

APRIL WEATHER

What It Has Been in Years Past, and is Likely to be Again.

Director Barwick of the Weather Bureau furnishes the following data, compiled from the record of observations for the month of April, taken at this station for a period of sixteen years, showing the average and extreme conditions of the more important meteorological elements and the range within which such variations may be expected to keep during any corresponding month:

Temperature—Mean or normal temperature, 58°; the warmest April was that of 1888, with an average of 62°; the coldest April was that of 1880, with an average of 53°; the highest temperature during any April was 89° on the 28th, 1888; the lowest temperature during any April was 36° on the 17th, 1892; average date on which last "killing" frost occurred in spring, February 27th.

Precipitation—Average for the month, 2.49 inches; average number of days with .01 of an inch or more, 8; the greatest monthly precipitation was 14.20 inches in 1880; the least monthly precipitation was 0.10 of an inch in 1888; the greatest amount of precipitation recorded in any twenty-four consecutive hours was 7.24 inches on April 21, 1880.

Clouds and weather—Average number of cloudless days, 14; average number of partly cloudy days, 11; average number of cloudy days, 5.

Wind—The prevailing winds have been from the south and southwest; the highest velocity of the wind during any April was 36 miles on the 19th, 1886, from the northwest.

IN TROUBLE

E. Damon Cuts a Chinese Merchant With a Shovel.

A laborer named E. Damon probably wishes now that he had not interfered in a little trouble between a Chinaman and some boys yesterday.

A Chinese merchant on I street was walking down that street yesterday morning when some boys who were on a car loaded with some broken rock commenced to throw stones at him. He started towards the boys, when Damon, who was at work near by, started to help them. He struck the Chinaman with his shovel, inflicting a very severe wound on his instep, which Jailer McManus treated at the police station.

Another man who was working with Damon also struck the Chinaman with his shovel, barely missing his head with a vicious blow that would probably have killed him.

Damon was arrested and jailed, but the other man, as he failed to strike the Chinaman, was not arrested.

BATTERY CASES AND OTHERS

Chinese Cases Dismissed—Hansel Fined a Cart-Wheel.

A long calendar greeted Justice Devine in the Police Court yesterday.

The charge of battery against Ah Gin was dismissed, no complaint being filed. The similar cases against Ong Bow, Ah Jae, Ah Get and Ah Sing were also dismissed.

Harry Hansel was let off with a fine of $20, as he had moved away from the neighborhood where he has had so much trouble and promised to keep out of court in future.

A. L. Barbieri, through his attorney, W. A. Anderson, filed a bill of exceptions. He was charged with vagrancy. The exceptions were overruled. The case was set for Tuesday afternoon next.

John Doe, arrested at the City Hotel for disturbing the peace and defying Officer Douglas, threatening him and using the vilest of language, was sentenced to five days in the City Jail.

SACRAMENTO COMPOSITION

Another Musical Piece by a Sacramento Composer.

John C. Walling of this city, author of the "Swing Song" and "Rustling Pines Valse," has just from press a new piece, a song arranged for the piano, and entitled "My Madeline Marie." It has a very handsome title-page, with a lovely portrait of the author's baby girl, whose name gives the song its title. The piece is a charming one, the melody graceful, and the execution demanded not difficult. It is one of those beautiful songs in apostrophe to a lovely child, and hence touches the affections tenderly. It will be sung for the first time in public at the Academic meeting next Tuesday night.

Mr. Walling has nearly ready for publication, "The Sutter Grammar School March," dedicated to Miss M. B. Johnson, Vice-Principal of that school in this city.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY

John Ryan Examined on Complaint of Antone Strauss.

John Ryan was examined in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of robbery committed on Antone Strauss.

Strauss testified that he had been working down on the islands, but came up here to look for work. He went with his blankets over on the north levee, about Eighth or Ninth streets.

As he was going along he passed five or six men who were talking and drinking together there. They took his blankets away from him, knocked him down and kicked him in the head because he hallooed for help. He positively identified Ryan as one of the men who kicked him so. He found his blankets in the Steamboat saloon.

The case was continued till to-day, as a witness for the prosecution did not show up.

Weather Notes.

The Weather Bureau reports show the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday to have been 78° and 48°, with light to gentle northerly winds and clear weather prevailing.

