the firm name and style of JONES & DAVIS, for the purpose of conducting a Fish Market in the city of Sacramento.

WILLIAM R. JONES, WILLIAM B. DAVIS, Sacramento, Jan. 25, 1894. 1a23-1d

MESMIN'S FRENCH FEMALE PILLS. Containing Cotton Root and Pennyroyal.

THE LADIES' FRIEND. The best and most reliable Female remedy in the world.

W. B. HAMILTON, Proprietor. Female Pills, have been sold for over twenty years, and used by thousands of ladies, who have given testimonials that they are unexcelled, as a specific monthly medicine, for immediate relief of Painful and Irregular Menstruation. Price: $2.00 a box, with full directions.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTES, OR SPURIOUS IMITATIONS. MESMIN CHEMICAL CO., DETROIT, MICH. JOS. HAHN & CO., Fifth and J sts Agents.

CROSSMAN'S SPECIFIC MIXTURE. WITH THIS REMEDY PERSONS CAN cure themselves without the least exposure, change of diet, or change in application to business. The medicine contains nothing that is of the least injury to the constitution. Ask your druggist for it. Price, $1 a bottle.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT, STATE OF California, County of Sacramento.

In the matter of the estate of MICHAEL DENZER, deceased. Notice is hereby given that FRIDAY, the 16th day of February, 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, and the courtroom of said court, at the Court House, in the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, and State of California, has been appointed as the time and place for proving the will of said Michael Denzer, deceased, and for hearing the application of Philip Siebenhaller, Sr., for the issuance to him of letters testamentary thereon.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this 5th day of February, 1894.

W. B. HAMILTON, Clerk. By E. S. WACHOSER, Deputy Clerk. Indorsed: Filed February 5, 1894.

By E. S. WACHOSER,