Monroe Salisbury Expelled From the Trotting Turf

BY THE JUDGES OF THE FLEETWOOD PARK TRACK.

Alleged to Have Withdrawn His Trotting Mare Expressive From an Unfinished Race Without Permission of the Judges—Races at Sheepshead Bay, Philadelphia, Latonia, Harlem and St. Louis.

SPECIAL TO THE RECORD-UNION.

New York, Sept. 10.—The California turfman Monroe Salisbury was today expelled from the trotting turf by John D. Barry, Henry Hughes and Thomas Egbert, judges of the postponed 2:16 race, which brought the Grand Circuit trotting meeting in New York to a close. The offense for which this severe measure was meted out as a punishment was Mr. Salisbury's alleged removal of the trotting mare Expressive from the Fleetwood track without the permission of the judges. Expressive started in the 2:16 class race which was begun on Friday last, two heats being treated before darkness came on to cause postponement. The mare was heavily backed as a favorite, and her chances to win were regarded as extremely good, although Stroutia won the first heat and Judge Austin beat her in the second. When she was taken away from the track on Saturday night her backers were left in the lurch, as the bets stood just the same as if the mare was on hand to trot it out. Thousands of dollars were thus lost, without giving the bettors a show for their money.

It was too wet to call the race upon Saturday, and an effort was made to bring about a compromise among the horsemen concerning the money which would be divided and the race declared off. Every body agreed to this except the owner of Judge Austin, who felt confident of winning the race. The race was carried over until today. The owner of Expressive had an engagement for his mare in Terre Haute this week, and he wanted to get away from New York at once. He therefore shipped Expressive along with his other horses, and she did not respond to the harnessing bell for the unfinished race today. The judges declared her ruled out for non-appearance, and after the conclusion of the contest they took the spectators' breath away by announcing that Monroe Salisbury stood expelled from all National Association tracks, the claim being made that Salisbury openly defied the rules of the turf, as well as the end of the meeting, by taking his mare from the track when she was legally in the hands of the officials.

It was reported yesterday that Henry Hughes had admitted that he had consented to Salisbury's withdrawing Expressive after the postponement Saturday evening. This Hughes denies. The race was won by Judge Austin, who fairly out-treated Rose Leaf and the others in both heats, making a new record of 2:24.

Salisbury controls the prospective Queen of the Turf, Alix (2:05), who is to trot at Terre Haute this week. He also owns Azote (2:39), directly the end of many other famous trotters and pacers. Summaries: Judge Austin won the second and third heats. Stroutia won the first heat. Time, 2:14-2:15-2:12-2:12. Expressive was ruled out. The two first heats were trotted September 7th. Rose Leaf, Jessie Hanson and three others also started.

AT GRAVENEAD. New York, Sept. 10.—It was expected that few would agree to meet Stonnell at Gravenend to-day in the Speculation stakes at six furlongs, and that only the started, with odds of one to four against the Dwyer horse, was no surprise. His victory was an easy one, and in the last time of 1:15. In the Ocean View handicap, while the other starters were all about the same price, the flag fell to a good start. At the turn Sir Excess went up into the lead, and in so doing crossed in front of Patricia, knocking him out of his stride. Then came a driving finish between Sir Excess and Dutch Skater, and at the end the judges could not separate them, and gave it a dead heat, with the favorite third. The stakes were divided.

Milo and a sister, Judge Morrow won. Harry Alonzo second, Jack Rose third. Time, 1:50. Speculation stakes, six furlongs, Stonnell won. Time, 1:50. Ocean View handicap, mile and a furlong, Dutch Skater and Sir Excess dead heat. Patricia third. Time, 1:56.

Five and a half furlongs, Wernberg won. Lady Violet second, Genette Edwards third. Time, 2:00. Five and a half furlongs, Nanki Poo won. Sir Dixon second, Neodah third. Time, 1:50.

AT PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—The closing day of the meeting of the grand circuit opened at Point Breeze track to-day with an originally good card, which was badly scratched. Two-twenty-nine trotting—Sallie Simmons won in straight heats, Miss Raphael second, Perrier third. Time, 2:20-2:24-2:24.