The barometrical readings at 5 A. M. and 5 P. M. were 29.99 and 30.01 inches, respectively.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 66° and 52°, with 40 of an inch of rain, and one year ago to-day 57° and 47°, with 40 of an inch of rain, making for last season at this date 22.88 inches, as against 13.56 inches for the present season up to the present time.

Action to Recover Money.

A. J. Vermilya, Jr., by his attorney, R. Platnauer, has commenced suit in the Superior Court against Leon L. Mountain for $29.75, which sum he alleges is due him from the defendant on account of various sums paid for the latter.

PARIS TAKEN BACK

He Will Have to Stand Trial for Forgery When He Gets Home.

An officer who arrived yesterday from Cincinnati left on the 3 o'clock train with Alexander Paris for San Francisco, on his way home by the Southern route.

It will be remembered that the young man was charged with forging the name of a railway Superintendent, named Jones, under whom he was employed, and obtaining $700 on the paper, having only $52 left when he arrived here, having spent it lavishly on his trip.

Capitol Park Walks.

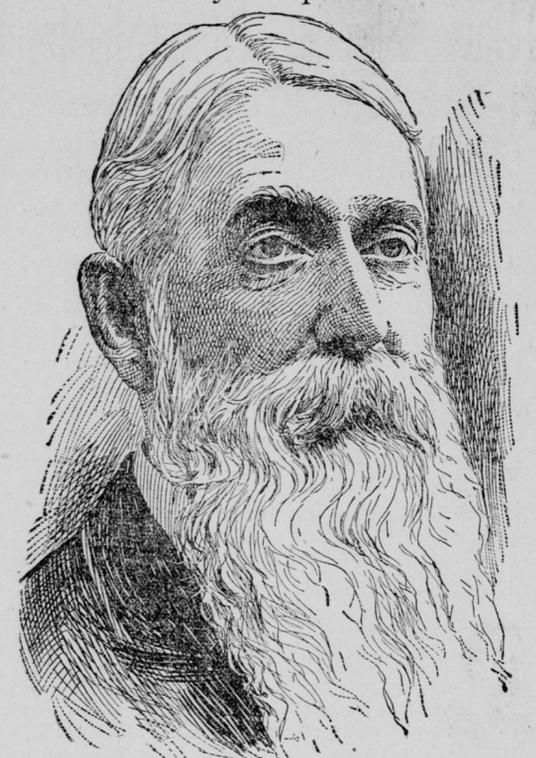

Work has been commenced on the cement walks that are to be laid down in the Capitol Park, where dirt has hitherto been used, between Tenth and Twelfth streets. It promises to be a great improvement.

Governor Markham has appointed and commissioned the following Notary Public: C. N. Terry, vice self, commission returned, at Pasadena.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Get Strength and Health With Paine's Celery Compound.

Take Paine's celery compound. It is the remedy that makes people well. First prescribed by the greatest physician this country has seen, it has been used and prescribed and recommended by physicians of every school everywhere. As a spring remedy it carries health and strength and renewed energy wherever it goes. Food for the muscles is not food for the nerves or brain. But Paine's celery compound furnishes the very elements that rebuild worn-out nerve tissues. It feeds brain, nerve centers and nerves, calming and equalizing their action. It makes rich, honest blood. Within a very few days after Paine's celery compound is regularly taken there will be a marked improvement in the general health; strength will become more enduring, the frame plumper, the spirits better and the breath sweeter—all declaring in the plainest terms a healthier action of nerves and blood. Hundreds of men and women with that "run-down" feeling written all over their faces, unable to work, without courage, have recovered health, heart and ambition through this remarkable remedy for the blood and nerves. It purifies the blood. It enriches the blood. It generally stirs liver and kidneys and the other organs destined to keep sweet and clean the vital machinery. A clear, sound mind in a sturdy, healthy body, a bright eye, an elastic step, a clear skin, come without fail when Paine's celery compound is given a regular and merely reasonable care and trial. Says Mr. Dudley B. Strout, one of Worcester's best citizens, the prosperous proprietor of the Lincoln Square dining-rooms, in a recent letter: "About six months ago I had a severe attack of eczema. No pen can describe my sufferings. I doctored and used all the cures I could hear of, but it was still in my system. "Hearing that Mr. William H. Robinson, with the jewelry firm of Nelson H. Davis, 351 Main street, had been cured of eczema by using Paine's celery compound, I called on that gentleman, and as a result started to take this wonderful remedy. What Mr. Robinson told me has been proven to be true, and I take this opportunity to express my gratitude. I will gladly answer any one who may wish to inquire further in regard to the medicine. "Paine's celery compound is the greatest blood and nerve remedy that medical science has yet attained. It makes people well."

