

THEY MAKE ANOTHER APPEAL.

The Industrial Army Once Again Asks For Assistance.

Colonel Inman Intends to Wait on the Mayor This Morning—Major Williams Resigns.

The Industrial Army still remains in camp at Agricultural Park, waiting to consider what is to be done next.

On Saturday afternoon Major Williams, Lieutenant Drummond and Quartermaster McLaten waited on Governor Markham and requested him to assist them with provisions and money.

While the Governor was, as he always is, affable and courteous, he was forced to tell the visitors that he could not assist them—that the Constitution prohibited him from asking any favors from railroad companies, and even compels him to pay his fare to them when he wishes to travel himself.

In the evening the men marched through the principal streets and took up a collection, but it was not heavy enough to cause them any trouble in getting the specie out to camp.

Yesterday morning Major Williams resigned and Louis Inman was chosen Colonel and commanding officer, the other officers retaining their positions.

Collections were taken up in a number of churches yesterday, at the request of the leaders. Quite a large number of contributions of provisions were made also.

He says that irresponsible parties have been soliciting contributions for the army, of which it does not need a cent, and he wishes the citizens to be informed that no individuals, not even the officers, are authorized to receive contributions.

Several local clergymen visited the Park yesterday, and a number of ladies who went there formed a choir and religious services were held.

The six companies, in command of Colonel Inman, marched down town at night, and when near the corner of Ninth and J formed into squads of forty or fifty and went to the different churches.

Collections amounting to nearly $10 were made and much more is expected this morning.

Persons who came up from San Francisco last night reported having seen several hundred men on the road this side of Oakland heading in this direction.

Colonel Inman called at the Record-Union office last night and said he had sent word to the Oakland men not to come to Sacramento.

Colonel Inman has determined to make another appeal to the Mayor this morning, believing that if he will add something to the amount raised in the churches yesterday and promised by private citizens, the army can start on its way East in a day or two.

Eds. RECORD-UNION: As camp correspondent I desire to say to the public that we are all honest and hard-working men, not tramps. Every man in this camp would go to work to-morrow should the chance offer, but such a thing seems out of the question.

We humbly ask that we be helped to get to our homes in the East. Our men are honest and patient and stand hunger well. They complain very little and are all living in the hope that something will turn up. Our rations are exhausted and the men to-morrow will be without food; still, all say it might have been worse.

Now, if you will kindly acquaint your readers with the above facts, maybe someone will come forward with a proposition that will prove to the advantage of all concerned.

Once again we thank you for all your kind wishes to us. I remain, one of those hundred unemployed men.

LOUIS INMAN.

A LAUNCH CAPSIZED.

Water Tennant Drowned in the River at Walnut Grove.

A sad accident happened at Walnut Grove on Saturday by which Walter Tennant, a young man whose home was at Benicia, lost his life.

Tennant and a companion named B. F. Shader came up to this city on the preceding day in the gasoline launch Triton. They left here on their return on Saturday morning, and on reaching Walnut Grove the launch collided with the ferry cable and turned partly over.

Both men were thrown into the water. Shader grasped the cabin and was rescued, but Tennant was down before relief could reach him. He was about 19 years of age, and had an aunt residing at Santa Cruz.

Palo Alto Horse Sale.

On Thursday next, the 26th, there will be a great sale at the Stanford breeding farm at Palo Alto of choice stallions, geldings, roadsters, brood mares, colts and fillies from the famous Palo Alto breeding farm.

Besides the grand 1-looking geldings and young mares to be sold, there are four splendidly-bred stallions, Alfred, 2:25 (sire of Langton, 2:21), Benefit 5:27, Alson and Lawrence 5:38, and colts by Elector's best sons out of mares that are bred in the purple.

Suburban Improvements.

Despite the talk of hard times a great many new buildings are going up and many old ones are being raised and otherwise improved in this city and vicinity.

At Oak Park and Oak Grove there are noticed several new and tasty cottages being erected. Two in Oak Grove are in the gothic style, and being painted pure white. The oak trees which abound there make the effect very striking.

They are intended as residences for the Snooks Brothers, who have done much within the last two or three years to build up that locality.