Two-twenty trotting, Bingham House stakes, $2,000. Dodgeville won in straight heats in 2:28, 2:14 and 2:16. Catherine Leyburn was second and Romola third. Two others also started.

Two-twenty-three pacing, Abbot Wilkes won in straight heats. Time, 2:18-2:14-2:14. Judge Starling, Budd Boble and three others also started.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—Forty horses out of seventy-one entries started on the Latonia track to-day. Six furlongs, M. J. won. Mr. Dunlap second, Hinton third. Time, 1:51. Six and a half furlongs, Potentate won. Henry Young second, Clara Bauer third. Time, 1:57.

Five furlongs, Lady Buchanan won. Sevilla second, Hindoo's Dream third. Time, 1:57. Six furlongs, Ed. Gartland won. Yemen second, Fromenado third. Time, 1:51.

AT EAST ST. LOUIS. St. Louis, Sept. 10.—Results at East St. Louis: Three-quarters of a mile, Lady Taster won. Turk second, Bessie Lee third. Time, 1:21. Three-quarters of a mile, Mollie King won. Flakewood second, Sam V. third. Time, 1:23.

Thirteen-sixteenths of a mile, Haroldine won. Peble Rock second, Vovay third. Time, 1:27. One mile, Nellie Rose won. Joe Courtney second, Liberty Bell third. Time, 1:50. Three-quarters of a mile, Charteuse won. Miss Minnie second, Vida third. Time, 1:24.

AT HARLEM. HARLEM (Ill.), Sept. 10.—Six furlongs, Marion G. won. The Distiller second, Spemandoth third. Time, 1:19. Mile and a furlong, Sallie Ross won. My Luck second, Ray del Mar third. Time, 2:04.

Six furlongs, Elise won. Highland second, Laberone third. Time, 1:19. One mile, Dick Behan won. Marcel second, Captive third. Time, 1:51. One mile, Little Cripple won. Marcel second, Datschek third. Time, 1:52.

RACES POSTPONED. DETROIT (Mich.), Sept. 10.—The races scheduled for to-day at Windsor were postponed until to-morrow, on account of a heavy track. The following races will be temporarily reinstated. TERRE HAUTE, Sept. 10.—There was much excitement among the big groups of horsemen here this evening when it was known that Monroe Salisbury had been expelled from the tracks of the National Trotting Association. The noted driver, McHenry, who represented Mr. Salisbury at Fleetwood, says that Secretary Mason assured him Friday night that two judges had expressed the feeling that it would be all right to ship Expressive to Terre Haute. On the strength of this assurance, the ally was shipped. Noted horsemen, such as C. J. Hamlin, are indignant over the action of the Fleetwood judges, and declare that Mr. Salisbury shall at least be temporarily reinstated.

ADMISSION DAY. Sacramento Parlor Commemorates the Historical Occasion.

The members of Sacramento Parlor, No. 3, N. S. G. W., kept "open house" in their hall yesterday in commemoration of the forty-fourth anniversary of California's admission to the Union. The parlor entertained a large number of visitors, including members of the order, Pioneers, Native Daughters and citizens generally with a varied and interesting programme of literary and musical exercises appropriate to the occasion, the following of which is a synopsis: Opening remarks, by E. J. Gregory; song, R. T. Cohn; address, B. F. Howard; song, "Lullaby," Mrs. Ritten; address, P. S. Lawson; song, Mr. Faley; address, Eben Owen; song, Mr. Shannon; address, Frank Welch; song, Miss L. Wright; address, John T. Skelton; song, Mrs. B. F. Howard; address, Dr. Fowler; recitation, Dana Perkins, Jr. Just at the close of the entertainment the members of the Cassassa Band entered the hall, and favored the audience with several artistically rendered selections. The high character which the band has attained, displayed with the fact that a large proportion of its members, including C. H. Cassassa, the director, are Native Sons, added to the interest of the affair. Elaborate refreshments were served, the guests were made happy, and the sentiment of sociability in the promulgation of which the parlor has earned a well-deserved record, was manifested in a marked and most pleasing degree. The following-named gentlemen composed the Committee of Arrangements: J. M. Henderson, Jr., E. D. Terseau, J. W. Haley, C. N. Post.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. H. Kieffer of Los Angeles is attending the National Association tracks, the claim being made that Salisbury openly defied the rules of the turf, as well as the end of the meeting, by taking his mare from the track when she was legally in the hands of the officials. It was reported yesterday that Henry Hughes had admitted that he had consented to Salisbury's withdrawing Expressive after the postponement Saturday evening. This Hughes denies. The race was won by Judge Austin, who fairly out-treated Rose Leaf and the others in both heats, making a new record of 2:24. Salisbury controls the prospective Queen of the Turf, Alix (2:05), who is to trot at Terre Haute this week. He also owns Azote (2:39), directly the end of many other famous trotters and pacers. Summaries: Judge Austin won the second and third heats. Stroutia won the first heat. Time, 2:14-2:15-2:12-2:12. Expressive was ruled out. The two first heats were trotted September 7th. Rose Leaf, Jessie Hanson and three others also started.