HENRY WATTERSON'S LECTURE.

"Money and Morals" to be the Subject of His Address Here.

Henry Watterson, the distinguished orator-editor of Kentucky, will deliver his lecture "Money and Morals" in the Congregational Church next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Watterson is one of the foremost editors of the world. He has all his life been closely associated with public men and public affairs of National importance. For twenty-five years he has been editor and one of the owners of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and was the successor of the celebrated wit and critic George D. Prentice. All his life he has, with a single exception, resolutely declined office; he served in Congress in 1876-77. He stands as the best representative of the Southern conservatism and the liberal and progressive element. He is recognized as a man always in advance of his party, and as the champion of National fellowship.

He is as effective as a speaker as he is as a writer, and ranks among the first of American orators on the hustings or in the lecture-room, and his rank won for him the honor of delivering the oration at the dedication of the Columbian Exposition at Chicago. Universities have voted him degrees for his learning, and he has won spurs as an author of many monographs in book form. He has traveled extensively and is a man of trained, observant powers. The Chicago Herald said of him on the occasion of his speech at Chicago: "A disciple of Thomas Jefferson, a thinker of many subjects with remarkable powers of comprehension matched only by brilliant gift of expression, Mr. Watterson belongs properly with intellectual orators. It is what he says that makes the charm of his addresses. In this respect he stands with Wendell Phillips, who depended wholly on the intellectual pungency of his thought. Mr. Watterson, unlike Phillips, who was stern and caustic, is genial and sympathetic; his irony is touched with sunlight, his wit flashes without bitterness, his invective is strong because of its truth and not in consequence of artificial vehemence."

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.

How a Couple of Banks Were Victimized in Small Sums.

L. Fresco is the name given by a young man who was arrested yesterday at the instance of two bank officials who allege that they were defrauded of $45 and $18, respectively, by the prisoner.

It is claimed that these sums were obtained by raising the checks or orders that were originally given by officials of the banks, one for $5 and the other for $2, for advertisements for a commercial directory. The charge against Fresco is that of forgery.

LEVI HOLBEN'S TROUBLES.

He is Now on Trial for Assault With a Deadly Weapon.

In Judge Catlin's court yesterday the testimony was all heard in the case of Levi Holben, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on Al Street.

The latter had been a boarder in Holben's family, and their trouble originated through the latter's jealousy. The men had some words one night, a few weeks since, in Berg's saloon out on J street, and Holben struck Streeter on the head with a piece of gasp.

Witnesses for the defense testified that Streeter said to Holben that he heard the latter say to some one that he would assault the prosecution, and the defendant the assault. Others testified that Holben had, until a few months ago, been a hard-working, industrious carpenter, with a wife and two or three children to support, but that latterly he had become unhappy and despondent and took to drinking.

The case went over yesterday for argument. District Attorney Ryan is conducting the prosecution, and the defendant is represented by E. C. Hart.

Pleased With Sacramento.

Isaac McCann of Kennard, Neb., has been spending a few weeks in California, including a visit to the Midwinter Fair. He was favorably impressed with Sacramento's display there and is in love with the city.

He said on his exhibit, as well as those of Northern and Central California counties, is something surprising to Easterners, and to his mind suggested our immensely rich agricultural resources. While in this city he was the guest of Mr. Brewster. He left for home yesterday.

A Cry for Help

In the stillness of the night is sufficiently startling. What if no aid be at hand or we know not whence the cry comes? This is not the case with that mute appeal made to the resources of medical science, ever ready, ever available by disease of every hand. A prompt means of self-relief for the malarious, the rheumatic, the dyspeptic, the bilious, and persons troubled with impending kidney complaints, is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an ever "present help in time of trouble" for all such hapless individuals. They should not delay a moment in seeking its aid. Experience has shown its wide utility, the recommendation of eminent physicians everywhere sanction its use. Nervous, thin, debilitated invalids gain boldy substance and vigor by a course of this fine invigorant, which is eminently serviceable, also, to the aged and convalescent.
