

NATIVE SONS. Installation of Sacramento Parlor's Newly Elected Officers. District Deputy Grand President Scott F. Ennis, assisted by Ed Harris as Marshal, installed the following officers of Sacramento Parlor, N. S. G. W., last evening: Past President, A. Moore; President, John Haley; First Vice-President, C. N. Post; Second Vice-President, E. J. Weldon; Third Vice-President, A. E. Miller; Financial Secretary, Henry Brown; Recording Secretary, H. O. Tubbs; Treasurer, William Henderson; Marshal, William Sanders; Inside Sentinel, Leo Krump; Outside Sentinel, Wm. M. Mier; Trustee, E. S. Wachhorst; Surgeon, Dr. Wm. J. Hanna.

AMUSEMENTS. The testimonial concert to Miss Anna Selkirk took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith. There was a large and appreciative audience in attendance, quite filling the hall, the very spacious drawing-rooms, parlor and library. The program was well arranged, the musical effects might not be marred, still the heavy carpetings and furniture fittings tended in a degree to lessen the resonance in a concert hall would have been marked, for both Miss Selkirk and Andrew Bogart of San Francisco, the tenor, have fine voices, worthy of the very best accompaniment of the evening, and Mr. Vanderhoof played a double number violin solo and the obligato to two of Miss Selkirk's selections. Mr. Bogart was heard here for the first time. He is a very young man with a remarkably expressive tenor of great sweetness and depth of feeling. His voice is one of rich promise. His compass is broad and his capacity for emotional expression is phenomenal. He made an exceedingly good impression. Miss Selkirk's singing last evening confirmed the high opinion thereof formerly expressed by the Record-Union of her voice and method. Her tones are pure, clear, best in the lower and middle, and are full of feeling. She is an expressive and graceful singer, her voice being of a dramatic nature. It is not a very resonant voice, but flexible, true in intonation and is managed with skill, delicacy and intelligence. Her reception last evening was very flattering, and came from an audience qualified to judge.