THE ATHLETIC CLUB'S TOURNAMENT.

Payen Wins the Welter-Weight Championship.

Spanjer is the Lightweight, and Charles Reno of San Francisco the Feather-Weight.

The Sacramento Athletic Club held its amateur boxing tournament for 1894 last night, several entries from San Francisco as well as this city having been made, for the championship of the coast. Only club members were admitted, and a large attendance was present. George H. Clark, ex-President, announced the officers for the occasion as follows: Committee of Arrangements—Charles E. Bauer, C. O. Strobel, L. S. Upson, E. J. Kay, A. Yoerk, B. Ripley, C. W. Haub; Referee, B. Ripley; Judges, V. McClatchy and A. Kleinsorge; Timers, Ira Robie and Charles Kleinsorge; Master of Ceremonies, George H. Clark.

The first contest was the lightweight, 125-pound class, between C. Muller of the San Francisco Athletic Club, who was seconded by M. Sullivan and J. Conway, and H. J. Spanjer of the Sacramento Athletic Club, seconded by C. Strobel and R. Alexander. The contest was a four-round one. The contestants were evenly matched, but Muller being a reliable boxer, Muller is a right-hand fighter, while Spanjer is very clever with his left. In the first round Muller fought Thomas W. Lansing, some heavy blows, while Spanjer landed repeatedly on the head. The men clinched repeatedly, the referee having to make them break away several times.

In the second round Muller took the aggressive and landed some stingers on the body, while Spanjer repeatedly landed on the head, neck and body with both hands, landing more blows than his opponent. There was heavy infighting in this round, and the referee had to repeatedly separate the men break away from their clinches.

The third round was a hot one, Muller playing for the body and Spanjer landing repeatedly on the head. Muller was game, however, and came up to the mark determined. In this round he slipped to his knees, just missing a heavy blow from Spanjer's left. Then there were lively exchanges and infighting, Spanjer landing heavily on the head. The fourth round opened with fast and furious exchanges, Spanjer landing on the head and Muller on the body. It was a lively round and Spanjer was declared the winner of the contest.

The second contest was a four-round one for feather-weights, at 125 pounds, and Wells Birdall of Sacramento and Chas. Reno of William Daily of San Francisco were the contestants. Birdall and Daly were the first to don the gloves, leaving Reno to confront the winner of this contest over developed and many blowholes in so short a time. What past it has, either in the legislative or executive branches of Government, is a succession of profane and vulgarities, and the sham of the state administration is most enthusiastic enemies can say no worse of it than have its own original party friends.

Shooting in Chinatown. A dispute between two highlanders in Chinatown last night culminated in one of them drawing a big revolver and shooting at the other. Special Officer George K. Rider was standing in the range of the flying bullet, which passed within a few inches of him. Rider captured the shooter and lodged him in the City Prison. He gave the name of Ah Kim.

