The Grand Matron's report was also read. An invitation was received from Naomi Chapter, No. 36, to attend the exemplification of the work in the evening, and was accepted.

The following standing committees were appointed: Committee on Credentials—E. B. Willis of No. 39, Mrs. Mary J. Mayhew of No. 36, Mrs. Mary J. Dunham of No. 26.

Wiley; Associate Matron, Sarah W. Cunningham; Secretary, Emma Bidwell; Treasurer, Lizzie Dolan; Conductress, Mattie Reed; Associate Conductress, Agnes Hall; Marsial, Florence Miller; Chaplain, Aiden Mayhew; Adah, Louise Rego; Ruth, Carlotta Clark; Esther, Clara Keber; Electa, Alice Kellogg; Martha, Jennie Hornlein; Warden, Maggie Stevenson; Sentinel, George Dunn; Organist, Fannie M. Willis.

After the exemplification a musical and literary entertainment was given by the chapter, the following programme being rendered: Piano duet, Miss Wilder, Miss Jordan; tableau, "The Vase of Gold," Mrs. Lizzie Dolan, Mrs. E. Webster, Charles Aiken, Gussie Stevenson, Theodore Eilers; piano solo, Mrs. Fannie Willis; tableau, "The Homecoming," J. A. Macdonald, Bonnie Waggoner; tableau, "Sweet Spirit Hear My Prayer," Lou Rego, Mabel Seymour, Bonnie Waggoner, Emma Tubbs, Clara Keber, Jennie Hornlein, Gussie Stevenson.

The chapter-room had been most beautifully decorated. A blazing star was suspended in the east, with two handsome stars composed of flowers in front of the dais. On each of the points were appropriate emblems, that of Esther being surmounted by a beautiful white floral crown.

The banquet hall was handsomely decorated with flowers and plants, and the tables were set in the form of a five-pointed star, each point bearing a bouquet of flowers of the appropriate color, and the viands were of a quality to tempt the most fastidious appetite. Four smaller tables were also spread, and so great was the attendance that they were nearly filled the third time. The ladies of Naomi deserved an especially complimentary mention for the manner in which the evening's programme was conceived and carried out. After the guests had satisfied their appetites, speeches were made by the Worthy Grand Matron, Grand Matron and others.

A morning and afternoon session of the Grand Chapter will be held to-day, and in the evening the Grand Chapter will exemplify the work and Naomi Chapter will give another entertainment.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Juniors Hold the Opening Session of the Convention.

The first session of the Young People's Society Christian Endeavor Convention was held last night in the Congregational Church.

It was Junior night, and the programme was an interesting one, the Juniors being out in full force, and they did themselves a full measure of credit. Miss Minnie Stevenson was on the program, a good leader, but was unable to be present, and her place was filled at short notice by Miss Sadie Griffin, who filled it most acceptably.

The programme as published in yesterday's issue of this paper was rendered, with the exception of the duet and chorus of the Marguerite Mission Society, and the addition of a Christian Endeavor March song, "Look Up, Lift Up," by John C. Walling, with words by Rev. W. S. Hoskinson.

A beautiful banner was presented to the Oak Park society, the youngest one instituted in the county, for the largest percentage of attendance at the convention, being twenty out of the twenty-one members present. Where as, did so well comparisons would be invidious, and it was evident throughout that the children were not only carefully trained, but were actually a zeal and self-forgetfulness that must attain good results in the future.

TO-DAY'S SESSION.

The last session of the convention will be held at the Congregational Church this evening. Some of Sacramento's most talented young people are to assist in rendering the senior programme. The music will be most suitably selected for the occasion and excellent music has been prepared.

Song service, conducted by W. H. Gray, open discussion, P. S. E. chorus by the choir, "Look Up, Lift Up," by John C. Walling, music by J. Walling; paper, "Christian Citizenship," by E. S. Goudrick, President Los Angeles City Union; address, "The Future of the Republic," by Moore Hesketh; paper, "Miss Bessie Murdoch, Colusa; quartet, Misses E. DeMerritt and F. M. Zimmerman, Messrs. W. H. Gilson and L. E. Sandercock; contribution, talk, "The Bible," Howard S. McIntire; sermon, "The Bible the Only Sure Guide of Life," Rev. A. L. Banks, solo, "The Wanderer's Prayer," Miss J. M. Moyle, violin obligato; consecration, conducted by the leader, W. W. Milne; Mizpah.

There was another good house at the Clunie last night to see "Kidnaped" played. The abduction scene, wherein a hack is driven upon the stage, the arrest, when a police patrol wagon thunders across the boards; the great bridge scene and the scene, are thrilling, admirably managed, and draw out tumultuous applause. The same play again to-night.