Struck the Wrong Men.

Early yesterday morning, as Officers Bagley and Douglas were passing the alley between I and J, Front and Second streets, two men who were standing in the shadow of a building came out and said something which caused the officers to believe they were footpads.

Bagley and Douglas placed them under arrest and put them in the police station. The men will probably escape prosecution, but the officers believe that if there had but one person encountered the pair he would have had trouble with them.

Had a Narrow Escape.

The perforated iron casting that did duty as one of the ventilators in the ceiling of the freight office on Front street came very near removing from the field on Saturday one of the aspirants for County Clerk.

James E. Doody was at work at his desk when the iron took a tumble from its lofty perch and falling struck him just over the left eyebrow. This did not check in force to any extent, for it went nearly through the desk.

"First Artillery Band."

At a recent meeting of the Second Infantry Band, it was decided, for all business purposes, to retain the old name of the "First Artillery Band"; also, in order that Sacramento shall appear at its best musically as well as otherwise, the First Artillery Band has temporarily relaxed its rule forbidding its members from playing with other organizations, consequently several of its leading instrumentalists will accompany the Patriarch Militant Band to San Francisco.

Christopher Curtin's Funeral.

The funeral yesterday of the late Christopher Curtin was one of the largest seen in this city for a long time. It took place from the family residence at 1224 Third street, thence to the Cathedral, which was thronged with friends of the deceased. Mr. Curtin was a man of uprightness of character and was held in high esteem by all that knew him.

Residence Property at Auction.

To-morrow, the 24th, Bell & Co. will sell at auction, at 10 A. M., on the premises, at 716-18 Eighth street, between G and H, the north 53 feet of lot 5, in the block between G and H, Seventh and Eighth streets, and all the improvements (being a part of the estate of Judge Cross, deceased), two fine dwellings, eight rooms and bath in each, and all modern improvements.

Sad Result of a Fall.

Conrad Clinch, the well-known machinist, has never recovered from the hard fall he received some months ago at Seventh and K streets, when he struck the back of his head on the stone sidewalk. He was out a few days afterward, but subsequent brain trouble developed, and his mental condition is such that full recovery seems to be impossible.

OVER A HALF-MILLION DOLLARS.

Big Payment of Taxes by the Southern Pacific Company.

The Second Installment for 1893-4 to be Paid to the State To-Day or To-Morrow.

The San Francisco Examiner of yesterday states that the Southern Pacific Company will to-day or Tuesday pay into the State Treasury the second installment of its taxes for the years 1893-4. The assessment on roadbed, rails and rolling stock is as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Lines of Road, Value, Total Taxes. California Pacific Railroad $2,000,000 $27,233 16, Northern California 15,000,000 206,030 94, Northern Railway 2,750,000 4,248 08, Southern Pacific Rail. 3,100,000 44,675 48, South Pacific Coast 16,000,000 231,425 00, Totals $35,075,000 $61,707 08.

The first installment of $280,853 54 was paid last November, and the second payment, equal in amount, is ready for the Treasurer.

The second installment of the amount due from the company on account of reassessment of taxes for the years 1880 to 1885, inclusive, aggregating $299,434 85, will also be paid at the same time. The statement is as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Lines of Road, Value, Total Taxes. Amador Branch R. R. Co. $660 21, California Pacific 16,179 29, Northern California 4,039 81, Northern Railway 4,758 61, Sacramento and Fairville 321 56, Yuba Valley and Clear Lake 1,318 49, Stockton and Colusa 134 63, San Pablo and Redwood 37 93, Southern Pacific 139 38, Totals $118,486 87 $101,007 98 $200,494 85.

This gives a total of $548,926 24 to be paid by the Southern Pacific into the State Treasury during the coming week.

The taxes of 1886 and 1887 are yet to be assessed under the provisions of the law now in force. The amount will exceed $600,000 and will get into the Treasury during the next fiscal year.

In addition to the taxes here referred to, the company has paid on personal property in this State $185,000. Outside of the State the Pacific division of the Southern Pacific has paid the following taxes: Nevada, $150,000; New Mexico, $23,412; Arizona, $91,133; Utah, $23,062.