Trotting-Horse Breeders. There will be a meeting of the Trotting-horse Breeders' Association at the Park at 12 o'clock noon to-day to determine where the next racing meeting shall be held. A strong effort is being made to have it at Los Angeles, where the local association has just completed a new track.

taller and was longer in the reach. Payen was more heavily muscled and the harder and straighter hitter. The first round opened with cautious sparring by both men, and Burke led short. Payen landed on the chest, and there was more sparring and Payen landed on the jaw. This was a very tame round. The second round was opened by Payen hitting Burke on the chin, receiving a light counter. Payen hit lightly and often, and Burke hit wildly. In the third round Payen opened the jaw, stung Burke in the eye, and the excitement was a little warmer. In the fourth Burke rushed the lighting, and heavy exchanges followed. It ended with heavy infighting, Payen having the advantage. The fifth round was one of heavy fighting, Payen hitting Burke repeatedly in the mouth and neck, and landing a heavy blow on the jaw. The decision was in favor of Payen. Then Spanjer and Bates entered the ring. The first round was a rattling one, Bates taking the aggressive, and heavy exchanges were in order. Bates hitting heavily on the body and Spanjer on the head with his right. The round finished with infighting, and heavy infighting. In the second round both meant business, hitting heavily, and clinching. The third round was characterized by rattling exchanges and heavy infighting, Bates having the advantage, and the fourth round was very similar. Bates was declared the winner. The next contest was between Daly and Reno, the feather weights, which was won by Reno.

Then came the deciding contest between Payen and Burke, the welter weights, who had each won a bout. The first round opened with cautious sparring by both and a good exhibition was given, as they got warily and sound good science was displayed by both. The second consisted of heavy exchanges, counters and half-arm hitting and was a rattling round. The third round was a warm one, Bates using his right well and Payen returning his compliments. The fourth was heavy from the start, and the exchanges were rapid and telling, Payen having the advantage. The decision was in Payen's favor. Reno and Burke, the feather weights, had the wind-up. Reno, whose eye with Daly had been a light one, forced the fighting and showed himself clever with his right. He caught Birdall with a right-hander on the side of the head which settled him in the first round and Reno was declared the champion feather-weight, giving San Francisco one event out of the three.

VOICE OF THE PRESS. Expressions Clipped From Editorials in California Papers. Fresno Expressor. The calamity howlers are filling the air with insinuations of prognosticated disaster to the sheep industry, now that American manufacturers are allowed to buy foreign wool on equal terms with foreign manufacturers; but just let them wait until there is an inch or two of rain to start feed, and see whether sheep will go up or down in price. The seriousness of feed this year has been a very potent cause for the decline in the value of sheep, but this element of depression has been taken out of the equation by the calamity howlers and the whole discouragement and depression has been charged up to "fear and uncertainty" and to influence the American public.

A CRY FOR BREAD. (Oakland Tribune). The Christian people of the country were recently earnestly invited to contribute to the relief of those suffering from the effects of famine in Corea. Before any action is taken in such matters it would be prudent to give an adequate consideration to the needs of those who are suffering from food and raiment in our own country owing to the lack of employment. Ordinarily, the cry for bread is a cry for help, but in the case of those who are suffering from unemployment, it is a cry for help and for help in the form of bread.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE. (Los Angeles Express). The record of the Republican party with regard to the question of woman suffrage has been a record of failure. The Republican party has failed to secure the right of suffrage for women, and the majority of the people until an election convinces them of their error. In a country like this, where the majority of the population is made up of immigrants, it would be impossible to suppress any popular demand for long if its advocates were really in a majority. The trouble with our present system is that it is a very large percentage of women themselves are opposed to it.

THE UBIQUITOUS TOM COLLINS. Officer Douglas last night observed a man named Tom Collins endeavoring to sell a valise and contents, consisting of a pair of boxing gloves, a sweater and some washing. The valise was taken to the Police Station. The boxing gloves were identified as belonging to Tom Norton, who lent them to Collins. Fire Water for Putes. Constable Winters of Brighton yesterday arrested two men named James Albertson and John McCull for buying whisky and supplying it to a couple of Indian hip-pickers at that place. The Indians who were supplied with the liquor were brought to this city and locked up in the County Jail.

Failed to Get Away With a Pipe. Officer Bagley early this morning captured a man named Tom Collins who was carrying an opium layout from a joint on I street. Plans Tending.—Paul Schoen of Oakland is here, at Hammer's or Neale's.