The sale of seats for the concert to-morrow night goes on well at Purnell's book store. The desire is that the patronage shall warrant further effort to bring superior talent here in a series of select concerts this winter.

ANOTHER MCKINLEY IN THE FIELD.

He is a Republican, and Hails From Santa Rosa.

His Speech Last Night On the Silver Question—Remarks by W. A. Anderson.

Hon. D. E. McKinley of Santa Rosa spoke at Pythian Castle last evening, on the silver question, and from a Republican standpoint.

The meeting was called to order by J. O. Coleman, who introduced W. A. Anderson as Chairman. John Carlaw, M. J. Dillman, L. L. Lewis, George Murray, William M. Sims and Thomas Hague were appointed Vice-Chairmen.

Mr. Anderson, in his preliminary remarks, said: "There is one thing the country can congratulate itself upon, that is, the fact that whenever and wherever public opinion has found expression, the seat of condemnation has been set upon the work of the Democratic party during its control of national affairs."

The leading Democrats have not the hardihood to act as apologists for the past eight months' work of the Democratic party. The things from Vermont, Maine, Ohio, New Jersey, New York, and every place where elections have been held within the last year, show the people repudiating Democratic misrule.

"It is an historical fact that everything has been dignified but Republican principles. The Democratic party has ruined our market and industries. The people were dazzled by glittering promises and led astray by sophistry and hypocrisy. While the Democratic party was in power on a silver platform, its first act was to deal a death blow to the people's money."

While protesting against the gold standard, the Democratic party has assuaged the trust exposed in that party. Our Democratic friends are good fellows, good citizens individually, but collectively they have managed to play the devil with the Government, and bring disaster and distress upon the people. The Democrats who follow the old policy of Democracy this year must vote the party for the Government, and the mistakes it has made. Their consciences must have been lost by evaporation."

There are three great questions now before the people—problems that must be solved in the light of reason, not upon theory. These are protective tariff, money, and the silver question. It is now demonstrated that they can be settled only upon the Republican idea and principles of government.

Republicans stand upon their position on these great questions. Time always demonstrates the correctness of their principles.

When the Democrats came into power the silver dollar was worth a dollar. Within six months thereafter the value of silver depreciated 30 per cent. Instead of a dollar's worth of goods for a dollar, the English idea of money and trade must be accepted as the true Democratic principle of government. This is also the soundest principle of government, the author of the famous revenue law, who recently complimented English workmen upon their prospects.

When Mr. Adams introduced Messrs. Hamilton and Phillips rendered a number of comic specialties.

Miss Maggie Kearney rendered an amusing satire on the claims of the Democratic party.

SILVER TALK.

Chairman Anderson then introduced Mr. McKinley. He said two of the blunders in the present stand of our government are the protection of American industries and free coinage of silver on a par with gold. Up to 1873, the standard of value of the country whose monetary system was based on the basis of gold. By 1875 every country in Europe was doing away with silver.

The Democratic party of 1873 was ununited, and although the Government was Republican at that time, not one Democratic member of Congress voted against the bill to reduce the price of silver.

He maintained that it was the demoralization that brought the low prices of silver. He contended that some of the evils of demoralization of silver were, first, the restriction of the volume of currency one-half and the consequent appreciation of gold. He showed that the relative value of silver, as compared with staple and commodity, remained together, while gold has risen in purchasing power. Second, the hardships falling on the debtor classes, by reason of the limitation of the money volume. The remedy for the method by which silver could be restored is by maintaining the doctrine of protection of the industries of the United States and keeping the balance of trade on this side of the Atlantic, and by increasing our trade with the consuming nations of the world.

If the United States goes upon a free silver basis, and manufactures goods upon that basis, she will be prepared to furnish a dollar's worth of goods for the silver dollar, or its equivalent, with these consuming nations. How long then, will they continue to purchase goods from Europe, paying the silver dollar or its equivalent for forty or fifty cents' worth of goods.

In conclusion, Mr. McKinley appealed to all classes of people to vote their own interests, and if they find that protection and free silver were good doctrines to maintain, to vote for them, even if contained in a Republican platform.

He also appealed to his hearers to vote for Estee, because he stood upon such a platform, and also for Grove L. Johnson in Congress, because he would be part of a Republican House of Representatives who would vote for free silver. Republican Assemblymen should also be elected, because they would vote for the United States Senator who would further the interests of free silver.

Prolonged applause and cheering greeted Mr. McKinley when he concluded his address, and he was congratulated on the excellent manner in which he explained the complicated proposition of free silver which will be advocated by a Republican Congress.

He was Hobson. A man named Shain went to the Police Station after midnight last night and said he was thrown down on Fifth street, by two men, and robbed of his watch. His condition was such that a 10-year-old "kid" could have robbed him.

Prohibition Meeting. Henry French, the Prohibition nominee for Governor, and C. H. Dunn, the nominee for Lieutenant-Governor, are announced to speak this evening at Pythian Hall.

Granted a Divorce. Superior Judge Catlin yesterday granted Catherine Stefano a divorce from Nicholas Stefano, on the ground of cruelty.

DOUBT AS TO GUILT.

Way Governor Markham Committed a Convict's sentence.

Governor Markham yesterday commuted the sentence of Edward Stanfield, sentenced to forty-one years' imprisonment in the State Prison from Kern County in February, 1883, for a serious crime. By the commutation Stanfield was released yesterday.

The State Board of Prison Directors recommended that the application for a pardon be granted, conditional that he should never return, for the following reasons: "The defendant was tried and convicted with one Ed A. White, who was sentenced to this prison for a term of forty-seven years; also another person, one W. H. Moore, for the same crime, was sentenced to a term of forty-one years at this prison. The case of Moore was appealed to the Supreme Court, and the judgment reversed. The lower court then dismissed the case and ordered said Moore released. In the case of White, the board recommended that his sentence be commuted, on the petition of the District Attorney and jurors who tried the case, who stated that if they had known certain facts during the trial, they would have acquitted the defendant, and that private spite and ill-will, and not the truth, caused his conviction."

"In this case the mother of the defendant, an old lady, who arrived from the East a few days ago, and who had mortgaged her home to raise the money to pay her bond and made a strong plea for her son, who is a cripple and unable to do manual labor, and who so to the end of his life her boy was released she would take him in charge and return to her home in County, Mo., where she was assured that employment would be furnished him. The board had the prisoner brought before them and questioned him very closely, as to his former life, and in their judgment, they were satisfied that he was guilty of this offense. Therefore, taking all the facts and circumstances of these cases under consideration, the board unanimously recommended that the prisoner be pardoned on the conditions above named."

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Millard and Knight to Speak Here on To-morrow Night, at Turner Hall.

Spencer G. Millard, Republican nominee for Lieutenant-Governor, and George A. Knight will address the public on the political issues of the day.

Mr. Millard has been making a vigorous canvass throughout the State, and every where his meetings have been largely attended.

His visit to this city is known as one of the most powerful and eloquent speakers on the coast. There should be a large turnout of citizens to listen to two such addresses.

There will be a Republican mass meeting at Twentieth and O streets this evening, at which addresses will be delivered by Charles J. Jones, F. D. Ryan and L. T. Hatfield.

An Ample Fund of Pleasure and Health May be derived from an ocean voyage and foreign travel. But before one gets one's "sea legs" on, as the sailor says, the abominable quails, begotten of sea sickness, have usually to be gotten over. Delicate people suffer, of course, more than the robust from this ailment, but sea travel escapes a very agreeable and the frightful nausea it produces. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a reliable defense, and is so esteemed by tourists, commercial travelers, yachtsmen and mariners. An ailment akin to sea sickness often afflicts land travelers with weak stomachs. This is often brought on by the jarring of a railway train. Discomfort in the gastric region from this cause is always remedied by the Bitters, which also prevents and cures chills and fever, rheumatism, nervous and kidney trouble, constipation and biliousness.

Fifteen carloads of raisins and grapes and several carloads of wine and hops went East yesterday from here.

Planting the Standard.

All hail Columbus! Behold the great navigator as he lands. The perils of the deep are past. The clouds of fear have vanished. The night of gloom has ended. In the heavens the sun of success shines resplendent. Morning has dawned.

Imperiously the banner of haughty Spain greets the daylight. Upon its fluttering folds are inscribed the destinies of a new world. Its gleaming surface marks a long advance in the evolution of the human race. It tells a story of prophecy unparalleled, of development unapproached in the fullness of recorded time. It crowns with triumph the efforts of genius.

The World's Fair contained no finer statue of the great discoverer than this colossal figure. It commanded from its pedestal, the eastern entrance to the Administration building. The majesty of its dimensions, the vigor and aggressiveness of its expression and the artistic finish of its composition made it admired as a genuine sculptural triumph.

Another Standard Proudly Displayed at the Fair was that of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. A Standard of Excellence for Forty Years. It was the standard of unequalled strength, perfect purity and wholesome results. The award to Dr. Price's of highest honors at the Fair furnishes conclusive evidence of its superiority over all other baking powders.
